CIRCULAR.

Downing Street,
10th March, 1894.

SIR,
I have recently received from the Governor of New South Wales a Despatch, enclosing for my favourable consideration, a copy of a letter from the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly suggesting that the Title of "Honourable" might be retained by Presidents of the Legislative Council and Speakers of the Legislative Assembly on quitting Office, after they have served three years in their respective Offices, as in the case of Executive Councillors.

I concur in the suggestion, and shall therefore be prepared in future to submit for the approval of the Queen the recommendation of the Governor of any Colony having responsible Government, that the President of the Legislative Council (if necessary), or the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly may, on quitting Office after three years service in their respective Offices, be permitted to retain the Title of Honourable.
