Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 29th August, 1893.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers vested in him by "The Defence Forces Act, 1893," has been pleased to make the following Regulations for the Permanent Force, in addition to and in alteration of those already published.

S. H. PARKER,
Colonial Secretary.

Clothing.

Alteration in periods for issue of Clothing.

1. The existing system of issuing clothing being found to work in an unsatisfactory manner, the date of a man's enlistment will not in future be considered as the date from which issues are to count, but the 1st April and 1st October in each year will be made the date for the issue of new clothing.

Paragraph 6, Sub-sections c, d, and e of the Regulations published in the "Government Gazette" of 6th April, 1893, will be cancelled, and the following substituted:—

Division of clothing year.

(c.) The clothing year will be divided into two periods: the first counting from 1st February to the 31st July, both dates included, and the second from the 1st August to 31st January, both dates included.

Issues to be made on 1st April and 1st October in each year.

(d.) Issues of new clothing will be made on or as soon as possible after 1st April and 1st October in each of the above periods, and any soldier who joins or has joined within either of those periods will become entitled to new issues, in accordance with the scale laid down in these Regulations (Vide Table h.) on the 1st April or 1st October, according to the period he joined in.

2. To Paragraph 6 of Regulations published in "Government Gazette" of the 6th April, 1893, add in substitution of and after sub-heading e:—

Suit of White Drill.

(e.) Warrant Officers, Staff Sergeants, and Sergeants receive a suit of plain white drill, annually, instead of the blue guernsey and canvas trousers issued to the rank and file.

Boys' Uniform.

(f.) Boys are not supplied with cloth uniform (i.e. tunic and trousers). A new suit of serge will be issued to them at the periods of service laid down for the issue of cloth uniform for soldiers on men's service. On attaining the age of 18 years a soldier enlisted as a boy becomes entitled to cloth uniform, to be renewed biennially, under the same conditions as are laid down in sub-sec. (d) above; the date of his attaining this age being considered as the date of joining, for the purpose of fixing the periods of issue.

Issue to soldier on re-engagement.

(g.) On re-engagement a soldier is entitled to the same issue of clothing and kit for the rank he then holds as are laid down for a man on joining and after three months' service (vide sub-heads (a) and (b) and paragraph 10 Regulations in "Government Gazette," 6-4-93); to be issued on commencing his new period of service.

27. To enable a check to be kept on the issues of fuel and lighting material made to the Barracks, the following scales have been drawn up for the winter months, beginning 15th April, and ending 30th September in each year.

Fuel.

(a.) FUEL (WOOD).

Scale F.A., for barrack and recreation rooms, each 47lbs. daily.
Scale F.B., for kitchen, 178lbs. daily.
Scale F.C., for guard room, 44lbs. daily.

Light.

(b.) LIGHT (KEROSENE).

Scale L.A., for barrack and recreation rooms, each $1\frac{3}{4}$ pint, daily.
Scale L.B., for kitchen and guard room, each 1 pint daily.
Scale L.C., for sergeant's room, offices, passages, canteen, lavatory, and latrines, each $\frac{3}{4}$ pint daily.

Issue in bad weather.

(c.) The officer commanding will have the power to increase the issue of fuel under Scales F.A. and F.C. by not more than $\frac{1}{3}$ of the daily allowance, and to issue fuel according to scale during other than the winter months if, in his opinion, the inclemency of the weather necessitates it. He will send a copy of the order making the increase or issue to the Military Office, for the information of the Commandant.

Allowance for Kitchens.

(d.) The allowance of fuel for the kitchen will continue throughout the year.

Summer Allowances.

(e.) In the summer months the following will be allowance for lighting:—

Scale L.A.	1 pint.
Scale L.B.	$\frac{3}{4}$ do.
Scale L.C.	$\frac{1}{2}$ do.

Surplus.

(f.) If at the end of any month any surplus of fuel or lighting material is found to exist from what has been issued, the Commanding Officer may sanction its use for the good of the troops, but if there is no cause for its being used it shall be taken on charge again.

Fuel and Light Return.

(g.) The receipt and expenditure of fuel and lighting material will be accounted for on Military Form Q 11, which will be despatched to the Military Office on the first day of the month following the one it refers to.

Allowance in lieu of Rations to men on Furlough.

4. An allowance of One shilling per diem in lieu of rations shall be paid to any warrant officer, non-commissioned officer, and man on leave of absence, or furlough, whilst out of mess, but to become entitled to this allowance the leave of absence granted to the soldier must be more than two days. This rule does not apply to married soldiers who permanently draw the allowance in lieu of rations, as this last-named allowance would continue whilst on leave or furlough.

Leave of Absence.Leave season.

5. The furlough and leave season, during which periods of leave may be granted by the Commandant to officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the Permanent Force will begin on 1st November, and end on the last day of February in each year.

Periods of Leave of Absence.

6. The periods of leave are as follows:—

For officers, two months.

For warrant officers, non-commissioned officers, and men remaining within the Colony one month, or proceeding to one of the other colonies six weeks.

Short leave.

7. The officer commanding a unit can grant leave or absence as follows, without reference to the Commandant:—

To an officer, two days.

To any other soldier under his command, five days.

Leave a privilege.

8. It is to be expressly understood that all leave of absence is granted as a privilege, and that it must not be considered that any soldier is entitled to leave of absence at any time.

This privilege shall not be granted to men of bad character, and can be withheld if, in the opinion of the officer empowered to grant it, the exigencies of the Service or other reasons make such action necessary.

Soldier on long leave not to remain at Station.

9. No soldier to whom leave of absence over two days has been granted shall remain within the boundaries of the place where the Head Quarters of his corps are stationed and any soldier returning from leave of absence to reside within such boundaries will forfeit any unexpired portion of his leave of absence.

Soldiers on leave to have pass.

10. Warrant officers, non-commissioned officers, and men quitting their station on leave of absence will be furnished with a pass (Military Form G. 1) on which it will appear whether the wearing of plain clothes is permitted.
