STATE LAND AND INCOME TAX ASSESSMENT ACT, 1907-1932.

Notice to make Returns.

State Income Tax.

NOTICE is hereby given that every person liable under the abovenamed Act to make any return of income is required to make and furnish to me an Income Tax Return, in the prescribed form, of his or her income for the year ended 30th June, 1935. Returns of income from wages or salaries, etc. (Form HA) should be lodged on or before the 31st day of July, 1935, and returns from businesses, professions, etc. (Form H), must be lodged on or before the 31st day of August, 1935.

Persons liable to furnish Returns.

- (a) Persons (both male and female) who are not married and whose gross income from all sources during the year ended 30th June, 1935, was £100 or over.
- (b) Married persons whose gross income from all sources during the year ended 30th June, 1935, was £200 or over, but married women whose gross income was £100 or over are required by the State law to furnish returns.
"Not married" means bachelor, spinster, widow, widower, or divorced person. Value of board and lodging is income.
Any person who has furnished a return for previous years, but has received less than the amounts mentioned above for the year ended the 30th June, 1935, thereby rendering a return unnecessary, must so notify the Department in writing.
- (c) Every agent who sells or disposes of any goods in Western Australia on behalf of a person or company outside Western Australia must make a return on Form HF, showing the total sales so made.

State Land Tax.

Notice is hereby further given, that every person who was at noon, on the 30th day of June, 1935, the owner, within the meaning of the said Act, of any land whatsoever in Western Australia, is required to make and furnish to me on or before the 31st day of August, 1935, a land return, in the prescribed Form A, but if a return (Form A) has been furnished of all land owned on the 30th day of June, 1925, or subsequent years, as required, a return on Form GA must be furnished in respect of any land which has been bought or sold during the year ended 30th day of June, 1935, otherwise no return is necessary.

Form GA must also be furnished in respect of any land which was assessed at an unimproved rate as at the 30th day of June, 1934, and to which improvements have been added between that date and the 30th day of June, 1935.

Where land has been acquired for the first time during the year ended 30th June, 1935, and is still held at noon on that date, Form A must be furnished, unless same has been furnished for Federal.

Penalty for not furnishing return or making false return, up to £100 and treble tax.

Note.—Taxpayers may obtain Return forms at the Taxation Department, Forrest Place, Perth, at the principal Land Offices (except Perth), and at Post Offices in the suburbs of Perth, and at other places.

Forms will be posted to taxpayers if a stamped self-addressed envelope is forwarded to the State Commissioner of Taxation, Perth.

All letters, packets, etc., must be addressed to the Taxation Department, Box A15, G.P.O., Perth, and must have full postage affixed. Short postage will be charged to taxpayers.

Dated at Perth this 18th day of July, 1935.

E. A. BLACK,
State Commissioner of Taxation.

THE SHIPPING AND PILOTAGE CONSOLIDATION ORDINANCE, 1855.

Chief Secretary's Department,
Perth, 16th July, 1935.

773/29.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased—

(a) Under, and in accordance with Section 2 of Ordinance 37 Victoriae No. 14, to amend items Nos. 2, 3 and 5 of the Scale or List of Pilotage Charges under, and for the purposes of, the Port Regulations made under the said Ordinance, made and promulgated by notice published in the Government Gazette on the 28th day of July, 1933, in the manner set forth and described in the annexed notice; and

- (b) To declare that the said items of the said scale or list of Pilotage Charges as so amended shall have effect as from the date of the publication of the annexed notice in the Government Gazette.

F. J. HUELIN,
Under Secretary.

Shipping and Pilotage Consolidation Ordinance, 1855, as amended by Ordinance 37 Victoriae No. 14.

PILOTAGE CHARGES.

WHEREAS pursuant to Section 2 of Ordinance 37 Victoriae No. 14, a scale or list of Pilotage Charges under and for the purposes of the Port Regulations made under the said Ordinance was made and promulgated by notice published in the Government Gazette on the 28th day of July, 1933, as set out and numbered 2 to 5, both inclusive, in the said notice: And whereas in items 2, 3, and 5 of the said scale or list of Pilotage Charges it is provided that the charges payable thereunder shall be computed and assessed on the basis of the net registered tonnage of the vessels in respect of which such pilotage charges are payable: And whereas it is deemed desirable and expedient to amend the said items 2, 3, and 5 of the said scale or list so that it may be provided thereunder that the charges payable shall be computed and assessed on the basis of the gross registered tonnage, in lieu of the net registered tonnage, of the vessels in respect of which such charges are payable: Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, acting with the advice and consent of the Executive Council and in exercise of the power conferred by the said Ordinance, has been pleased to amend the said items numbered 2, 3, and 5 in the said scale or list of Pilotage Charges in the manner hereinafter mentioned, and to declare that the said items as so amended shall have effect as from the date of the publication of this notice in the Government Gazette, that is to say:—

1. Item No. 2 of the said scale or list of Pilotage Charges is amended by deleting the words "net registered tonnage," in line 3 of the said item, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "gross registered tonnage."

2. Item No. 3 of the said scale or list of Pilotage Charges is amended by deleting the words "net registered tonnage," in line 2 of the said item, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "gross registered tonnage."

3. Item No. 5 of the said scale or list of Pilotage Charges is amended by deleting the words "net register," where they appear in paragraphs (a) and (b) of the said item, and inserting in lieu thereof in both the said paragraphs the words "gross register."

By His Excellency's Command,

L. E. SHAPCOTT,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Perth, 10th July, 1935.

THE FIRE BRIGADES ACT, 1916.

Chief Secretary's Department,
Perth, 11th July, 1935.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council acting pursuant to Section 38 of "The Fire Brigades Act, 1916," has been pleased to repeal all the regulations heretofore made under and for the purposes of the said Act, and still in force prior to the date of the publication of this notice, and, in lieu thereof, to make new regulations under and for the purposes of the said Act as set forth in the Schedule hereunder, and to declare that such new regulations shall commence and have effect as on and from the date of the publication of notice in the Government Gazette.

F. J. HUELIN,
Under Secretary.

Schedule.

THE FIRE BRIGADES ACT, 1916.

Regulations.

(Section 38.)

1. These regulations may be cited as the Fire Brigades Act Regulations.

2. These regulations are divided into Parts, as follows:—

Part I.—Regulations 3 to 37—Administration.

Part II.—Regulations 38 to 108—Permanent Fire Brigades.

Part III.—Regulations 109 to 164—Volunteer Fire Brigades.

Part IV.—Regulations 165 to 172—Miscellaneous.

First Appendix—Forms of Debuture and Agreement.

PART I.—ADMINISTRATION.

Election of Members of the Board.

Returning Officer.

3. The Under Secretary, Chief Secretary's Department, Perth, shall be the Returning Officer.

Election of Two Members by the Insurance Companies.

4. The members to be elected by the insurance companies shall be elected at a meeting held for that purpose during the month of November, 1936, and in the month of November in every alternate year thereafter.

5. At such meeting, which shall be held at a time and place to be stated in the notice convening the same, the representatives of the insurance companies shall elect a chairman, and the election of two members of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes of the representatives present, and the votes to be allotted to each representative shall be according to the following scale, namely:—where the insurance company's fire premium income in the State of Western Australia does not exceed two thousand pounds, the representative shall be entitled to one vote; where such income is above two thousand pounds and does not exceed five thousand pounds, the representative shall have two votes; where such income is above five thousand pounds, such representative shall have three votes, and the chairman of such meeting shall have in addition to his own vote or votes, a casting vote.

6. Such meeting may regulate its own procedure.

7. The names of the persons elected shall be forthwith communicated to the returning officer who shall, by notice in the Government Gazette, declare such persons duly elected.

Election of One Member by the Council of the City of Perth.

8. (a) The member to be elected by the Council of the City of Perth shall be elected at a meeting of the Council to be held during the month of November, 1936, and in the month of November in every alternate year thereafter.

(b) The name of the person elected shall forthwith be communicated by the town clerk to the returning officer, who shall, by notice in the Government Gazette, declare such person duly elected.

Election of Members by Local Authorities.

9. (a) Before the 31st day of October, 1936, and before the 31st day of October in every alternate year thereafter, the Board shall furnish to the returning officer a list of the names of the local authorities included in Parts II., III., and IV. of the Second Schedule of the Act.

(b) The council of each municipality and the board of each road district mentioned in Parts II., III., and IV., respectively, of the Second Schedule of the Act, or as may be added thereto or excised therefrom under Section 4, may nominate a candidate for election as a member of the Board to represent each of such groups of municipalities and road districts.

(c) In the case of a united Fire District the Board shall acquaint the returning officer not later than October of each election year of the names of local authorities constituting united Fire Districts. Every local authority whose district or portion of district forms part of a united Fire District shall have the right to nominate a candidate for election, and to vote at the election.

10. Nomination papers in the form prescribed by the returning officer shall be addressed to the Under Secretary, at the Chief Secretary's Department, Perth, and must be received not later than the 1st day of November of each election year.

11. If not more than one candidate is nominated to represent any one of the said groups of municipalities and road board districts, as set out in Parts II., III., and IV. of the Second Schedule of the Act, or as may be added thereto or excised therefrom under Section 4, the returning officer shall, by notice published in the Government Gazette, declare such candidate duly elected.

12. (a) If more candidates than one are nominated by any of the said groups of municipalities and road boards, the returning officer shall cause a list of the candidates to be prepared, and shall forward a copy of such list to each municipal council and road board concerned, and each such municipal council and road board of the several groups shall, on the occasion of any ordinary or special meeting, mark the list by placing the numeral 1 opposite the name of the candidate for whom the council or board votes as its first preference, and shall give contingent votes for all the remaining candidates by placing the numerals 2, 3, and so on (as the case requires) opposite their names, so as to indicate by such numerical sequence the order of preference, and shall return the list, addressed to the Under Secretary, at the Chief Secretary's Department, Perth, so that the same may be received not later than the 30th day of November of each election year.

(b) Any list of candidates which is not marked as specified in this regulation shall be informal.

(c) The counting of votes shall be according to the preferential system of voting as employed in State Parliamentary Elections, and laid down in "The Electoral Act, 1907-21," so far as it is applicable.

13. In the case of an equality of votes, the returning officer shall have a casting vote.

14. The returning officer shall forthwith, after receipt of the voting papers for each of such groups of municipalities and road districts, by notice in the Government Gazette, declare the candidate receiving the largest number of votes for each such groups of municipalities and road districts to be duly elected.

Election of One Member by the Volunteer Fire Brigades.

15. (a) In the month of October, 1936, and in the month of October in every alternate year thereafter, the Board shall furnish the returning officer with a list of all registered volunteer fire brigades in the Fire Districts, and such list shall be published by the returning officer in the Government Gazette.

(b) The name of any registered volunteer fire brigade omitted from the list may be inserted in the list on application by the Board to the returning officer within seven days from the publication thereof.

(c) Such list, when published, shall be the roll of registered volunteer fire brigades within the meaning of Section 6 of the Act.

(d) On or before the 1st day of November, 1936, and on or before the 1st day of November in every alternate year thereafter, each registered brigade so enrolled may, by notice in writing, addressed to the returning officer, nominate one or more candidates.

16. If no more than one candidate is nominated the returning officer shall, by notice published in the Government Gazette, declare such candidate duly elected.

17. (a) If more candidates than one are nominated, the returning officer shall cause a list of the candidates to be prepared, and shall forward a copy of such list to each brigade, and such brigade shall, on the occasion of any ordinary or special meeting, mark the list by placing the numeral 1 opposite the name of the candidate for whom the brigade votes as its first preference, and shall give contingent votes for all the remaining candidates by placing the numerals 2, 3 and so on (as the case requires) opposite their names, so as to indicate by such numerical sequence the order of preference, and shall return the list, addressed to the Under Secretary, at the Chief Secretary's Department, Perth, so that the same may be received not later than the 30th day of November of each election year.

(b) Any list of candidates which is not marked as specified in this regulation shall be informal.

(c) The counting of votes shall be according to the preferential system of voting as employed in State Parliamentary Elections, and laid down in "The Electoral Act, 1907-21," so far as it is applicable.

18. In the case of an equality of votes the returning officer shall have a casting vote.

19. The returning officer shall forthwith, after the receipt of the voting papers, count the votes, and by notice in the Government Gazette declare the candidate receiving the largest number of votes to be duly elected.

Extraordinary Vacancies.

20. Every extraordinary vacancy in the office of a member of the Board shall be filled by appointment or election, as the case may require, under and subject to the provisions of Section 14 of the Act, and the procedure prescribed in these regulations for periodical elections shall apply. Provided that the time within which such vacancy shall be filled up shall be eight weeks from the occurrence of the vacancy.

Telegraphic Communications.

21. In all cases where it is impracticable to communicate any matter by post without occasioning undue delay, any telegraphic advice communicated in the ordinary course shall suffice for the purpose of these regulations.

Declaration by Returning Officer.

22. The publication in the Government Gazette of the names of members of the Board appointed by the Governor shall be conclusive evidence of their appointment; and the publication by the Returning Officer of the names of elected members of the Board in the Government Gazette shall be conclusive evidence that the elections, at which such members were elected, were held in accordance with the Act and these regulations, and that such members were duly elected.

Proceedings of the Board.

Meetings.

23. The Board shall meet for the transaction of ordinary business on such days and at such time and place as the Board shall from time to time determine.

24. The president may, or on the written requisition of three members of the Board the secretary shall, call special meetings of which each member shall receive at least seven days' notice.

Committees.

25. The Board may delegate any of its powers to committees duly appointed by the Board, but any committee so formed shall in the exercise of its powers so delegated conform to any direction that may be imposed upon it by the Board. Each such committee shall report to the Board. The president shall be ex officio a member of all committees.

Debate.

26. The debate on all questions at meetings of the Board shall be conducted in accordance with the rules, forms and usages which govern debates in the Legislative Assembly of the State Parliament so far as the same are applicable or can be made applicable thereto.

Minutes.

27. A record of all proceedings of the Board and of every committee, with the names of the members who attend each meeting, shall be made in books kept for the purpose under the direction of the Board and committees, and shall be signed at the next or some subsequent meeting of the Board or committee.

Common Seal.

28. The common seal shall be placed in the custody of the Secretary, who shall keep it securely locked up in the office or have same deposited with the bankers of the Board for safe custody. The seal shall not be affixed to any document except by the order of the Board as recorded in the minutes, and when affixed must be witnessed by at least two member of the Board, and by the secretary or any other officer authorised by the Board in that behalf.

Amendment, Rescission, or Extension of Regulations.

29. Any member may, on giving seven clear days' notice, submit to the Board at its ordinary meeting or at a special meeting, any motion for the purpose of recommending to the Governor in Council the making, altering, amending, rescinding, or extending of any regulation authorised under the existing Fire Brigades Act.

Financial Provisions.

Financial Year.

30. (a) The financial year of the Board shall commence on the 1st day of October and end on the 30th day of September each year.

(b) Where by virtue of the definition of "year" in Section 3 of the Act, any duty under the Act is required to be done or performed in or for a year ending on the 31st day of December, such last-mentioned date shall be altered so that such duty shall be required to be done or performed in or for a year ending on the 30th day of September.

(c) The dates prescribed by Section 40, Subsection 1, of "The Fire Brigades Act, 1916," for the doing of or performance of the duties in the said section referred to shall be altered as follows:—Where the date the 31st day of October appears in the said section, the same shall be altered to and the 31st day of July substituted.

(d) The dates prescribed by Section 41, Subsection 3, of "The Fire Brigades Act, 1916," for the doing of or performance of the duties in the said section referred to shall be altered as follows:—Where the dates the 1st day of January, April, July and October appear in the said section, the same shall be altered, and the following dates respectively substituted, that is to say, the 1st day of October, January, April, and July.

Board Fees.

31. The fees allowed to the Board shall be divided amongst the members in such amounts and at such times as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board.

32. (1) Members and officers of the Board, when attending demonstrations, competitions, conferences, or inspections, or engaged in other Board business, shall be entitled to and shall be paid the special allowances set forth in the following scale, namely:—

(a) For journeys within the State occupying more than one day:—

	s.	d.
(i) Members of the Board, per day	30	0
(ii) Chief Officer, per day	30	0
(iii) Deputy Chief Officer, per day	25	0
(iv) Secretary and assistant secretary, per day	21	0
(v) All other officers, per day	17	6

(b) For journeys within the metropolitan area or occupying less than one day, members and officers of the Board shall be allowed out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred by them.

(c) Members of the Board and the Chief Officer, when travelling beyond the limits of the State on the authority of the Board, shall, except when at sea, or on the Commonwealth railway between Kalgoorlie and Port Augusta, receive an allowance at the rate of 30s. per diem, unless it can be shown to the satisfaction of the Minister that such amount is insufficient to meet their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

(d) When members of the Board and the Chief Officer travel by steamer or other vessel, or on the Commonwealth railway between Kalgoorlie and Port Augusta, in which the fare paid includes subsistence, an allowance equal to 15 per cent. of the passage money, calculated on single fare, shall be paid in lieu of the ordinary travelling allowance.

(2) In addition to the above allowances, members and officers of the Board shall be allowed first-class railway and steamer fares, where such expense is incurred by them when travelling on Board business; and, in the case of a member of the Board resident in the country, the Board may provide him with a seasonal railway ticket.

(3) All expenditure incurred by the Board under this regulation shall be charged to the administration costs of the Board.

Disbursements.

33. All payments of £1 and over shall be made by cheque upon the bankers of the Board, signed by two members of the Board, and countersigned by the secretary or other officer authorised by the Board.

Debentures.

34. A debenture issued by the Board to secure money borrowed by way of overdraft from a bank, and an agreement relating thereto, may be in the forms in Parts 1 and 2 of the First Appendix hereto, or to the effect thereof, and in such case it shall not be obligatory that a sinking fund should be provided for the redemption thereof.

United Fire Districts.

Local Committees.

35. Where two or more municipal or road districts or one or more municipal districts together with one or more road districts are united, the local committee of such united fire district shall consist of representatives from each municipal or road district within the united fire district, the number of such representatives to be mutually agreed upon by the council or road board concerned. Provided that in case of disagreement the number of representatives shall be determined by the Board.

Contributions.

36. When the local authorities within a united fire district have mutually agreed upon the proportion which each shall pay of the total annual contribution due to the Board, such sums shall be levied and payable to the Board as mutually agreed upon.

Marine Insurance Companies.

37. Every marine insurance company carrying on business of marine insurance in the State of Western Australia, and not otherwise contributing to the funds of the Board, shall contribute to the said Board, for the protection of the interests insured under their policies on wharves and jetties, the sum of Ten pounds annually in advance on the first day of January in each and every year. Provided that in any year the annual contribution payable by any marine insurance company may, with the approval in writing of the Board, be paid by four equal quarterly instalments on the first days of January, April, July and October in such year.

PART II.—PERMANENT FIRE BRIGADES.

Ranks and Classes.

38. The ranks and classes of the brigade shall be as may be designated from time to time at the discretion of the Board, but unless the Board otherwise determines firemen shall be divided into three classes and ranks, viz., 1st, 2nd, and 3rd class firemen.

Appointments.

39. A candidate for appointment to the brigade must—

- (a) Be a British subject;
- (b) be not under 21 nor over 30 years of age, unless he possesses special qualifications, in which case the age limit may be extended to 32 years;
- (c) be not less than 5ft. 7in. in height, and 37in. natural chest measurement;
- (d) be free from disease or defect in limb, hearing or sight, and not subject to fits;
- (e) be generally intelligent and capable of acquiring instruction;
- (f) produce satisfactory testimonials as to character;
- (g) produce a birth certificate or other satisfactory proof of age.

Provided that any condition prescribed by this regulation may be waived at the discretion of the Board.

40. Applications for appointment must be made in person, and each applicant must write his own application, and state his age, occupation, height, chest measurement, and whether married or single.

41. Every approved candidate will be required to undergo a strict medical examination by the Board's medical officer as to physical fitness before being appointed to the service.

42. All candidates for appointment before signing on are required to read the Rules and Regulations of the Board, and to sign the declaration hereunder:—"I hereby state that I have read the Rules and Regulations of the Board, and undertake to serve under same."

43. Eligible candidates when finally approved will be accepted as members of the brigade on probation only for two months. At the end of such probation the probationer, if he has proved satisfactory to the Chief Officer, may be appointed by the Board as a permanent fireman. The two months' probation will be reckoned as part of the first twelve months' service.

44. All appointments or engagements made by the Board may be cancelled or annulled without any reason being assigned, one week's pay to be granted in lieu of notice.

Promotions.

45. Fireman shall automatically progress from third-class to second-class, and from second-class to first-class, after one year's satisfactory service in the third and second classes respectively.

46. Above the rank of first-class promotion shall not necessarily be by seniority.

47. No first-class fireman shall be promoted to a higher grade unless he has—

- (a) served at least two years at first-class rank;
- (b) passed an examination in the practical working of fire brigade appliances;
- (c) satisfied examiners appointed by the Board that he is qualified to take charge at fires and drills, and is able to instruct firemen in the practical working of fire appliances.

48. When a vacancy occurs in a rank higher than first class, applications shall be invited by the Chief Officer from qualified men in the class immediately below that in which the vacancy occurs, and all things being equal a selection shall be made from such applicants for the vacancy.

Wages.

49. Wages shall be as from time to time determined by the Board or as determined by an industrial award or agreement.

Leave.

50. When a fireman is off duty by reason of illness, he shall be entitled to leave of absence on full pay in respect of twenty-one (21) days over a triennial period. Further sick leave, with or without pay, may be granted at the discretion of the Board.

51. Medical certificates shall be furnished as to the fireman's fitness or otherwise for duty on application for sick leave, and before resuming duty. Provided that the Chief Officer may dispense with certificates in cases where the sick leave does not exceed one day.

52. After the expiration of one year's service firemen shall be entitled to twenty-one (21) days' annual leave on full pay, and thereafter a pro rata allowance. Provided that no leave shall accrue to any fireman until he has served three complete months.

53. The Board may grant other leave of absence in special circumstances on such conditions as it thinks fit.

54. The Chief Officer and other officers of the Board shall receive such sick, annual and other leave as may be determined from time to time by the Board.

55. The Board or the Chief Officer may for sufficient reason defer any or all leave.

Accidents.

56. Any employee who has established a claim under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1912-24, and any amendments thereof, by reason of personal injury by accident arising out of or in the course of his employment whilst preceeding to, at, or returning from a fire or fire call shall be entitled to leave of absence from duty, and shall receive during the period of incapacity such sum weekly as shall, together with any weekly amount received as compensation, including child allowance (if any), under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1912-24 and any amendments thereof, be equal to the amount of his weekly wages. Provided that—

- (a) such payments shall not be made for more than thirteen weeks except by resolution of the Board;
- (b) such payments shall not be continued after the services of any employee have been terminated;
- (c) such payments for a period not exceeding thirteen weeks shall not be deducted from any payments made under the second schedule of the above Act;
- (d) leave granted under this regulation shall not be counted against sick leave.

Uniforms.

57. The uniform of the Brigade shall consist of a tunic undress jacket, woollen sweater for winter, light coat for station work, trousers, peak cap, boots, flat cap, helmet, axe, hose and nozzle spanner, belt and two pouches, or as may be otherwise determined from time to time by the Board.

58. Uniform shall be worn at all times when on duty. At fires every fireman must appear in full uniform. When on duty other than at fires firemen shall wear such uniform as the Chief Officer may direct.

59. All articles of uniform issued are and remain the property of the Board.

60. If a fireman leaving the service fails to return any of the Board's property in proper order, allowing for fair wear and tear, the Board may deduct from any moneys due to him such sum as will indemnify the Board against loss.

Duties of Officers and Firemen.

Electrical Engineer.

61. The Electrical Engineer shall—

- (a) under the Chief Officer have charge of the Electrical Department of the Brigade, and be responsible for the proper working of the telephones, electric motors, electric light, and other electrical appliances and material;
- (b) keep an account of the time occupied on any work by the men under him, and the cost of the material used in its execution;
- (c) be responsible that the material supplied to him be used economically, and for the purpose for which it was issued;
- (d) furnish requisitions for materials, stating for what purpose they are required, and the probable cost;

- (e) instruct men attending the workshops for electrical work in the care and management of telephones, fire alarms, batteries, and other electrical appliances;
- (f) at a fire, as far as possible, attend to the safety of the firemen from electric tramway trolley wires and electric light cables or wires, or any other electrical installations which may appear to him to imperil the safety of the firemen, or hinder them in their work;
- (g) at a fire require the electric current to be shut off from any source, or cut any wires, if necessary, without awaiting orders.

Mechanical Engineer.

62. The Mechanical Engineer shall—
- (a) under the Chief Officer have charge of the workshops of the Brigade, and be responsible that the machinery and tools be kept in good order;
 - (b) keep an account of the time occupied by the men under him on any work, and the cost of the material used in its execution;
 - (c) be responsible that the material supplied is used economically, and for the purpose for which it was issued;
 - (d) furnish requisitions for materials, stating for what purpose they are required, and the probable cost;
 - (e) instruct men attending the workshop in the use of the various tools, and in the care and management of motor fire engines;
 - (f) at fires see that the engines are working satisfactorily, and that they are duly supplied with fuel, and, as far as possible, sufficient water.

District Officer.

63. A District Officer shall—
- (a) reside as may be directed by the Chief Officer, and have charge of such district as may be assigned to him;
 - (b) attend fires and take control until the arrival of a senior officer;
 - (c) check and pass reports and requisitions for repairs to gear, and for supplies in his district, and transmit them to the Board;
 - (d) be responsible for the proper working of his district, and the maintenance of strict discipline.

Station Officer.

64. A station officer, or any other officer in charge of a station, shall generally carry out such duties as may from time to time be passed by resolution of the Board, but more particularly he shall—
- (a) reside, when required, at any station to which he may be appointed, and take charge of the station and any other property belonging to the Board, or under its care;
 - (b) attend fires and take control until the arrival of a senior officer;
 - (c) see that all calls for chimneys on fire are immediately attended to, and that stops for the same or grass fires are sent to the other stations to save any unnecessary turning out of engines;
 - (d) report himself immediately upon arrival at a fire to the senior officer present. He shall not work independently of any officer of the brigade;
 - (e) ascertain as soon as possible, if he be the first officer to arrive at a fire, the nature and extent of the fire. He shall send information to headquarters or the nearest fire station so that it may be communicated to the Chief Officer;
 - (f) within forty-eight hours of a fire or alarm of fire furnish the prescribed fire report form, duly completed, to the Board. The names and respective ranks of firemen present thereat must be recorded on the back of the form;
 - (g) requisition for all stores, repairs, etc., that may be required at his station;
 - (h) make himself conversant with any dangers of a special nature such as timber yards, large buildings, and buildings in which especially hazardous goods are stored. He shall make note of the locality of powder magazines, stores of inflammable liquid, and the like;

- (i) be solely responsible for the control and management of his station. His judgment and discretion will be left practically unfettered in order that there may be no limit to his responsibility in the execution of the duties entrusted to him.

First-class Firemen.

65. First-class firemen shall—
- (a) be competent to describe the various apparatus in the brigade;
 - (b) have a knowledge of internal combustion engines;
 - (c) be able to instruct a class in elementary drills.

Second-class Firemen.

66. Second-class firemen shall be conversant with the details of a fireman's ordinary duties, and be proficient in drills.

General Duties.

67. All firemen shall render immediate obedience to all lawful orders from their superior officers, and must conform to all rules and regulations which have been made or may be made from time to time in the brigade orders.

68. Roll-call shall be at 7 a.m., 8 a.m., 1 p.m., and 6 p.m., and at such other times as the Chief Officer may direct.

69. Firemen will be held responsible to the officer-in-charge of the station that the apartments, bedding, and furniture are kept clean and in good order at all times, and ready for inspection at 10 a.m. each day. Firemen will be held responsible for any wilful damage during occupancy of such quarters.

70. Every fireman must serve wherever the Chief Officer may direct, and attend all fire calls while on duty.

71. Whenever occasion requires, any portion of a brigade or any of its officers or firemen, or engines, escapes, or other property may be directed to proceed or be taken beyond the limits of any district, and from one district to another, for the purpose of attending fires.

72. The general duties of officers and firemen shall be as defined from time to time by resolution of the Board.

Charges, Inquiries, Punishments, and Appeals.

73. The Chief Officer shall be empowered to inquire into all offences contrary to the good order and discipline of the Brigade, and take such action as he may consider necessary to meet the case.

74. Every fireman shall be liable to dismissal, suspension, reduction in rank, fine or other punishment by the Chief Officer for any offence or conduct whereby the discipline or good order or reputation of the Brigade may be imperilled.

75. Any fireman who in any way assaults an officer shall be dismissed forthwith.

76. Any fireman found pilfering at fires shall be immediately dismissed.

77. No permanent fireman shall accept or engage in any employment for reward other than in connection with his duties, as a fireman. Provided that the foregoing shall not prevent any fireman from—

- (a) becoming a member or shareholder only of any incorporated company, or of any company or society of persons registered under any Statute;
- (b) accepting and continuing to hold any office in any society founded under the law relating to friendly societies.

Penalty: Liable to dismissal.

78. Any fireman desiring to leave the Brigade (unless under special circumstances) must give at least seven clear days' notice in writing, addressed to the Chief Officer. Any fireman resigning or discontinuing his duties without such notice, or without special permission, shall be liable to forfeit all pay due to him, and to be formally dismissed.

79. Any fireman found in an intoxicated state while on duty shall be suspended, and will be liable to summary dismissal.

80. Any fireman heard to speak slanderously, contemptuously, disparagingly, or insubordinately of any officer or in any manner uttering words calculated to cause a breach of the rules or disorder in the Brigade shall be suspended, and be liable to dismissal.

81. Firemen wearing uniform when off duty unless when proceeding to or from duty will be suspended. No fireman is permitted to attend theatres or other places of amusement in uniform unless on duty.

82. Any fireman tampering with the Brigade books, or causing wilful damage to the buildings, fire extinguishing apparatus, or other material or goods, the property of the Board, will be liable to punishment, and further, the value of the damage so done may be deducted from any moneys which may be due to the said fireman then or thereafter.

83. No fireman shall absent himself from the station to which he is attached, while on duty, without permission of the officer-in-charge.

84. Gambling of any kind is strictly prohibited in or about the station or quarters occupied by firemen.

85. Intoxicating liquors shall not be brought on to stations, except by permission of the Chief Officer.

86. No fireman shall upon any occasion or under any pretence whatever accept any money, gifts or addresses from any person for services rendered at a fire without permission of the Board or the Chief Officer.

87. Married men having quarters in a station shall be held responsible for any wilful damage during the occupancy of such quarters. The quarters shall be subject to inspection by the Chief Officer, and by the officer-in-charge of the station, and when vacated must be left clean and in good order.

88. Any fireman having a charge to make against another, or a complaint of any kind, shall do so in writing, through the officer-in-charge of the station, and addressed to the Chief Officer.

89. The Chief Officer may at any time, for sufficient cause, reduce any fireman to a lower grade with corresponding reduction in pay.

90. When a fireman is suspended and is summoned to appear before an officer or the Board to answer a charge, he shall be informed at least forty-eight (48) hours before the hearing thereof, and shall have access to all reports which are put in as evidence against him. He may, if he so desires, have an advocate from his union to assist him, and shall be allowed to call evidence on his behalf and to hear all evidence against him.

91. The Chief Officer shall report all offences and penalties for same to the Board at its next meeting after the offence has been dealt with.

92. Any fireman may appeal to the Board against any dismissal or reduction in rank inflicted by the Chief Officer, and the Board may affirm, annul, or vary such penalty.

General.

93. Any change in a fireman's marital condition shall be notified in writing to the Chief Officer.

94. No fireman shall supply information to the Press excepting through the Chief Officer.

95. No fireman shall take orders at fires from citizens.

96. Any communication which a fireman may desire to place before the Board must be sent in writing through the Chief Officer.

97. When a fireman is ordered to remove from one station to another, the Board shall pay all reasonable expenses of removal, except when such removal be ordered by way of punishment, or is granted at the request of the fireman.

98. Long service medals will be issued to all ranks on the completion of 15 years' service with good conduct, and will not be liable to forfeiture. The medal must be worn on the right breast of tunic.

Auxiliary Firemen.

99. Applications for appointment as firemen in the auxiliary force must be made in candidates' own handwriting to the Chief Officer.

100. Candidates must be physically strong men, free from defect in limb, or sight, and not subject to fits.

101. Candidates must be of suitable age, and be approved by the Chief Officer.

102. Candidates shall furnish testimony from at least two reputable persons as to their character, and, if necessary, produce satisfactory proof of age.

103. Candidates shall be required to serve at least one month on probation, and, if found suitable, may be appointed to the auxiliary force.

104. The engagement of every auxiliary fireman shall be for one month, and thereafter from month to month.

105. Long service medals shall not be issued to auxiliary firemen.

106. Auxiliary firemen shall receive pay in accordance with the following scale, viz.:—

(a) A retaining fee of 12s. 6d. a month;

(b) In addition to the retaining fee pay shall be allowed for attendance at fires in accordance with the following schedule:—

for the first hour—5s.;

for each subsequent hour or part thereof—2s. 6d.

(c) No pay shall be granted for attendance at drills, false alarms, fires with but trifling damage or chimney fires, unless under special circumstances, and no fireman shall be entitled to receive pay under this schedule for services at any fire unless he shall have received orders to attend such fire from his superiors.

107. Where an auxiliary fireman is injured whilst on duty incidental to a fire call, the provisions of Regulation 141 shall apply.

Special Firemen.

108. Should the Chief Officer deem it necessary to obtain assistance at any fire, he may engage special firemen.

PART III.—VOLUNTEER FIRE BRIGADES.

Classification of Brigades.

109. For the efficient working of fire brigades, the Board may register brigades and place them under classification as it may from time to time determine. The classification for the present shall be as follows:—

Class A.—A complement of 20 effective registered members graded as follows:—Captain, foreman, apparatus officer, secretary, and 16 active members.

Class B.—A complement of 15 effective registered members, graded as follows:—Captain, foreman, secretary, and 12 active members.

Suspension and Disbandment of Brigades.

110. (a) Whenever any brigade by reason of deaths, resignations, or expulsions shall have reduced its roll to less than a minimum effective strength to be determined by the Board, the registration of the said brigade may be suspended, and any allowances payable to any members thereof may be reduced or forfeited to the Board as the Board may determine.

(b) If, after one month's notice from the Board, any registered brigade remains below the minimum effective strength determined by the Board, the Board may cancel the registration of such brigade.

(c) If through dissensions or other cause the efficiency of any brigade is, in the opinion of the Board, impaired, registration may be suspended or the brigade may be disbanded by the Board.

Brigade District.

111. (a) The district within which each registered brigade shall be liable to do duty shall be that portion that is within the boundary of the fire district in which the brigade is established.

(b) Such fire district shall be known and designated as the brigade district under the name of the said fire district.

(c) Brigades may, at the discretion of the senior officer, be permitted on request to attend fires outside their fire district, provided that sufficient members and appliances are retained for adequate protection of their fire district.

Observance of Regulations.

112. Every officer and member shall conform to the regulations made, or which may hereafter be made, for the management of the various fire brigades, and shall be subject to the duties, conditions and penalties named therein. All allowances may, at the discretion of the Board, be subject to stoppage or absolute forfeiture in the event of wilful violation of the regulations.

Brigade Rules.

113. Each brigade may have its own rules of internal and general working, which shall in all cases be subject to the approval of the Board. All proposed alterations or additions shall be submitted to the Board for approval or otherwise. No rule shall be contrary to these regulations.

Qualification of Membership.

114. No person shall be registered on the roll of any brigade unless he is—

- (a) in good health, and sound in body and mind;
- (b) of good moral character and habits;
- (c) over the age of 18 years, and not over the age of 40 years, provided that the Board may, in special cases, consent to the enrolment of a person over the age of 40 years.

Persons Not Eligible for Membership.

115. No person shall, unless with the consent of the Board, be eligible for re-election to any brigade, who has been dismissed or struck off the roll of any brigade for misconduct, or for persistent neglect to attend fires or practices, or for want of interest generally in his duty as a fireman, or for any cause which, in the opinion of the Board, would disqualify him for membership.

Retiring Age of Members.

116. No member over the age of 55 years shall be allowed to remain on the registered roll of any brigade unless under special circumstances, and with the approval of the Board.

New Active Members.

117. (a) In each case of persons desiring to join, after a brigade has been registered by the Board, if the candidate complies with the requirements set forth in Regulation 114, and the brigade approves of him, the name and particulars of such candidate shall be submitted to the Board in such form as the Board may from time to time direct, for approval or otherwise.

(b) No person shall be recognised as a member of any brigade until his name has been approved by the Board, and registered on the roll of such brigade by the Board.

(c) The Board may require a certificate from the captain of the brigade that due regard has been paid to the distribution of the membership over the area in which property has to be protected.

(d) Members shall, unless the Board otherwise determines, reside within easy sound of the alarm bell, and their services must be reasonably available as required.

New Reserve Members.

118. In addition to the complement of registered active members, brigades may elect reserve members, subject to the approval and registration by the Board. As vacancies in the ranks of registered active members occur, the places should be filled, as far as practicable, from the reserve.

Leave of Absence.

119. Members desirous of obtaining leave of absence shall apply for same in writing to their brigade, and in the event of such leave being sought for a longer period than one month, the applications shall be forwarded to the Board with the brigade's recommendation.

Transfer of Members.

120. Members may be transferred from one brigade to another, provided the complement of the latter permits of such transfer, on production of a certificate of good character and discharge from their former brigade, and with the approval of the Board.

Resignations.

121. Members desiring to retire from the membership of their brigade shall send in their resignation in writing to the Board through the brigade.

Members may be Struck Off the Roll.

122. Any member who has failed to keep himself effective as set forth in Regulation 135 (e), without leave or sufficient excuse, shall be liable to be struck off the register by the Board.

Election of Officers.

123. (a) Every brigade shall meet during the first week in December in each year, and elect by ballot the complement of officers allotted to it under its classification.

(b) All officers elected shall be effective registered members of their respective brigades.

(c) Officers shall hold office for the term of one year from and including the first day of January next ensuing the annual election.

(d) In the event of an officer resigning or being removed from office, or ceasing to be a member of the brigade during the year, the brigade shall forthwith in meeting fill the vacancy by ballot. The officer elected shall hold office until the ensuing thirty-first day of December.

(e) Brigades may make their own rules or resolutions with regard to the date and method of nominating for the position of officers.

(f) Secretaries of brigades shall within seven days of such elections report to the Board the result thereof.

Conduct of Members.

124. Members of brigades shall in their intercourse with each other, official or social, observe a courteous demeanour, and officers and members addressing each other shall do so in a respectful manner.

125. While on duty at fires, practices, drills, or parades, the greatest degree of silence compatible with a proper discharge of duty shall be observed, and members shall address officers by their official titles.

126. Members of brigades shall be deemed to be on duty at all times when in uniform; and at fires, alarms of fire, practices, drills, parades or brigade meetings, etc., whether in uniform or plain clothes.

Offences, Punishments, and Appeals.

127. Any member of a brigade who may be deemed to be guilty of disobedience of orders, insubordination, conduct subversive of discipline, intoxication, abusive or obscene language, or other unseemly conduct when on duty shall within twenty-four hours be reported to the Chief Officer, in writing, by the captain or senior officer present, who may suspend such member from duty pending an inquiry. Officers below the rank of captain shall forward their reports in such cases to the captain for transmission to the Chief Officer.

128. The Chief Officer shall be empowered to inquire into all offences contrary to the good order and discipline of the brigade, and take such action as he may consider necessary to meet the case.

129. The Chief Officer shall report all offences and penalties for same to the Board at its next meeting after the offence has been dealt with.

130. Any member may in writing appeal to the Board against any penalty inflicted by the Chief Officer, and the Board may affirm, annul or vary such penalty.

Duties of Officers and Members.

Captain.

131. The captain shall—

- (a) enforce discipline and the regulations of the Board;
- (b) take command at fires in the absence of any permanent officer of the Board;
- (c) take command at all brigade practices, drills, and parades;
- (d) be empowered to suspend any officer or member, as set forth in Regulation 127;
- (e) see that the officers and members, or any persons employed, do their duty faithfully;
- (f) see that all appliances and buildings belonging to the Board or in charge of the brigade are kept clean and in good condition and repair;
- (g) at least once every month cause an inspection to be made of all hydrants within the brigade district, and immediately report details of defective hydrants to the Board;
- (h) examine from time to time all entries made in the brigade books by the secretary;
- (i) inspect brigade uniforms, and report to the Board thereon, as set forth in Regulation 155;
- (j) act in any matter if a senior officer of the Board is not present;
- (k) see that the provisions of Regulation 143 (1), relative to demonstrations and competitions, are given effect to.

Foreman.

132. The foreman shall—
- (a) act with and be under the direction of the captain;
 - (b) perform the duties of the captain in his absence;
 - (c) where a station-keeper is not provided, take charge of all appliances and be responsible for their cleanliness, and the good order of the fire station;
 - (d) immediately report any defects in the appliances and buildings to the captain.

Apparatus Officer.

133. The apparatus officer shall—
- (a) be subject to the senior officers of the brigade;
 - (b) assist the foreman in his duties;
 - (c) perform the duties of foreman in his absence.

Secretary.

134. The secretary shall—
- (a) subject to the control of the Board, have charge of all books, papers, and other documents of the Board that may be in the custody of the brigade;
 - (b) attend promptly to all communications received from the Chief Officer or secretary of the Board;
 - (c) promptly communicate the directions of the captain or the brigade;
 - (d) keep a file containing all inwards correspondence, and copies of all outward official correspondence and requisitions;
 - (e) attend all meetings of the brigade and record the minutes thereof;
 - (f) be held responsible for all moneys of the Board which may be remitted to the brigade, and deal with brigade funds as set forth in Regulation 160;
 - (g) produce the brigade books and correspondence at all meetings of the brigade, and whenever required by the captain or any officer of the Board;
 - (h) perform to the satisfaction of the Board and the brigade all such duties as may be imposed upon him by the regulations, the Board, or the brigade;
 - (i) be under the general direction of the secretary of the Board in all matters relating to office routine and management;
 - (j) be liable to suspension, removal, or dismissal by the Board;
 - (k) on his retirement from office, furnish to the Board all returns to the end of the term for which he held office, and hand to his successor all moneys, books, correspondence, or other documents which are the property of the Board;
 - (l) furnish to the Board, within the times specified, the following returns, forms, and reports:—

Returns, Forms and Reports to be furnished.

Applications for registration of new, active and reserve members; Applications for transfer; Applications for leave of absence; Resignations of members; Requisitions—Immediately after being dealt with by the brigade.

Receipts for uniforms issued—Immediately after issue.

Invoices for goods supplied or services rendered—Immediately after being certified correct.

Reports of fires—Within forty-eight (48) hours of the fire.

Reports of election of officers—Within seven days of the election.

Return of attendances at fires, practices and hydrant inspections; Statement of petty cash expenditure and supporting invoices—Within seven days of each quarter ending 31st March, 30th June, 30th September, and 31st December.

Annual return of board and brigade property—On 30th September in each year.

- (m) keep the following books and records, which are and shall remain the property of the Board, viz:—
 - (i) Register of Members' Book—in which shall be entered in ink the full name of every registered active and reserve member, together with his age, birthplace, occupation, residence, brigade rank, dates of admission to and leaving the brigade, dates of election to and ceasing to be an officer, dates of transfer from active to reserve list and vice versa, dates granted long service awards, and any other relevant information.

(ii) Register of Fires Book—in which shall be entered in ink full particulars of all fires and alarms of fire, together with the names and respective ranks of members in attendance.

(iii) Minute Book—in which shall be entered in ink the names of officers and members attending each meeting, and the minutes of resolutions and proceedings thereat.

(iv) Attendances Book—in which shall be entered in ink the dates of, and the names and respective ranks of members attending, all practices, drills, hydrant inspections, competitions and demonstrations.

(v) Property Book—in which shall be entered in ink details of all property, showing in separate parts the respective property belonging to the Board and the brigade (including trophies).

(vi) Cash Book—in which shall be entered in ink details of all brigade receipts and payments, as set forth in Regulation 160.

(vii) Reference File—which shall contain all regulations, the manual book, and general and special circulars issued by the Board.

Active Members.

135. Active members shall—
- (a) upon an alarm of fire proceed promptly with the appliances to the fire, and immediately on arrival report themselves to the senior officer present.
 - (b) perform such duties at fires as may be required of them.
 - (c) remain on duty until relieved by orders, which shall be given only by the officer in command.
 - (d) where the brigade has no Station-keeper, keep the appliances and buildings clean and in good order.
 - (e) make themselves effective by attending fires and practices. An effective member shall mean one who has each half-year attended at least two-thirds each of the fires or alarms of fire, and also of the recognised monthly practices.
 - (f) attend all brigade meetings unless excused, but attendances at meetings shall not be counted towards the attendances required for effectiveness.

Reserve Members.

136. Reserve members shall—
- (a) make themselves efficient in the use of fire extinguishing appliances;
 - (b) attend fires, practices and drills;
 - (c) make themselves effective as set forth in Regulation 135 (e).

Station-keeper.

137. Where the Board appoints a Station-keeper he shall—
- (a) reside at the fire station if practicable;
 - (b) be under the direction of the senior officer present for the time being;
 - (c) attend to and be responsible for the cleanliness, good order and condition of the fire station and the fire extinguishing appliances belonging to the Board or in charge of the brigade;
 - (d) receive such remuneration as the Board may determine;
 - (e) be liable to suspension, removal or dismissal by the Board.

Duties at Fires.

138. At fires the senior officer present shall take command until the arrival of his senior. The brigade's duties shall be deemed not to be completed until the fire is properly and effectually extinguished. Members must turn out to fires or alarms of fire in the Board uniform when they can do so without causing undue delay in attending.

Roll Call at Fires.

139. On return from a fire or alarm of fire, the officer in command shall cause the roll to be called, and see that full details of same are recorded as set forth in Regulation 134 (m), subclause (ii). He may exempt members from returning to the fire station for roll call, and may call the roll at the place of the fire or alarm of fire.

Reports of Fires.

140. A report in the prescribed form of all fires and alarms of fire, signed by the officer in command, shall be furnished to the Board within forty-eight (48) hours of the fire or alarm of fire. The names and respective ranks of members present thereat shall be recorded on the back of such fire report form.

Accidents.

141. Any officer or member of a volunteer fire brigade or any auxiliary fireman who has established a claim with the Board's insurers as if he were a "worker" under "The Workers' Compensation Act, 1912-1924," and any amendments thereof, by reason of personal injury by accident, arising out of or in the course of his employment whilst proceeding to, at or returning from a fire or fire call shall be entitled to leave of absence from duty, and shall receive during the period of incapacity such sum weekly as shall, together with any weekly payment by way of compensation, including child allowance (if any), payable by the Board's insurers as if he were a "worker" under "The Workers' Compensation Act, 1912-1924," and any amendments thereof, be equal to his weekly wages, but not exceeding the sum of Four pounds and five shillings per week.

Provided that—

- (a) Such payments shall not be made for more than thirteen weeks except by resolution of the Board;
- (b) Such payments shall not be continued after the services of any officer or member of a volunteer fire brigade or any auxiliary fireman have been terminated;
- (c) Such payments for a period not exceeding thirteen weeks shall not be deducted from any payments made under the Second Schedule of the above Act.

Practices.

142. (1) The members of each brigade shall be practised in the duties at engine, reel, or other drill at least once each calendar month, under the supervision of their officers, and at such other times as the Board, Chief Officer, or Captain may direct.

(2) A recognised practice shall mean practical work in fire extinction or other drill, for at least three-quarters of an hour.

(3) Each brigade may appoint its own dates for practices. Moonlight nights should be selected when practicable, and during the winter months or in inclement weather brigades may hold their practices or drills indoors.

Demonstrations and Competitions.

143. (1) Brigades shall not at any time attend fire brigades' demonstrations or competitions outside a radius of five miles from their head station without leaving a sufficient number of effective registered members within their respective districts. No portion of the apparatus (with the exception of a competition reel and appliances) shall be taken to a demonstration or competition without the written consent of the Board. Captains shall be responsible for the observance of this regulation.

(2) The Board may by resolution authorise such expenditure or make such grants as it considers necessary or expedient for the successful conduct of demonstrations and competitions, and, in particular for all or any of the following purposes, viz.:—

- (a) the transportation of volunteer firemen and their appliances or apparatus;
- (b) the purchase of trophies for competition by volunteer fire brigades and firemen, and the allocation of the cost thereof;
- (c) the entertainment of volunteer firemen, and visiting officials and brigades;
- (d) any other matter incidental to the conducting of demonstrations and competitions.

(3) The Board may by resolution grant a sum not exceeding twenty-five pounds to a brigade, or apportioned between brigades where more than one, attending demonstrations or competitions outside of Western Australia as approved representatives of the State.

(4) All expenditure incurred by the Board under this regulation shall be charged in the first instance to demonstration costs, and thereafter shall be dealt with in the following manner, namely:—

- (a) Expenditure incurred in connection with the conducting of the annual Volunteer Fire Brigades' Demonstration shall be apportioned equally between all registered volunteer fire brigades, and when so apportioned, shall be charged against the fire district accordingly.
- (b) Expenditure incurred by the Board in connection with fire brigades attending inter-district competitions shall be charged against the fire district of the brigade in relation to which the expenditure was incurred.
- (c) Expenditure incurred by the Board by way of grant to a fire brigade or fire brigades attending demonstrations or competitions outside Western Australia shall be charged against the fire district of the brigade to which the grant was made.

Uniforms.

144. The uniforms for registered officers and active members shall be provided by the Board, and shall consist of a coat with arm badge, cap, belt and spanner. Helmets shall be supplied to brigades in cases where the Board considers they are required.

145. Uniforms shall not be issued to reserve members.

146. The uniform and equipment shall remain the property of the Board.

147. Members shall provide their own trousers, which should be of dark blue serge with a strip of scarlet braid five-eighths of an inch wide covering the outside seam, and shall not be more than 20 inches wide over the instep.

148. Members shall use reasonable care in keeping uniforms clean and in good order.

149. No member shall lend a uniform or any part of it to any person not in the service.

150. Flowers shall not be worn in coats and tan boots shall not be worn.

151. Members shall not at any time appear dressed partly in uniform and partly in plain clothes, except in cases of emergency at fires.

152. Full uniforms shall be worn at inspections made by the Chief Officer, or any other officer deputed for that purpose by the Board or Chief Officer.

153. Long service awards shall be worn on the right breast of uniform coat, as follows:—

- (a) the 10 years' badge shall be worn three-quarters of an inch below the 7 years' badge;
- (b) the 15 years' medal supersedes the 7 and 10 years' badges, in which case the latter two awards shall not be worn;
- (c) where badges for 20, 25 or 30 years' service have been issued, only the one for the longest service shall be worn, on the ribbon of the 15 years' medal.

154. Members qualified in ambulance work shall wear their ambulance badge on the left arm.

155. Captains shall inspect all uniforms and equipment on issue during the months of May and November in each year, and forthwith report to the Board on the condition thereof. Requisitions for new issues or replacements shall reach the secretary of the Board not later than the 30th day of November.

156. Brigade secretaries shall obtain a receipt on the form provided for all issues of uniform and equipment to members. One copy of the receipt shall forthwith be sent to the secretary of the Board and the other retained for brigade record purposes.

157. (a) Captains with not less than five years' service as captains under the Board, and not less than fifteen years' service in all, shall be entitled to retain and wear their uniforms, and to wear an ex-captain's badge.

(b) Other officers and members with not less than twenty-five years' service shall be entitled to retain and wear their uniforms.

(c) Service as a reserve member shall not be counted in the periods of service mentioned in this regulation.

(d) The Board may, however, in its discretion, withhold the privileges of this regulation if the applicant shall at any time have been adjudged guilty of any offence against the Board's regulations.

158. Subject to Regulation 157 members shall return uniforms and equipment to the Chief Officer or Captain on being requested in writing to do so. If a member fails to comply within seven days of the transmission to him of such request, the brigade shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5, and shall, in addition to the penalty named, be further liable for and shall pay the cost of any article not returned.

Recognition of Long Service.

159. (a) Officers and members of volunteer brigades who shall have efficiently served in any one or more brigades in Western Australia shall be entitled to awards as under—

(i) For 7, 10, 20, 25, and 30 years' service—a long service badge.

(ii) For 15 years' service—a long service medal.

(b) Periods of service as a reserve member shall not count as service qualifying for these awards.

(c) Applications on the prescribed form showing full details of service, and certified by the captain and secretary of the brigade shall be furnished to the Board forthwith after members become eligible for the awards.

(d) Long service awards shall be worn on the uniform as set forth in Regulation 153.

Brigade Funds.

160. (a) All moneys received by or on behalf of a brigade from any source whatsoever shall be paid into an account in the name of the brigade, to be kept at a savings bank or other bank.

(b) All payments by or on behalf of the brigade shall be made out of such account by means of withdrawal form or cheque (as the case may require) drawn against such account, and signed by the secretary of the brigade and at least one other member of the brigade.

(c) All such receipts and payments shall be recorded in the brigade cash book, as set forth in Regulation 134 (m), Subclause (vi).

Petty Cash.

161. (a) The Board may advance each brigade an amount not exceeding £1 for the purpose of purchasing minor supplies, and defraying the cost of minor repairs and services.

(b) A requisition shall not be necessary in such cases, but where practicable invoices shall be obtained for each item of expenditure, and certified as correct.

(c) At the close of each quarter ending 31st March, 30th June, 30th September, and 31st December the petty cash expenditure form shall be completed, and, together with the supporting invoices, forwarded within seven days to the secretary of the Board.

(d) All expenditure under this regulation shall be subject to the approval of the Board, who may disallow any or all of it.

Requisitions for Requirements.

162. Plant, appliances and supplies, etc., required by any brigade shall, subject to Regulation 163, be requisitioned for to the Board. Requisitions shall be sent in only on the authority of a properly constituted meeting of the brigade.

Urgent Repairs to Plant.

163. Urgent repairs to plant may be effected by the brigade without requisition, provided the cost does not exceed two pounds. Where the repairs will involve a larger expenditure requisition shall be made to the Board.

Brigade Property and Trophies.

164. Any property belonging to a brigade, and which has been acquired by subscription, or trophies won, shall vest in two trustees, one of whom shall be appointed by the Board and the other by the brigade. A brigade may on application to and approval of the trustees dispose of any such property as may be determined.

PART IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Attendance of Firemen at Certain Places of Entertainment.

165. On every occasion when in any public building or enclosed place any entertainment is given in connection with which scenery is used, or an exhibition of animated pictures is given, a skilled fireman approved by the Chief Officer of Fire Brigades shall be in attendance in such building or place during the whole time such building or enclosed place, used as aforesaid, is occupied by the public; and such fireman shall see that the fire prevention appliances and the exit doors are in proper working order, and perform such other duties for the prevention of fire and of panic as he may deem necessary, or as the Chief Officer of Fire Brigades may direct: Provided that—

(a) In cases where entertainments are held in an enclosed place, and not in a public building, the person having the charge or control of such entertainments may apply to the Board for exemption from the provisions of this regulation in respect of such entertainments, and the Board, in writing, may grant such exemption in cases where it considers the attendance of a skilled fireman is not necessary.

(b) In localities where volunteer fire brigades are established the Chief Officer of Fire Brigades shall not, without the concurrence of the Board, approve of firemen other than members of volunteer fire brigades.

166. The Board may, in writing, grant permission for the owner or occupier of any public building to dispense with the services of a fireman during any exhibition of animated pictures held between the hours of sunrise and sunset.

167. All firemen approved by the Chief Officer under these regulations shall be subject to the direction and control of the Chief Officer of Fire Brigades.

168. For the services of each fireman in attendance under Regulation 165, the following fee per performance for each fireman shall be payable by the owner or occupier of the premises on which such fireman shall have been in attendance, viz.:—7s. 6d., but subject to Federal basic wage adjustments. At Kalgoorlie the fee shall be 1s. 4d. extra per performance, but subject to Federal basic wage adjustments.

169. In the event of any person failing to pay any fees due under Regulation 168, such fees may be recovered summarily by complaint made by the fireman to whom such fees are due before any Justice of the Peace, in manner provided by "The Justices Act, 1902-1932."

Certain Places of Entertainment must have Direct Telephonic Communication with a Fire Brigade Station.

170. (a) Every owner and/or occupier of any theatre, building, or place in which any entertainment is given and in connection with which scenery is used, or any exhibition of animated pictures is given, and situate within a fire district shall, on direction to that effect being given in writing by or on behalf of the Board, forthwith effect direct telephonic communication with a fire brigade station, provided that application may be made to the Board for exemption from the provisions of this regulation, and the Board may grant such exemption subject to such terms and conditions as it may deem fit, in cases where it considers that direct telephonic communication with a fire brigade station is not necessary.

(b) The Board may at any time withdraw such exemption.

(c) The position of the alarm and the number of points in the theatre, building, or other place shall be as directed by the Board from time to time.

(d) Any such owner and/or occupier as aforesaid failing to comply with such direction shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds, and a daily penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every day during which such default continues.

Fire Alarms on Private Premises.

171. The Board is hereby authorised to make such provision as it considers proper for the inspection and maintenance of fire alarms installed on private premises, and for that purpose to enter into an agreement with any owner or occupier to inspect and maintain any fire alarm, on payment by such owner or occupier of an annual fee of £2 2s., or such other sum as may be from time to time prescribed, and on such other terms as may be mutually agreed on between the Board and any such owner or occupier.

Penalties.

172. Any person guilty of a breach of any of the foregoing, whether by act or omission, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds.

FIRST APPENDIX.

Part I.

THE WESTERN AUSTRALIAN FIRE BRIGADES BOARD.

Issue of Debenture of £.....
No.....

1. In consideration of the.....(hereinafter called "the Bank") having agreed to allow the Western Australian Fire Brigades Board (hereinafter called "the Board") to overdraw its account with the Bank to an amount not exceeding £....., the Board hereby undertakes that it will on demand pay to the Bank all such sums as are now or shall from time to time hereafter become owing to the Bank from the Board on the balance of its current account with the Bank whether in respect of moneys advanced or paid to or for the use of the Board or charges incurred on its account or in respect of negotiable instruments drawn, accepted, or indorsed by or on behalf of the Board and discounted or paid or held by the Bank either at the Board's request or in the course of business or otherwise or in respect of moneys which the Board shall become liable to pay to the Bank in any manner whatsoever and whether any such moneys shall be paid to or incurred on behalf of the Board alone or jointly with any other person or corporation together with the usual interest, commission, and lawful Bank charges.

2. The Board will in the meantime until such demand pay to the Bank interest for the balance for the time being owing by the Board to the Bank at the rate of £.....per centum per annum by equal half-yearly payments on every.....day of.....and.....day of.....in each year. The first of such payments to be made on the.....day of.....

3. The Board hereby charges with such payments its property and revenue whether accrued or to accrue.

4. The principal moneys hereby secured shall become immediately repayable on demand being made by the Bank.

5. The Board may at any time give notice in writing to the Bank of its intention to pay off the said debenture, and at the expiration of one calendar month from the time of such notice being given the principal moneys hereby secured shall become payable.

6. At any time after the Board has made default in payment of the principal moneys hereby secured the Bank may proceed to exercise its powers under Section 50, Subsection (8), of "The Fire Brigades Act, 1916," and its amendments.

Part 2.

Memorandum of Agreement made the.....day of.....One thousand nine hundred and.....between the Western Australian Fire Brigades Board (hereinafter called "the Board"), of the one part, and.....(hereinafter called "the Bank"), of the other part.

Whereas the Board has for the purpose of its business a current account with the Bank.

And whereas the Board has applied to the Bank to allow it to overdraw such account to an amount not exceeding £....., which the Bank has agreed to do upon delivery by the Board to the Bank of a debenture in the annexed form duly executed to secure such overdraft for the time being:

Now therefore it is agreed and declared as follows:—

1. The said debenture is a standing security with the Bank for payment of the final balance on the said current account including therein all usual and accustomed banker's charges and commissions together with interest on such final balance until payment at the current Bank rate of interest ruling from time to time.

2. For the purposes hereof the final balance aforesaid means such sums as upon the closing at any time of the current account of the Board by either party shall be found due thereunder to the Bank and accordingly payments to the credit of the account so long as the same shall be current shall not be deemed to be made in or towards discharge of the said debenture.

3. The Board hereby declares that there is no mortgage or charge upon its property having priority to or ranking pari passu with the said debenture (save and except as the case may be), and the Board will not at any time during the continuance of this security create any mortgage or charge ranking or which can by any means be made to rank in priority to or pari passu with the said debenture (save as aforesaid).

In witness whereof the Common Seals of the parties were hereunto affixed the day and year first before written.

LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

Department of Lands and Surveys.

Perth, 6th March, 1934.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder are available for selection under Part V. of "The Land Act, 1933," and the Regulations appertaining thereto, subject to the provisions of the said Act.

Applications must be lodged at the Local Land Office for the district in which the land is situated, not later than the date specified, but may be lodged before such date if so desired.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block, the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board. Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person he may apply to the Head Office or to the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station, will entitle him to a Return Ticket, at Excursion Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

All marketable timber, including sandalwood and mallet, is reserved to the Crown, subject to the provisions of Clause 18 of the Regulations.

Yilgarn Road Board.

Notice of Intention to Borrow.

Proposed Loan of £3,500.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Yilgarn Road Board proposes to borrow the sum of £3,500, to be expended on Works and Undertakings in the Yilgarn Road Board District, the said works and undertakings being erection and furnishing of a Town Hall in Southern Cross.

The plans and specifications and the estimates of the cost of the said Works and Undertakings and statement showing the proposed expenditure of the money to be borrowed, including the cost of supervision and initial expenditure in connection with the raising of the Loan, are open for inspection at the Office of the Yilgarn Road Board, situate Southern Cross, for one month from the publication hereof, between the hours of 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on week days, except Saturdays, and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

The amount of £3,500 is proposed to be raised by the sale of Debentures, repayable with interest by fifty equal half-yearly instalments over a period of twenty-five years after the date of issue thereof, in lieu of the formation of a Sinking Fund.

The Debentures shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per centum per annum payable half-yearly. The amount of the said Debenture and interest thereon is to be paid at the Office of the Yilgarn Road Board, Southern Cross.

Dated this 12th day of July, 1935.

Secretary.

THE ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919-1933.

Mundaring Road Board.

Notice of Intention to Borrow.

Proposed Loan of £750.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mundaring Road Board proposes to borrow the sum of £750, to be expended on Works and Undertakings in the Mundaring Road Board District, the said Works and Undertakings being the effecting of improvements and additions to the Mundaring Hall and the furnishing thereof.

The plans and specifications and the estimates of the cost of the said Works and Undertakings, and Statement showing the proposed expenditure of the money to be borrowed, including the initial expenditure in connection with the raising of the Loan, are open for inspection at the Office of the Mundaring Road Board, for one month from the publication hereof, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays and Fridays and from 10 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

The amount of £750 is proposed to be raised by the sale of Debentures, repayable with interest by thirty equal half-yearly instalments over a period of fifteen years after the date of issue thereof, in lieu of the formation of a Sinking Fund.

The Debentures shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed 4 per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly. The amount of the said Debentures and interest thereon to be paid at the Commonwealth Bank of Australia, Perth.

The Works and Undertakings for which the Loan is proposed to be raised will, in the opinion of the Board, be of special benefit to a portion of the Mundaring Road District, namely, to the Mundaring Prescribed Area, as defined below; and any Loan Rate applicable to such Loan will be levied on the rateable land within such Prescribed Area of the said District.

The Prescribed Area being all lands within the following:—Commencing at the South-West corner of Swan 1530 and running West through the State Forest Lands to the Western boundary of the Mundaring Ward; thence Northward along such boundary to the Southern boundary of Swan Location 2003; thence Eastward and then Northward along portion of its South and its East boundary to its North-Eastern corner; thence North-East along the North-Western boundaries of Parkerville Lots 199 and 200 to Gill Street; thence South-East along Gill Street to the North-Western corner of Parkerville 196; thence North-East along the North-Western boundary thereof to Lacey Street; thence East along the Northern boundary of INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT.

State Shipping Service Clerks.

No. 14 of 1935.

(Registered 4th July, 1935.)

THIS Agreement, made in pursuance of "The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-25," this Twenty-ninth day of June, 1935, between the Federated Clerks' Union of Australia Industrial Union of Workers, W.A. Branch, of the one part, and the Minister controlling the State Shipping Service, of the other part, whereby it is mutually agreed as follows:—

1.—Area and Scope.

This Agreement shall operate over an area within a twelve mile radius of the General Post Office, Perth, and shall apply to the positions enumerated herein, which are exempt from the provisions of "The Public Service Act, 1904."

2.—Definitions.

(a) "Officer" "worker" shall mean any member of the clerical staff of the State Shipping Service covered by this Agreement.

(b) "Minister" shall mean the Minister controlling State Shipping Service.

(c) "Manager" shall mean the Manager of the State Shipping Service.

3.—Hours of Duty.

The ordinary hours of duty shall be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays inclusive, with an interval of one hour for lunch, and between 9 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturdays.

4.—Overtime.

(a) All time worked on compiling manifests, wages sheets and other essential papers in connection with the despatch and arrival of vessels outside the ordinary working hours, as may be required by the Manager, shall be paid at the following hourly rates:—

- Officers receiving up to £100 per annum .. 1s. 6d.
- Officers receiving £100 and up to £200 .. 2s. 6d.
- Officers receiving £200 and over .. 3s. 6d.

(b) All work as defined in subclause (a) performed on Saturday afternoons, Sundays and holidays shall be paid at the above rates plus 50 per cent.

(c) Employees required by the Manager to work outside the ordinary hours as defined above, other than as specified in subclause (a) of this clause shall not be entitled to any extra payment but shall be allowed equivalent time off in lieu thereof, at the convenience of the Manager.

(d) Only overtime duly sanctioned by the Management prior to being worked will be recognised. A proper record of overtime will be kept.

5.—Meal Allowance.

In addition to the overtime prescribed in Clause 4, a meal allowance of 2s. shall be paid to each officer in the following circumstances:—

- (a) Where an officer is required to remain on duty after the usual finishing time and is detained on duty for a period exceeding one hour on any working day;
- (b) where an officer is required to commence duty earlier than two hours prior to the usual starting time on any day, or is not allowed a period of one hour and a half after the usual finishing time before being required to resume duty again on any working day;
- (c) where an officer is required on duty on other than a working day and commences at or before 12 noon or 5 p.m. or on Saturday at or before 5 p.m. and continues on duty until or beyond 1.30 p.m. or 6.30 p.m. respectively; provided that the actual period of duty in either case exceeds two hours.
- (d) The meal allowance shall be payable in regard to all overtime worked under Clause 4 (c).

6.—Salaries.

Basic Wages—Adult males, 71s. 0d.; adult females, 38s. 4d.

(a) Junior Clerks: The salaries of male clerks at or under the age of 21 shall be—

During first year's experience	67
During second year's experience	81
During third year's experience	96
During fourth year's experience	116
During fifth year's experience	136
During sixth year's experience	161
At age of 21	187
At age of 22	200
At age of 23	224

(a) (a) An employee attaining the age of 22 years or over shall not be entitled to an increase over the scale rate for a clerk 21 years of age until he is allotted work which, in the opinion of the Manager, warrants an increase; provided that any dispute under this subclause shall be referred to the Minister for final decision.

(b) Senior Male Clerks: The salaries of officers appointed to the positions listed hereunder shall be as follows:—

	Range.
1. Accounts and Pay Clerk	£240—£323
2. Freights and Passages Clerk	£240—£323
3. Wages and Claims Clerk	£240—£323
4. Stores Clerk	£240—£323
5. Engineer's Clerk	£224—£284
6. Relieving Clerk and Assistant Ledger Keeper	£224—£250

When an officer mentioned in this subclause is not receiving the prescribed maximum, such maximum shall be reached in accordance with the following scale of annual increments:—

- Items 1 to 4 inclusive, first four years—£15; last year £23.
- Item 5—four of £15.
- Item 6—two of £13.

(c) Telephonist-Typiste: Range £55 to £135. Annual increments of £10.

(d) Increment Qualifications.—Advancement within the prescribed ranges shall in all cases be subject to the approval of the Manager upon receipt of satisfactory reports regarding the officer's conduct, diligence, and efficiency, provided also that the advancement in salary shall not be granted to an officer if the Manager determines that such officer has not performed his duties satisfactorily for the preceding twelve months or that such officer has been guilty of misconduct which, in the opinion of the Manager, justifies the postponement or refusal of advancement.

7.—Higher Duties.

An officer being paid under Clause 6 (a) called upon to perform the duties of a position enumerated in Clause 6 (b) for a period of one calendar month or longer shall receive the minimum of such higher position for the period he is performing the higher duties.

8.—Public Holidays and Leave.

(a) Public Holidays: All gazetted Public Service holidays shall be observed.

(b) Annual Leave: Two weeks' leave on full pay for each year of continuous service. When the continuous service is over one month but less than twelve months pro rata leave shall be granted.

(c) Long Service Leave: Long Service leave shall be granted in accordance with the general conditions relating to Government wages employees.

(d) Sick Leave: An officer who is too unwell to attend to his duties may be granted sick leave on production of an adequate medical certificate for such a period and upon such conditions as the Manager shall determine in each case.

9.—Contract of Service.

The engagement of any officer shall be terminated by one month's notice on either side, such notice to expire on the usual pay day, excepting that an officer deemed guilty of gross misconduct or neglect of duty may be instantly dismissed or suspended and shall not be entitled to any such notice or payment in lieu.

Provided that during the first month's service the engagement shall be on a weekly basis.

10.—Accrued Rights.

No privilege or concession at present enjoyed by the officers shall, unless expressly provided herein, be varied or cancelled solely by reason of the provisions of this Agreement.

11.—Preference of Employment.

All officers shall be members of the Federated Clerks' Union of Australia; provided that any officer appointed who at the time of engagement is not a member of such Union shall become a member thereof within fourteen days of such appointment.

12.—Record of Hours.

A record shall be kept showing the name of each worker under this Agreement and the hours worked each day and the wages received each pay-day. The said record shall be open during ordinary working hours to the inspection of an accredited representative of the Union.

13.—Term and Review.

The term of this Agreement shall be for a period of three years, provided that at any time after the expiration of twelve months from the commencement of this Agreement any term or terms hereof may be reviewed by either party giving to the other party one month's notice of their desire to do so. In the event of the parties failing to agree on any matters, it is agreed that the matters in dispute shall be submitted for decision to the Industrial Arbitration Court or a Board of Reference.

Signed by the Minister,

J. M. DREW.

In the presence of—

B. Stearne.

Signed and sealed for and on behalf of the Federated Clerks' Union of Australia (W.A. Branch) Industrial Union of Workers.

GEO. EDINGER,
President.

V. ULRICH,
Secretary.

In the presence of—

T. E. Owen.
