Should any dispute arise as to the construction or meaning of this Agreement, or touching anything arising out of its operation, the work is nevertheless to be carried on without any interruption, and the matter in dispute shall be submitted to a conference between the Management and representatives of the Union concerned, such conference to be held at the Meatworks as soon as can be arranged.

36. Should no settlement be arrived at by above conference, the matter in dispute shall then be discussed between the Management and the local Board of Control of the Unions.

37. In the event of a settlement not being arrived at by discussion (referred to in Clause 36), the matter in dispute shall be submitted to the arbitration of an umpire to be chosen by one representative appointed for that purpose by the Employer and one representative appointed for that purpose by the Unions who are parties to this Agreement; and the decision of such umpire shall be final and conclusive. The umpire may determine by whom the costs of the arbitration shall be paid and may fix such costs.
