The election of all officers shall be by a show of hands, unless a ballot is demanded; the salary or allowance attached to the office under consideration of the Board shall in all cases be fixed prior to the appointment, and the salary of any officer, when fixed, shall not at any time be considered with a view to its increase or reduction, unless specially authorised by a meeting of the Board.

(4.) All complaints against servants of the Board must be in writing, and must in every case be signed by the person or persons complaining, and no notice whatever shall be taken of any complaint not made in accordance with this By-law; all such complaints as are receivable shall be addressed to the Chairman, who, upon the receipt of such complaints, shall have the power to investigate the same, and he shall report thereon to the Board at its next meeting.

Meetings and Proceedings.

(5.) Seven days' notice in writing shall be given by the Chairman or secretary of ordinary or regular meetings, and also of every meeting adjourned for a term exceeding six days.

(6.) Meetings of the Board shall be of two kinds—"Ordinary" and "Special." Ordinary meetings are those regular meetings held in pursuance of these By-laws for the transaction of the general business of the Board, including adjourned meetings, at which uncompleted business may be completed together with other business considered necessary.

Special meetings are those called under Section 130 of the Act, and shall include those called by the Chairman in response to a requisition signed by three members, or on his own behalf, and the notices for such special meetings shall have such special business specified thereon, and nothing shall be discussed at any special meeting other than the special business specified on the notice of the meeting: provided, however, that any matter of emergency may be discussed on the ruling of the Chairman and with the consent of those present.

The ratepayers' meeting shall consist of one called under Section 143 of the Act, and the Standing Orders, so far as the Act allows, shall apply to the proceedings but the provisions of the Act shall be first observed.

The Chairman, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the ratepayers and of the Board, and, in his absence, or if, after being present, he shall retire, the person to preside at a meeting of ratepayers shall be a ratepayer chosen by the ratepayers present, and the person to preside at a meeting of the Board shall be the Vice-Chairman, or in his absence, a member chosen by a majority of those present.

(7.) Ordinary meetings shall be held at the office of the Board, or at some other convenient place, at 10 a.m. of the second Monday in each month, or on such day and at such hour as may be appointed from time to time by resolution of the Board passed at the previous ordinary meeting of the Board.

(8.) A special meeting may, on the requisition of three members of the Board, be called at any time in the manner prescribed by the Act, but the Chairman may call a special meeting of the Board as often as he deems proper.

(9.) No business shall be transacted at any ordinary or special meeting unless a quorum, as specified by the Act, shall be present.

(10.) At all meetings of the Board, when there is not a quorum present, or when the Board is counted out (which counting out shall take place whenever there shall be less than a quorum present, or within thirty minutes after the time for which the meeting is called), such circumstances, together with the names of the members then present, shall be recorded in the Minute Book.

(11.) At any meeting of the Board it shall rest with the majority of the members of the Board present to exclude the public from such meeting, when, in their opinion, it is expedient to do so.

(12.) The first business at all ordinary meetings of the Board shall be the consideration of the minutes of the preceding meeting, with a view to their confirmation. Reading of minutes may be dispensed with, if members have been supplied with copies thereof at least three days prior to the meeting at which such are to be confirmed. No discussion shall take place upon the minutes of proceedings, except as to their accuracy, or for the rectification of a clerical error.

(13.) The Minute Book prescribed by the Act shall be kept, in which any item of business transacted by the Board at a meeting shall be entered by the secretary: Provided, that pasting or otherwise permanently affixing the minutes of the meetings of the Board to the leaves of a book shall be equivalent to entry therein. Minutes of both special and ordinary meetings shall be confirmed at the next succeeding ordinary meeting of the Board.

(14.) Each member (including the Chairman) shall have one vote, and, in the case of an equality of votes, the question shall pass in the negative. In all other cases all questions at such meetings shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present. All motions and amendments shall be decided by a show of hands, unless a division is demanded, before the next business is proceeded with.

Standing Orders.

(15.) The order of business at all ordinary meetings of the Board shall be as follows, that is to say:—

- (a) Reading and/or consideration of minutes of last ordinary, also special meetings, and confirmation thereof;
- (b) Consideration of business arising out of the minutes;
- (c) Questions of which due notice has been given by members or officers of the Board;
- (d) The Chairman shall have the right of directing attention at any meeting to any matter or subject within the jurisdiction or official cognisance of the Board, by a minute signed by himself, and such minute shall, when introduced, take precedence over all business before or to come before the Board, and the adoption thereof may be put by him from the Chair as a motion, without being seconded, but he shall confine himself to the questions contained therein;

- (e) Reports of sub-committees or officers;
- (f) Deputations and presentation of petitions or memorials, and consideration thereof;
- (g) Reading of correspondence received and despatched, and taking action as may be deemed expedient in regard thereto;
- (h) Consideration of tenders, and ratification of contracts;
- (i) Presentation of monthly statement and passing of accounts for payment;
- (j) Motions of which previous notice has been given;
- (k) Motions without notice, by leave of the Board;
- (l) General business;
- (m) Notice of motions.

(16.) In the event of any member having urgent business to place before the meeting, he may move the suspension of the Standing Orders, and, if agreed to by the Board, such business shall take precedence of all other business.

(17.) Every petition or memorial shall be respectful and temperate in its language, and shall be presented to the Board by a member only; and any member presenting a petition or memorial shall acquaint himself with the contents thereof, and ascertain that it does not contain language disrespectful to the Board; the nature or prayer of every petition or memorial shall be stated to the Board by the member presenting the same.

(18.) Tenders for work shall be opened and dealt with when the subject-matter of the tenders comes on to be considered at the meeting of the Board, or by a Committee appointed for the purpose. The Board may require a deposit of five per cent. of the amount of each tender to accompany such tender; or the Board may require two satisfactory bonds lodged with the Board.

(19.) A member, when speaking, shall not digress from the subject of debate.

(20.) All correspondence with the Board shall be addressed to the secretary and submitted to the Board; no letter addressed to the Board shall be presented or read by a member.

(21.) (a) If, in a report of a Committee, distinct recommendations are made, the decision of the Board may be taken separately on each recommendation;

(b) Any report of a Committee, or any portion of such report, may be amended by the Board in any manner it may think fit, or may be referred back to the Committee for further consideration;

(c) The recommendations of any Committee, when adopted by the Board, shall be resolutions of the Board.

(22.) When the Chairman rises in his place during the progress of a debate, any member then speaking or offering to speak, shall immediately resume his seat, and every member shall preserve strict silence so that the Chairman may be heard without interruption, but the member who was speaking may resume when the Chairman takes his seat.

(23.) In the absence of any member who has placed a notice of motion on the business paper for any meeting, any other member may at such meeting move the same, or such motion may be deferred until the next ordinary meeting of the Board.

(24.) If any member has been granted leave of absence, and any matter comes before the Board for discussion, the subject-matter of which is of particular interest to the absent member, unless in the opinion of the Chairman it is a matter of urgency, such matter shall be held over until the absent member is again present; provided that, if he is not again present at the meeting at which the matter first came before the Board, no discussion shall take place until the next meeting of the Board, when such matter shall be dealt with.

(25.) Except as elsewhere provided, no motion, after being placed on the business paper, shall be withdrawn without the consent of the Board.

(26.) No motion shall be debated unless or until it has been seconded.

(27.) When a motion has been proposed and seconded it shall become subject to the control of the Board, and shall not be withdrawn without the consent of the Board.

(28.) When a motion has been proposed and seconded, any member shall be at liberty to move an amendment thereon, but no such amendment shall be debated unless or until it has been seconded. After an amendment has been moved and seconded, any member desirous of moving a further amendment may give notice of his intention so to do, and may briefly state his proposed amendment and the effect thereof.

(29.) No motion or amendment shall be debated unless or until it has been reduced to writing, if the Chairman so directs.

(30.) In submitting a motion or amendment, the Chairman shall put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative.

(31.) If an amendment has been carried, the question as amended shall become itself the question before the Board, whereupon any further amendment upon such question may be moved.

(32.) If an amendment, whether upon an original question or amended as aforesaid, has been negatived, then a further amendment may be moved to the question to which such first-mentioned amendment was moved, and so on until there are no further amendments and the question is decided by the final vote in the affirmative or in the negative; provided, that not more than one question and one proposed amendment thereof shall be before the Board at any one time.

(33.) No discussion shall be permitted upon any motion for the adjournment of the Board. If, upon the question being put on any such motion the same is negatived, the subject then under consideration or next on the business shall be discussed, and it shall not be competent for any member to again move a motion for adjournment until half an hour has elapsed from the time of moving the one that has been negatived.

(34.) On resuming any discussion which has been adjourned, the mover of such adjournment shall be entitled, if he has not already spoken on the subject under discussion, to speak first.

(35.) Every such question shall be put categorically and without any argument.

(36.) No discussion shall be permitted respecting any reply or refusal to reply to any question.

(37.) Members shall on all occasions, when at a meeting, address and speak to each other by their official designations, as Chairman or secretary, as the case may be, and, with the exception of the Chairman, shall rise in their places and stand while speaking (except when prevented from doing so by bodily infirmity).

(38.) No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except for the purpose of calling him to order, as hereinafter provided, or in pursuance of By-law No. 22.

(39.) The mover of an original motion shall have the right of general reply to all observations which have been made in reference to such motion, and to any amendment moved thereon, as well as the right to speak upon every such amendment. Every member, other than the mover of an original motion, shall have the right to speak once upon such motion, and once upon every amendment moved thereon. No member shall, without the consent of the Board, speak more than once upon any one question, or for a period longer than ten minutes at any one time, unless when misrepresented or misunderstood, in which case he may be permitted to explain without adding any further observations than may be necessary for the purposes of such explanation.

(40.) Upon a vote being taken, all members present within the Board Room, unless disqualified from voting, shall, and the Chairman, unless so disqualified, may, upon the question being put, record their respective votes in the affirmative or negative, as each shall deem desirable, but if a member other than the Chairman neglects or refuses to vote, his vote shall be counted for the negative.

(41.) (a) All questions shall, if not otherwise decided by law, be determined thus:—Upon a question being put those in favour shall say "Aye," and those against "No," and the Chairman shall declare whether the "Ayes" or the "Noes" have determined the question; or, if the Chairman prefer, he may call for a show of hands for and against the question. The decision of the Chairman shall be final and conclusive, unless such decision be immediately challenged and two members rise and demand a division.

(b) Where there is only one dissentient, he may request that his name be recorded in the minutes as opposed to the motion, and it shall be so recorded.

(42.) Upon a division being called for, the question shall be first put in the affirmative and then in the negative, and the Chairman and all members present shall vote by a show of hands, and the names and votes of the Chairman and members present shall be recorded in the minutes by the secretary. Any member of the Board present when a division is called for, who does not in the manner above indicated vote on such motion, not being disqualified by law from so voting, shall have his vote counted in the negative.

(43.) The Chairman shall be at liberty to put any question as often as may be necessary, to enable him to form his opinion as to the result of the voting, and declare the same.

(44.) Any member, who at any meeting of the Board or any Committee, commits a breach of any By-law, or who moves or attempts to move any motion or amendment embodying any matter beyond the legal jurisdiction of the Board or Committee, or who in any other way raises or attempts to raise any question, or addresses or attempts to address the Board or Committee upon any subject which the Board or Committee has no legal right to entertain or discuss, or who uses any language which, according to the common usage of gentlemen would be held to be disorderly, or makes use of any expression inconsistent with good order and decorum, or who says or does anything calculated to bring the Board or Committee into contempt, shall be guilty of an act of disorder.

(45.) The Chairman, when called upon to decide a point of order or practice, shall state the rule or precedent applicable to the case, without further argument or comment, and his decision shall be final in that particular case. If the ruling of the Chairman be disagreed with, then the usual Parliamentary procedure may be adopted.

(46.) Any member, having been called to order more than once by the Chairman, for any infringement of any of the provisions of these By-laws, or for any breach of decorum, shall, upon the request of the Chairman, withdraw from the Board Room for the remainder of the meeting.

(47.) If disorder arises at any meeting, the Chairman may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen minutes, and quit the Chair. Then on resuming, shall, on question put from the Chair, decide without debate whether the business be proceeded with or not.

(48.) The Board may at any time appoint one or more members as a Committee to inquire into any matter and make a report and recommendation thereon, but no Committee shall incur any financial liability, or in any way commit the Board to any responsibility whatever, without express and specific authority conferred by the By-laws or by a resolution of the Board.

(49.) At the annual meeting of the Board in each year a Finance and Works Committee shall be appointed. The Finance Committee shall meet at 9.30 o'clock on the morning of the ordinary meeting of the Board, and shall carry out the duties as specified in the regulations, and report to the Works Committee on the funds available for future works.

(50.) The Works Committee shall meet at such times and such places as the Chairman, or the Committee by resolution, may direct.
