1. These Regulations may be cited as "The Bush Fires Regulations, 1926."

2. No person shall set fire to the bush at any time on land within any portion of the State that has been declared to be a fire-protected area, without first obtaining a "Permit to Burn" from the Minister for Lands or a person acting with his authority.

3. For the purpose of these Regulations any officer of the Forests Department shall be deemed to be an officer acting with the authority of the Minister for Lands. Such officers are hereinafter referred to as "authorised officers."

An application may be accepted in the form of a letter, provided the full information required in Form No. 1 is supplied in such letter.

5. A "Permit to Burn" shall be issued by an authorised officer, provided he is satisfied that proper precautions will be taken by the applicant to confine the fire within the boundaries of his own land or land occupied by him, and that there is no undue risk of the fire getting out of control. Such permit shall contain such conditions relating to the precautionary measures to be taken by the permit holder as may be considered necessary at the time by such authorised officer.

6. A "Permit to Burn," in the Form No. 2 in the First Schedule, shall be issued to every person obtaining permission to burn off within a fire-protected area.

7. The holder of a "Permit to Burn" shall produce such permit to any officer of the Forests Department or other authorised person on demand.

8. Any person acting under instruction from an authorised officer may enter upon any land over which application has been made for a "Permit to Burn" for the purpose of—

- (c) investigating steps taken to prevent the spread of fire subsequent to the main burning.

9. The holder of a "Permit to Burn" shall not burn any part of the bush at any time during the months of October to April, both inclusive, unless—nor unless—

- (b) he keeps at least three men in attendance until all grass, stubble, or scrub has been burnt, to prevent such fire extending beyond the limits of his own land, or land occupied by him.

10. The holder of a "Permit to Burn" shall take such precautions as may be prescribed by any officer of the Forests Department, for the purpose of preventing the spread of fire from his own land, or land occupied by him, on to any State Forest, Timber Reserve, or other Crown land.

11. If any fire escape beyond the boundaries of the area over which a "Permit to Burn" is held, the holder of the permit shall, if possible, immediately notify the nearest Forest Officer, and, furthermore, shall, within twenty-four hours of the suppression of such fire, report the full circumstances to the authorised officer by whom the "Permit to Burn" was granted.

12. Any person who shall commit a breach of any of the foregoing Regulations, or shall contravene or fail to comply with any provision or condition contained in any "Permit to Burn" issued in pursuance of these Regulations shall, for every such offence for which a penalty is not specially provided by the "Bush Fires Act, 1902," and the amendments thereof, be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.
