Other stations—Six months, 7s. 6d. ; twelve months, 15s.

To operate from 19th December, 1919.

Country Lines.

The passenger fares for the single journey are reduced ten per cent., and the issue of Ordinary Return Tickets is abolished.

(a.) Where it is provided in Rate Book that return tickets will be issued at single fare for the double journey or at two-thirds of return fare, single tickets at two-thirds rates will be issued for both forward and return journey.

(b.) Where it is provided that return tickets will be issued at half rates, single tickets at half rates will be issued for both outward and return journeys.

(c.) Where return tickets at half single fare are provided, single tickets at one-third rate will be issued for both journeys.

(d.) In all such cases it will be necessary to obtain certificates for both forward and return journeys and the certificate for the return journey must be presented within the time specified for the availability of return ticket.

The Holiday Excursion Fare is to be the single fare plus fifty per cent.

Periodical Ticket Rates.

The published rate for 3 months, 6 months, and yearly tickets are cancelled.

The fares for Quarterly periodical tickets are to be the sum of three monthly tickets less 7½ per cent.

The fares for Half-yearly tickets (Periodical) are to be the sum of two quarterly tickets less 5 per cent.

The fares for Yearly Periodical tickets are to be the sum of two half-yearly tickets less 5 per cent.
