Bonus for Deep Sinking, Kimberley Goldfield.

*Department of Mines,
Perth, 6th August, 1896.*

NOTICE is hereby given that the Government has decided to extend the time for offering a Bonus to the 31st March, 1897, during which period any person or company who shall sink on the Kimberley Goldfield a Shaft as hereinafter mentioned, and according to the following conditions, from a depth previously attained of not less than 100 feet:

For a shaft to be sunk from below the depth of 100 feet to a depth of 200 feet, @ £4 per foot.

For a shaft to be sunk from below the depth of 200 feet to a depth of 300 feet, @ £6 per foot.

CONDITIONS.

Each shaft to be vertical throughout, with a superficial area of not less than 27 feet in the clear when completed, and a minimum width of not less than 3 feet, to be sunk and timbered where necessary, to the satisfaction of the Warden or his Deputy.

Provided, that if any shaft has been already sunk of a less superficial area than 27 feet, the bonus shall be paid in proportion; but in no case shall any bonus be paid for a shaft having a less area than 20 feet, or less than 3 feet in width.

All measurements of depth to be taken from the surface of the ground.

Payments will be made monthly as the work progresses. No payments will be made for less than 10 feet, and all work shall be measured and passed by the Warden or his Deputy before payment, and the decision of the Warden or his Deputy shall be final.

No payment will be made in respect of the first 100 feet from the surface.

With regard to existing shafts, no payment will be made in respect of work done before the date hereof.

Any person intending to deepen any existing shaft of or exceeding the depth of 100 feet shall give notice in writing to the Warden or his Deputy of the depth of the said shaft, and of his intention to deepen the same.

The Warden or his Deputy shall ascertain and certify the depth of such shaft, and payment shall be made only in respect of the work done beyond the depth certified by the Warden or his Deputy.

Any person intending to sink a new shaft with the intention of claiming a bonus shall give notice to the Warden in writing of such intention before the commencement of the work, or before the shaft is down 100 feet.

No company or person shall receive assistance for more than one shaft on the same mining property.

E. H. WITTENOOM,
Minister of Mines.

BY-LAW No. 27.—Private Hospitals.

Any person who shall establish or carry on within this Municipality, without first obtaining a license from this Board, any private hospital for fevers and contagious diseases, shall be guilty of an offence.

- a. Owners or licensees of private hospitals must obtain a license annually, on or before the 1st January in each year, from this Board.
- b. The drainage, good management, and sanitary affairs must be carried out to the satisfaction of the Medical Health Officer and Health Inspector.
- c. The licensee must keep a proper register of the registration of all cases admitted into or treated in any such hospital, and any officer, Inspector, or servant of this Board may inspect such register at any time.
- d. No case of smallpox or other contagious disease will be allowed in such hospital.
- e. The Board will regulate the number of patients to be admitted.
- f. The license fee shall be 5s.
- g. Nurses and assistants' qualifications must be approved of by this Board before they assist in any hospital.
- h. "Private hospital" shall mean and include all houses, buildings, or places, or structures, whether permanent or otherwise, in which persons are received and lodged for medical or surgical treatment or care, but shall not include institutions maintained by the Government or controlled by a Board appointed under "The Hospitals Act, 1894."
- i. Licensees must provide suitable separate accommodation for patients suffering from any fever or infectious or contagious disease.
- j. Any person intending to apply to this Board for consent to establish a private hospital within this Municipality must publish in two newspapers circulating in this Municipality for one calendar month, and if any ratepayer or resident objects to such hospital he may state such objection to this Board.

Any person offending against this By-law, and not complying with the preceding sections, shall, upon conviction, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding £5.

NOTICE.

The Companies Act, 1893.

(56 Vic., No. 8).

ATTENTION is hereby drawn to the following Sections of the above Act relating to the making of Yearly List of Members, &c.

F. A. MOSELEY,
Registrar of Companies.

Supreme Court,
Perth, 15-4-96.

Yearly list of members. Imp. Act, 1862, s. 26.

30. Every company having a capital divided into shares, shall make once in every year a list of all persons who, on the thirty-first day of March then next preceding, are members of the company; and such list shall contain the names, and addresses, and occupations, if any, of all the members therein mentioned, the number of shares held by each of them, and a summary specifying the following particulars—

- (1.) The amount of the capital of the company, and the number of shares into which it is divided
- (2.) The number of shares taken from the commencement of the company up to the said thirty first day of March :
- (3.) The amount of calls made on each share :
- (4.) The total amount of calls received :
- (5.) The total amount of calls unpaid :
- (6.) The total amount of shares forfeited :
- (7.) The names, and addresses, and occupations, if any, of the persons who have ceased to be members since the thirty-first day of March next preceding the completion of the last list, and the number of shares held by each of them on the same thirty-first day of March.

The above list and summary shall be contained in a separate part of the register and shall be completed within seven days after the said first-mentioned thirty-first day of March, and a copy shall forthwith be forwarded to the Registrar. Provided that this section shall not apply to a no-liability company.

Penalty on company not keeping a proper register. Imp. Act 1862, s. 27.

31. If any company having a capital divided into shares make default in complying with the provisions of the last preceding section, such company shall incur a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every day during which such default continues; and every director, manager, and secretary of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits any such default shall incur a like penalty.

NOTE.—A fee of five shillings is payable on filing the above return.

NOTICE.

The Companies Act, 1893.

(56 Vic., No. 8.)

ATTENTION is hereby drawn to the following Sections of Part VIII. of the above Act, relating to Foreign Companies.
