THE MARRIAGE ACT AMENDMENT ACT, 1907.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
4523/08. Perth, 30th October, 1908.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to make the following Regulations under “The Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1907.”

F. D. NORTH,
Under Secretary.

REGULATIONS.

Celebration of Marriages.Minister's name, etc., to be registered.

1. No marriage can be celebrated unless the officiating minister's full christian name or names, and surname, designation, denomination, and usual place of residence have been, and continue to be registered for that purpose in the office of the Registrar General.

Penalty for neglect.

2. Any minister, whose name is not registered, celebrating a marriage, is liable to a penalty not to exceed £20.

Minister to register Certificates in triplicate.

3. Every minister shall, immediately after a marriage celebrated by him, register or cause to be registered in triplicate, according to the form of the Eleventh Schedule of “The Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages Act, 1894,” Form R.G. No. 1, the several particulars relating to that marriage, in like manner to those set out in the Examples Nos. 1 and 2 hereto.

Information Papers.

4. To facilitate the complete and correct entry of the several particulars required, ministers are furnished with “Information Papers,” Form R.G. No. 27, which should be handed or supplied to the parties when giving notice of the intended marriage, and these the parties should fill in previous to their presenting themselves for the marriage ceremony, so that the particulars can be easily and correctly copied by the minister on to the three certificates.

5. The following Forms, which are obtainable on application to the Registrar General or any District Registrar, are prescribed as those to be used by ministers in connection with the Registration and Marriage Acts, and amendments thereto:—

(a.) Form R.G. No. 1.—Certificate of Marriage to be registered in triplicate.

Clergy Register Book.

1. The Register (or Certificate) Book, Eleventh Schedule of 58th Vict., No. XVI.—This is retained by the minister for his own use.

Loose sheets to be bound into books.

2. The loose sheet.—This is intended to be kept for public information in the Registrar General's office in Perth, where with others it is bound into a book, and constitutes the permanent record Certificate of the Marriage.

Bride's Certificate.

3. The loose sheet, which forms the marriage lines; which immediately after the marriage must be delivered to one of the parties thereto (usually the bride).

Declaration.

On the back of this form is printed the declaration or solemn affirmation (Second Schedule, 58 Vict., 11), which has to be made and signed before the marriage by both parties in the presence of a minister or District Registrar. If the parties making the declaration object to take an oath, the words “make oath and say,” near the commencement of the declaration, and the word “sworn,” lower down, should be carefully ruled through.

(b.) Form R.G. No. 2.—Consent of Father, Guardian, or Mother to Marriage of Minors.

If either of the parties be under age, and not a widower, widow, or divorced person, the production of the written consent of—

1. The father, or in his absence from the State, or if dead, of

2. A guardian appointed by the father, or, if there be no guardian so appointed, of

3. The mother, or if the mother is not in the State, or dead, then

(c.) Form R.G. No. 2A.—Consent of a Justice of the Peace to Marriage of Minor must be obtained before a marriage can be legally celebrated.

The neglect to obtain the proper consent renders a minister liable to a heavy penalty. When a written consent is produced, the fact must be indorsed on each of the three register forms required, which indorsement must bear the original signature of the celebrant minister.

(d.) Form R.G. No. 3.—Notice of Marriage to be posted on Church Door.

This form is required for use of parties who desire to notify an intended marriage by posting a notice thereof on a church door, and is to be affixed by, or by order of, the minister for the time being in charge, on the outside of the outer door of a church within the district wherein one of the parties to such marriage has resided for not less than seven days immediately preceding the affixing of such notice.

(e.) Form R.G. No. 96.—Minister's Certificate of publication of Banns of Marriage.

This form must be filled in and signed by the minister calling the third publication of banns, and is required to be produced to the celebrating minister before a marriage founded on banns can take place.

(f.) Form R.G. No. 97.—Minister's Certificate of Notice of Marriage being posted on Church Door.

This form must be filled in and signed by the minister in charge for the time being of the church, on the outside of the outer door of which the notice of the intended marriage is posted, and is required to be produced to the celebrating minister before a marriage, founded on a church door notice, can take place.

(g.) Form R.G. No. 98.—Minister's monthly Return of Marriages celebrated.

This form is required to be filled in, signed, and transmitted to the Registrar General, Perth, on the 1st day of every month, by every minister registered to celebrate marriages within the State.

Should no marriages have been celebrated anywhere by a minister during the month, the return must be signed and sent in marked “Nil.”

The fact of a minister being absent from his usual address on account of holidays, or illness, or any other reason, does not in any way relieve him of this responsibility.

(h.) Form R.G. No. 12.—Certificate of Baptism.

On payment of the prescribed fee of one shilling this certificate is required to be issued to the parent of any child to whom a baptismal name has been given by a minister or other person, after the registration of its birth has been duly effected (Section 31 of 58 Vict., No. 16).

(i.) Form R.G. No. 26.—Notice of Burial without Certificate of Registration of Death being produced.

This form is required to be filled in by the minister or other person who performs any funeral or religious service for the burial of any dead body, before the burial of which no certificate of the registration of the death has been delivered to the said minister or other person, by the undertaker or other person who disposes of the body, and is to be forwarded forthwith to the District Registrar of the district within which the death took place. (Section 39 of 58 Vict., No. 16.)

(j.) Form R.G. No. 27.—Marriage Information Paper.

This form, as stated in Clause 4, is required to be filled in by the parties to an intended marriage.

The three Certificates to be literal transcripts.

6. The three certificates, Form R.G. No. 1, must all be original documents, that is, be exact and literal transcripts of each other, and must each bear the original signatures of the parties, the witnesses, and the minister, and must each have had the declaration on the back duly signed by the parties and attested by a minister or District Registrar before the marriage.

Certificates to be filled in with best black ink, and not to be cut, torn, or mutilated.

7. The certificate form which is to be filed for record purposes must be filled in as fully, clearly, and neatly as possible with the best black ink, and must on no account be cut, trimmed, torn, or otherwise mutilated; if it is it will not be accepted at the Head Office, as these certificates have eventually to be bound in book form, for which purpose it is absolutely necessary that they should be of a uniform size.

Christian names and dates to be complete, and written in at full length.

8. Every particular in the certificate must be written in full. No abbreviations are allowed (except in the case of signatures). The writing must be distinct and bold, and every possible care must be taken to avoid errors. Every name given must be properly spelt, and all christian names (excepting signatures) must be inserted at full length and written in such a manner that they cannot be mistaken for other names or surnames. All dates must be complete as to year, month, and day, the month being always written in full.

Witnesses.

9. Two witnesses at least, of the full age of sixteen years and upwards, in addition to the minister and the contracting parties, must be present at the ceremony, and sign the requisite certificates.

Name of Church or place of ceremony.

13. Column 2.—The date must be written in full, as "4th December, 1908." The name of the church or place where the ceremony is performed must always be distinctly specified, together with that of the parish. as:—"St. George's Cathedral, Perth," or "St. Peter's Church, Greenough," or "at 371 Blank Street, Perth, the residence of Henry Hayes," or "At 'Greenlawn,' the residence of John Smith, Pinjarra."

Christian Names.

14. Column 3.—Initials must on no account be used in this column, but the Christian name or names of both the bridegroom and the bride must be entered in full.

Age.

15. Column 4.—The respective age last birthday of both parties must be entered in full, as:—"31," "27." The words "over" and "under age" are not on any account to be used.

Condition of the Parties.

16. Column 5.—Bachelor or spinster, widower or widow, or presumed widower or presumed widow. In case of a divorced person, state divorced, giving place, date of month, and year of decree absolute.

Rank, etc.

17. Column 6.—The rank, profession, or occupation of both the bridegroom and bride should be here entered. If any difficulty, however, exists as to specifying the rank, etc., of the bride, the entry in her case may be left blank.

Present residence.

18. Column 7.—The present residence or place at which either of the parties may be temporarily staying or permanently living should be here entered, as:—"286 Hay Street, Perth," "47 Lonsdale Street, Leederville."

19. Column 8.—Usual or permanent place of residence—"The Mount, Jarrahdale, Murray District," and "47 Lonsdale Street, Leederville."

Names of fathers.

20. Column 9.—Christian name or names of fathers of both parties, and surnames in full. If the father of either of the parties be dead, the word "deceased" must be entered under the name.

Rank of fathers.

21. Column 10.—Rank or profession of fathers of both parties, or if the father of either of the parties be dead, then his late rank or profession.

Names of mothers.

22. Column 11.—Christian name or names, and maiden names of mothers of both parties in full. If dead the word "deceased" must be entered, as in Column 9.

Parties married to read Certificate before signing.

23. So soon as all the before-mentioned particulars have been filled in on the certificate by the minister, he must request the parties married, if they can read, to carefully examine the entry; if they cannot read, he must read it to them. They alone are responsible for the correctness of the particulars.

Ministers to correct errors.

24. The minister must then carefully examine the certificate and all errors that are discovered must be at once corrected in the marginal blank space left for the purpose at the foot of the certificate as follows:—

In column for read ; and be verified by the signature of the officiating minister.

Spinsters to sign in their maiden surname, widows in their previous married surname.

25. The parties married must then, if the certificate is correct and if they can write, sign their names in their usual manner on the lines following the words, "This marriage was celebrated between us." The man must sign on the upper line. The woman must sign, not in her newly-married surname, but, if she was a spinster, in her maiden surname, and if a widow, in her previous married surname.

Witnesses.

26. The witnesses, who must be of the full age of sixteen years, must, if they can write, sign their names, in their usual manner, on the lines following the words "In the presence of us."

Signing by marks.

27. If either of the parties or witnesses is unable to write, the minister must request him or her, unassisted, to make a mark thus:—

his John or or her
Mary + Smith
mark,

when the Minister shall fill in the full particulars as to whose mark it is. The mark need not be specially witnessed, as the signature of the celebrant minister vouches for the genuineness of the whole certificate.

Illegible signatures.

28. Should any of the signatures be indistinct or illegible, the minister should write them lightly, but legibly, in pencil in the margin, so as to insure their being correctly indexed and recorded in the Registry Department.

Foreign names.

29. If either of the parties or witnesses be a foreigner, the minister must endeavour to obtain a signature in English characters. But if such person be unable to sign in English characters, he should, if able to write, be requested to sign in his ordinary manner. The minister should then write below in ink "The signature of -----," adding the full name and surname as though a mark had been made.

Minister not to correct signatures.

30. If there be an error in the signature of any person, such person, and not the minister, must correct it.

Erasures not allowed.

31. In no case whatever may a minister correct an error by smearing it out, striking it out, or by writing upon it. And no writing—not even an accidental blot—may be removed from a certificate by erasing with a knife, or by any other means. All amendments must be made as explained in No. 29.

Minister to sign Certificate.

32. When satisfied that the certificate is complete and, so far as he then knows, correct, the minister must sign it in his usual manner, adding the denomination to which he belongs to his signature.

Errors of fact or substance, correction of.

33. Errors of fact or substance which may subsequently be discovered in a certificate can only be corrected on the order of the Registrar General, under certain conditions, for which see Section 43 of 58 Vict., No. 16.

Authority for Celebration of Marriage.

34. The officiating minister must always fill in the authority under which the marriage is celebrated, such as:—"On production of minister's certificate of publication of banns," or "on production of minister's certificate that notice has been posted," or "on production of District Registrar's Certificate," or "and under special license." These words must be added after the words "duly made as by law required." See Example No. 1. page 22.

Marriage under Special License.

35. In the case of marriage under Special License, the License is to be forwarded to the District Registrar, together with the Certificate of Marriage.

Returns to District Registrar.

36. Every minister must, within seven days after the celebration of a marriage, forward the certificate, together with the usual registration fee, to the District Registrar of the district where the marriage was celebrated, to be by him, after entry in his marriage register, transmitted to the Registrar General, in whose office it will be carefully preserved, with others, in bound volumes, so as to be readily available to the public when searches and certified copies are required.

Omission to send in Return.

37. All returns must be sent in as regularly and punctually as possible, as wilful neglect to do so is punishable by a heavy fine.

Postage on Certificates and Returns.

38. Packets or envelopes containing marriage certificates, or returns of marriages celebrated, addressed to the Registrar General or to a District Registrar, will be transmitted through the post without postage stamps being affixed thereto, provided they are marked "O.H.M.S.," and the Minister signs his name on the left hand lower corner over the words "marriage certificate," or "return of marriage," as the case may be.

Certificates to be forwarded through registered post.

39. Every minister, where possible, should register the packets of certificates when transmitting them to the District Registrar. No expense will be incurred by him in doing so if the packets are marked as stated in Clause 38.

Receipts to be obtained for Certificates.

40. Ministers must insist upon obtaining from District Registrars receipts for all certificates forwarded, and every case of wilful negligence or omission should be at once reported to the Registrar General.

Presumed death of former Wife or Husband.

41. A person whose wife or husband shall have been continually absent from such person for the space of seven years then last past, and shall not have been known by such person to be living within that time, may marry again, without being held to be guilty of bigamy, the presumption being that the former wife or husband is dead, and that such person is a "presumed widower," or a "presumed widow," and should be thus described in Column 5. In the event, however, of the former wife or husband returning, the second marriage will be held to be null and void.

Mixed Marriages.

42. If the parties desire that two valid marriage ceremonies be performed on the same day, the necessary preliminaries must be duly complied with as though no other ceremony were about to be performed. It matters not whether either of such ceremonies be intended to be performed in a Church or Chapel, or in a Registry Office or private dwelling, or according to the usages of the Quakers or Jews. And it is immaterial which of such ceremonies is performed first.

Re-marriages.

43. Persons who are desirous of being re-married, whether on account of some informality or supposed informality in the proceedings connected with a former marriage, or for other reasons, are, in giving notice of such re-marriage, subject to the same conditions as in giving an original notice.

Adopted Name.

44. If either of the parties has adopted, or is commonly known by, a name or surname other than his or her true name or surname, both names or surnames should be recorded in the certificate with the word otherwise between them, thus: "John Jones, otherwise Thomas Thompson," the true name coming first.

28. Whenever any manufacturer or agent shall use any number assigned to him under these By-laws, he shall keep a record of the same and address of the person driving the motor vehicle on each occasion, and such record shall be open to the inspection at any time of the Town Clerk or any person appointed by him to make an inspection.
