The departure of Trains will be delayed or otherwise, under special circumstances, at the discretion of the Commissioner.

Departure or Arrival not Guaranteed.

The Commissioner of Railways does not guarantee the departure or arrival of the Trains at the time stated, nor will the Department be responsible for delay or any consequence arising therefrom.

Periodical Ticket holders, when travelling by Train, will be required to produce their Tickets when called upon to do so by any of the Officers or Servants of the Commissioner of Railways. A Passenger holding a Periodical Ticket neglecting or refusing to produce or deliver it up for inspection, when so required, must pay the regular fare.

A Periodical Ticket is not transferable; and if any such Ticket be found in the possession of any person to whom it was not issued, who shall attempt to travel therewith, it shall be retained, and absolutely forfeited, unless it shall appear that the proper holder thereof had not connived at such improper use.

Note.—All Periodical Tickets are issued subject to any alteration which may be made in the Trains during their currency, and no allowance or compensation will be made to the holders on account of any alteration in the time, or reduction in number of Trains. No allowance or extension of time will be made on the ground of the holder of a Periodical Ticket having through sickness or disaster, or any other cause whatever, failed to use the ticket during the period or any part of the period for which it was issued.

Passengers' Tickets.

Any person (unless having a free pass) taking a seat at any Station where there is a Booking Office, or remaining in any carriage used on the Railway, as a passenger therein, without having first paid his fare, and obtained a ticket, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10 (See By-Law No. 1).
