Notice published stating that passengers from Colonial Ports must supply themselves with Permits from the Colonial Secretary or some Officer appointed by the Colonial Government, who will satisfy himself, as far as possible, that applicants fulfil the above conditions. Specimen copies of permit and of notice, summarised above, are being sent to you by mail. Permits are available only to enable passengers to land in South Africa, and are no guarantee that they will be allowed to proceed inland. Two copies of each permit issued will be retained, one for record in the office of issue, and the second to be despatched by earliest opportunity to officer at port to which the passenger is proceeding, namely, The Embarkation Officer, Capetown; The Commandant, Port Elizabeth; The Commandant, East London; and The Embarkation Officer, Durban.

His Majesty's Government feel sure that they may confidently rely on the special assistance of your Government in this matter, as all the authorities in South Africa are agreed that this measure is necessary to prevent undesirable persons from entering South Africa at the present time.

Persons proceeding from Foreign ports are being notified that they should obtain permits through the British Consular Officers.
