(d) Drivers who are required to collect money during any week or portion of a week as part of their duties, and account for it, shall be paid 1s. for such week in addition to the rate of wage prescribed by Clause 4.

6. Hours:

(a) The hours of duty shall be forty-eight per week, except for ice carters in winter, when the hours shall be forty-six per week.

(b) In any week in which there is a holiday forty hours shall constitute a week's work, and in any week in which there are two holidays, thirty-two hours shall constitute a week's work: Provided that this subclause shall not apply in the case of milk carters.

(c) Any hours worked on any day or days to make up the hours of duty in any week shall be worked in a continuous shift, except in the case of employees in livery stables, milk carters, and stablemen.

(d) The working hours for casual employees shall be eight hours and forty minutes on five days in the week, and four hours and forty minutes on Saturdays.

7. Meal Times.—Employees are entitled to a break of one hour for meals on all the days in the week, except Saturday. Where an employee is required to work on Saturday beyond 2 p.m., he shall be allowed a break of half an hour for a meal, or an hour if he has to continue after 3 p.m.

In the case of juniors under eighteen years of age overtime shall be paid at the rate of time and a half. All overtime shall stand alone and shall be paid for in addition to the ordinary weekly or casual wage.

10. Sunday Work.—For all time of duty on Sundays, with the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, payment in addition to the weekly wage shall be made at the rate of double time.

The exceptions referred to are:—

(a) Stablemen who have one clear day off in the week;

In the case of drivers feeding and attending horses the rate to be paid shall be the ordinary rate paid for the other six days of the week.

11. Holiday Pay.—All time of duty on holidays shall stand alone and be paid for in addition to the weekly wage at the rate of ordinary time. Any employee required to work on a holiday shall be paid at least half a day's pay at holiday rates: Provided that this clause shall not apply to milk carters.

12. Termination of Employment.—One week's notice at any time on either side shall be required before the engagement of any but a casual hand shall be determined: Provided that an employer may at any time dismiss an employee for refusal or neglect to obey orders, misconduct, carelessness in the performance of his duties, or if after receiving one week's notice he does not carry out his duties in the same manner as he did prior to such notice: Provided also that, except for the reasons mentioned in the first proviso to this clause, the engagement shall not be terminated by any notice expiring within a week of the Christmas or Easter holidays if it is intended to re-engage the employee immediately or very shortly after the holidays mentioned, and men in permanent employment shall not be changed to casual employees within one week of the Christmas or Easter holidays.

Notice given every week to determine the employment without any intention to determine the employment at the end of the week, but only with a view of dismissing men at any time shall not be deemed notice for the purpose of this Agreement unless given during a general or shipping or coal strike.

13. Heavy Work.—Where employees are called upon to handle, without proper mechanical appliances, heavy stone, wool, or gunney bags over two hundredweight, an extra man shall be provided.

14. Time and Wages Book.—Each employer shall provide a time and wages book, to be kept in a place where it is easily accessible to both the employer and the worker. Such book shall show the name of the worker, the time he starts and finishes work each day, the number of hours worked by and the wages and overtime paid to each worker and his signature for the same. The employer and the worker shall be jointly responsible for the proper posting of such book daily. Such book shall be open on one day in each week, during working hours, to inspection by the Secretary of the Union or any other person authorised in writing by him.

15. Travelling Allowances.—Employees engaged on work from which they are unable to return to their homes at night shall be paid such personal expenses as they reasonably incur, but they shall be paid at the rate of seven shillings and sixpence a day at the least. An employee prevented from returning with his turnout to the depot or yard from which he started shall be paid any travelling expenses he has to incur and for the time he reasonably takes to get to his home beyond the time he would have taken to get to his home from the depot or yard.

16. Pay Day.—All wages shall be paid on either Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday of each week, but the day once fixed shall not be altered more than once in three months or without two weeks' notice to the employees. Such pays shall be made within ten minutes of the time the employee ceases duty where it is practicable to pay the employee on pay day at the yard or depot. If not paid within that time through any fault or delay of the employer, or because the employee ceases work at a place which causes more than ten minutes delay, overtime shall be paid for any excess of the ten minutes referred to. No employer shall hold more than one day's wages in hand.

17. Payment for Highest Function.—Where an employee is called upon to perform two or more classes of work on any one day he shall, for the purpose of assessing the wages to be paid, be deemed to have worked the day at the class for which the highest rate of wages is prescribed.

18. Commencing and Finishing Work.—Work shall commence when an employee signs on at the yard or depot in the morning, and finish when he signs off on leaving in the evening, except where the horses are stabled at the driver's own home. In such a case the driver shall be allowed twenty minutes in the morning and fifteen minutes in the evening to perform the necessary stable work. Drivers of milk carts need not sign on and off when they start and leave off work, but they shall sign once a day.

19. Temporary Change of Stable.—Where an employer transfers an employee, after he comes to work, from one stable or yard situated more than two miles distant from the stable or yard at which he usually works, fares to and from such altered stable or yard shall be allowed by the employer. If he is transferred temporarily to work at a stable which requires him to travel one mile or more from his home beyond the distance he usually travels, the fares to and from and excess time shall be paid for by the employer.

20. Proportion of Juniors.—Juniors may be employed in the proportion of one junior to every five adult drivers employed: Provided that grocers, greengrocers, retail milk vendors, and/or wood merchants who do not employ an adult driver or drivers shall be permitted to employ one junior.

21. General:

(a) Stablemen shall be entitled to receive one clear day's rest in seven. If they work on seven days in any week they shall receive Sunday rates for all time worked on Sunday of such week.

(b) Stablemen required to live at the stable shall be provided with suitable housing accommodation for a stableman free of cost, but if proper housing accommodation is provided for a stableman and his wife and family, and they elect to live there, the employer shall be entitled to charge a rent not exceeding half the rent a similar house in that locality would readily let at not exceeding ten shillings a week.

(c) Stablemen shall, if required, generally speaking, to work continuously seven days in the week, be allowed one week's holiday on full pay at the expiration of each twelve months' service.

(d) Milk carters shall, if required, generally speaking, to work continuously seven days in the week, be allowed two weeks' holiday on full pay at the expiration of each twelve months' service: Provided that if the engagement is terminated after the completion of six months' service, but before the completion of twelve months' service, one day's pay shall be allowed for each month of service.

(e) No reduction shall be made from wages when an employee is learning the round.

(f) No junior under nineteen years of age shall be allowed to drive or be in charge of more than one horse.

(g) Employers shall, when engaging employees, state definitely whether such employee is engaged as a weekly or casual hand.

(h) Casual hands shall be notified at the end of the day if their services are not required next day. Failing such notice, a full day's wages shall be paid.

(i) Employers shall notify their employees on the working day preceding a holiday if their services are required next day. Failing such notice the employee shall be entitled to take the holiday and to receive a full week's wages.

(j) Employees shall be provided free by the employer with all shovels and other tools necessary for the loading and unloading of goods or materials on to or from any vehicle.

(k) Each employee, with the exception of milk carters, shall be entitled to holidays, and all carters and drivers shall be entitled to a half-holiday from the hour of 1 p.m. on some working day in the week.

(l) A copy of this Agreement shall be exhibited by each employer where the industry is carried on by being posted or hung up in a place where it is easily accessible to the employees.

(m) Weekly hands ready and willing to work for the whole week, and not dismissed during the week for any reason set out in Clause 12 of this Agreement, shall be entitled to a full week's wage.

(n) Where an employer desires to vary or change his starting and finishing time (in accordance with the provisions of Clause 8 of this Agreement), he shall give two weeks' notice of such variation or change to his employees, and post a notice of the intended change at the depot or yard.
