FREMANTLE HOSPITAL.

*Rules and Regulations.*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 6th December, 1907.

C.S.O. 1882/07.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following amended Rules and Regulations made by the Fremantle Hospital Board on the 29th March, 1907.

F. D. NORTH,
Under Secretary.

Whereas under the provisions of "The Hospitals Act, 1894" (58 Vict., 20), a Board of Management was duly appointed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, for the Fremantle Public Hospital: And whereas the said Board have, under the provisions of the said Act, power to make and revoke By-laws and Regulations as therein mentioned: Now therefore the said Board, with the approval of the Governor, do make the following Rules and Regulations, that is to say:—

Proceedings of the Board.

1. The Board of Management shall meet at the hospital on the last Friday of the month at 4.30 p.m., or at such other day, place, or hour as may be fixed at any meeting of the Board; five members to form a quorum.

2. If a quorum be not present at fifteen minutes after the hour appointed for the meeting, those present may fix a day and hour to which the Board meeting shall stand adjourned, otherwise the meeting shall stand adjourned to the next day of meeting.

3. A Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall be elected annually by the Board, at the last meeting of the Board in the month of January in every year, and if neither be present at the time a meeting is constituted, any other member may be chosen to act as Chairman of such meeting by a majority of the members then present. The Chairman shall have a casting vote only. The Chairman shall sign all important correspondence, and shall be the medium of communication between the Board and the Government. He shall be empowered to explain any resolutions arrived at by the Board, and to give advice and instructions to the officials of the Hospital between the meetings of the Board or House Committee. A vacancy occurring in the office of Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be filled up at the next meeting of the Board after such vacancy has been declared, previous notice being given in the circulars convening the meeting. The Vice-Chairman shall act as Chairman during the absence of the Chairman.

4. At every meeting the minutes of the previous meeting of the Board shall be read and, if approved, confirmed, and the business proceeded with in the following order:—

- I. Business arising from the minutes read.
- II. Business arising out of correspondence and reports.
- III. Business of which notice has been given, and other such business as may require immediate attention.

5. At all meetings voting shall be by show of hands, unless in any case a ballot be called for by any three members present: Provided that the election of a Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be by ballot only.

6. Special meetings may be convened at any time on 48 hours' written notice to the members, either at the request of the Chairman or of any three members of the Board.

7. No resolution arrived at, or act, matter, or thing done or authorised by or at any meeting shall be rescinded or amended at any subsequent meeting unless notice of such intended rescission or amendment be given in the notice convening the meeting at which such rescission or amendment is proposed.

8. The conduct of every meeting shall be in the hands of the Chairman, whose decision on all points of order or as to procedure shall be final.

9. The Board may, from time to time, appoint a sub-committee or sub-committees of any number, with such powers, rights, and privileges, and subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Board may at such appointment or thereafter determine.

10. The Board shall have power to recover at law payment from any patient who in their belief is capable of paying.

Votes of Contributors and Conduct of Elections of Members of the Board.

11. Every annual contributor of £1, or a life contributor of £10, shall have one vote. Every annual contributor of £5, or a life contributor of £30, shall have two votes. Every annual contributor of £10 and upwards, or a life contributor of £100 and upwards, shall have three votes.

12. The annual meeting of the contributors to the Hospital shall take place on the first Friday in January of every year, when the election of members of the Board shall take place.

13. The proposer of each candidate may act as scrutineer.

14. Any person proposing a candidate shall produce such candidate's written consent to serve if elected.

15. The poll shall be taken by receipt of papers, per post or otherwise, containing the names of the candidates voted for, and the signature of the contributor voting. Any voter may vote for any one or more of the candidates.

16. The Secretary, in conjunction with the scrutineer of each candidate shall take charge of the voting papers, and at the close of the poll shall draw up a minute of the result, which, when countersigned by the Chairman, shall be entered in the minute book, and shall not be subject to any after dispute or inquiry, except as next mentioned.

17. If the validity of any election is disputed, all questions in dispute shall, within seven days of the election, be referred to and settled by the remaining members of the Board, or, in case of the first election, by the Colonial Secretary.

18. Special meetings can be called by the Chairman or any three members of the Board. Due notice must be given of all elections.

19. The last preceding eight rules shall not come into force until the provisions of Section 5 of the said Act have been complied with.

Admission and Discharge of Patients.

20. Every contributor of £1 annually shall have the privilege of recommending one in-door patient; of £5 annually, three in-door patients; and of £10 annually shall have the privilege of always having one patient in the Hospital. Life contributors shall have the same privilege in proportion; their donations being estimated as annual contributions of one-tenth. It is to be distinctly understood that these recommendations are only to be given to persons on account of their poverty, and who are proper subjects for Hospital treatment in the opinion of the House Surgeon.

21. Except in urgent cases applicants for admission to the Hospital who desire to be attended free of charge shall make a statutory declaration, in the form provided for that purpose, that they are unable to pay for medical attendance. Any person making a false declaration will be liable to prosecution for perjury, and also to be proceeded against under Section 66, Sub-section 2, of "The Police Act, 1892."

22. Except in cases of poverty every patient entering the Hospital, shall be liable to pay 3s. per day for his maintenance and shall, as soon as possible after his admission, sign a written agreement to pay such charge. The House Surgeon shall be at liberty (whether such agreement be signed or not) to deduct the amount due by any patient for maintenance, from any money belonging to the patient in the hands of the Board.

23. Every legally qualified medical practitioner and every member of the Board of Management may likewise recommend patients for admission. Severe accidents and cases of emergency may be admitted at all times.

24. The House Surgeon shall not, nor shall any other person, admit as an in-patient—except in urgent cases—

- I. Any pregnant female for the purpose of confinement.
- II. Any person suffering from an incurable disease.
- III. Any person who has disorders for the cure of which other establishments are provided, as lunatics, etc.
- IV. Any person who, requiring food, and not medicine, is more properly an object for a benevolent institution.
- V. Any person whose admission might endanger the other patients.
- VI. Any infant on account of the condition of the mother alone.

Provided that any case recommended by a medical officer may be admitted, whether such case be or be not within the above terms, but the House Surgeon shall forthwith report any such admission to the Chairman.

25. The proper hours for patients to present their recommendations for treatment or admission to the Hospital shall be 9 a.m. except in cases of emergency or accident, and such like.

26. No patient shall be discharged from the Hospital without the consent of the Medical Officer in charge of the case, except when ordered by the Board, or in cases of misconduct.

27. Any case suitable for admission may be admitted by the House Surgeon at any time.

Moral and Religious Instruction.

28. Patients are at liberty to receive the visits of Ministers of, or members of any sisterhood in connection with, the religious denominations to which they respectively belong, and the professed religion of every patient shall be entered in the admission book on admission; ministers, and such other persons, as aforesaid, however, will not be allowed to remain in the wards (except in cases of the greatest emergency) during the professional visits of the medical officers; and they shall retire from the ward during such time as may be necessary for the Medical Officers to discharge their duties. It is also to be insisted upon that ministers of religion and such other persons, as aforesaid, visiting the Hospitals for the purpose of administering religious instruction to the patients, shall visit the patients of their denomination only, and shall so conduct their services as not to interfere with the repose and quiet of other patients in the near vicinity.

29. Any patient wishing any particular minister, sister, or friend to give religious counsel in case of dangerous illness, or apprehension of the approach of death, may signify the same to the nurse, who shall at once communicate with the House Surgeon or with the Secretary, who shall obtain the presence and services of the minister, sister, or person required, if possible.

30. It is not allowable to conduct public religious services in the sick wards of the Hospital.

31. A room in the Hospital shall, when practicable, be available for public worship among the convalescents of each religious persuasion.

Visitors.

32. Visitors, not exceeding two at any one time or on any one day, unless prohibited by the House Surgeon will be admitted to the wards to visit patients on Wednesdays and Sundays, between the hours of two and four p.m., and shall leave the wards punctually at the latter hour. A bell will be rung five minutes before the hour for departure. Exceptions to the above rule will only be allowed by special permission of the House Surgeon or, in his absence, the Secretary, in favour of near relations or friends of patients in a dangerous state, or to persons residing at long distances and who may be otherwise unable to visit their friends at the regular visiting hours. Visitors are strictly forbidden to introduce food, drink, or refreshment of any kind whatever, without the sanction of the House Surgeon, and to ensure the perfect observance of this rule, all parcels, etc., must be opened in the presence of the nurse on duty in the ward. Visitors must remain at the bedside of the patient they are visiting. Children in arms will not be admitted. Any person found on the Hospital premises without special permission, at other times than those set apart for the reception of visitors, is liable to be prosecuted in terms of Clause 16 of "The Hospitals Act, 1894."

33. Any visitor violating any of the Regulations of the Hospital, or behaving with impropriety, shall be compelled to retire; and will not be re-admitted without special leave from the House Surgeon, and shall render himself liable to prosecution under terms of Clause 16 of "The Hospitals Act, 1894."

Maintenance of Order and Discipline.

34. Patients, when able, and when so desired, shall help the nurses in the needful duties of the wards, and shall attend upon other patients whose weakness and wants are greater than their own, and do such light work as the House Surgeon may direct.

35. Patients admitted suffering from syphilitic or venereal disease must (if required) sign an engagement to remain until discharged by the medical officer in charge of the case, and the infraction of this rule will prevent the patient being admitted at any future time. Patients in the ward in which such cases are treated are not allowed to receive visitors, except by permission of the House Surgeon.

36. Any patient found gambling or using profane or indecent language, or being intoxicated, or committing any breach of any Rule or By-law or any order of the Board or of any Medical Officer, or refusing to obey any request as by the last preceding Rule mentioned, shall be liable to instant dismissal by the House Surgeon, who may exercise that power, and afterwards report the case to the House Committee. The House Surgeon shall at the same time inform such patient of the day of the next meeting of the Committee.

37. Patients are not allowed to leave the precincts of the Hospital without the special permission of the House Surgeon, given by "pass," which must be left with the porter; and all parcels brought back by patients on their return shall be examined by the nurse.

38. Patients are to take their meals at the ward table, except in cases of necessity. They are to keep their beds neat and tidy, the bedclothes properly arranged, and attend scrupulously to personal cleanliness. They shall also observe a quiet and respectful demeanour towards the officers of the Hospital, the nurses, and each other. Any patient having cause of complaint shall submit the same to the House Surgeon, or Matron, or to a member of the House Committee.

39. On the admission of any patient into the Hospital, his address and that of his immediate relatives, and the name of the professed religion of the patient, shall be taken by the Secretary. The effects of the patient shall be taken charge of by the nurse, who shall hand them to the custody of the Matron; but it must be distinctly understood that, though the Board give positive instructions that every care shall be taken of effects so given in charge, they will not be responsible for any loss or deficiency arising from errors of quantity or description, or from any other cause whatever.

40. On no account shall any officer, servant, or patient be allowed to keep a dog within the precincts of the Hospital.

41. Patients shall observe all Rules, By-laws, or Orders made from time to time by the Board.

42. Smoking will not be allowed in the Hospital wards.

House Committee.

43. The Board shall elect a House Committee, which shall consist of the Chairman of the Board, as an ex-officio member, and three others, to be elected annually.

44. The Committee shall meet at the Hospital at least once a week; two members to form a quorum, but with power to one member, if no more be present, to inspect the Hospital, and convene another meeting at such time as may appear to him needful to consider any matter requiring immediate attention.

45. The Committee shall regulate the several departments of the Hospital in accordance with the Regulations or any By-laws or Directions of the Board, and more particularly in reference to all sanitary affairs, and shall take immediate steps to rectify any defects that may require prompt attention, subject in all cases to the same being reported to the Board.

46. The Committee may suspend, upon sufficient cause, any salaried officer or servant other than the House Surgeon, until the decision of the Board can be obtained; with power in the meantime to employ some other properly qualified person to officiate in the place of the officer or servant so suspended.

47. The Committee may order any repairs or alterations which they consider require immediate attention.

48. The Committee shall hear all complaints that may be made by patients, officers, or servants, and take such action as they may deem necessary in the matter, until the decision of the Board can be obtained, and shall see that the various duties are performed by all the salaried officers and servants of the Hospital.

49. The Committee shall keep a book recording the visits of the members, and also all matters dealt with by them at their meetings.

50. The Committee shall examine and submit all accounts of the Board, but may pay any account of less than £5 which requires immediate payment.

51. The Committee may nominate all necessary officers or servants whose nominations are not required to be made by the Board, and may fix the remuneration and term of service.

52. The members of the Committee may hold office for one year only, and be appointed at the last meeting of the Board held in January in each year. The Board may remove any member of the Committee, and fill any vacancy caused by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise.

53. The Board may, at any time, enlarge, add to, modify, rescind, or restrict any or all of the powers or duties of the Committee, or any orders given, or acts done by the Committee.

Publication of Accounts.

54. Immediately after the second Friday in each year, the Secretary shall prepare and cause to be published in the Government Gazette, and to be forwarded by circular to all contributors, a statement of account, to be countersigned by the Chairman by order of the Board, showing:—

- I. The amount of annual contributions, including 10 per cent. of all life contributors' donations.
- II. The average annual expenditure of the Hospital for the three preceding years.
- III. The number of elected members of the Board to be chosen by the contributors.
- IV. The number of attendances during the year of each member of the Board of Management.

Medical Staff.

55. The Medical Staff of the Hospital shall be nominated by the Board, and shall consist of five medical officers, and a House Surgeon, and in case of a vacancy occurring on the staff, a six months' residence in the State will be necessary before a candidate can be eligible for election, unless by the unanimous wish of the Board.

56. All nominations for vacancies occurring in the staff shall be made by the Board at a subsequent meeting to that at which the vacancy is declared.

57. Medical officers shall take cases in fixed rotation until their beds are filled.

58. The Board may nominate for appointment, as Honorary Consultant, any member of the medical profession who is the principal Medical Officer of the Government for the time being, or who has heretofore held, or may hereafter hold, office as a Medical Officer to the Hospital for a period of five years. Such consultant shall attend at the Hospital when summoned for consultations or operations.

59. The Medical Staff shall hold office during the pleasure of the Board.

Rules of the Medical Staff.

60. It shall be the duty of the Staff to professionally attend all in-patients placed in their respective beds.

61. No patient who has been in the Hospital under the treatment of one of the Staff shall be placed in the bed of another for treatment for the same disease, except by mutual arrangement.

62. Each member of the Staff shall visit his wards at least twice a week, and shall, as far as possible, adhere to the appointed days and hours.

63. The days and hours of attendance of the Medical Officers shall be decided upon at a meeting of the Officers, held every year in the month of March, and the days and hours shall be selected by the Officers according to seniority.

64. During the absence of any member of the Staff for more than fourteen days, he shall arrange for his duties to be carried out by a duly qualified substitute whose nomination shall be subject to the approval of the House Committee and confirmation by the Board.

65. Any member of the Staff present in the Hospital shall attend any emergency case.

66. The Staff respectively, or, subject to their control, the House Surgeon, shall, from time to time, order in writing on the diet card the particular diet to be supplied to each patient, and no diet except what is ordered on the diet card shall be issued.

67. When a consultation is called, or an operation about to be performed, the House Surgeon shall instruct the Secretary to send notices of the same to the members of the Medical Staff and to the Medical Members of the Board.

68. No important operation shall be performed without the previous consent of the patient, if in a position to give it, nor without a consultation by the Staff.

The result of each consultation shall be entered in the Consultation Book, to which all the officers present shall attach their signatures.

69. There shall be a book called the "Medical Officers' Attendance Book," which shall show the actual attendance of each Medical Officer.

70. The Honorary Dental Surgeon shall attend at the Hospital for services, at a time to be fixed by the Board.

House Surgeon.

71. The House Surgeon shall be appointed by the Governor, on the recommendation of the Board, and be a duly qualified practitioner, resident in the Hospital, and unmarried, and shall be Resident Head of the Hospital.

72. He shall devote his entire time to the service of the Hospital, and shall not engage in private practice.

73. He shall be responsible for the general supervision of the Hospital, and shall have the entire control of all patients and of all salaried officers and servants of the Hospital.

74. He shall have power to suspend any officer or servant, subject to immediate report to the Chairman of the House Committee.

75. In the absence of the Medical Officers he shall be the principal Medical Officer of the Hospital, with full powers to interpose in the treatment of patients in cases in which urgent circumstances appear to him to render his interference necessary.

76. He shall have the sole charge of the Operating Book, which shall be accessible only to members of the Staff, and shall keep an accurate record of all operations performed, with results.

77. He shall have the charge of, and be responsible for, the surgical instruments and apparatus, and may cause ordinary repairs to be effected thereto, and on taking office shall sign the inventory in proof of the correctness thereof. No new instruments shall be ordered, and no alteration or additions to any instrument or apparatus shall be made except on his written direction, or that of one or more of the Medical Staff, subject to the approval of the Board.

78. He shall immediately summon the police to take charge of any case of attempted suicide or criminal violence.

78a. Any case admitted to the Hospital resulting from an act of criminal nature shall be reported to the police by the House Surgeon as soon as he becomes acquainted with the facts.

79. He shall undertake the routine medical and surgical work in the wards and shall keep a thorough and complete record of all cases treated in the Hospital, and shall, by general supervision, see that all officers and servants strictly perform their respective duties.

80. He shall have full power to admit or refuse to admit the friends of any patient, as he may think fit, and may, at his discretion, prevent the admission of visitors to a ward at any time.

81. On the death of any patient he shall intimate the same to the Medical Officer under whose care the patient shall have been, and on receiving intimation of the time at which a post mortem will be convenient, he shall communicate with the Staff.

82. He shall visit the wards, if desired, every morning and evening, he shall accompany the members of the Staff during their visits to the wards on their appointed days and hours, and see that the orders of the Medical Officers are carried out, that the medicines are of proper quality and properly administered, and shall give particular attention to the temperature and ventilation of the wards.

83. He shall sign all certificates awarded to nurses who may have gone through a course of training in the Hospital, which must be countersigned by the Chairman of the Board.

84. He shall afford the Board and House Committee every information, and furnish them with reports on all matters within his control as may to him seem necessary.

85. In all correspondence on Hospital business, except such as occurs directly with the Staff, the House Surgeon shall transmit the same through the office, so that a permanent record may be kept.

86. He shall conduct all correspondence with the outside public in reference to the condition of patients, and no communication shall be made except with his consent or on his direction.

87. It shall be his duty to make all necessary communications to the Press touching cases of accident or assault admitted to the Hospital at his discretion.

88. He shall be responsible for, and, with the assistance of the Medical Staff and Secretary, shall prepare the Annual Report, in so far as the medical portion is concerned.

89. He shall always be on duty on the days of the Board or House Committee meetings, and also during the hours of attendance of the Medical Officers, except by special permission of the Chairman of the House Committee.

90. In the absence of the Secretary, all matters which in the ordinary way would be referred to him, shall be referred to the House Surgeon.

91. He shall have two weeks' leave of absence annually, the taking of which shall be compulsory. Any further leave of absence must be arranged for through the Board.

92. Leave of absence for more than twenty-four hours at other than the times above mentioned must be arranged for with the Chairman of the House Committee, and should he be absent for more than four hours, and not immediately accessible, he shall arrange for his duties to be discharged by a member of the Medical Staff.

93. In case of his illness the House Surgeon shall report to the Chairman of the Board, who shall arrange for the discharge of his duties.

94. The House Surgeon shall, in the intervals between the visits of the Staff, take charge of the patients who have been seen by them; but he shall not alter the treatment or diet adopted by the Staff except when such a change of symptoms occurs as shall make it absolutely necessary to do so. In every case of emergency he shall at once communicate with the Medical Officers.

95. He shall, on admission of all patients into the wards, enter or cause to be entered in the case-book a full report of their previous history and their present condition.

96. He shall enter into the case-books a daily report of the progress and treatment of every patient under the care of the Medical Staff.

97. He shall not publish the report of any case without the written permission of the Staff under whose care the patient has been.

98. He shall not perform any operation without the consent of the Medical Officer having charge of the case, except in cases of special emergency.

99. He shall administer anaesthetics subject to the instruction of the Medical Staff; no anaesthetics shall be administered in the Hospital except in the presence of a member of the honorary staff.

100. The House Surgeon shall, in the event of a member of the Staff requiring any special instrument, notify the same to the Chairman of the House Committee.

101. He shall see that the following weekly reports, with such others as may be ordered, are submitted to the Chairman of the House Committee:—

- I. Return of all in and out patients.
- II. Return of cases of typhoid fever.
- III. Return of cases of infectious and contagious diseases.
- IV. Return of patients in Hospital more than six weeks, and reason for detention.

102. All cases of infectious diseases to be notified at once to the Secretary of the Local Board of Health.

103. Misconduct on the part of the House Surgeon shall render him liable to suspension by the Chairman of the Board.

Dispenser and Secretary.

104. The Secretary shall be nominated by the Board, and, subject to any written agreement, hold office during the pleasure of the Governor, and shall devote the whole of his time to the service of the Hospital, and shall not be engaged, directly or indirectly, in any business or profession.

105. He shall conduct the correspondence, and have the charge of all documents relating to the Hospital, unless specially excepted. He shall summon and attend all meetings of the Board and of Committees, and shall keep minute books, in which all the proceedings of these meetings shall be respectively inserted, and shall see, as far as practicable, that all resolutions or orders passed at such meetings are forthwith carried into effect.

106. He shall, under the direction of the Board, keep the books, forms, and accounts of the Hospital, and shall submit his account books to the Board and the House Committee whenever required.

107. He shall order on requisition by the Matron, subject to the approval of the House Committee, the clothing, bedding, linen, glass, crockery, cutlery, and cooking and kitchen utensils, and make an inventory of the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, in which he shall regularly enter the receipt and expenditure of such articles.

108. He shall, on requisition from the Matron, order the stores and supplies from the contractors and tradesmen, and see that they correspond in description, quality, and quantity with the tenders and orders; and in case they do not so correspond he shall have power to return the same.

109. He shall not procure any stores from other tradesmen than those appointed by the Board.

110. He shall carefully examine all the tradesmen's bills for provisions and other articles, and make up the accounts for presentation to the House Committee at their next monthly meeting.

111. He shall receive all moneys paid at the Hospital, and enter the same in the cash book, and pay the same into the bank, and obtain a receipt in due form from the bank for the amount paid in.

112. He shall receive all moneys belonging to patients, which shall be kept in the safe unless exceeding £5, when it shall be placed to a separate account in the bank; all cheques in this account to be signed by the Secretary and House Surgeon.

113. He shall present a copy of the By-laws to every employee, relating to his or her office, who may be appointed, immediately after his or her appointment, and obtain his or her signature to a duplicate copy, which he shall keep in the office for that purpose. He shall keep an interleaved book containing the By-laws, and shall insert any new By-law or order as soon as it shall have been passed by the Board, and shall at once communicate it in writing to the person or persons to whom it may relate.

114. He shall not issue stores of any kind except for use in the Hospital, and shall be responsible that no portion of the property in his charge be wasted or removed from the Institution.

115. He shall see that all parts of the Hospital grounds are kept in a proper state of cleanliness and order.

116. He shall report to the House Committee any repairs which may be necessary, and give attention to the same during the progress of any works. He shall also see that all fittings and appliances are in an efficient state.

117. He shall receive all property and moneys from patients on admission, and enter particulars thereof in a book to be kept for the purpose, giving the patient a receipt, and on the discharge of the owner he shall return the same, taking a proper receipt, and in the case of the death of the patient shall hand over the same to the proper authorities.

118. In the event of the death of a patient he shall, when practicable, communicate immediately with the relations or friends.

119. He shall be responsible for handing over all unclaimed bodies to the undertaker for decent interment, and shall hand over all those claimed to the friends of the deceased.

120. He shall prepare a paper for the Chairman at every meeting of the Board or a Committee, giving an outline of the business for consideration, and he shall make a report of the manner in which he has acted upon the orders and resolutions of the preceding meeting, whether the same have, or have not, been fully carried out.

121. He shall, on the day following each Board or Committee meeting, transcribe into the minute book fair copies of the minutes taken at such meeting.

122. He shall balance the cash book at the end of each month, noting whether such balance agrees with that shown by the bank book, and if not agreeing, explain the cause of the difference to the Chairman.

123. He shall not lend any books or papers belonging to the Hospital, or permit them to be inspected or removed, without the express permission of the Board.

124. He shall keep the contributors' book, and shall enter therein and in the cash book all subscriptions and donations received, and shall report the same at the next meeting of the House Committee.

125. He shall copy in a press copy-book all letters written on the business of the Institution, and shall execute all orders he may receive from the Board, or any Committee, or the Chairman thereof.

126. He shall have control of the Hospital Library, and shall not lend any books or papers therefrom.

127. He shall, whenever practicable, instruct and drill the male employees in hose practice and the use of the fire-saving appliances.

128. The Secretary shall act as Dispenser in the Hospital, and shall dispense all medicines ordered, and shall superintend and keep in good working order the dispensary, and shall notify the House Surgeon of all necessary requirements for same.

129. He shall be responsible for all medicines, drugs, and other articles entrusted to his care, and shall make an inventory of same in a book called the "Drug Book."

130. He shall have two weeks' leave of absence annually, the taking of which shall be compulsory. Any further leave of absence must be arranged through the Board.

Matron.

131. The Matron shall be nominated by the Board, and, subject to any written agreement, hold office during the pleasure of the Governor, and reside in the quarters provided for her. She shall, subject to the Board, be the head of the female staff of the Hospital, and shall devote the whole of her time and attention to the superintendence and general management of the Nursing Staff of the Hospital. She shall also take the entire charge of the domestic affairs of the Nurses' Home and of the Hospital generally, and have full control over all Nurses and female employees attached to the Institution; and in case of disobedience to orders, misconduct or neglect of duty on the part of any Nurse or female employee, she shall have power to suspend such Nurse or female employee, reporting fully thereon in writing through the Secretary at the earliest opportunity.

132. She shall see that all Nurses strictly carry out the directions of the Medical Staff and House Surgeon relative to the treatment of the patients.

133. She shall report in writing all resignations, vacancies, leave of absence, promotions, and defects in the Nursing Staff to the House Committee through the Secretary; and she shall furnish weekly to the House Committee a report as to the efficiency or otherwise of the Nursing Staff.

134. She shall be careful to see that all articles of clothing, bedding, etc., are kept in thorough repair; and that all articles of bedding (including mattresses) in use in the wards are frequently changed and regularly aired in the airing ground provided for such purposes, and that no bedding which has been in use be stored away without previous airing.

135. She shall see that a sufficient quantity of stores be provided for the use of the Hospital.

136. She shall inculcate strict economy in the use of fuel, gas, etc., and see that all unnecessary lights are dispensed with during the night, and that order, cleanliness, and punctuality prevail throughout the establishment.

137. She shall visit each ward at least twice every day, carefully supervising all that appertains to the nursing and home departments, or that may contribute to the comfort and welfare of the patients and to the efficiency of the Hospital generally.

138. She shall receive from the Secretary (on requisition made in writing) all clothing, bedding, linen, glass, cutlery, crockery, utensils, and appliances of every kind required for the use of the Hospital, and for the care and custody of which she shall be responsible.

139. She shall be responsible for the internal economy and general management of the Nurses' Home, the quality, quantity, and preparation of the food, the state of the dormitories, and the comfort generally of the Nurses; and shall guard as far as possible against irregularities of conduct on the part of Nurses and servants, such as late hours, absence without leave, etc., and by the maintenance of a wholesome discipline on her part, and among her subordinates, and by impressing upon them the high sense of the responsibilities devolving on them, secure to the Institution an efficient and reliable Nursing Staff.

140. She shall be responsible that no Ward be left without the presence of a Staff or Charge Nurse.

141. She shall, not less than once a week as arranged by the House Surgeon, give such practical and theoretical instruction as may be necessary for the training of the Nurses; and in addition to the ordinary instruction shall see that all Nurses be practically instructed in all branches of cooking for the sick, such as making beef-tea, arrowroot, gruel, chicken-broth, puddings, etc.

142. She shall take care that the Nurses attend the lectures and other forms of instruction given in accordance with the By-laws by the Medical Staff and House Surgeon.

143. She shall report on the character and conduct of the Nurses prior to their discharge, and the issue to them of a certificate of efficiency.

144. She shall take care that the Wards and patients are in a proper state of order and cleanliness.

145. She shall keep a journal, in which shall be recorded all breakages and events of importance connected with the Nursing Staff or her duties as Matron, which shall be submitted to the House Committee at its weekly meetings.

146. She shall submit to the House Committee, through the Secretary, such minor rules as she may deem necessary for the discipline of all persons placed under her control; copies of which, when approved, shall be hung up in various parts of the Institution.

147. She shall see that all lights are extinguished in the Nurses' bedrooms by 10.30 p.m.

148. She shall have two weeks' leave of absence annually, the taking of which shall be compulsory. Any further leave of absence must be arranged through the Board.

Revocation of Existing Rules and Regulations.

149. All Rules and Regulations for the management of the said Hospital heretofore in force are hereby revoked.
