WESTERN AUSTRALIA, }
GENERAL. }

Downing Street,
29th May, 1895.

SIR,

With reference to Sir W. C. F. Robinson's Despatch No. 6 of the 16th January, I have the honour to transmit to you, for the information of your Government, copies of an Order of Her Majesty in Council applying certain provisions of the Patent, Designs, and Trade Marks Acts, 1883 to 1888, to Western Australia.

I have, &c.,
RIPON.

The Officer Administering the Government of Western Australia.

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR,
The 11th day of May, 1895.

Present:

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Lord President.	Speaker of the House of Commons.
Lord Chamberlain.	Mr. Arnold Morley.
Lord Kensington.

WHEREAS by the provisions of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Acts, 1883 to 1888, it is, amongst other things, provided—

That if Her Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the Government or Governments of any Foreign State or States for mutual protection of inventions, designs, and trade marks, or any of them, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design, or trade mark in any such State, shall be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design or trade mark (as the case may be) under the said Act, in priority to other applicants, and such patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in such Foreign State.

Provided that his application is made in the case of a patent within seven months, and in the case of a design or trade mark within four months from his applying for protection in the Foreign State with which the arrangement is in force.

Provided that nothing in the aforesaid provision contained shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the date of the actual acceptance of his complete specification, or the actual registration of his design or trade mark in this country as the case may be.

THE following Proclamation issued by the Government of Queensland is published for general information.

OCT. BURT,
Under Secretary.

A PROCLAMATION.

[L.S.] By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS By an Act passed in the thirtieth year of Her Majesty's Reign, and numbered 19, intituled the "Diseased Animals Act," it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation, to prohibit or put restrictions on the introduction or importation of cattle, horses, sheep, goats, pigs, poultry, and other animals, or of any one or more kind of animals into the Colony of Queensland, or into any district thereof, from such places and during such time as may appear necessary, and any such Proclamation to alter or revoke by a similar Proclamation: AND WHEREAS it is desirable to prevent the introduction of cattle suffering from tuberculosis and of horses suffering from glanders and farcy, which diseases are readily communicable from cattle and horses, respectively, to the human subject: AND WHEREAS tuberculin has been found to be an almost infallible diagnostic of tuberculosis, and mallein an equally effective diagnostic of glanders and farcy: Now THEREFORE I, Sir HENRY WYLLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, and by and with the advice of the

The publication in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man during the respective periods aforesaid of any description of the invention, or the use therein during such periods of the invention, or the exhibition or use therein during such periods of the design, or the publication therein during such periods of a description or representation of the design, or the use therein during such periods of the trade mark, shall not invalidate the patent which may be granted for the invention or the registration of the design or trade mark.

The application for the grant of a patent or the registration of a design or the registration of a trade mark under the said provisions must be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under the said Act: Provided that in the case of trade marks any trade mark the registration of which has been duly applied for in the country of origin may be registered under the said Act.

And it is further provided—

That where it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the Legislature of any British possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions, designs, and trade marks patented or registered in this country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to apply the provisions first recited with such variations or additions, if any, as to Her Majesty in Council may seem fit to such British possession.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Empress of India that the Legislature of the Colony of Western Australia has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions, designs, and trade marks patented or registered in this country.

Now, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said Acts, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, that the provisions of the said Acts hereinbefore specified shall apply to the Colony of Western Australia.

And it is further ordered and declared that this Order shall take effect, so far as regards patents, at the expiration of seven months, and so far as regards designs and trade marks at the expiration of four months from the date of this Order.
