Alternative to Stamped Receipt.

(Sections 96 and 119 (1c.))

7. In lieu of a stamped receipt, the Commissioner may, in the following cases, approve of an alternative method which, in his opinion, will ensure the payment of duty equal to the required receipt duty, which arrangement shall, if adopted, be deemed a sufficient compliance with the law:—

- (1) The winner of any totalisator dividend which amounts to £1 or over shall be relieved from the obligation to give a stamped receipt upon receiving such dividend, provided the racing club or association conducting the totalisator furnishes to the Commissioner a return in Form A in the Schedule, and pays the required duty.

The value of such stamp may be charged in such account sales to the orchardist or other producer.

Assessment of Duty.

(Section 31.)

8. When the assessment of the Commissioner is desired or required as to the duty payable on any instrument, the instrument must be submitted to the Commissioner accompanied by the fee of one shilling. The person submitting the instrument shall, when required by the Commissioner, furnish him with an abstract of such instrument in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe and any other information authorised by the Act.

9. Where the Commissioner assesses the duty payable on an instrument and it is duly stamped, there shall be impressed thereon the words:—"Duly stamped in accordance with the Commissioner's assessment," with the date and initials added of the authorised person dealing with the matter, for which the sum of one shilling shall be paid unless the one shilling prescribed in Regulation 8 has already been paid.

Late Stamping.

(Section 25.)

10. When the stamp on an instrument is not cancelled within the period allowed by law, any application for the remission or reduction of the fine must be made to the Commissioner in Form B in the Schedule and satisfactory reasons given accounting for the delay, which reasons the Commissioner may require to be verified by statutory declaration in Form C in the Schedule.

(Section 20.)

11. Where an instrument is stamped after the period allowed by law, the Commissioner, or officer authorised in that behalf by him, may accept the duty and fine by payment in cash in lieu of impressed or adhesive stamps, and in such case shall impress on the instrument by means of a rubber stamp the words:—"Duty fully paid....., Commissioner of Stamps," adding his signature or initials together with the date.

Cancellation of Adhesive Stamps.

(Sections 21 and 43.)

12. A person authorised to cancel stamps shall, after first satisfying himself that the stamps affixed to the instrument are adequate to comply with the law, cancel the stamps affixed by writing or stamping thereon his name or initials and the date of such cancellation, with the name of his office if appointed to cancel stamps by virtue of such office or in any other case with the words added, "Authorised to cancel stamps." In the case of the Stamp Assessor at the Treasury, he may cancel stamps by impressing thereon his seal containing the following words:—"State Stamp Office, Perth, W.A.," and the date, which seal is hereby authorised for that purpose.

Duplicate Instruments.

(Section 35.)

13. Where an instrument has been duly stamped, the duplicate or counterpart of such instrument shall be stamped and marked with an indicating stamp as follows:—"Duplicate," "Original stamped £ s. d.," with the date and initials of the authorised person dealing with the matter.

(Section 15.)

14. All spoiled stamps brought to the Commissioner for exchange shall be accompanied by the paper or parchment on which the same are affixed or impressed, and by a declaration according to the Form F in the Schedule.

15. Upon the delivery of all stamped bills of exchange (including promissory notes) which have become damaged, spoilt, or rendered unfit for use, or unnecessary, the Commissioner shall supply the applicant with a similar number of bills of exchange or promissory notes impressed with a like amount of duty, and charge therefor a fee of one penny each, provided the said bills or notes have not been brought into use and are presented to the Commissioner within six months of the date when they became damaged, spoilt, or rendered unfit for use, or unnecessary.

16. Upon delivery of all stamped cheque forms which have become damaged, spoilt, or rendered unfit for use, or unnecessary, the Commissioner shall impress for the applicant a similar number of cheque forms with the duty of 1d. each, and charge therefor 10 per cent. on the value thereof, provided the said cheque forms have not been brought into use and are presented to the Commissioner within six months of the date when they became damaged, spoilt, or rendered unfit for use, or unnecessary.

17. Upon delivery of any other document or instrument which has become damaged, spoilt, or rendered unfit for use, or unnecessary, the Commissioner shall supply the applicant with an adhesive or impressed stamp of like amount, provided the said document or instrument is presented to the Commissioner within six months of the date when it became damaged, spoilt, or rendered unfit for use, or unnecessary, and the charge shall be a fee of sixpence in respect of each document or instrument: Provided that if the duty is under 5s., the charge shall be at the rate of one penny for every 1s. or fraction thereof, and where the duty is one penny, the fee prescribed in Regulation 16 shall apply.

Betting Tickets.

(Sections 103, 104, and 119 (1e).)

18. Every betting ticket issued by a bookmaker shall, before issue, be impressed with a stamp for the prescribed duty.

19. The Duty Stamp shall be impressed, and the numbering shall be printed on the tickets by the Commissioner. The tickets shall be supplied to bookmakers by the Commissioner, duly impressed with the Duty Stamp and numbered, at the price of six shillings per 1,000 tickets, plus the amount of the stamp duty thereon, that is to say, at the rate of £2 7s. 8d. per 1,000 for 1/2d. tickets, and £8 12s. 8d. per 1,000 for 2d. tickets.

The bookmaker shall, at his own cost, have printed, impressed or written on each ticket before issue to the backer the name of the bookmaker, and shall issue the tickets in proper consecutive numerical order.

21. The stamp duty on every betting ticket shall be cancelled by the bookmaker when issuing it, by writing across the face of the ticket or otherwise defacing it in such manner as effectually to prevent the re-issue of such ticket as an unused betting ticket: Provided that in the case of a bet in respect of which cash is not paid to the bookmaker when the bet is made, he shall cancel a duly stamped betting ticket by tearing such ticket in two.

22. Every bookmaker who issues a betting ticket shall keep a betting book in which shall be entered particulars relating to every betting transaction with a backer, whether the amount wagered is or is not paid on the making of the bet, and such particulars shall include the number of the ticket, the name of the horse, the amount of the bet, and in the case of a metropolitan or goldfields racecourse, a statement whether or not the bet was made within the enclosure.

23. The returns under Section 106 of "The Stamp Act, 1921," shall be forwarded to the Commissioner within 21 days after every race meeting, and shall be furnished by the secretary of the racing club or association in Form G in the Schedule.
