ADDITIONAL REGULATION.

Department of Mines,
Perth, 30th October, 1902.

4302

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, under the powers conferred upon him by "The Mineral Lands Act Amendment Act, 1899" (63 Vict., No. 48), has been pleased to make the following new Regulation (No. 161a), and Schedule No. 36, to come into force on the 1st day of November, 1902.

H. GREGORY,
Minister for Mines.

DIVISION X.—PROSPECTING AREAS FOR COAL AND OIL.

161a. (1). Within twenty-one days after the expiration of every alternate month after the registration of any such prospecting area, the registered holder, or some person duly appointed for the purpose on his behalf, shall forward to the Registrar a return in duplicate in the form of Schedule 36 hereto annexed, showing the nature of and the actual amount of work which shall have been performed on or in connection with such prospecting area, and the number of men employed thereon during the period covered by such return. Any person neglecting or refusing to forward such return shall be guilty of a breach of the regulations, and shall be liable to penalties provided by Regulation 146.

(2). Should it at any time appear to the Registrar from an examination of such return or otherwise that bona fide prospecting is not being done on any prospecting area, he may proceed to forfeit the area in the manner prescribed by Regulation 100.

2. For shoeing police horses at the above-mentioned stations.

3. For the supply of bedding to the above stations, and the removal of manure therefrom.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender, and reserves to itself the right of accepting a portion of a tender.

The whole of the supplies to be of unexceptionable quality, and subject to approval on delivery.

The quantities of forage stated above can only be taken as approximate quantities, and the Commissioner of Police or his officers may demand supplies over and above the quantities shown.

In the case of Forage tenders a cheque, marked good by a banker, for a deposit equal to 5 per cent. of the sum estimated to be paid under each contract must accompany the tender. The minimum amount required to be deposited in respect of any contract must not be less than £5.

In regard to Shoeing and Bedding, the tenders must bear the signature of two approved sureties, who will be bound for the due and faithful performance of the contract under a penalty of one-fourth of the estimated amount to be paid under each contract.

Forms of tender, with conditions of contract, may be had on application at the Office of the Commissioner of Police and at any Police Station throughout the State.

No tender will be entertained unless rendered on the prescribed form.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.
