GOD SAVE THE KING!

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March, 1904.

PRESENT:

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Lord President	Sir William Walbrod
Earl of Kintore	Sir Dighton Probyn.
Mr. Charles Hardinge

WHEREAS by section 18 of the Extradition Act 1870, it is among other things enacted that, if by any law or ordinance made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British Possession, His Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such law or ordinance continues in force there and no longer;

Or direct that such law or ordinance, or any part thereof, shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act:

And whereas by certain Orders of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that certain Acts respectively enacted by the Legislatures of the Colonies of South Australia, Western Australia, Queensland, Tasmania, and Victoria should have effect in the said Colonies respectively, without modification or alteration, as if they were part of the Extradition Act 1870:

And whereas on the 1st day of January, 1901, the Commonwealth of Australia was established under the provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the sixty-third and sixty-fourth years of Her late Majesty's reign, shortly entitled The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act, and each of the said Colonies is now a State forming part of the Commonwealth established as aforesaid:

And whereas the Parliament of the Commonwealth is empowered, under the provisions of the said Act, to make laws for the peace, order, and good Government of the Commonwealth with respect to (inter alia) the influx of criminals and external affairs:

And whereas the Commonwealth is a "British Possession" within the meaning of section 26 of the Extradition Act 1870:

And whereas by an Act enacted by the Parliament of the Commonwealth, the short title of which is the Extradition Act 1903, and the provisions of which are fully set forth in the First Schedule appended to this Order, provision has been made for carrying into effect within the Commonwealth the surrender of fugitive criminals who are therein or suspected of being therein:

And whereas it is provided by the said Act that the said Act shall commence on the day on which the Governor-General makes known by Proclamation that His Majesty has by Order in Council directed that the said Act, or any part thereof, shall have effect in the Commonwealth as if it were part of the Extradition Act 1870:

Now therefore His Majesty, in pursuance of the Extradition Act 1870, and in exercise of the powers in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, direct as follows:—

1. The Commonwealth Extradition Act 1903 shall have effect in the Commonwealth of Australia, without modification or alteration, as if it were part of the Extradition Act 1870.
2. The Orders of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council enumerated in the second Schedule appended hereto are revoked as and from the commencement of the said Act.

A. W. FITZROY.

And whereas by that Imperial Act it is also enacted that if, by any law made by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within that possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, that possession, the King may by Order in Council direct that such law, or any part thereof, shall have effect in that possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of that Imperial Act:

And whereas by other Imperial Acts known as the Extradition Act 1873 and the Extradition Act 1895, it is enacted that those Acts shall be construed as one with the Extradition Act 1870, and that the three Acts may be cited together as the Extradition Acts 1870 to 1895:

3. In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears, terms defined in the Extradition Acts 1870 to 1895 have the same meaning as in those Acts.

EXTRADITION FROM THE COMMONWEALTH.

4. All powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a Secretary of State, under the Extradition Acts 1870 to 1895, in relation to the surrender of a fugitive criminal, are hereby vested in, and may in the Commonwealth be exercised and done by, the Governor-General, and may in any part of the Commonwealth be exercised and done by any deputy of the Governor-General thereto authorised.

5. All powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a police magistrate or any justice of the peace under the Extradition Acts 1870 to 1895, in relation to the surrender of a fugitive criminal, are hereby vested in, and may in the Commonwealth be exercised and done by, any stipendiary or police or special magistrate of the Commonwealth or of a State, or any magistrate of a State thereto specially authorised by the Governor-General.

EXTRADITION FROM FOREIGN STATES.

Where the Extradition Act 1870 applies in the case of any foreign State, a requisition for the surrender of a person, accused or convicted of an extradition crime in the Commonwealth, who is or is suspected to be in that foreign State, may be made by the Attorney-General to a Consular Officer of that State in the Commonwealth, or to any Minister of that State through the Diplomatic Representative of His Majesty in that State, or in such other mode as is settled by arrangement.

7. Any person accused or convicted of an extradition crime, who is surrendered by a foreign State, may, under the warrant for his surrender issued in the foreign State, be brought into the Commonwealth and delivered to the proper authorities to be dealt with according to law.
