RESIGNATIONS AND RETIREMENTS.

- (a.) No permanent officer shall leave the Department until the expiration of one calendar month's notice, in writing. Excepting in cases of summary dismissal, one calendar month's notice, in writing (dating from the day on which such notice is given), will be given by the Department in case of those permanent officers whose services are no longer required.
- (b.) Before leaving the Department, each officer shall hand to his successor, or to his next superior officer, all the property of the Commissioner entrusted to his care.
- (c.) An officer who resigns, or who is dismissed, shall not be re-employed in the Department except with the approval of the Commissioner.

REDUCTION IN THE STAFF.

- (d.) Whenever the Commissioner considers it is necessary to reduce the number of the Staff, the following shall be the course adopted with regard to the re-employment of retrenched officers, viz. :—
- (e.) The name and address of each officer shall be registered. As vacancies occur, each shall, in order of seniority of service, all other things being equal, have the offer of re-employment in any position in the Department for which he is qualified.
- (f.) An officer having left the Department on account of retrenchment, and being re-employed within twelve months, may, with the approval of the Commissioner, be credited with the period of former service, but the salary at which the re-employment is made shall be the starting factor for future advancement.
- (g.) An officer, who has reached the age of 60 years, may be called upon to retire, and the Commissioner shall decide whether any such officer having reached this age shall continue in the Department.

CLASSIFICATION.

- (a.) On the first day of September, 1905, the Commissioner shall cause all officers then in the service of the Department to be classified according to the classification set forth in the schedule embodied in these Regulations: Provided that such classification shall not tend to diminish the salary any officer is in receipt of on the first day of July, 1905, the date from which the classification will operate.
- (b.) A list of the officers, showing their respective positions in the classification, shall be prepared, and shall be available to each salaried officer, and such list shall remain open for 30 days after the date of issue. Should an officer be dissatisfied with his position on the classification or rate of salary assigned, he may appeal through his superior officer to the Commissioner, whose decision shall be final. The lists will be closed at the expiration of the 30 days, and amended if necessary, and will thenceforth form the basis of operation of the classification.

- (c.) The Staff shall be divided into classes, and each class shall be subdivided as set forth in the following schedule, and the rate of salary of an officer in the subdivision of any such class shall be that assigned to such subdivision :—

- (e.) Each cadet in the eighth class, who, in the second year of cadetship, obtains a certificate from an examiner appointed by the Department as being able to write 80 words per minute in Pitman's system of shorthand, may be allowed to count three months' service for such certificate; and each cadet, who, in the third year, obtains a similar certificate for 120 words per minute, may be allowed to count an additional three months (making six months in all), and the date of promotion shall be arranged accordingly.
- (f.) All new appointments shall be made to the first subdivision of the eighth class, provided always that the Commissioner may employ any person of known skill and ability.
- (g.) Each officer of the seventh and eighth classes shall be entitled to annual increments, subdivision to subdivision, up to a maximum of £150 per annum, provided always that such advances are conditional on efficiency of the officer concerned. "Efficiency" in this clause shall mean special qualifications and aptitude for the discharge of the duties of the office to be filled, together with merit and good and diligent conduct.
- (h.) The granting of an increment to any other officer shall be by merit, and upon the value of work performed.
- (i.) No officer shall be advanced within a class, except by promotion, from one subdivision to the next higher subdivision, nor until he has been at least twelve months in the subdivision from which it is proposed to advance him, but in special cases advancement may be authorised by the Commissioner.
- (j.) Should the exigencies of the Department's finances require it, a general suspension of the classification advances may be made.

VACANCIES.

When a vacancy occurs in any branch, a list of the officers eligible shall be made in the order of seniority of service, and should the head of the branch recommend a junior officer for the position, there shall accompany such recommendation the reasons for passing over the senior officer. The decision of the Commissioner shall be final.

PROMOTION.

Promotion shall be made according to merit and seniority, and shall be determined by the Commissioner.

On the promotion of an officer, he shall, as a rule, be paid the minimum rate of pay assigned to the class to which he is promoted, being, however, in no case less than the rate of pay he was receiving at the time of promotion.

Examinations shall be made from time to time as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

An officer desiring to be passed over in the event of promotion being offered shall, if his request be acceded, forfeit his right to future promotion; but if good and sufficient reasons have been given to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, he may restore such right.

No officer shall refuse compliance with any order directing his transfer from one position to another.

GENERAL.

- (a.) Should an officer be transferred from another branch of the Government service to the Railway Department, such transfer shall not carry with it any rights or privileges contrary to, or in conflict with, the Regulations of the Railway Department.
- (b.) Nothing in these Regulations shall be held to confer on an officer any right or title under regulations which may have existed prior to the date of the issue of these Regulations.
- (c.) No officer, unless authorised, shall incur liability or enter into any contract on behalf of the Department, or alter the terms or conditions of any contract.
- (d.) In the matter of accounts and the collection and remittance and payment of public moneys, each officer is enjoined to conform strictly to "The Audit Act, 1904," and such regulations and instructions as may be issued from time to time.
- (e.) A son of an officer shall not be engaged in any office or at any station under his father after he attains the age of 21.
- (f.) All officers who have served three years on the goldfields shall be considered for a transfer to the coast as vacancies occur.
- (g.) An officer not employed on the relief staff, required to temporarily carry out the duties of a higher position, shall, subject to the approval of the Commissioner, receive the minimum salary attached to such higher position, provided that such increase shall not commence until the officer relieved is on half pay.

(h.) In the event of any question arising as to the meaning of these Regulations or any part thereof, or as to anything done or alleged to have been done thereunto, or contrary thereto, it shall be referred to the Commissioner, whose decision shall be final.

(i.) All regulations and instructions in force at the coming into operation of these Regulations are, in so far as they are in conflict with these Regulations, hereby revoked.
