No. 3.—P.O.

Premier's Office,
Perth, 22nd September, 1904.

C.S.O. ⁴⁵⁴/₁₉₀₄

THE following Circular Despatch, received by His Excellency the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for general information.

A. COLENZO KESSELL,
Clerk to the Premier.

Downing Street,
9th August, 1904.

Sir,

With reference to my Circular despatch of the 12th of February last, respecting the rules for the observance of the duties of Neutrality during the existing state of war between Russia and Japan, I have the honour to inform you that I have this day caused a telegram to be despatched to you, of which the following is the decode:—

“My telegram of 10th February, rules for observance of neutrality, published in the London Gazette of 11th February, lay down in Rule 3 to what extent coal might be supplied to belligerent warships in British ports during the present war. It must be, however, borne in mind that reason for practice of admitting belligerent vessels of war into neutral ports arises out of exigencies of life at sea and the hospitality which it is customary to extend to vessels of friendly Powers, and that this principle does not extend to enabling such vessels to utilise neutral ports directly for purposes of hostile operations. His Majesty's Government have decided that rule above-mentioned is not to be understood as having any application to case of belligerent fleet proceeding either to the seat of war or to a position or positions on the line of route with the object of intercepting neutral ships on suspicion of carrying contraband of war. Such fleet cannot be permitted to make use in any way of a British port for purposes of coaling, either directly from the shore or from colliers accompanying fleet whether vessels of the fleet present themselves at the port at the same time or successively.

His Majesty's Government further direct that the same practice be pursued with reference to single belligerent vessels of war if it is clear that they are proceeding for purposes of belligerent operations, as above defined. This is not to be applied to the case of vessel putting in on account of actual distress at sea.”

I have, etc.,

ALFRED LYTTLETON.

the Government of Western Australia.
