Saturdays must be paid for at the rate of time and a quarter.

5. Apprentices.—(a.) In this Agreement the term "apprentice" means an apprentice duly registered with the Clerk of the Court, in accordance with the provisions of this clause, and the term "probationer" means a person working as apprentice on probation of whose probationary period notice has been given to the Clerk of the Court, in accordance with the provisions of this clause: Provided that an apprentice or probationer shall be deemed to be duly registered during the period of fourteen days allowed for registration.

(b.) Any employer hereafter taking a probationer or apprentice shall, within fourteen days thereafter, duly register such probationer or apprentice by giving notice thereof to the Clerk of the Court, in the prescribed form (Forms 1 (a) and 1 (b) in Appendix hereto).

(c.) If at the date of this Agreement any employer is employing any person as an apprentice or a probationer who has not been duly registered as such, he shall register such apprentice or probationer within fourteen days thereafter.

(d.) The maximum number of apprentices allowed to any employer shall be in the proportion of one apprentice to every three journeymen or fraction of three journeymen employed by him.

(e.) For the purpose of ascertaining the number of apprentices allowed to be taken at any time, the number of journeymen employed shall be deemed to be the average number of journeymen employed on all working days of the six months immediately preceding such time.

(f.) The term of apprenticeship shall not be less than three years, and not more than five years. A probationary period of three months previous to being bound shall be lawful. Such probationary period shall be deemed portion of the term of apprenticeship.

(g.) Should any employer from unforeseen circumstances be unable to carry out his obligations to his apprentice he shall be allowed to transfer the apprentice to complete his term with another employer, but it shall be incumbent upon such former employer to notify the Clerk of the Court of the date of such transfer and when such apprenticeship commenced. (Form 2 in the Appendix hereto).

(h.) The employer shall teach the apprentice one at least of the following functions or processes:—

- (i.) Clicking;
- (ii.) Stuff cutting and preparing bottom stuff for makers;
- (iii.) Making—The apprentice shall be taught to make by hand as a basis;

(i.) The following provisions shall apply in respect of all apprenticeships:—

Should the employer at any time before the termination of the term of the apprenticeship desire to dispense with the services of the apprentice he may, with the consent of the apprentice, transfer him to another employer carrying on business within a reasonable distance of the original employer's place of business willing to continue to teach the apprentice and to pay the rate of wages prescribed by this agreement, according to the total length of time served, and generally to perform the obligations of the original employer. He shall also give to the apprentice a certificate of the time served and of the rate of wages paid, and shall give notice to the Clerk of the Court of such transfer in the form provided (Form 2 in the Appendix hereto). It shall not be obligatory upon the employer to find the apprentice another employer if he shall so misconduct himself as to entitle the employer to discharge him, but he shall, nevertheless, give him a certificate for the time actually served.
- (3.) An employer shall be deemed to fail in his duty towards his apprentice if he neglects to keep him constantly at work, but slackness of work may form a proper ground for transferring him to a master willing to undertake the responsibility of teaching him.
- (4.) When an apprentice is discharged for cause the employer shall send notice in writing of the discharge and cause thereof to the said Clerk of the Court (Form 3 in the Appendix hereto).
- (5.) Technical instruction of the apprentice, when available, shall be at the employer's expense, and shall be in the employer's time, except in places when such instruction is given after the ordinary working hours.

If, within seven days of being notified of the worker's desire to work at a lower rate of wages than that prescribed the said Secretary and the worker are unable to agree upon a lower rate, then the worker may apply, in writing, to the nearest Resident or Police Magistrate to fix such lower rate of wages. The worker shall give such Secretary two days' notice of his intention to apply to the Magistrate, and the said Secretary or his agent may attend and oppose the application. The Magistrate may fix the rate of wages, and his decision shall be final. Any worker whose wage shall have been so fixed may work for and be employed by any employer for such less wage for the period until fourteen days' notice in writing shall have been given him by the said Secretary requiring
