THE EDUCATION ACTS, 1871-1907.

Amendment of Regulations.

Education Department,
Perth, 1st June, 1910.
HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council has been pleased to revoke the following Regulations of the Education Department, namely, Regulations 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 80, 81, 83, 84, 85, 86, and 92, as amended on the 25th of March, 1910 (vide Government Gazette of 1st April, 1910), and Appendix VIII., as amended on the 8th February, 1910 (vide Government Gazette of 11th February, 1910), and to make the following Regulations and Appendix in place thereof.

CECIL ANDREWS,
Inspector General of Schools.

73. Monitors may be employed to serve in Schools where the average attendance is at least 30. They may be of two classes—Junior Monitors and Senior Monitors.

74. Candidates for the office of Monitor must be not less than 14 or more than 18 years old. They must be free from any bodily infirmity likely to impair their usefulness, and must be of good moral character. On appointment a satisfactory medical certificate must be furnished, on the form provided by the Department, and an agreement entered into. The first three months of appointment will be on probation.

75. Candidates will, as a rule, be required to pass the examination prescribed for Candidates for Junior Monitorship (see Appendix I.). Applicants whose age, qualifications, experience, etc., make them eligible to sit for the Senior Monitors' Examination may do so by special permission of the Department.

76. Candidates who have passed the Adelaide University Preliminary Examination may be excused from sitting in the Examination for Candidates for Junior Monitorship for those subjects in which they have passed.

Candidates who have passed the Junior or Senior Adelaide or some other equivalent University Examination, not more than one year previously, are eligible to be appointed Monitors without examination; they will, however, be required to serve one month on trial without salary. If their age is suitable, they may, at the discretion of the Department, be admitted to sit at the following Senior Monitors' Examination.

77. The remuneration of Monitors shall consist of (a) instruction to be given by the Head Teacher or by the staff of the Normal School, and (b) an annual salary. The Head Teacher will be responsible for seeing that the time prescribed for study is properly allocated, and the work diligently done, and for giving instruction and assistance.

78. Salaries shall be paid to Monitors at the following rates:—

	Males.	Females.
Junior, First Year ..	£18	£12
" Second Year ..	£27	£18
Senior, First Year ..	£50	£36
" Second Year ..	£60	£45

Before a Monitor can draw the Senior salary he must have passed the examination prescribed for Senior Monitors.

An additional sum not exceeding £5 per annum for Juniors or £10 for Seniors may be granted to Monitors in the Goldfields and Special Schools where the cost of living is very high.

80. Senior Monitors in their second year will be required to sit for the "C" Examination. Those who fail to pass may, if the Department is satisfied as to their competency, be appointed as unclassified teachers.

81. Junior Monitors will assist teachers in the Schools during five half-days in each week: the other five half-days will be devoted to study. Senior Monitors will be employed in teaching during eight half-days in each week: the other two half-days will be devoted to study.

83. In country schools, when the attendance warrants the appointment of a Monitor, and a suitable applicant, under Regulations 74, 75, and 76 is not obtainable, a temporary "Monitor on Supply" may be appointed if the Inspector's report is satisfactory. The salary will be within the limits of the scale set out in Regulation 78, but the exact amount will be fixed by the Department. Appointments made under this Regulation will, of course, lapse when a suitable person is obtained, unless the appointee has qualified in the meantime, and is of suitable age. Monitors on Supply may be employed in the School during the whole week, unless they are preparing to sit for a Departmental Examination. Those preparing for an examination must be given at least two half-days in each week for their studies. The Head Teacher will be responsible for giving them instruction, and for supervising and directing their studies.

84. A limited number of candidates who have passed the Examination for Candidates for Junior Monitorship will be selected for a course of two years in the Perth Normal School. They will not be attached as Monitors to any State School. They will not receive any salary, but will be provided with the necessary books free of charge, and will have their necessary daily travelling expenses, if any, paid. Their parents or guardians will be required to sign an agreement, binding the selected candidates to enter the Training College, if the Department wishes them to do so, or, if not chosen for the Training College, to serve the Department, if required, for not less than three years from the expiration of their course in the School. Selected candidates whose homes are outside the Metropolitan District may, at the discretion of the Minister, be granted a lodging allowance of £20 per annum. At the end of the two years' course in the Normal School the scholars will be employed as Full Time Monitors with salaries at the rate of £36 per annum for females and £50 per annum for males. Those selected for the Training College may enter the College in the following September, if their practical skill is considered satisfactory. Other wise they may be required to wait until a subsequent year. The salaries of those who do not enter the College will, during the following year, if their service is satisfactory, be at the rate of £45 per annum for females and £60 per annum for males. They may be allowed to sit for the "C" Examination in the second year of their Monitorship.

85. Monitors may be appointed to Manual Training Classes. Such Monitors shall be subject to the usual conditions, except that they shall be required, in addition, to pass an examination in Woodwork, and that a special curriculum shall be specified in Practical Plane and Solid Geometry and Scale and Art Drawing. They may be allowed to omit Geography, History, Music, and Drill. At the expiration of their engagement these Monitors shall be required to pass an examination equivalent to that of the City and Guilds of London Institute, as well as the prescribed portion of the "C" Examination. They may then be employed as Teachers in Manual Training Classes, but shall attend lectures for further instruction in Manual Training. Half-time Manual Training Monitors shall receive their general instruction in the State School to which the Manual Training Centre is attached.

86. Monitors may also be appointed to Cookery and Laundry classes. Such monitors shall be subject to the usual conditions, except that Senior Monitors shall be required, in addition, to pass an Examination in Domestic Economy, Elementary Physiology, Cookery, and Laundry Work. They may be allowed to omit Geography, History, Music, Geometrical Drawing, and Drill. At the expiration of their engagement these Monitors shall be required to pass a special examination in Domestic Economy, including Elementary Chemistry, Elementary Physiology, Elementary Botany, Cookery, and Laundry Work, both in theory and practice, as well as the prescribed portion of the "C" Certificate. They may then be employed as Teachers in Cookery and Laundry Classes. Junior Monitors shall receive their general instruction in the State School to which the Cookery and Laundry Centre is attached.

92. The Final Examination at the Normal School and the Senior Monitors' Examination will be the Entrance Examinations for the Training College. Candidates who have not been in the Normal School or served as Monitors, and who gain a sufficiently high place in the Examination, will be required to attend a State School for three months without pay, and to give evidence of their fitness for the profession before entering the College. The Minister may, in special cases, allow other persons to attend the Training College as boarders or day-boarders at their own expense.

Evidence of teaching capacity may be required.

The minimum age at which candidates may enter the College is 17 years, and the course of training will, as a rule, be for two years. Scholarships will be provided to defray the cost of training of those highest on the examination list, who will receive board, lodging, and tuition free. Should winners of Scholarships be residing with parents or friends they may become day-boarders, and, in addition to free tuition, may receive a money Scholarship towards their maintenance of £30 per annum.

7. Candidates who qualify will be required to produce birth certificates, or satisfactory proof of age, before the exhibition or certificate is issued.
