THE PRISONS ACT, 1903-18.

REGULATIONS.

(Amended to 19th January, 1923.)

Colonial Secretary's Office,

1538/21.

Perth, 19th January, 1923.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to repeal the existing Regulations relating to the Management and Control of the Prisons of Western Australia, and to approve of the following Regulations in lieu thereof.

H. C. TRETOWAN,

Under Secretary and Comptroller General of Prisons.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL OF THE PRISONS OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

REPEAL OF EXISTING REGULATIONS.

1. These Regulations shall come into force on the 19th January, 1923, and shall supersede all previous Regulations.

APPLICABILITY OF REGULATIONS.

2. These Regulations shall, as far as possible, and except as otherwise provided, apply to all prisons.

INTERPRETATIONS OF TERMS AND APPLICATION OF RULES AND REGULATIONS.

3. In these Rules and Regulations the following terms shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

“Prison” includes any gaol, police gaol, reformatory prison, or penal outstation.

“Outstation” means a party or gang of prisoners detached from some gaol to perform some particular work in a locality where it is not intended to form a permanent gaol.

“Officer in charge” means the Superintendent, Gaoler, Keeper, or other officer in charge of the prison in respect of which the term is used.

“Medical Officer” means the Medical Officer of the gaol, or the District Medical Officer of the district in which the gaol in respect of which the term is used is situated.

“Matron” means the principal or only female officer of any gaol.

“Assistant Matron” means a female officer below the rank of matron.

“Comptroller General” means the Comptroller General of Prisons or other person duly appointed to act on his behalf.

“Minister” means the Minister under whose control gaols are placed for the time being.

“Sheriff” means the Sheriff of Western Australia.

“Officer” includes any person whatsoever employed in a gaol other than a prisoner.

“Warder” includes every disciplinary officer below the rank of Chief Warder, and shall also include Warders acting as Instructors and Schoolmasters.

“Visiting Justice” means a Prison Visitor who is also a Justice of the Peace.

ORDER BOOK.

4. There shall be kept in each prison an “Order Book,” in which shall be set forth all rules and instructions that may from time to time be made or authorised by the Minister, or by the Comptroller General, providing in detail and in minor matters for the duties of the officers and management of the prison, and each entry shall be initialed when read by the officers concerned, to whom the order book shall be accessible at all times.

VISITING JUSTICES AND PRISON VISITORS.

5. Visiting Justices, when requested by the officer in charge, shall hear and determine all cases awaiting adjudication and hear complaints of prisoners.

It shall be the duty of visitors—

(1.) From time to time, and not less frequently than once in every three months, to visit the prison to which they are appointed.

(2.) To make such reports to the Minister as they may think fit or the Minister requires.

(a) While at the prison the Visiting Justice shall hear the complaints of any prisoners who may desire to see him, and shall take such action in reference thereto, under these regulations, as he may deem necessary. He shall, from time to time, inspect the prison in all its parts; examine the clothing, bedding, and rations; and generally satisfy himself that the regulations are properly enforced, and that copies of so much thereof as relates to prisoners are hung in conspicuous places for their information. Any defect in respect to these matters should be brought to the notice of the Comptroller General without delay.

(b.) A Visiting Justice shall not directly interfere in, or give instructions with regard to, the management or discipline of the prison, or deal with any case affecting the conduct of the officers; but may report, from time to time, on these matters to the Comptroller General or to the Minister, as he may think necessary.

OFFICERS GENERALLY.

6. So far as their respective duties extend, officers must take care that all rules and regulations, orders and instructions are strictly carried out, and must not fail either from favour or mistaken notions of kindness, or for any other reason, to report without delay through the proper officer any instance of neglect of duty, disobedience of orders, or other misconduct on the part of any other officer or of any prisoner in the prison or on the works which may come under their notice.

7. An officer shall on no account punish a prisoner except according to the procedure prescribed by these Regulations.

8. An officer shall not unnecessarily converse with a prisoner, nor allow any familiarity on the part of a prisoner towards himself or any other officer, nor shall he speak of his duties or of any matters of discipline or prison arrangements within the hearing of a prisoner.

9. An officer shall at all times treat his superiors with respect and his subordinates with courtesy. He shall be respectful to the authorities employed on public works, and shall afford them all proper assistance in authorised works, taking care in so doing not to lose sight of the regulations or special orders which he may, from time to time, have received.

10. An officer shall see that the prisoners in his charge are industrious at all times, and that no disrespect is shown by them to the officers or persons employed in other departments of public works with whom they may be brought in contact, and he shall not allow such officers to unnecessarily converse with a prisoner.

11. An officer entrusted with keys shall not take them out of the prison, leave them lying about, lend them to any officer on any pretext whatever, or hold them in such a position that a prisoner may make or take a mental note of their size and make; but shall, when leaving the prison on any occasion, deliver his keys to the officer authorised to receive them, taking from such officer a verbal acknowledgment, without which the officer giving up the keys must not be permitted to leave the prison.

12. An officer shall not remain in the prison when not on duty.

13. All officers shall reside in the quarters provided for them unless otherwise permitted, when they may be required to reside within such distance from the gaol as the Comptroller General may consider convenient.

14. An officer shall not be permitted to receive any visitors within the precincts of the prison or when on duty, outside the prison walls.

15. Officers in charge of common gaols shall make application to the Comptroller General and receive permission before allowing any person not being a member of his family to reside in his quarters for a period exceeding three days.

16. An officer shall not give an order on or assignment of his salary in favour of any person who has advanced him money or given credit.

17. Monetary transactions between officers are forbidden, and all officers are strictly forbidden to incur pecuniary obligations to their subordinates.

18. Officers are prohibited from seeking the influence or interest of any person in order to obtain promotion, removal, or other advantages.

19. No address or testimonial shall be accepted by any officer in connection with his public duties without the sanction of the Comptroller General.

20. An officer occupying Government quarters shall not permit any person not a member of his family, or one habitually residing with him, to remain for the night in such quarters without the permission of the officer in charge. Lodgings shall not be let in such quarters on any pretext. Without permission neither he nor any other person shall keep a school, or carry on any business therein, or in the house he is occupying for which he receives an allowance in lieu of quarters.

21. An officer occupying Government quarters must see that every care is taken to keep the same in good order and condition and in a thorough state of cleanliness both inside and in the yards and offices attached. Especial notice is directed to this regulation, as the quarters are, from time to time, liable to be inspected, and any damage or neglect or want of cleanliness will be duly noted. Any damage over and above fair wear and tear will render the officer occupying such quarters liable to be charged with the cost of repairs or renovations.

22. An officer or any person in trust for him or employed by him shall not sell, or have any benefit or advantage from the sale of any article to any prisoner; nor shall he, or any person in trust for, or employed by him, let, or have the benefit or advantage from the loan or letting, of any article to, or have any pecuniary dealings whatever with any prisoner, or employ any prisoner on his private account; or correspond with, or hold any intercourse with a prisoner or the friends or relations of any prisoner, unless expressly authorised by the officer in charge. He shall not make any unauthorised communications concerning the prison to any person whatever.

23. Any officer who shall bring in or carry out, or knowingly allow to be brought in or carried out, to or for any prisoner, any money, clothing, provisions, tobacco, pipes, letters, papers, or other articles whatsoever, unless in accordance with regulations, shall be forthwith suspended from his office by the Officer in charge, who may cause him to be apprehended and brought before any two Justices of the Peace empowered to hear and determine any such offence, in a summary manner; and any such officer upon conviction of such an offence will be liable, in the discretion of the Justices, to imprisonment for any period not exceeding six months, or to a penalty not exceeding Fifty pounds, or to both such punishments, and, in addition to any other punishment, to forfeiture of his office and all arrears of pay due to him.

24. With the exception of those officers who cannot leave their post of duty, officers are prohibited from partaking of their lunches or meals in any other part of the prison but the Guard Room.

25. An officer shall not directly or indirectly have any interest in any contract or agreement for the supply of the requirements of any prison. He shall not receive, directly or indirectly, under any pretence whatever, any fee or gratuity or present from any contractor or person tendering for any contract for the supply of goods, or from any prisoner or prisoner's friend, or from any person visiting the prison.

26. An officer shall not use tobacco or spirituous liquors within the prison walls, except under such restrictions as to time and place as may be laid down by the Officer in charge and approved by the Comptroller General.

27. All wrangling and disputes about points of duty, etc., between officers are strictly forbidden. Any question of this kind must be referred, at a convenient time, for the decision of the Officer in charge. All complaints by one officer against another must be made in writing, through his immediate superior, to the Officer in charge. Such reports must be delivered within twenty-four hours of the occurrence complained of, otherwise they will not be received; and if it should be found that such complaints are frivolous or vexatious or arise from a spirit of ill-feeling, malice, or revenge, a minute thereof is to be entered in the "Officers' Misconduct Book," and a full report made to the Comptroller General.

28. Any officer having any grievance connected with his duty or office must state the same respectfully in writing, for the decision of the Officer in charge, or, if necessary, for an appeal to a higher authority. Any other proceedings on the part of such officer for this purpose will render him liable to be dismissed, or to such other penalty as the case may deserve. All wrangling or discussion about private matters between officers, within the prison or elsewhere, while on duty, is also strictly forbidden.

29. Any officer communicating intelligence respecting the prison, its arrangements, proceedings, etc., to prisoners, prisoners' friends, or to any other persons, or who makes communications, without proper authority, to other departments, will be deemed to be not trustworthy, and liable to instant dismissal.

30. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Regulations, an Officer may communicate to the members of his association such information as is necessary to enable action to be taken on the part of such association to obtain by lawful means the redress of any grievance under which such officer is suffering in connection with his official position. For the purpose of this regulation "Association" means Gaol Officers' Association.

31. Any officer (excluding probationary warders) incapacitated for the regular performance of duty by illness, must give, or send, immediate notice to the officer in charge, who shall have power to give sick leave upon the report of the Medical Officer, for a period not exceeding one week. The sick leave may be renewed weekly upon a similar report; but if, at the end of one month, reckoned from the date of first leave, the officer has not resumed duty, and is unable to perform it effectually, further leave shall be without pay unless otherwise approved by the Minister. An officer going on sick leave after tendering his resignation shall receive no pay for such period, unless his sickness is caused by accident or incurred whilst in the execution of his duty. An officer who is suspended from duty, and afterwards restored to his office, shall be entitled to full pay for the time during which he has been suspended; but should his suspension result in dismissal he shall not be entitled to any pay for the period of suspension or for the period of any leave that may be due to him.

32. Any officer who, in the course of one year, shall have been in the aggregate more than one month absent from duty on account of sickness, or who is unable to perform his duties properly, may be examined by a Medical Board, to consist of the Medical Officer and two other Medical Practitioners to be appointed by the Governor, whose report shall be laid before the Comptroller General, who may, if he deems necessary, recommend the discharge of the officer reported on.

33. At Fremantle Gaol officers and their families up to the age of 16 years are entitled to free medical attendance and medicine, and such attendance will be given them by the Medical Officer. The same shall apply to officers and their families at all common Gaols except in a district where no medical officer is stationed or where there is no Government hospital to supply medicine. If an officer is admitted into a Government hospital he shall pay three-fourths of the ordinary rates per diem for maintenance.

34. No officer is entitled to medical attendance at public cost in a district where no medical officer is stationed.

35. All officers shall be careful not to allow any prisoner under their charge to be employed directly or indirectly for the private benefit or advantage of any person or persons, or in any way not in conformity with the regulations, except the Superintendent and Matron of the Fremantle Prison, the former being allowed the services of one male and the latter of one female prisoner.

36. Officers are specially prohibited from writing anonymously or otherwise in the public prints, or from publishing anonymously or otherwise, in any form, communications or matters bearing upon or having relation to the business of the prison.

37. All communications to the heads of Departments, or to any public officer, shall be made in writing and transmitted through the immediate superior officer of the writer. All correspondence for the Comptroller General must pass through the office of the officer in charge.

38. The utmost care shall be taken by every officer to guard against accidents by fire, from the lights, furnaces, etc. It is the duty of an officer to report immediately any danger of such accidents that he may observe in any part of the prison, and to use all possible means to prevent the same. No lights or fires are to be kept burning unnecessarily or unattended. No light is at any time to be carried about the prison unless it be enclosed in a lantern, and each officer coming on duty during the night must examine all parts of the prison in the vicinity of his special charge, to satisfy himself that all is safe from fire.

39. A default sheet shall be kept for every officer, upon which shall be entered all instances where the officer has been punished or reprimanded for any fault.

40. No person will be accepted as a candidate for the position of warder who is unable to produce satisfactory references, and who does not fulfil the following conditions, viz.:—Age 25 to 35, not less than 5 feet 8 inches in height and of proportionate build, and of sound health. Applicants should attend personally at the Superintendent's Office, Fremantle Prison, and fill in the necessary application form in their own handwriting. Each applicant must be seen by the Comptroller General before appointment to the probationary staff.

Probationary Warders.

41. (a.) Any person selected for employment as a Prison Warder shall serve for a period of twelve months as a Probationary Warder, during which term his services may be dispensed with at any time. Warders are paid for every day, including Sundays and public holidays. It must be distinctly understood by probationary, in common with all other classes of warders, that appointments are not to any particular prison, but to the Service generally, and that transfers from one establishment to another may take place at any time. Implicit adherence must be given to the rules, regulations, and general orders. Warders on the probationary staff may upon production of satisfactory evidence of illness be granted sick leave without pay. Back pay may, however, be allowed when the officer completes the period of service which would qualify him for sick leave on pay.

(b.) During the probationary term of service an examination must be passed to the satisfaction of the Comptroller General in the following subjects:—

	Full Marks.
Handwriting (to be tested by writing from dictation not less than 50 words) ..	50
Spelling	50
Arithmetic (first four simple rules) ..	50
Duties of a Warder, including writing of reports and the General Rules and Regulations	100

Not less than 150 will constitute a pass.

(c) While the passing of such examination will be obligatory within the period above referred to, no person will be placed on the Permanent Staff who is not reported V.G. (very good) by the officer in charge under whom he serves, for conduct and ability.

42. Length of Service and Good Conduct Badges.

(a.) As denoting length of service, officers, after five years' continuous service, shall be entitled to wear on the sleeve of the right arm of the tunic, above the elbow, a chevron of braid for each completed five years of continuous service, and Principal Warders shall be entitled to wear a crown over the chevrons. For Principal Warders the crowns and chevrons shall be of gold colour, and for officers of lower rank the chevrons shall be of silver colour.

(b) As denoting good conduct, an officer, after five years' continuous service, and providing his record has been clear for that period of punishment on a major report, shall be entitled to wear immediately below the length of service chevrons a good conduct stripe. For purposes of this regulation, a major report shall be a report dealt with under Gaols Regulation 89; three minor reports, dealt with under Gaols Regulation 88i within any period of twelve months, shall be regarded as a major report.

(c) The buttons on tunics of Principal Warders shall be gold coloured, and of Warders silver coloured.

(d) This regulation shall not necessarily apply to Warders temporarily employed at prisons other than the Fremantle Gaol.

43. Officers when travelling or relieving may be allowed expenses on the approval of the Comptroller General at the rates prescribed by the Public Service Regulations.

44. Every officer must understand that his appointment is to prison service generally, and not to any particular prison, and that he is liable to be transferred to any other locality.

45. Officers holding positions for which they receive extra remuneration, will not receive such remuneration while on annual or long service leave or sick leave if it extends over 7 days should their duties have to be performed by an officer during their absence.

46. Scale of annual leave and holidays to disciplinary officers:—

- (a) Unless otherwise directed by the Minister, the Comptroller General shall grant to every officer permanently employed and to temporary officers employed for two years and over, at time to be appointed by the Comptroller General and suitable to the convenience of the Gaols Department, leave of absence for recreation for three weeks in each calendar year.
- (b) Temporary officers employed for one year and under two years, shall be similarly allowed two weeks annual leave.
- (c) Permanent and temporary officers without regard to length of service will, so far as the requirements of the Service will permit, be allowed to observe as holidays.—Xmas Day; Good Friday; Anzac Day; Labour Day. Officers required to work on any of those holidays will be allowed a day in lieu of same at a date to be fixed by the officer in charge.
- (d) Officers stationed north of 25 degrees south latitude, may be allowed, if they so desire, in lieu of annual, 56 days recreation leave biennially.

An officer taking biennial leave may be granted a free first-class steamer fare to Fremantle or other port approved by the Comptroller General for himself, wife and family, if any, under the age of 16 years. Additional days may be added to biennial leave sufficient to cover the time ordinarily and necessarily occupied in travelling to and from Fremantle.

- (e) Long service leave will be granted on the terms and conditions prevailing under the Public Service Act and Regulations for the time being.

CLASSIFICATION AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

47. The classification will be as prescribed from time to time by the Minister.

Superintendent of Fremantle Prison.

48. The Superintendent of Fremantle Prison shall be responsible for the conduct, management, and control of Fremantle Prison and such reformatory and other prisons as the Comptroller General may direct, including all matters relating to the discipline, training, general welfare and safe custody of inmates and the discipline, training, instruction, and general efficiency of officers.

Prison officers desiring to communicate with the Comptroller General shall first address the Superintendent.

Officer in Charge.

49. The officer in charge of a prison shall:—

- (a) Enforce the whole of the regulations when not inapplicable to his particular prison, and be responsible to the Comptroller General for the discipline, management, and safe custody of the prisoners under him; the care of all Government buildings and other property pertaining to the prison; the economical expenditure of stores; and that the labour of the prisoners is used to the best possible advantage of the Government, according to the description and quantity of work which may be at his disposal.
- (b) See that all regulations, orders, and instructions made, given, or issued for the management of the prison or the guidance of the officers are strictly carried out; that all necessary books are kept, and such returns furnished as the Comptroller General may require.
- (c) Be the medium of communication between the superior authority and the officers and prisoners under his charge, and shall forward without delay, to the Comptroller General, any report or complaint he may receive, addressed to such superior authority, with his report or remarks thereon.
- (d) Hear all reports that may be made to him and take care that any prisoner having a complaint to make or a request to prefer shall have ample facilities for so doing. Subject to the Regulations, he shall redress any grievance, or take such other steps as he may consider necessary in each case.
- (e) Personally keep a book or journal, in which he shall note any occurrence of importance which may happen in the prison.

- (f) Personally visit every ward, division, premises, and works of the prison, and shall be present at one muster daily, if possible. He shall occasionally visit the prison at uncertain hours by night, each of such visits being recorded.
- (g) In cases of grave misconduct have power to suspend any subordinate officer, but shall report the particulars without delay to the Comptroller General.
- (h) On each visit of the Comptroller General he shall report all irregularities which may have occurred in the prison since the last visit. In the event, however, of any serious irregularity, accident, or other extraordinary occurrence, he shall at once communicate with the Comptroller General by telephone, telegraph, or other rapid means.
- (i) Have power to place a prisoner guilty of breach of regulations, or other disorderly conduct, in close confinement until the arrival of the Comptroller General or a visiting Justice, to whom the circumstances of the case shall be reported. In cases of urgent necessity a prisoner may be placed in irons by the officer in charge, who shall report the case to the Comptroller General or a visiting Justice.
- (j) When a prisoner is suffering from injury or severe illness likely to terminate fatally, the officer in charge shall order that proper steps be taken to secure the prisoner visits from the minister of the religious persuasion to which such prisoner may belong; and communicate his condition to his relatives, if their addresses are known or can be ascertained.
- (k) On the death of a prisoner see that notice is at once given to the Coroner of the district, who shall hold an inquest on the body, and to the Comptroller General, and if practicable, to the friends or relatives of the prisoner. He shall give orders that the body be decently covered when placed in the coffin and cause the death to be registered and the funeral properly conducted in accordance with the conditions of contract for the time being. He shall endeavour to secure at the grave the services of a minister of the religious persuasion of the deceased.
- (l) See that all prisoners are treated with strict impartiality, and that any persons visiting the prison for any purpose are treated with civility.
- (m) Take every precaution for the safe custody of prisoners in his charge, and give orders for the daily examination of all cells, doors, bars, bolts, locks, wards, buildings, and grounds; and shall use every possible precaution to prevent escape of prisoners. Also adopt proper precautions against fire.
- (n) See that all supplies required for the prison are properly maintained, and be held responsible for the custody of all stores and other Government property supplied for use in the prison, and cause monthly returns to be rendered of the receipt and issue of all rations and other stores on prescribed forms, and propose any measures for saving or reduction in expenditure that may be practicable.
- (o) Give all necessary directions for the receipt and discharge of prisoners. Take charge of the warrants of commitment, and be held responsible for the due discharge of prisoners at the expiration of their sentences.
50. (1.) The private cash of prisoners of all classes, whether brought into prison at the time of the prisoners' reception or received by the officer in charge during the prisoners' detention, shall be entered in a book provided for that purpose.
- (2.) Cash of prisoners sentenced to two months or less may be retained in the safe and refunded to prisoner on discharge (except in the case of Fremantle and North-West gaols).
- (3.) In the case of prisoners who are sentenced to more than two months—
- (a) The cash must be banked to the credit of the Colonial Treasurer and a duplicate Bank Receipt (Treasury Form 27) and Cash Sheet (Treasury Form 2) forwarded direct to Accountant, Treasury.
- (b) When the money paid into the Bank is required for repayment to prisoners on release, a separate voucher (Treasury Form 10a) made out in the name of the Gaoler shall be forwarded three weeks prior to prisoner's discharge to the Comptroller General, Colonial Secretary's Department, specifying the amount of the refund required. This voucher must contain full details, including the full name of the prisoner. The Treasury will forward a cheque payable to the Gaoler, which is to be cashed on the day of the prisoner's discharge and the cash handed to the prisoner, who shall be required to sign Form 44, which shall be forwarded to Head Office when payment has been made.
- (c) In the case of a prisoner being discharged unexpectedly through any cause, a telegraphic request for refund of private cash should be made to the Comptroller General and, if necessary, the Treasury will arrange for the amount to be telegraphed.
- (4.) At Fremantle Gaol all amounts shall be banked daily to the credit of the Colonial Treasurer and a duplicate Bank Receipt (Treasury Form 27) accompanied by Cash Sheet (Treasury Form 2) forwarded direct to the Treasury. Refunds shall be made at the time of discharge of prisoner, from the cash advance held by the Superintendent, whose receipt shall be obtained as provided in Clause 6.
- (5.) In the case of gaols in the North-West the private cash of all prisoners, irrespective of the period of sentence, shall be paid to the credit of the Colonial Treasurer with the nearest Clerk of Court or Treasury Cashier, who will refund on the discharge of a prisoner any amount due to such prisoner on presentation of a voucher (Treasury Form 10a) made out in the name of the Gaoler, containing full particulars, including the name of the prisoner.
- (6.) All refunds shall be made in cash by the Gaoler, who shall obtain the prisoner's receipt on Form 44, as well as in the Property Book.
51. No prisoner shall be discharged or transferred without being seen by the officer in charge or such officer as the officer in charge may appoint. On the day prior to such discharge or transfer, the Prisoner's Property Book shall be searched to ascertain if there be any property on charge belonging to a prisoner about to be discharged or transferred. The prisoner shall be told the result of such search and of the disposal of the property if such have occurred in case it should not have been returned to him.

52. The Comptroller General shall, with the approval of the Minister, subject to the approval of the Governor, appoint an officer or officers to discharge the duties of officer in charge whenever the officer in charge is necessarily away from the prison owing to ill-health or leave of absence; and during such necessary absence the officers so appointed shall have all the powers and discharge all the duties of the officer in charge as shall be assigned them respectively. Before leaving, the officer in charge shall personally hand over the charge of the prison to the officer or officers appointed to relieve him.

Out-stations.

53. Every out-station shall be placed under the charge of an experienced officer, with such assistants as shall be deemed necessary. The officer in charge shall be responsible in all respects for the good order and conduct of the station:—

- (a) He shall be expected to keep the prisoners fully employed during working hours and to see that his assistants are diligent and attentive to their duties.
- (b) He shall see that his station is kept supplied with a sufficient stock of rations, as per dietary scale, of standard quality, with proper tools, equipment, clothing and bedding. He shall be responsible for the safe custody and correct issue of all stores placed in his charge.
- (c) He shall each evening not later than 8 p.m., after muster, securely lock up the building provided for the accommodation of his party and shall visit the building again through the night, his final visit not being earlier than 10 p.m. He shall count the prisoners in their beds at each visit.
- (d) He is directed to call the roll every hour during Sundays and holidays until lock-up time; and he shall report as an absconder any man found to be absent.
- (e) He shall insert in his weekly occurrence sheet all visits made to the station under his charge by any clergyman or other person visiting it for the purpose of affording religious instruction to the men. He shall also insert all visits made to the station by the visiting Justice.
- (f) The most prompt and immediate information shall be given to the police in the event of any prisoner escaping from an out-station, or any robbery being committed; information being given to every police patrol passing the station. Officers must exert themselves to the best of their ability in recapturing absconders, but under all circumstances immediate information is to be sent to the nearest police station.
- (g) The officers attached to an out-station shall be allowed to have wood and water delivered to them free. Prisoners detailed for this duty shall not be employed as officers' servants upon any pretext whatever.

(h) The officer in charge shall, at intervals as instructed, furnish returns as follows:—

- (1) Return of men transferred to or from his party.
- (2) Occurrence sheet.
- (3) Distribution.
- (4) Ration return.
- (5) Tool list.
- (6) Return of receipt and issue of clothing and stores.
- (7) Stock return.

Medical Officer, Fremantle.

54. The Medical Officer shall attend at the gaol every morning, and shall also attend whenever called on by the officer in charge. He shall also—

- (a) Examine all prisoners who may wish to see him, and shall order such of them as he may consider require it to be placed on the "Sick list," and shall prescribe such regimen and medicine as he may think necessary in each case.
- (b) Recommend prisoners to be exempted from labour, or to be employed at light labour, or in such manner as their cases may demand.
- (c) Provide free of cost proper and sufficient medical attendance, surgical treatment, advice, etc. (except major operations) to all officers of the department in his district and their families as shall be entitled to the same, upon application.
- (d) Medically examine every prisoner upon reception and record his state of health and other circumstances connected therewith as may be necessary.
- (e) Inform the officer in charge of any particulars he may become acquainted with in regard to a prisoner's body which may assist in identifying him.
- (f) From time to time examine all the prisoners under his care and report to the officer in charge if, in his opinion, the health of any of them is likely to suffer from the mode of discipline or labour to which they are subjected.
- (g) Examine the prisoner before corporal punishment is inflicted, and certify whether or not he is fit to receive such punishment. He shall be present at every infliction of corporal punishment which may take place within the gaol.
- (h) No serious operation shall be performed without his consent and a previous consultation with another medical practitioner.
- (i) Give every prisoner undergoing punishment by solitary confinement close medical observation.
- (j) Without charge, examine and report to the officer in charge as to the state of health of persons selected for appointment to the disciplinary staff of the gaol. He shall examine all warders before appointment to the permanent staff.

- (k) Make periodical inspection of the gaol at least once in every three months, in company with the officer in charge and, if possible, with the visiting Justice, and duly report to the officer in charge any matters connected with the sanitary condition of the gaol and its offices that he thinks worthy of notice, alteration, or improvement.
- (l) Keep a journal in which he shall enter day by day, in the English language, an account of the state of each patient under his care, the name of the disease under which he is suffering, and the description of the diet and medicine he orders for such patient.
- (m) Upon the death of any prisoner, the Medical Officer shall enter in his journal the following particulars, viz. :—
- (1) At what time the deceased was taken ill;
 - (2) When the illness was first brought under his notice;
 - (3) The nature of the disease;
 - (4) When the prisoner died;
 - (5) An account of the appearance after death (in cases where a post-mortem examination is held) together with any special remarks that appear to him to be required.
- (n) Keep such other books, and make such returns and reports as may be required by the Comptroller General.
55. Medical Officers at country stations shall visit the prisons as frequently as possible, and when called upon by the officer in charge.

The Chaplains.

56. (a) The chaplains of Fremantle Gaol shall have the spiritual charge of all prisoners whose names are returned to them by the officer in charge as having described themselves as members of their respective denominations. All Protestants, in the absence of other approved arrangements, shall be in the charge of the Anglican chaplain.
- (b) The chaplains shall attend at the gaol and hold divine service for men on Sundays in the morning and afternoon; and for women once every Sunday, and on such other occasions as may be arranged.
- (c) The chaplains shall be expected to enter into communication with the prisoners of their own denominations as far as may be practicable, especially with the worst characters, and to endeavour to exercise a softening and reforming influence upon them. They shall studiously avoid interfering with prisoners not returned to them or not in their charge.
- (d) The chaplains shall visit all prisoners sick in the hospital. They shall also visit prisoners confined in solitary cells or under other punishment.
- (e) Protestants of various denominations shall be included with the Anglicans in attending divine service, in the absence of other approved arrangements.
- (f) On the death of a prisoner, the chaplain to whose persuasion the deceased belonged shall attend the funeral and read the burial service, due notice of the time of the service being given by the officer in charge. The Anglican chaplain shall, in the absence of other approved arrangements, officiate at the burial of all Protestants.

(g) The chaplains shall have control of the library provided for the prisoners, and are empowered to requisition for any further supply of books they may consider necessary to take the place of worn-out volumes or to supplement the library. They shall also inspect all books, magazines, or other printed matter in the library. They will mutually confer as to the purchase of new books. A well-conducted prisoner may be appointed from time to time to be "library orderly." The church organist and choirs shall be under the direction and control of the respective chaplains, who shall, as vacancies occur in the choirs, nominate prisoners to fill them, subject to the approval of the officer in charge.

(h) Nonconformist, Hebrew, and other recognised ministers of religion may hold services for prisoners of their religions at times approved and authorised by the Comptroller General, and under such conditions as he may consider necessary.

Chief Warder, Fremantle.

57. The Chief Warder or other officer next in authority to the Superintendent shall have charge of the gaol during the temporary absence of the Superintendent. He shall—

(a) Be responsible to the Superintendent for the due order and discipline of the gaol, and report to that officer any irregularity that may come under his notice.

(b) Under the Superintendent, have charge of subordinate warders, and see that they are properly instructed in their duties and in the use of their arms. Perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Superintendent, and be responsible to the Superintendent for the safe custody of the prisoners; that they are properly searched; and that all trafficking and illicit communication is prevented.

(c) Give his constant attention to the security of the gaol, and be responsible for the proper maintenance of cleanliness and order in all departments thereof, and that there is no improper expenditure of water, fuel, gas or electric current. See that all cells, whether occupied or not, are strictly examined once every week, and kept clean, and that prisoners who are considered dangerous do not occupy adjoining cells.

(d) Be present at and conduct all musters. At uncertain times visit the gaol at night at least once a week, and inspect the officers on night duty frequently.

(e) When prisoners are allotted to parties for work outside the gaol walls, exercise judgment and discretion in such distribution; and particularly take care that no prisoners are thus employed who are considered likely to abscond or misbehave. Visit such outside parties twice a day where practicable, and shall see that a sufficient guard is sent out with all labour parties.

(f) Employ the best means at his disposal to make Chinese and other foreign prisoners acquainted with the regulations, allotting them, as far as possible, with prisoners of their own nationality who speak English and are able to interpret.

(g) Frequently visit the sentries and officers in charge of prisoners inside the gaol at their places of work during labour hours. Instruct the officers in charge of divisions to thoroughly inspect the same at last muster and satisfy themselves as to the security of all prisoners located there and that all regulations are complied with, and report same to the Superintendent.

(h) Every morning report to the Superintendent the result of his observations in the discharge of his duties.

(i) Duly and efficiently carry out all orders given to him by the Superintendent, and at all times assist that officer in maintaining proper order and discipline in all parts of the gaol.

Principal Warders.

58. (a) A Principal Warder shall rank next in authority to the chief warder.

(b) Principal warders shall take precedence of all ordinary warders, and shall perform such duties as may be allotted to them by their superior officers; and in the absence of officers of a higher grade, shall temporarily take charge of the portion of the gaol or the parties near them, and shall be held responsible therefor.

(c) They shall at all times assist the chief warder and other superior officers to the utmost of their ability in maintaining proper order and discipline.

Warders.

59. Before being accepted as a warder on the permanent staff, all persons appointed on probation shall be examined by the Medical Officer of the gaol, and be duly passed by him, with regard to general health and physical capability.

60. Warders shall carry out with vigilance and zeal all orders they may receive from their superiors. They shall, in addition to their ordinary duty, be liable to be called on, by day or night, to perform duties the exigencies of the service may require.

61. Warders shall not be eligible for promotion to rank of principal warders unless they shall satisfactorily pass an examination in arithmetic, the spelling of a list of prison terms, the preparation of short reports and station returns, and general knowledge of the duties of an officer.

62. Warders shall have charge of, and be responsible for all tools and implements of any kind which are in use in any of the parties or works which they supervise and shall keep proper account of the same.

63. Warders shall keep account of all work performed, as well as of the conduct of the prisoners under their charge, and shall make such returns and reports as may be required by the officer in charge.

64. When in charge of labour parties, warders shall be held responsible that the prisoners are industrious and orderly, and that all work is properly executed.

65. Warders shall not allow any unauthorised person to interfere in any way with the working parties under their control, or to have communication with, or give, or pass anything to a prisoner. They shall promptly order away any person apparently loitering about the gaol or working parties for such purpose. In case of necessity, they shall take proper steps for the arrest of such persons if they refuse to go when so ordered. Should they find any unauthorised articles they will at once take them to the Chief Warder.

66. Warders shall carefully observe the character, habits, and industry of the prisoners under their charge; and, it being of the utmost importance that the officer in charge should be fully informed on these points, the several officers shall carefully and impartially keep such records as may be ordered, and shall consider it to be their duty to afford, at all times, unreserved information on such points.

67. All prisoners, when in association, shall be placed under the control and supervision of warders whose duty it shall be to enforce silence in all cases wherein the regulations require it; to prevent all improper communications between prisoners themselves or between prisoners and civilians. They shall carefully watch the prisoners in their various movements and employments, and use the utmost alacrity and vigilance to prevent escape and shall enforce strict discipline and complete observance of the regulations.

68. On proceeding with prisoners to their labour the warder in charge of each party shall count the number of prisoners therein, as they are told off, and report to the Chief Warder or other appointed officer; after which such warder shall be held responsible for the safe custody and regular conduct of such prisoners on the works, and especially that they do not struggle or in any way get possession of prohibited articles. He shall also properly search the prisoners, both on leaving and returning to the gaol, to ascertain that they have no prohibited articles in their possession. When proceeding with prisoners from one point to another, the warder will see they march two deep, the warder always keeping in the rear.

69. An officer shall pay strict attention to cleanliness of person and dress, and shall at all times when on duty wear the officer's uniform according to the rank. Uniform will be supplied on the following scale:—

Conditions.

(a.) Part worn uniforms will be issued to probationary warders until supplied with their own uniform when found suitable for the service.

(b.) All uniforms are the property of the Government, and when any employee leaves, he or she shall return such uniform, providing two-thirds of the period it has to last has not expired from date of issue.

(c.) All uniforms for the female staff shall be made by or at the expense of the employee.

70. Should a warder's uniform become shabby before the expiration of the term of service fixed for each garment, the officer in charge may, with the authority of the Comptroller General, compel such warder to pay for new garments to replace those condemned.

71. Should an officer neglect or refuse to deliver up his uniform upon resignation, dismissal, or retirement from the service, the value thereof, calculated upon the then unexpired term of service therefor, may be deducted by the officer in charge from any pay due to such warder, provided always for sufficient reasons the Comptroller General may remit any portion of the service for which any article was issued.

72. A warder whose services shall be dispensed with for other reasons than that of misconduct, shall be entitled—if permanently engaged—to a month's notice or to a month's pay. Unless the Minister shall otherwise direct an officer permanently engaged who may leave of his own accord shall give one month's notice in writing or forfeit a sum not exceeding one month's pay. An officer temporarily engaged or on probation shall give two weeks' notice of his intention to leave or forfeit two weeks' pay.

73. A warder on leaving the service shall immediately vacate the quarters he has occupied.

74. A warder, unless under circumstances of emergency, shall not enter a prisoner's cell at night unaccompanied by another warder.

75. A warder on being relieved from any particular duty, or transferred to another, shall point out to his successor all matters of special importance connected with his duties and explain any directions of the officer in charge, medical officer, or other superior officer, affecting any particular prisoner or portion of the gaol which has been under his charge.

76. A warder shall be watchful to detect and prevent any persons secreting prohibited articles, etc., for the prisoners on the works or elsewhere about the gaol, and shall immediately report any such occurrence. He shall especially guard against the clothes of workmen, or others, being left lying about in places accessible to the prisoners, and shall report at the earliest opportunity any suspicious circumstances of this kind, or the loitering of improper or suspicious persons about the gaol or the works that he may have observed.

77. A warder in charge of a ward, or other part of the gaol, shall set cleaners to work in the halls, cells, passages, etc., and cleaners shall always be required, after work, to produce the brushes, brooms, etc., with which they may have been furnished. The officers shall expedite this necessary work so that it may be completed at the time fixed by the officer in charge.

78. Especial care shall be taken that no ladders, planks, wheelbarrows, ropes, chains, implements, or materials of any kind likely to facilitate escape are left unsecured at any time in the yards or elsewhere. All such articles when not in use shall be kept secured in their proper places. A warder shall report immediately any instance of such articles being left unsecured in neglect of this rule, whether it occurs in his own department or otherwise.

79. Should more than one warder be detailed for any particular duty, or two or more be together on duty at any particular place, the command shall devolve upon the senior unless specially ordered otherwise, and he shall be responsible that all the provisions of these regulations are duly observed by all officers and prisoners under his charge.

Armed Warders or Sentries.

80. (a.) When on duty under arms, warders shall be responsible that their arms are properly loaded, and shall be careful in handling them that no accident may occur. At such times they must invariably wear belts, and pouches containing six rounds of ammunition, and shall take care that the ammunition properly fits the arms they carry. They shall not deface their arms or accoutrements, or make any alteration in them without authority.

(b.) Upon a prisoner leaving his allotted place, or making movements indicative of any attempt to escape, or to commit an assault on any officer, or upon another prisoner or any other person, with any instrument or weapon, the armed warder on guard shall at once sound an alarm with his whistle, and if necessary, fire his rifle to attract attention. Any guard, gaoler, warder, police officer, or other person lawfully charged with the custody of any prisoner under sentence of death or penal servitude or imprisonment for any term, or on remand or awaiting trial, may fire upon any such prisoner while attempting to escape from any prison or other place, or while attempting to assault any guard, gaoler, warder, police officer, or other person aforesaid, or any other prisoner: Provided that such firing shall appear to be necessary to prevent the escape of such prisoners, or the assault committed or attempted by such prisoner was of a character apparently dangerous to the life or likely to cause bodily harm to the person assaulted or threatened. An armed warder or sentry shall not permit any prisoner to approach nearer to him than ten paces; nor shall he allow any prisoner to go beyond the prescribed limits of his work or party without permission having been granted.

(c) Upon any prisoner passing or attempting to pass the prescribed boundary of his work or party, it is the duty of the armed warder or sentry to challenge him by at once calling aloud, "Stand!" On this challenge being repeated twice and the prisoner neglecting or refusing to stand, the officer shall immediately give the alarm with his whistle, and it shall be lawful for him to use his firearms in case of inability to prevent the prisoner's escape by any other means.

(d) Should a prisoner escape, the armed warder or sentry and the officer in charge shall give the alarm loudly upon their whistles, and the former shall fire his rifle, if necessary, to attract attention. The warder in charge of any party working outside the gaol shall not, in the event of escape as above, leave his party without orders, but shall at once muster the remaining prisoners under him and march them back into the gaol and report and await further orders.

(e) A warder on armed duty must at all times be alert and vigilant. He may sit down for five minutes at intervals of thirty minutes except when on night guard. Whilst abstaining from using his firearms without absolute necessity, he must remember that it is his duty to prevent escape either by individual attempts or a general riot leading to such attempts; to protect unarmed officers in case of assault, and to render aid in quelling disturbances. In this and similar cases, where no hard and fast rules can be laid down, an officer must be guided by his judgment and intelligence.

(f) When on duty after receiving password at 6 p.m. Sentries or Guards shall challenge anyone approaching their post or coming out of Division and receive from them the password before allowing such persons to pass.

(g) They shall see that all authorised lights are kept burning, and shall work the tell-tale clocks at the appointed periods, and report any irregularity that may occur.

(h) Sentries on the walls shall keep a sharp look-out over the prison generally, and shall give notice of any irregularity that may be observed, although the same may not occur within their particular beat, they shall give every assistance to each other without leaving their post except when ordered by a superior officer. They shall be responsible for all prisoners within their vision.

(i) Sentries on night duty are not to remain in their sentry boxes unless it rains heavily, and even then they are to visit and examine their charge frequently.

(j) Defacing or writing on the sentry boxes or boards is strictly prohibited, and sentries on taking post are to examine and report at once any injury or disfigurement, otherwise they will be held responsible.

Night officers in Division.

81. (a) The night officer shall be responsible that all authorised lights are burning.

(b) He shall inspect all prisoners in their cells by means of the electric light, once before and once after midnight.

(c) He shall peg clocks at the appointed times and be constantly on the alert for any suspicious sounds and report such occurrence or any irregularity to the officer in charge of the Prison at once, either by telephone or on the first visit of the officer in charge.

82. Officers who commit any of the following offences are liable to reprimand, fine, reduction in rank or rank and pay, or dismissal, according to the gravity of the offence, provided that no officer is punished without a proper inquiry being held as hereinafter provided:—

- Coming late on duty, unless a medical certificate or some other good and sufficient reason is adduced.
- Coming on duty in a slovenly condition.
- Neglecting to search a working party properly, whether going out or coming in.
- Allowing a prisoner to be out of sight while upon the works without special permission.
- Leaving tools or prison property not properly secured.
- Leaving, or permitting to be left, unsecured, articles likely to facilitate escape.
- Holding private conversation with a prisoner.
- Permitting strangers to converse with a prisoner, without special authority.
- Permitting persons employed on the works to converse with prisoners unnecessarily.
- Using slang or improper language to a prisoner.
- Swearing.
- Conversing on public or private topics in the hearing of prisoners.
- Wrangling.
- Allowing a prisoner to have a key belonging to the Gaol, or access to one.
- Leaving the doors of workshops, cookhouse, bakehouse, etc., open or unlocked for the night.
- Leaving prisoners in any of their places at any time without authorised supervision.
- Allowing any prisoner to enter the cookhouse, bakehouse, laundries, workshops, etc., without proper authority.
- Leaving keys about the premises or not at the proper place.
- Leaving cells unlocked when prisoners are inside.
- Leaving wards unlocked after prescribed hours of locking.

Neglecting to hand keys to proper officer on leaving the gaol.

Neglecting to notify immediately the confinement of a prisoner in cells for refractory conduct.

Neglecting to properly search a prisoner sentenced or taken into the refractory cells, in order to prevent the practicability of suicide or escape.

Sleeping on duty.

Sitting down while on night guard.

Leaving working parties without authorised supervision.

Smoking on duty, or within the prohibited parts of the gaol.

Not keeping the night lights properly trimmed.

Permitting conversation during silence hours.

Absence from appointed posts without permission.

Entering a prisoner's cell at night without the presence of a second officer, except in case of urgency.

Confining a prisoner in the refractory cells without sufficient cause.

Neglecting to communicate, on relief, all matter of importance connected with the division, prisoners, etc.

Employing a prisoner in acts of private service.

Allowing disorderly or uncleanly condition of wards, cells, divisions, etc.

Allowing disorderly or unclean condition of prisoners.

Not issuing rations correctly and at the prescribed time.

Not issuing clothing, necessaries, etc., correctly and at regular times.

Returning clothing, etc., to store, incorrectly or torn, or damaged, without proper reports.

Neglecting to report the sickness of a prisoner.

Neglecting to report a complaint of a prisoner.

Neglecting to report an offence against the regulations by a prisoner.

Making up prisoners' conduct books improperly, carelessly, or with partiality.

Want of vigilance on duty.

Any act of neglect, carelessness, or inefficiency.

Disobedience.

Gossiping on duty.

Leaving cell doors on single lock after 5.30 p.m.

Leaving bars or bolts off doors, or not in their proper position.

Neglecting to try all bars, bolts, locks, doors, gates, or windows to see that they are properly secure, or failing to report same if found insecure.

Apparently wholly or partially intoxicated while on duty.

Fines may be deducted from the next pay due to the officer fined, and a monthly statement of such fines shall be transmitted to the Colonial Secretary's Office.

Storekeeper or Officer in Charge of Stores.

83. (a) The Storekeeper, Fremantle Gaol, and the officer in charge at other prisons shall have charge of all public property brought into Gaol or prison after purchase or manufacture, and shall be held responsible that it is kept in good order, and preserved from damage by weather, or other cause. He shall make no issues therefrom, except on requisition approved by the Comptroller General, or under his authority, by the officer in charge. He shall keep all necessary books, and furnish such returns as may be required.

(b) No article, whether food, bedding, clothing, or any other description, shall be received into the prison until it has been examined to ascertain that it contains nothing contrary to the regulations; and the admission of any article which may appear likely to be used for any improper purpose shall be refused.

(c) All articles sent to the prison by contractors are to be at once inspected, and if of an inferior quality or unsuitable for the purpose for which they may be required they shall not be received but returned, with written statement of cause thereof. Rations and perishable goods shall be dealt with in accordance with conditions of contract. The storekeeper shall enforce a strict adherence to contract in all supplies received for the service of the department.

(d) The storekeeper or other officer in charge of stores shall keep a separate account of the quantity and value of all materials issued for the manufacture of articles in the various workshops and also of the various articles returned to store as the produce of such manufacture. The trade instructor to whom the material is issued is responsible to the storekeeper that it is economically and profitably used according to a scale to be approved by the Comptroller General.

(e) The storekeeper, or other officer in charge of stores, shall prepare and submit for approval of the Comptroller General a schedule of prices to be charged for articles manufactured or produced in the prison, such prices being based upon the cost of raw material, supervision, value of prisoners' labour, upkeep, wear and tear of machinery and tools, and any incidental costs affecting the same.

(f.) Every article made of Government materials within the prison or grown upon a prison reserve, or in any way produced or procured at the cost of the State, is hereby declared to be public property, and is to be taken into charge and dealt with accordingly. All articles that can be so treated shall be branded with the Government brand as directed, before being issued from the store for general use.

(g.) No article whatever of public property, except fixtures in Government quarters, is on any pretence to be taken into private use. No Government materials shall be allowed to be used in making any article for private purposes, unless authorised by the Comptroller General.

(h.) The storekeeper or officer in charge of the stores shall be responsible for the correct issue of rations, day by day, according to prescribed scale of diet. Also for all stores and materials, whether for general use or for manufacture or repairs of articles, as may be demanded by requisitions approved as laid down by regulation.

(i.) The storekeeper shall keep a clear and exact account of all goods received and placed in his charge, and of the disposition of each and every article; and shall in all cases obtain receipts for all stores issued, such receipts to be duly kept available for reference.

(j.) He shall attend to the proper preservation of stores in hand, and maintain by constant supervision the stock of all articles necessary for efficient supply of the institutions dependent on it. He shall satisfy himself that due order and regularity are strictly observed and maintained by his subordinates.

(k.) In order to exercise an effective control and economy in the use of public property entrusted to officers, the storekeeper or other officer in charge of stores at each prison shall keep a ledger of all articles of furniture, utensils, tools, machinery, and requisites of all kind in use in the various parts of the prison, and shall prepare lists in duplicate of the articles in the immediate charge of each responsible officer, who shall sign such lists, one to be retained by himself, and the other by the storekeeper. The officer in whose immediate charge the articles are is not to be relieved of that charge until his successor has taken the goods over and signed for them, or until they have been returned to the store.

Trade Instructors.

84. (a.) Trade instructors shall faithfully teach and impart all information concerning their trades to those prisoners placed in their charge, so as to render them efficient workmen.

(b) Trade instructors shall keep a correct record of the quantity of material expended, and the amount of labour required, in the manufacture of the various articles made under their supervision. They shall be responsible to the storekeeper or officer in charge of stores for all unexpended material, tools, machinery, and equipment and that all are kept in the best order and condition.

(c) Trade instructors shall always do everything possible to meet the requirements of the storekeeper relative to the manufacture of stores.

(d) Trade instructors shall exercise full responsibility for the prisoners in their respective workshops, involving the searching of their workshops and of such prisoners on leaving the shop.

(e) Trade instructors will be amenable to the regulations generally, and especially to those relating to warders, and will be entitled to the annual leave and holidays mentioned in Regulation 46.

(f) Trade instructors appointed after 31st December, 1922, shall carry out such duties on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays as may be allotted to them.

Gatekeeper.

85. The officer on duty as gatekeeper shall not open the Lodge entrance gate until he has ascertained who seeks admission and shall admit no person except prisoners and their escort without authority from the Comptroller General or officer in charge. He shall keep a journal in which shall be recorded the ingress and egress of all persons on business, parties of, and individual prisoners and authorised visitors. He will not allow officers on duty to leave the prison until their period of duty is finished, unless on some special duty.

(b) He must pay particular attention to officers coming on or going off duty, and must not fail to report to the Chief Warder or other senior officer anything suspicious he may notice, and will allow no officer to go on duty whom he may suspect to be suffering from the influence of drink.

(c) The Gatekeeper will allow no prisoner or prisoners to pass out through main gate unless accompanied by an officer or on production of a pass signed by the Chief Warder or other higher authority.

(d) He will not allow any vehicle to pass the double grill gate unless under the supervision of and accompanied by an officer.

(e) He will draw the attention of visitors to Section 63 of Prisons Act, 1903-18, posted outside the door of the entrance to Prison.

(f) He will see that each order in the Superintendent's Order Book is initialed by all officers concerned.

(g) The Gatekeeper shall examine the contents of all handbags or other receptacles brought into or taken out of the prison by any person whatsoever and may detain any article therein pending reference to the officer for the time being in charge of the Prison.

(h) The night gatekeepers are, when the prison is closed for the night, in charge, and will pay frequent visits to the posts and patrols, paying particular attention to all bolts, bars, doors, windows, etc., to detect and prevent any attempt at escape. When visiting posts and patrols between the hours of 5.30 p.m. and 6 a.m. they will at all times go armed.

(i) The Gatekeeper will in case of necessity or urgency, call up the Chief Warder or Superintendent.

The Matron, Fremantle.

86. The matron is charged, under the general authority of the Comptroller General and the supervision of the Superintendent, with the entire control of the female prisoners, and the compartments of the gaol occupied by them. She will permit no male officer to enter the female division except in company with herself or an assistant matron. She will report at the Superintendent's Office each morning, Sundays and holidays excepted. Her duties in other respects will be analogous in their degree to those of the Chief Warder.

87. Female officers will be amenable to the general regulations and to those relating to male officers of corresponding ranks and grades. The senior assistant matron will take charge during the temporary absence of the matron.

Enquiries against Officers.

88. (a) All charges shall be made on the officers' report sheet and forwarded to the officer in charge by whom the enquiry shall be held and shall be delivered by the officer in charge to the officer accused as soon as possible after the alleged offence has been committed. The officer accused shall either admit or deny the charge.

(b) If the charge is admitted it will be only necessary to record sufficient evidence to show the gravity of the offence, and to take the statement of the accused in extenuation of the charge.

(c) If the charge is not admitted, evidence in support of same will be taken and the statements of witnesses recorded in narrative form.

(d) The accused may cross-examine witnesses, and when he has done so the officer holding the enquiry may also re-examine the witnesses.

(e) The evidence of the witnesses will be read to them, and if correct, they will sign the record. Witnesses may have mistakes corrected before signing.

(f) On the conclusion of all evidence for the charge and defence the accused should be allowed to make any statement he wishes, in extenuation or otherwise of his case, and the statement being read, if correct, he will sign his name to the record.

(g) Evidence against an officer must be taken in his presence. On the conclusion of the case the officer holding the enquiry will record his finding and sentence.

(h) The officer in charge may take any evidence which he may deem advisable when holding any enquiry under this regulation.

(i) It shall be competent for the officer holding the enquiry to investigate the charge and inflict the following punishments on any subordinate officer charged with an offence:—

(1) Suspend any officer from duty pending the decision of higher authority.

(2) Caution, reprimand, or inflict a fine not exceeding £1.

89. In the case of serious or aggravated offences against prison discipline, for which in the opinion of the officer in charge the above punishments are inadequate, the full and original notes of the enquiry shall be sent to the Comptroller General, who is empowered to inflict the following punishments:—

(a) Reprimand or exonerate the officer charged.

(b) Fine any subordinate officer an amount not exceeding £5.

(c) Forfeit and cancel any holiday leave due within the year in which the offence occurred.

(d) Reduce any subordinate officer in rank, or in rank and pay for any period he may consider necessary; or

(e) Dismiss from the Service such subordinate officer.

Comptroller General pending the investigation of the charge.

90. Any officer against whom a charge has been laid may be suspended from duty by the Comptroller General pending the investigation of the charge.

91. If the person charged is an officer in charge the charge shall be investigated and dealt with by the Comptroller General or his deputy.

Right of Appeal.

92. All subordinate officers have the right of appeal as follows:—

(a) Against the decision of the officer in charge under Regulation 88 (i) to the Comptroller General, whose decision shall be final.

(b) Against the decision of the Comptroller General under Regulations 89 and 90 to the Appeal Board as hereinafter constituted, whose decision shall be final.

Appeal Board.

93. (a) Any person who, being permanently employed at a prison, is:—

(1) Fined a sum of £1; or over.

(2) Reduced to a lower class or grade; or

(3) Dismissed by the Comptroller General of Prisons for alleged misconduct, may appeal to an Appeal Board as hereinafter provided.

(b) No person shall be deemed to be permanently employed within the meaning of this regulation unless continuously employed for at least one year.

(c) The Appeal Board shall consist of the following persons, that is to say—

One person to be appointed by the Governor and he shall be Chairman of the Board.

One person to be appointed by the Comptroller General.

One person to be elected by ballot from among their own number by the members of the staff to whom these regulations apply.

Provision shall be made for the appointment or election of a deputy in each case.

(d) The ballot for the elective member of the Board shall be conducted by the Chief Electoral Officer or some other person acting under his authority.

(e) The person elected shall hold office for three years.

(f) If any member of the Board die, or by notice in writing to the Comptroller General resign his office, or being the elective member of the Board cease to be a member of the staff, his seat shall become vacant, and a successor shall be appointed, or elected, as the case may require, who shall hold office for the residue of the period during which his predecessor would have held the seat had he remained a member of the Board. Provided that when the seat of the elective member of the Board becomes vacant within three months before the date of an ordinary election, the member elected to fill the vacancy shall continue in office until the end of the next succeeding term of three years.

(g) Every appeal to the Board shall be commenced by a notice in writing signed by the appellant. The appellant shall endorse on the notice of appeal an undertaking to pay any costs that may be awarded against him by the Board, and that in default of payment such costs may be deducted from any salary that may be or become payable to him; and, if the appeal is against dismissal, he shall deposit with his notice of appeal the sum of two pounds as security for the payment of such costs.

(h) Every notice of appeal shall be lodged with the Comptroller General within fourteen days of the date of the decision appealed against. The Comptroller General shall forthwith transmit the notice of appeal, if apparently in order, to the Board, and the Board shall hear and determine the appeal within thirty days from the date upon which the notice of appeal was lodged.

(i) No solicitor, counsel, or agent, other than an employee of the Department or the recognised secretary of the association to which the appellant belongs, shall appear or be heard on any appeal, but the appellant shall appear in person or by another employee of the Department or the secretary of the association as aforesaid, and the Department by the Comptroller General, or some officer appointed by him in that behalf.

(j) The Board may confirm, modify, or reverse any decision appealed against, or make such other order thereon as it thinks fit.

(k) The Board may fix the costs of any appeal, and direct by whom, and in what proportions they shall be payable, and in every case costs shall be awarded against the appellant whose appeal is considered frivolous.

(l) The decision of the majority of the members of the Board shall be the decision of the Board.

(m) The Comptroller General on appeal and the Appeal Board may take any evidence which they may deem advisable on the hearing of any appeal.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO PRISONERS.

Prisoners generally.

94. Prisoners at Fremantle shall as far as practicable be classified as follows, and as far as the construction of the prison and the necessities of the works and trades will admit each class shall be kept apart:—

- 1st.—Prisoners awaiting trial or on remand.
- 2nd.—Debtors and persons imprisoned for contempt of court or for failing to give security for the peace or for good behaviour.
- 3rd.—Reformatory class.
- 4th.—Youthful offenders up to 25 years of age.
- 5th.—All other prisoners.

Reception and disposal of property and wearing apparel.

95. (a) A convicted prisoner, upon admission to any prison, shall be required to give up his clothing, money, or other property in his possession. He shall then be made to bath himself thoroughly, according to the regulations, and shall be supplied with prison clothing, which he must not in any way alter or destroy, and for which he shall be held responsible whilst it is in his possession and until clean clothing is given in lieu thereof on the regular clothes changing day.

(b) The clothes which a prisoner may bring with him shall, if his own property, be kept for him, provided they are worth keeping, or if the term of his sentence does not exceed sixteen months, and shall be entered, with his other property, in a book kept for that purpose, which he shall sign. The package shall then be duly addressed, and returned to him on his discharge. In the event of a prisoner's clothing being infected with vermin, or worthless, it will be destroyed.

(c) A prisoner whose clothing has been destroyed as above will receive other clean clothes in place of them upon his discharge.

(d) The clothing of a prisoner under sentence of over sixteen months will be confiscated, and he will be provided with a kit of new clothes throughout on his release.

(e) Excepting when the balance of his sentence has been remitted before serving the period equivalent to a sixteen months sentence, if clothing cannot be provided by himself or his friends, he will be allowed only partially worn clothing, so far as such may be available.

(f) Money, tools, or other articles, as approved, the property of a prisoner, will be kept for him, and handed over to him upon his discharge.

Photographs and Finger Prints.

96. (a) Every convicted prisoner shall submit himself or herself to be photographed, and to have the prints of his or her fingers, measurements, and other particulars taken and recorded on reception and discharge; and also at any other time when ordered by the Comptroller General.

(b) No copy of any photograph of a prisoner taken under these regulations shall be shown, given, or sold to any person or persons other than those whose public duty require it.

97. A prisoner whose sentence exceeds two months with hard labour shall, upon admission, have his hair cut and his face shaved or clipped. Shaving or clipping shall continue weekly during the term of imprisonment, until within two months prior to discharge, when prisoners may be permitted to grow their whiskers, etc., as they may desire. The hair shall be cut monthly until two months prior to discharge. Razors and scissors shall not be given out by the warder in charge of them until everything is ready for them to be used by the prisoner. These implements shall be carefully collected by the warder and locked away immediately shaving, clipping, and hairdressing are over.

98. Every prisoner shall rise immediately on the first bell being rung in the morning, and make up his bedding neatly, according to the general rules and the system which shall be shown to him by the warder on duty in his ward. Upon cell doors being unlocked each prisoner will stand at his door until the word is given to file out; he will take with him his sanitary bucket and dirty water, etc., and empty same at the appointed place; he shall cleanse the utensils thoroughly, and get a supply of clean water in his water bucket.

99. Every prisoner shall keep his person, cell, and clothing at all times in the highest state of cleanliness; and shall keep his cell furniture and utensils thoroughly clean and neatly arranged as directed by the warder on duty. Two male prisoners shall not at any time be allowed in the same cell, room, or w.c. together, unless a prison officer is with them.

100. Every prisoner shall, when practicable, bathe once a week, and shall be marched with others to the bath-house upon the appointed day in each week for this purpose, which shall be duly and efficiently performed. Every prisoner shall wash each morning in the water bucket placed in the cell allotted to him, or in the yard, as directed.

101. A prisoner shall not interfere with his bedding during the daytime, until after evening muster. He shall then make down his bed, retire to rest, and preserve perfect order and quiet in his cell. At 8 p.m. the order "Silence" shall be given, the command rigidly enforced, and lights turned out.

102. A prisoner who shall require any assistance whilst in his cell, during the day or night, is permitted to knock at his cell door or sound his cell bell when such is provided, for the warder on duty, to whom he must state the reason of his summons, and the warder shall deal with the case as may be necessary. A prisoner shall not make an unnecessary complaint or knock at the cell door or sound his cell bell without sufficient and proper reason; and if he does so he shall be reported.

103. A prisoner shall preserve strict silence at muster, in his cell at all times, and whilst marching to and from his place of labour. When at work in his cell no talking or other noises shall be permitted, except as the nature of the work may require, or when addressing an officer.

104. A prisoner whilst in the exercise yard shall be permitted to engage in such games as approved by the Superintendent or officer in charge. No prisoner while at exercise or in his cell or elsewhere shall scratch, write upon or deface in any way any of the walls, posts, rails, or other portions of the gaol or its offices, or fittings, or furniture, or interfere with his cell windows. Any misconduct as above shall be duly reported.

105. A prisoner shall immediately obey all orders he may receive from the officers, and, though he may consider himself aggrieved, he shall nevertheless obey; but he is permitted afterwards to make complaint to the officer in charge, provided he at once requests to have his name entered in the book kept for the purpose.

106. No gaming is permitted, and all officers are empowered to seize any dice, cards, or other instruments of gaming, of which any prisoner may have become possessed, and shall duly report the offender, who shall be liable to be severely punished. The officers shall destroy all such implements of gaming.

107. A prisoner who shall commit a breach of these regulations or use improper language, or be guilty of swearing, quarrelling, fighting, or making a false statement, or giving a false reply to any question, either verbally or in writing, or any prisoner guilty of an indecent act, or smoking in any prohibited place, or at an improper time, or trafficking in any way, or who shall have money, knives, or any other sharp instrument, or pencil, paper, or writing material of any description not authorised, or any book, or printed paper, or publication, or any other article in his possession or in his cell or where he is working, which has not been properly issued to him, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be duly reported; and all such articles shall be immediately confiscated.

108. A prisoner is liable to be searched at any time.

109. A prisoner who is dissatisfied with the quantity or quality of his rations should complain as soon as the food has been issued to him, and point out cause of complaint before using any portion of such rations. No complaint respecting quantity can be entertained unless made at once.

110. Unused food must not be left on the floor, but placed in bag or haversack provided for that purpose; food not required shall be placed in food utensils.

111. At all musters every prisoner must be in his proper place in the ranks of the party to which he belongs. Immediately after the ringing of the parade muster bell the prisoners shall be ranged up in file two or three deep, as may be necessary, and shall stand at attention, with clothes neatly buttoned. They shall submit themselves to be thoroughly searched at every parade muster.

112. A prisoner shall not leave the ranks at muster, or his place of work during labour hours, without the permission of the officer in whose charge he may be at the time, nor shall any prisoner leave divine service before being regularly dismissed.

113. A prisoner making any movement, at any time, indicative of an attempt to escape, or to commit an assault on any officer, or upon a fellow prisoner, or any other person, with any instrument or weapon, will render himself liable to be fired on by the armed warder or other officer in whose charge he may be; and each and every prisoner is hereby cautioned that if he infringes the rule he does so at his own risk and peril.

114. A prisoner shall not approach nearer than ten paces to an armed warder on duty, nor shall he go beyond the prescribed limits of his work or party. Upon any prisoner passing, or attempting to pass, the prescribed bounds above mentioned, he shall be called upon by the officer or guard to stand. On this challenge being repeated twice, and the prisoner neglecting or refusing to stand as ordered, such prisoner will render himself liable to be fired on.

115. A prisoner shall be allowed as much air and exercise as may be deemed necessary for the preservation of health, consistent with security. A prisoner who shall, during the time allowed for exercise, become riotous or disorderly, or make any attempt to escape, or assault the warder on duty in the exercise yard, etc., and who cannot otherwise be controlled, shall be liable to be fired on by the armed warder.

116. Every prisoner is strictly cautioned against holding or attempting to hold any unauthorised communication with any person inside or outside the prison, either by letters, words, signs, or sounds, or in any other manner.

Letters.

117. (a) A prisoner, if well conducted, shall be allowed to write and receive one letter upon admission and once a month during the continuance of sentence on subjects strictly connected with himself and family. Letters must not contain "slang" or improper expressions, and must be forwarded through the prison officials.

(b) Every letter, either to or from a prisoner, will be opened and perused by the officer in charge, who may withhold the same at his discretion; but shall submit any letter so withheld for the decision of the Comptroller General.

(c) No letter will be received or forwarded on account of any prisoner unless the above regulations are complied with.

(d) The Comptroller General has power to sanction any departure from these regulations as to the number of letters to be sent or received by a prisoner.

118. A prisoner when approaching, passing, or being passed by the Comptroller General, Superintendent, or officer in charge, medical officer, or the Chaplains, shall salute the officer in a proper manner by bringing the hand smartly to the forehead and looking towards him.

119. The Superintendent or officer in charge has power to refuse to all except well conducted prisoners permission to attend concerts, lectures, or other entertainments.

120. Every prisoner must be attentive and diligent in performing whatever description of labour may be assigned to him.

121. A prisoner shall on no account be idle during the authorised hours of labour, unless excused by the Medical Officer on account of ill-health, but shall devote himself actively to his work during the day, and upon the degree of industry and good conduct which a prisoner may evince, which shall be duly noted and recorded, shall mainly depend the consideration for any marks for which he may be recommended.

122. Any conversation by prisoners while at work shall be restricted to the extent that it shall not interfere with the progress of the work or with other prisoners. It shall be of a quiet and orderly nature and shall cease on instruction to do so from the warder.

123. A prisoner who may desire to interview the Comptroller General, Visiting Justice, the Officer in Charge, the Medical Officer, or the Chaplains shall apply to the officer in whose immediate charge he is, to have his name inserted in the book kept for the purpose, stating, as far as possible, the reason for desiring such interview, and he shall be permitted to see such officer in due course. Prisoners are warned against making frivolous or groundless complaints, as for so doing they are liable to punishment.

124. A prisoner guilty of a breach of any of the regulations or other disorderly conduct may be kept in close confinement until arrival of the Comptroller General or Visiting Justices, to whom the circumstances of the case shall be reported. In cases of urgent necessity a prisoner may be placed in irons by the officer in charge, who may at once report the case to the Comptroller General or Visiting Justice.

Visits to Prisoners.

125. (a) A convicted prisoner shall be permitted to receive one visit from a relative or friend upon admission, and if well-behaved, one visit per month during the term of his sentence. All visits shall be received and carried out in the presence of a warder, who shall observe all that may pass.

(b) The time for a visit shall be twenty minutes, but may be extended by the Superintendent. No visits will be allowed before ten in the morning or after four in the afternoon, and not at all on Saturday afternoons or Sundays.

(c) Visitors bringing any article for use of a prisoner shall give it to the warder conducting the visit, who shall submit it to the officer in charge for his decision as to its destination.

(d) Persons who have served sentences in Gaol, or others of known bad character, shall not be eligible as visitors unless from the nature of their business with the prisoner the Superintendent may consider it desirable to admit them.

(e) It is optional on the part of a prisoner to see a visitor.

126. A prisoner at all times during the day, when not at work, shall wear all his usual prison garments; the jacket, vest, and other articles to be neatly buttoned, tied, or fastened in an approved manner. Prisoners are not allowed to alter their clothing.

127. Hats shall not be worn by prisoners inside any of the buildings of the prison.

128. A prisoner reported for misconduct, disobedience, or any wilful neglect of regulations, or of orders, shall be brought before the officer in charge who, if he deem the offence sufficiently serious, shall direct the offender to be taken before the Visiting Justice for trial and such award as the offence shall be deemed to deserve.

129. A prisoner sentenced to confinement in a punishment cell for any period of time shall be permitted one hour's out-door exercise each day of his sentence and the rations prescribed in the dietary scale. Such sentence shall commence at 1 p.m. on the day the confinement begins and shall continue until 1 p.m. on the day such sentence expires.

130. A prisoner sentenced to "bread and water" shall not be entitled to any out-door exercise during the term of sentence. A "bread and water" sentence shall commence at 4 p.m. on the first day of the sentence, and shall continue until 4 p.m. on the day when such sentence expires.

131. A prisoner shall not be permitted to petition the Governor-in-Council or the Minister unless he can adduce some material and well-supported fact in his favour which he was unable to bring forward at his trial, and no prisoner is allowed to petition as above without special permission obtained from the Comptroller General. A prisoner whose case has been once considered on a petition shall not be permitted to again petition unless some new matter, having an important bearing on the case, has become known to the prisoner subsequent to the decision on his former application.

132. A prisoner, upon admission, shall be required to declare the religion (if any) which he professes. Anglicans, Wesleyans, Presbyterians, and members of other Protestant denominations will be classed together as Protestants. No prisoner will be allowed to change his classification as to his professed religion except with the approval of the Comptroller General.

133. All Protestant and Roman Catholic prisoners will be required to attend Divine service at days and hours which shall be arranged by the Superintendent or officer in charge. Prisoners shall conform to the usages and practices as carried out during Divine services.

134. Hebrews, Mahomedans, and followers of other forms of religion may, at all proper times and seasons, receive spiritual consolation from their ministers and practise the religious exercises of their denominations, always, however, under such restrictions as may be imposed by the Comptroller General.

135. Every well conducted prisoner shall be allowed one book, other than a purely educational work, from the library. All volumes issued to prisoners shall be entered in a book kept for the purpose by the librarian. A prisoner shall not be allowed to change his book with a fellow prisoner, and shall not write in, deface, tear, or in any way injure the book issued to him, for which he is held responsible until the regular day for changing books. Prisoners are permitted to make application through the librarian, to the Chaplains, and request permission to have any special book which may be in the library. If not in use, such book shall be issued to him with the approval of the Chaplains. Hebrews, Mahammedans, and others who can read English shall be allowed to have books from the library at the discretion of the Chaplain in charge.

136. Well-conducted prisoners may be appointed by the officer in charge to attend to various special duties in each prison, such as those of scavengers, cleaners, cooks, bakers, hospital attendants, barbers, lampmen, orderlies, or writers. They shall be kept under the supervision of the officer in whose immediate charge they shall be placed.

137. The officer in charge shall have power to work, separately, at such labour as he may deem suitable, any prisoner repeatedly guilty of breaches of discipline and disregard of regulations, and to prevent contamination of other prisoners by any such prisoner may, by order of the Comptroller General, be separately confined during the whole or any part of his imprisonment.

138. Discharge of prisoners on completion of sentences shall be governed by the following rules, viz.:

- (a) When the term of imprisonment expires on a working day, the discharge shall be made between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12 noon on that day.
- (b) When the time expires on a Sunday, Christmas Day or Good Friday, the discharge shall be made on the day previous immediately after dinner.
- (c) When the day arrives on which the prisoner is entitled to his discharge, he shall inform the Chief Warder or officer in charge of the fact at the first muster.
- (d) If the prison authorities are not notified before 11 a.m. in case of remission of sentences, fines paid or sureties entered into, the discharge may not take place until the following morning. Should that day be a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, the discharge will take place on the following day.
- (e) The day of discharge counts as one day, and the day of commitment or arrest on warrant of commitment in summary cases, and, in indictable cases, the day on which the sessions commence, each counts as a whole day.
- (f) The hours for admission and discharge at Fremantle Prison shall be between 10 a.m. and 12 noon, Sundays excepted.

There shall be allowed to all prisoners pepper at the rate of 1 ounce per diem per 100 persons, and washing soda at the rate of 1 drachm per head per day.

The weights prescribed of meat, oatmeal, vegetables, rice and beans are prior to cooking.

After cooking, the meat shall be weighed in bulk and divided proportionately, according to scale.

All diets may be reduced or increased and additional items added as the Medical Officer may from time to time order.

Any order made by the Medical Officer for special dieting of any prisoners shall be given in writing, and strictly adhered to.

MARKS SYSTEM.

140. (a) All prisoners, including Naval and Military prisoners are entitled to earn marks towards remission of sentence, except where otherwise provided by the Regulations.*

(b) No prisoner can earn more than eight or less than six marks per diem. The six represents unit or one day's imprisonment.

(c) Prisoners will be able to earn on each day eight, seven or six marks, according to industry and good conduct. On Sundays they shall be awarded marks in proportion to the number earned during the week.

(d) Prisoners who are not at work by reason of being under punishment are only entitled to receive six marks, which denote one day's imprisonment.

(e) Prisoners in hospital will be credited with eight marks per diem providing they are not suffering from any illness caused by circumstances within their control and a list of prisoners suffering from any illness caused by circumstances within their control will be sent weekly to the Superintendent or Officer in Charge, who will, in consultation with the Medical Officer, award marks as may be determined.

(f) Prisoners detained pending appeal and who are not working, can only earn seven marks per diem if conduct is good.

(g) Prisoners sentenced at Supreme Court are eligible to earn seven marks per diem from date of opening of the sessions until date of sentence thereafter, six, seven, or eight, according to conduct and industry.

(h) Every prisoner sentenced to four days and over is eligible to come under the "Mark System."

(i) To determine a sentence, the following method will be employed:—Reduce sentence to days, multiply by six (6) for number of marks to be earned, divide number of marks to be earned by eight (8) for minimum number of days to be served, i.e., one (1) year = 365 days multiplied by 6 equals 2,190 marks, divided by eight (8) equals 273 days, with six marks over, which a prisoner must remain in prison to earn, making 274 days, the minimum time to serve, equivalent to 91 days remission or one quarter of sentence.

(j) Officers in charge of parties will, on completion of each day's work, report to the Principal Warder, or other Senior Officer, in writing, any prisoner who has misbehaved himself or has not been diligent, for consideration in deciding the allotment of marks for that day.

* Gazetted 9th September, 1915.

(k) If a prisoner for any reason fail to obtain full marks for three successive days, he shall be reported for either misbehaviour or idleness, and dealt with on inquiry, as may be found necessary.

(l) For the information of the prisoner to whom it relates, the mark and gratuity card shall be hung outside the cell occupied by such prisoner.

(m) The mark card shall be entered up daily "before mid-day." If outside Fremantle Gaol by the Officer in Charge, if at Fremantle Gaol, by the Principal Warder or other officer detailed by him to do so; it shall also be balanced monthly and sent to the Superintendent or officer in charge so that details can be entered in Mark and Gratuity Ledger.

(n) A prisoner shall not alter, obliterate, or in any way deface a card, whether belonging to himself or to another prisoner and any breaking of this Regulation will be severely punished.

Gratuities.

141. (a.) Prisoners serving sentences of less than three months shall not receive gratuities.

(b.) Prisoners serving sentences of under twelve months and not less than three months, shall receive gratuities at the rate of seven-pence for each 56 marks earned.

(c.) Prisoners serving sentences of under five years, and not less than one year, shall receive gratuities according to the following scale:—

For each fifty-six marks earned:—Seven-pence until half the total marks obtainable on the whole sentence have been earned; then ten-pence half-penny until two-thirds of the total marks obtainable on the whole sentence have been earned; thereafter fourteen-pence.

(d.) Prisoners serving sentences of five years and over shall receive gratuities for the first five years according to the same scale as (c), and thereafter at the rate of fourteen-pence for each fifty-six marks earned.

(e.) Prisoners by any reason prevented from working shall not be allowed gratuities for the period of their unemployment, except during the first week thereof.

(f.) At outstations the rates of gratuity shall be fourteen-pence for each fifty-six marks earned.

(g.) Gratuities are subject to forfeiture or suspension under Regulation 144.

(h.) Aboriginal native prisoners are not entitled to gratuities.

Purchase of Luxuries.

142. (a.) A prisoner earning marks and gratuities will be allowed to spend weekly up to one-half of his gratuity on the purchase of such luxuries as the Superintendent may approve, such as fruit, eggs, butter, tobacco, etc., but on no account will liquors be allowed.

(b.) Failure to earn full marks entails forfeiture of privilege for that week to purchase luxuries.

(c.) The privilege is subject to forfeiture under Regulation 144.

Tobacco.

143. Tobacco shall be issued to prisoners on the following conditions:—

(a.) During first six months imprisonment—no issue.

(b.) After first six months and up to one year, at the rate of one-quarter ounce per week.

(c.) After first year and up to two years, at the rate of half-ounce per week.

(d.) After two years, one ounce per week.

(e.) There shall be no issue of tobacco in any week in which full marks are not earned.

(f.) The issue is subject to forfeiture or suspension under Regulation 144.

(g.) Prisoners carrying out duties of cooks, baker, latrine attendant, incinerator attendant, boiler attendant, cleaner, cowman, orderly, librarian, storeman, or other occupation approved by the Comptroller General shall be allowed one quarter ounce daily while so employed.

The issue of tobacco pipes shall be approved in each case by the chief warder or officer in charge.

PENALTIES.

144. A prisoner found guilty by the Comptroller General or Visiting Justices of any breach of these regulations shall be dealt with as laid down by Sections 34, 35, 36 of "The Prisons Act, 1903-18," and shall be also liable to forfeiture or suspension of any privileges under the Regulations.

FEMALE PRISONERS.

145. (a.) As far as possible all the rules and regulations made and provided for male prisoners shall apply in their several stages to female prisoners.

(b.) The daily diet for female prisoners shall be that set forth in No. 1 and No. 2 dietary, Regulation 139.

(c.) Female prisoners shall at all times appear properly and neatly dressed in prison clothing, and they may be permitted to retain such portions of their private underclothing as the Matron shall consider necessary or desirable.

(d.) Female prisoners with infants at the breast shall be permitted to retain them until they arrive at such an age as the Medical Officer considers them fit to be removed.

146. The children of prisoners when at an age to be weaned shall, with the consent of the Medical Officer, be removed to an orphanage, or such other available place as the Comptroller General shall decide. In the case of a child under medical treatment such child may be allowed to remain with the mother should the Medical Officer deem it necessary.

OUT-STATIONS.

147. (a.) Prisoners being forwarded or returned to Fremantle Gaol from out-stations shall be escorted by a warder, police officer, or other officer specially appointed to the duty.

(b.) In case of misconduct on the part of a prisoner at an out-station or reformatory prison, the officer in charge shall confine him in a cell or room kept for the purpose. If the offence be such as to operate to the prejudice of good order and discipline, the offender shall be brought before the nearest Visiting Justice or other Justice and tried for his offence.

PRISONERS AWAITING TRIAL OR UNDER REMAND.

148. (a.) On admission of a prisoner his clothing shall be fully searched and every article except necessary clothing shall be taken from him and an inventory made of all money and other valuable effects so taken. This property and any other which shall from time to time be sent to the prison for him shall be entered in a book kept for that purpose, and such entry duly signed by the prisoner. This property shall be returned to the prisoner on his discharge, except where it is ascertained to belong to some other person, or is ordered to be forfeited to the Crown. In the event of the removal of the prisoner to some other place of confinement, such money or other property shall be forwarded to such other place.

(b.) All such prisoners shall, upon their first admission to the prison, be thoroughly washed and cleansed and, where practicable, examined by the Medical Officer.

(c.) Prisoners awaiting trial at all times shall be kept separate and apart from convicted prisoners, and as far as possible previously unconvicted prisoners awaiting trial shall be kept apart from prisoners awaiting trial who have been previously convicted.

(d.) The confinement of all prisoners awaiting trial or on remand shall be made as little oppressive as possible with due regard to their safe keeping and to the necessity of preserving the proper government of the prison, maintaining order, and to the physical and moral well-being of the prisoners.

(e.) They shall be allowed as much air and exercise as possible, consistent with their safe custody, as far as conveniences will permit. Separate exercise yards shall be allotted for the aforesaid classes respectively.

(f.) Prisoners awaiting trial, or on remand may, if they desire it, wear prison dress, and they shall be obliged to do so if their own clothes are insufficient, or unfit for use, or necessary to be kept for the purposes of justice.

(g.) Prisoners awaiting trial or on remand may send and receive letters at all reasonable times, subject to the rules regarding the inspection of correspondence, and the officer in charge may withhold any letters to or from such prisoners as he may deem fit and lay them before the Comptroller General for his decision.

(h.) Such prisoners shall not be compelled to have their hair cut or to shave except on account of vermin or dirt or when the Medical Officer deems it necessary on the ground of health and cleanliness; but at no time shall hair be cut closer than is necessary for cleanliness, etc. A prisoner of this class receiving prison rations will not be allowed to purchase or receive other food from outside.

(i.) The cells, wards, and yards occupied by trial and remand prisoners shall be kept clean by the prisoners themselves. In like manner every such prisoner must keep his furniture and clothing clean and properly arranged in his cell.

(j.) A prisoner having permission to maintain himself must do so entirely or not at all. Such maintenance to consist of a sufficient quantity of wholesome food, and of clothing, and shall be subject to proper restrictions to prevent extravagance, or improper indulgence and to prevent the admission of spirituous liquors, wine, or fermented liquors; or the introduction of any improper article or instrument calculated to facilitate escape. Such food, clothing, and other necessaries may be paid for out of the funds belonging to the prisoner, in the hands of the officer in charge. Male prisoners may be allowed to purchase or receive a small quantity of tobacco or cigarettes.

(k.) No part of any such food, clothing, or other necessaries shall be sold or transferred to any other prisoner; violation of this rule will preclude such prisoner from further permission to obtain food, etc., to such extent as the officer in charge may decide.

(l.) No money shall be stopped from the funds belonging to any prisoner for maintenance by the State, unless by order of the Comptroller General, acting with legal authority.

(m.) The relatives, friends, or legal advisers of a prisoner under commitment for trial or remand may visit him at all reasonable hours during week days, at the discretion of the officer in charge and subject to the instructions of the Comptroller General or Crown Law authorities.

(n.) Except when in conflict with Regulation 148, the regulations relating to prisoners generally shall apply to prisoners awaiting trial or under remand.

PRISONERS UNDER SENTENCE OF IMPRISONMENT ONLY.

149. (a.) Prisoners sentenced to "imprisonment" but not to "hard labour" are in a somewhat different position to ordinary prisoners.

(b.) Such prisoners shall, on their admission to a prison, be required to give up any money or other valuables in their possession and shall be thoroughly cleansed and bathed and brought before the Medical Officer for inspection.

(c.) If any prisoner under such sentence shall support himself entirely with food, clothing, and other necessaries he shall be permitted to retain and wear his own clothing, if sufficient and decent, and shall not be required to perform any work beyond keeping his cell, clothing, bedding, and cell utensils in proper order, place, and cleanliness, according to instructions, and shall not be credited with the industry mark.

(d.) Prisoners who do not maintain themselves shall give up their private clothing upon admission, which, with the money, or other valuables, will be returned to them on their discharge.

(e.) They must wear prison clothing and shall be set to any work or labour within the prison, provided the same be not severe, and shall be entitled to earn the industry mark.

(f.) Such prisoners who do not maintain themselves shall, in all other matters, conform to the regulations made and provided for prisoners under sentence of hard labour.

(g.) A prisoner under sentence of imprisonment only shall not be compelled to be shaved, unless needful for cleanliness or by order of the Medical Officer.

(h.) A prisoner of this class receiving prison rations will not be allowed to purchase or receive other food from outside.

(i.) Except when in conflict with Regulation 149, the regulations for prisoners generally shall apply to prisoners under sentence of imprisonment only.

CHINESE PRISONERS.

150. The tails of hair usually worn by Chinese shall not be cut off except in cases where Chinese prisoners are convicted of felony after having previously undergone a sentence for some criminal offence in the State, or when specially recommended by the Medical Officer.

PRISONERS UNDER SENTENCE OF DEATH.

151. (a) Prisoners under sentence of death shall be kept in the condemned cell until the sentence be executed or commuted and, if in the opinion of the Comptroller General it is necessary, shall be kept in irons. They shall be dressed in prison clothing and, except Aboriginal natives if otherwise approved, shall be constantly attended by a warder or other attendant. The hair of male prisoners shall be cut close.

(b) Friends or relatives shall be allowed access to the prisoners at all reasonable hours subject to the discretion of the officer in charge, and unless countermanded by the Comptroller General, but no other visitors, unless by special order of the Comptroller General, will be admitted to them, except the clergyman of the church to which the criminal belongs and any person whom such clergyman may desire to assist him in his ministrations.

(c) No visitors or others shall be allowed to see any prisoner under sentence of death without his or her consent to see them being first obtained.

(d) The diet shall be the ordinary prison allowance, and they shall be allowed to walk for a short time every day under sufficient guard in one of the gaol yards.

(e) Visitors must not say anything to, or in the hearing of a prisoner, which may lead him or her to think there is any possibility of the sentence being commuted or in any way altered.

(f) Every person claiming to visit a condemned prisoner as his legal adviser must be a barrister-at-law, attorney or a solicitor or authorised clerk of an attorney or solicitor. Such persons may have access to the condemned, subject to permission of the officer in charge.

(g) These regulations must be made known to any person visiting the prisoner, and strict compliance with them shall be the condition on which the visit is permitted.

(h) Except when in conflict with Regulation 151, the regulations relating to prisoners generally shall apply to prisoners under sentence of death.

DEBTORS AND PERSONS CONFINED FOR NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE ORDER OF ANY COURT TO PAY A SUM OF MONEY NOT BEING A FINE OR PENALTY FOR AN OFFENCE OR AN AWARD UPON ANY CIVIL PROCESS.

152. (a) Every person coming within the above description shall be allowed to maintain and clothe himself, and for this purpose may receive, at proper hours, a reasonable supply of food, clothing, and other necessary articles, subject in all cases to detention and examination, to prevent the introduction of fermented or spirituous liquors or other prohibited articles. Male prisoners may be allowed from time to time to purchase or receive a newspaper or a small quantity of tobacco or cigarettes.

(b) No gaming will be permitted under any pretence. Dice, cards, and anything used for purposes of gaming which may be found in the possession of any debtor will be seized and destroyed.

(c) No visitors to such person will be admitted before 10 a.m. or after 4 p.m. on week days and not at all on Saturday afternoons or Sundays, except by special permission of the Comptroller General or Superintendent.

(d) Every prisoner is required to keep himself clean in person and clothing, and if he is unable to obtain changes of clothing he shall be compelled to wear the ordinary prison dress.

(e) For the purpose of cleanliness, the hair of such person shall be compulsorily cut, should the officer in charge so order.

(f) Every such person may send or receive letters. Should the officer in charge, however, suspect improper correspondence, he may open and peruse any such communications and detain any suspected letter or letters for the decision of the Comptroller General.

(g) Every such person must make up his own bedding according to instructions and keep the yard he occupies, his cell, and utensils therein clean and in proper order. Singing, whistling, and all loud noises are strictly prohibited.

(h) A prisoner of this class shall not be permitted, under any circumstances, to communicate with a prisoner of another class, either in writing or by signs, or in any other manner, and shall not be permitted to give, or send to any such prisoner food, clothing, or any articles whatever, except as provided for in regulations.

(i) A prisoner in this class may make application in writing to the Superintendent to be allowed to come under the regulations dealing with prisoners under sentence of imprisonment only so that he may have the opportunity of earning the industry mark, otherwise he will only be entitled to earn the good conduct mark.

(j) A prisoner of this class receiving prison rations will not be allowed to purchase or receive other food from outside, but must confine himself to the rations supplied by the Government.

(k) Every such person shall, in all cases, conform to the rules and regulations and at once obey any orders given him by a warder for the due performance thereof.

(l) Any breach of these rules or any disorderly or improper behaviour on the part of such person shall be at once reported and dealt with by the Comptroller General or Visiting Justice.

(m) Except when in conflict with Regulation 152, the regulations relating to prisoners generally shall apply to persons in this division.

MISDEMEANOURS OF THE FIRST DIVISION.

153. A misdemeanant of the first division—

(a) May supply his own food, clothing, and other necessary articles, also tobacco and newspapers, subject in all cases to detention and examination to prevent the introduction of prohibited articles.

(b) May receive or purchase not more than one pint of malt liquor or half-pint of wine or spirit in twenty-four hours.

(c) May wear his own clothing.

(d) Shall be provided with at least one separate cell or room.

(e) Shall be permitted to receive once a fortnight not more than three friends or relatives at one time for not more than half an hour.

(f) May write one letter and receive one letter in each fortnight.

(g) The Comptroller General may prolong visits or allow additional visits and letters to such reasonable extent as he may deem desirable.

(h) In all other respects the general prison regulations and especially those regulations relating to debtors shall apply, except in so far as they conflict with the foregoing to all misdemeanants of the first division.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Punishment Cells.

154. (a) Punishment Cells shall be those cells which have been classed as such by order of the Comptroller General.

(b) A prisoner guilty of gross misconduct or violence, who has been ordered by the officer in charge to be so detained, shall be placed in a punishment cell.

(c) Every prisoner confined in a punishment cell shall rise each morning upon the sound of the first warning bell, make up his bedding, and clean his cell, according to prescribed rules. The bedding shall be placed outside the cell door after unlocking time, and taken in again each afternoon.

(d) The cell doors shall be unlocked during winter months (1st May to 31st August) at 6.30 a.m., and the rest of the year at 6 a.m.

(e) The bedding for prisoners serving sentences of bread and water shall be, according to season: Summer—September 1st to April 30th, one blanket and one rug. Winter—May 1st to August 31st, a mattress, two blankets, and one rug. The dietary shall be: bread, 8 ounces morning and afternoon.

(f) A prisoner in this class will be allowed to have a bucket and a pannican of water in the cell.

(g) For prisoners sentenced to a term of confinement in a punishment cell or who may be detained therein, the bedding shall be a mattress, two blankets, and one rug, and the dietary as prescribed in Regulation No. 139.

(h) A prisoner shall be allowed to keep a pannican of water and cell bucket in his cell, also Bible, prayer and hymn book.

(i) Every prisoner shall keep his cell perfectly clean and in good order, and articles in their correct places in the cell.

(j) Notice of names and punishments of prisoners who may be confined as above shall be given by the officer in charge of the punishment cells to the chaplains.

Life Sentences.

155. (a) For the purpose of determining the time at which under the prison regulations the prisoner may be released a life sentence or a death sentence commuted to one of life shall be deemed to be a period of twenty years, subject to reduction under the Marks System. This regulation will not involve a limitation of but will be an addition to the right of a prisoner to petition under existing regulations.

(b) On completion of five, 10 and 15 years' imprisonment particulars will be submitted to the Comptroller General as to the conduct, mental and physical condition of all such prisoners and the Medical Officer shall state his opinion as to the effect of imprisonment on such prisoner.

PRISONS ACT, 1903-1918—PART VIa., REFORMATORY.

Reformatory Prison Regulations.

Repeal of Existing Regulations.

157. These Regulations shall repeal all existing Regulations relating to reformatory prisons.

158. In these Regulations:—

“Board” means the Indeterminate Sentences Board.

“Comptroller General” means the Comptroller General of Prisons.

“Superintendent” means the superintendent, Fremantle Prison.

“Officer in charge” means the officer in charge for time being of a reformatory prison, or prison farm colony.

“Inmate” means any person detained in a reformatory prison.

“Act” means Prisons Act, 1903-1918.

“Reformatory” means reformatory prison.

“Gaol Regulations” means regulations relating to the management and control of prisons.

“Minister” means the responsible Minister of the Crown for the time being administering the Prisons Act.

The Board.

159. The Board shall meet from time to time as may be necessary. Minutes of each meeting shall be kept by the secretary, and signed by the chairman, who shall be elected by a majority of the Board.

160. The Board, or two members thereof, shall visit each reformatory at least once every three months, and shall view all the inmates confined therein. The Board, or any member thereof, shall have free access to every part of the reformatory, and may see and interview any inmate, and inspect diets, and examine any books kept in the reformatory.

161. The Board shall generally satisfy themselves that the reformatory is properly conducted, the Regulations duly enforced, and that proper attention is given to the health of the inmates and to the sanitary requirements of the reformatory.

162. The Board shall be paid such fees as shall from time to time be recommended by the Comptroller General and approved by the Minister.

163. The Board shall, from time to time, when necessary, recommend to the Comptroller General the appointment of a secretary, and the terms of his appointment.

Comptroller General.

164. The Comptroller General shall furnish the Board with such records, reports, and returns as the said Board may, from time to time, require.

Superintendent of Fremantle Prison.

165. The superintendent shall cause the Board to be furnished with a full record of such inmates as the Board may desire, and shall cause all such reports and returns to be furnished as the Board may, from time to time, require.

166. The superintendent shall cause to be kept a record of the conduct, and the amounts earned by each inmate, and, also, of all deductions made for the payment of such luxuries, or extras, as the Board may direct.

Chaplain.

167. The chaplain shall pay particular attention to the inmates in any reformatory, in addition to carrying out the instructions laid down in the ordinary Goal Regulations.

Medical Officer.

168. The Medical Officer shall examine every inmate at least every three months, and shall furnish a report of the mental and physical condition of such inmate to the superintendent, who shall forthwith submit such reports for the Board's perusal.

Visiting Justices.

169. The Visiting Justices shall have the same power to hear and determine complaints respecting the inmates as in the case of ordinary prisoners under the Act, and may similarly direct punishment, or otherwise deal with the offenders.

Officer in charge.

170. The officer in charge shall:

- (a.) each day personally inspect the wards, kitchen, and premises generally of the reformatory under his charge;
- (b.) see that the inmates receive their proper allowance of rations and luxuries;
- (c.) see that the inmates are usefully employed during the whole of their respective working hours; and
- (d.) report to the superintendent forthwith any charges of misconduct preferred against any of the inmates.

171. All requests by inmates shall be made to the officer in charge.

Grading of Inmates.

172. All inmates subject to reformatory treatment shall be graded as follows:—

1st Grade: Those inmates who have been sentenced to reformatory treatment in pursuance of Section 661, Criminal Code Amendment Act, 32 of 1918.

2nd Grade: Those inmates who have been sentenced to reformatory treatment in pursuance of Section 662, Criminal Code Amendment Act, 32 of 1918.

3rd Grade: Those inmates undergoing sentences of imprisonment only, and who have been selected by the Board as suitable for reformatory treatment in pursuance of Section 64B of the Act.

173. As far as practicable, and except when otherwise recommended by the Board, and approved by the Comptroller General, inmates of one grade shall be kept apart from inmates of any other grade.

Treatment of Inmates under Reformatory Treatment.

174. As far as practicable, the treatment of inmates in the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Grades shall be in the following manner:—

(a.) Inmates of any grade will be dealt with under a progressive stage system, by which they will practically determine their own treatment as regards enjoyment of privileges, or the reverse.

(b.) They may be classified into any of the four following classes:—

1. The Primary.
2. The Intermediate.
3. The High, and
4. The Highest.

175. Inmates in the intermediate, high, and highest classes will be eligible to earn various privileges for which those in the primary class will not be eligible.

176. Prisoners sentenced to finite sentences who have been transferred to a reformatory under the provisions of Section 64B of the Act shall also be allowed marks in like manner as provided by Gaol Regulation 140.

177. Inmates of any class prescribed in Regulation 173 shall, so far as practicable, be kept apart from inmates in any other class, and each inmate shall have a separate cell.

178. An inmate shall not share with others indulgence, or any extra article. Any inmate so offending shall render himself liable to severe punishment including reduction and forfeiture of privileges.

Primary Class.

179. When an inmate is reduced for a breach of discipline, idleness, or misconduct to the primary class, the earning of wages and privileges shall be suspended until the intermediate class is re-entered.

180. An inmate reduced to the primary class shall not be eligible for promotion to the intermediate class until he has served, with continuous good conduct and industry, at least one month in the primary class.

Intermediate Class.

181. An inmate of any grade when commencing reformatory treatment shall be placed in the intermediate class; from this he may rise to the high class by industry and good conduct.

182. If an inmate in the 3rd Grade shall be guilty of any breach of discipline, idleness, or misconduct, the Board may recommend that he be re-transferred either to the prison from which he was transferred, or be transferred to another prison, to serve the unexpired residue of his sentence, in pursuance of Section 64C of the Act, or he may be reduced to the primary class.

183. On entering the intermediate class, an inmate shall be eligible to receive No. 3 ration, also 1 oz. of tobacco weekly, and may purchase luxuries as provided in Regulations.

184. Every facility shall be afforded the inmates desirous of improving their education.

185. Lights may be allowed in cell to inmates until 8.30 p.m.

186. Each inmate shall be permitted to receive each month a visit from a friend, or relation, of twenty minutes' duration, and may also write and receive one letter each month.

187. Inmates shall wear the ordinary prison dress with the letter "T" on the left sleeve of coat only.

188. Any inmate shall be eligible to be recommended for promotion from the intermediate class to the high class when he has earned—

- (a) 2,192 marks, and
- (b) full marks each consecutive day for a period of three months after having earned the aforesaid 2,192 marks.

High Class.

189. On promotion to the high class, an inmate shall be eligible to receive full privileges.

190. For any breach of discipline, idleness, or misconduct an inmate may be reduced to another class for such reasonable time as the Comptroller General, on the recommendation of the Board, may decide.

191. Any inmate shall be eligible to be recommended for promotion from the high class to the highest class when he has earned—

- (a) 2,192 marks, and
- (b) full marks each consecutive day for a period of three months after having earned the aforesaid 2,192 marks.

192. Inmates in the high class when earning full marks may be allowed the same ration as the intermediate class, and 1¾ ozs. of tobacco weekly.

193. Lights may be allowed until nine o'clock each evening. Inmates may be permitted to receive one visit each month of thirty minutes' duration, and may receive and write two letters monthly. Library books may be changed daily, except Sunday.

194. Inmates shall have the letter "H" on left sleeve of coat.

Highest Class.

195. Inmates of the highest class shall be allowed all the privileges of the preceding classes, and shall wear the letter "H" with a star on the left coat sleeve.

Earning of Marks.

196. Each inmate shall be tasked according to his ability, and shall be treated in the same manner as other prisoners in respect to the earning of marks for good conduct and industry, in accordance with Gaol Regulation 140.

Promotion.

197. Notwithstanding anything in these Regulations contained, the Comptroller General, on the recommendation of the Board, may promote any inmate in any class to a higher class.

Discipline.

198. Inmates shall be subject to the Act and Gaol Regulations in so far as such Regulations are not inconsistent with these Regulations.

199. For any breach of discipline, idleness, or misconduct a Visiting Justice, in addition to, or in substitution of, any other penalty provided by the Act, may fine an inmate a sum not exceeding ten shillings, and, further, may order that the inmate be separately confined; provided always that any punishment, or penalty, inflicted by a Visiting Justice shall in no way affect the right of the Comptroller General, on the recommendation of the Board, to place the inmate in a lower class.

200. Fines inflicted by a Visiting Justice shall be deducted from the wages credited to the inmate.

Confinement in Cells.

201. The superintendent may confine an inmate charged with a breach of discipline, idleness, or misconduct, or any other offence, in his cell, or in a refractory cell, and take any precautionary measures as he may deem necessary, and, further, may stop any privilege until the Visiting Justice deals with the charge.

Industrial Employment.

202. Every inmate subject to reformatory treatment shall, if fit, be put to such work, or trade, as in the opinion of the Board or of the superintendent he is most suitable for, or proficient in, and which, in their or his opinion, will the most fit him for self-support when at liberty.

203. Male inmates shall commence as labourers, and may be promoted on approval of the Board, and concurrence of the Comptroller General, to be artisans as they become proficient on the recommendation of the superintendent, together with a certificate of the trade instructor or farm manager.

204. Inmates by any reason prevented from working shall not be allowed wages for the period of their unemployment, except during the first week thereof.

205. Inmates physically unfit are not eligible to earn wages, but may on their release receive, subject to the Minister's approval, such sums as the Board, after considering the circumstances of each case, shall in their discretion recommend.

Wages.

206. The following shall be the scale of wages to inmates:—

(a.) Inmates in the intermediate class, not being artisans or clerks, shall receive the same scale of wages as prisoners who are not inmates of a reformatory prison, and when classed as artisans or clerks, such inmates shall receive double that scale.

Inmates in the intermediate class may spend one-half of the amount earned by them on the purchase of luxuries; the balance shall be placed to their credit.

(b.) For male inmates in the high and highest classes:—

Labourers	4s. per week.
Artisans and clerks	6s. per week.

Two shillings per week of the above amounts may be spent on the purchase of luxuries, and the balance shall be placed to the credit of the inmate.

(c.) Female inmates in the high and highest classes shall receive and may spend half the above amounts prescribed for male prisoners in the same classes, and the balances shall be placed to the credit of the inmates.

207. The Board shall, from time to time, recommend what amounts (if any) shall be applied towards the maintenance of any inmate's wife and family (if any), or of any person dependent, or partially dependent, on him. The balance in the case of an inmate released on probation shall be dealt with as provided by Section 64F, Subsection 6, of the Act.

208. There shall be credited to each inmate such portion of wages earned by him as the Board may from time to time recommend. In the case of an inmate released on expiration of sentence, or on temporary leave, under Section 64H of the Act, the amount standing to his credit (if any) shall be disbursed for his benefit in such manner, and in such times, and in such sums, as the Board may from time to time direct.

209. Where an inmate entitled to earn full marks fails to do so, through any breach of discipline, idleness, or misconduct, then there shall be deducted from his wages the sum of sixpence for each mark forfeited. Where a charge is laid against an inmate, and forfeiture of marks is awarded as a punishment, there shall be deducted from his wages the sum of sixpence for each mark so forfeited, up to a maximum of two shillings in respect of each charge.

210. The privilege of purchasing luxuries shall be withdrawn for the week in which forfeiture occurs.

211. The loss of mark or marks shall be confirmed by the Superintendent, and the inmate shall have the right of appeal to the Comptroller General.

212. All forfeitures, and the reasons for such forfeitures, shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose.

Petitions for Release on Probation.

213. Subject to Regulation 215, only inmates who have been for six months in the highest class shall be allowed, and then only at the discretion of the Board, to petition for release on probation.

214. Inmates when petitioning under preceding Regulation shall state if definite employment is available for them, and every facility should be afforded to an eligible inmate to communicate regarding the employment with any organisation, or reputable person, likely to find employment for him.

215. Nothing in these Regulations shall debar the Board at any time from recommending the release on probation of any inmate, provided there are special circumstances as the Board may consider sufficient, and in such cases the Board may allow an inmate to submit his petition to the Board through the Comptroller General, and such petition will be placed before the Minister, together with the Board's recommendation.

Clothing.

216. Every inmate undergoing reformatory treatment shall be supplied with two kits of clothing of ordinary prison material and pattern, with such distinguishing marks of class thereon as may be prescribed for the class he is in. Suits not in use shall be neatly folded up and kept in lockers.

217. Every inmate shall repair his own clothing.

Bedding.

218. Inmates shall be supplied with the same amount of bedding including mattress, pillow, and bedstead, as may be prescribed from time to time in the Gaol Regulations.

Furniture.

219. Inmates shall be provided with a locker and key, in which clean clothing and belongings shall be kept.

Recreation.

220. Inmates will be provided with games, such as draughts, dominoes, chess, and rope quoits, and, when practicable, may, after tea, play games or read in the association room up to 8 p.m.

Miscellaneous.

221. The hours of rising, and the times for meals and work, shall be the same as at Fremantle Prison, or as the Board may from time to time decide.

Luxuries.

222. Luxuries which inmates may purchase with portion of their wages available for the purpose comprise tobacco, sugar, golden syrup, butter, eggs, jam, sauce, cocoa, weekly newspaper, and such other articles as the Board may from time to time allow.

223. All luxuries shall be purchased through the officer in charge.

224. Orders made by the Board under the provisions of Section 64h of the Act may be in the form set out in the schedule hereto, or to the like effect.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, this 17th day of January, 1923.

BERNARD PARKER,
Clerk of the Council.

LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder will be available for selection under "The Land Act, 1898," and its amendments, on and after the dates set out in the schedules.

The areas marked "A" shall be open for selection by the special classes of selectors hereinafter named in the following order of preference:—

- (1) Under "The Discharged Soldiers' Settlement Act, 1918," by "Discharged Soldiers" within the meaning of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of the interpretation of the term in Section 3 of that Act, and "Dependants" within the meaning of that term in the said section.
- (2) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by ex-British Soldiers who were on active service in the late war.
- (3) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by Munition Workers in the late war.
- (4) Under "The Land Act, 1898," by ordinary selectors.

(In the event of an applicant other than a Discharged Soldier under subparagraph (1) obtaining a block within a Repurchased Estate, the term of the lease and conditions of payment will be subject to re-adjustment in accordance with the provisions of "The Agricultural Land Purchase Act, 1909.")

The areas marked "B" are not subject to such order of preference.

The areas marked thus * are open under Part VI.

Applications must be lodged at the Local Land Office for the district in which the land is situated, and should be lodged on or before the date specified.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board, except in cases where it is already determined by the order of preference set out above under "A." Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person he may apply to the Head Office or to the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station, will entitle him to a Return Ticket, at Excursion Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location available under Part VIII. must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

The prices quoted hereunder (exclusive of the value of improvements, if any, and survey fees, and land acquired by the Crown under "The Agricultural Lands Purchase Act, 1909," or otherwise for settlement) are reduced by one-half to Discharged Soldiers only.

THE GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS ACT, 1904, AND GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS AMENDMENT ACT, 1907.

The Appeal Board.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that His Excellency the Governor has approved of the following amendments to Regulations dated 14th October, 1908, made under "The Government Railways Act, 1904," and "The Government Railways Amendment Act, 1907," in connection with the Railway Appeal Board:—

Clause 14 to be cancelled and the following new clause inserted in lieu thereof:—

"14. No employee shall be compelled to record his vote and no Union of Employees shall canvass for votes or attempt in any way to influence voters by circular or otherwise."

And consequential alteration to "Directions" in the Schedule (Form "A") as follows:—

The Schedule.
Form "A."

Directions.

The voter can vote for one Candidate only. The voter is to wholly strike out the name of every Candidate for whom he does not vote. The voter must take care not to leave uncancelled the name of more than one candidate, or this paper will be invalid. This Ballot Paper is to be then forthwith enclosed in the accompanying printed envelope, duly stamped, and posted at a post office, or forwarded by train in such time as to reach the Returning Officer before or during..... No employee is compelled to record his vote, but if he does not intend so doing he should at once destroy his ballot paper. No union of employees shall canvass for votes or attempt in any way to influence voters by circular or otherwise. The voter's name must not be written on this Ballot Paper. Any voter who fails to comply with these directions renders his vote invalid.

Returning Officer.

Commissioner's Office,

Perth,

These amendments shall come into force on the 8th day of January, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-three.

H. POPE,

Commissioner of Railways.

THE ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919, AND THE PUBLIC WORKS ACT, 1902.

Marradong Road Board.

P.W. 3442/20.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council has approved, under the provisions of Section 167 of "The Road Districts Act, 1919," and Section 91 of "The Public Works Act, 1902," of Fletcher's Bridge and Approaches, over Lower Williams River, being placed under the control and management of the Marradong Road Board.

Murray Road Board.

P.W. 2259/18.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council has approved, under the provisions of Section 167 of "The Road Districts Act, 1919," and Section 91 of "The Public Works Act, 1902," of Nanga Bridge, over the Murray River, being placed under the control and management of the Murray Road Board.

H. W. STANLEY-LOW,
Acting Under Secretary for Works and Trading Concerns.

AT a Meeting of the Executive Council held on the 17th day of January, 1923, the following Order in Council was authorised to be issued:—

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the enactment contained in Section 74 of "The Constitution Act, 1889," whereby the appointment of all public officers under the Government of the State is vested in the Governor in Council does not apply to minor appointments, which by Order in Council are vested in Heads of Departments or other officers or persons within the State: And whereas it is desirable that the appointment of foreman and all other persons employed at a daily or weekly rate of wage on works under the control of the Premier's Department should be vested in Mr. Louis Edward Shapecott: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, hereby vests in the said Louis Edward Shapecott, and in any person or persons appointed to temporarily act in place of such officer, the appointment of foreman and all persons employed on such works at a daily or weekly rate of wage.

BERNARD PARKER,
Clerk of the Council.

MUNICIPALITY OF ALBANY.

The Municipal Corporations Act, 1906.

Notice of Proposition for Borrowing.

Loan No. 17.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Municipality of Albany proposes to borrow the sum of £1,600 (One thousand six hundred pounds) to be expended as follows:—

1. For the provision of a street lighting system by electricity	£900
2. For the provision of modern sanitary conveniences and out-buildings at the Town Hall and Improvements to the Town Hall	£700
	£1,600

And notice is hereby given that the plans and specifications of such work and the statement showing the proposed expenditure of the money to be borrowed, are open for inspection at the Town Hall, Albany, for one month from the date of publication hereof, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 3 o'clock in the afternoon on any day except Saturdays and Sundays, and on Saturdays between 10 o'clock in the forenoon and noon.

The amount of £1,600 is proposed to be raised by the sale of debentures bearing interest at the rate of Six pounds per centum per annum, and such interest will be payable half-yearly at the Town Hall, Albany. The principal sum to be secured by such debentures will be paid at the Town Hall, Albany, fifteen years after date of the issue of such debentures.
