6.—Hours.

(a) Forty-four (44) hours shall constitute a week's work to be worked in not more than six (6) days. No worker shall be permitted to be on duty without payment of overtime in excess of:—

Provided, further, that in every case where it is intended to work the eighty-eight (88) hours' fortnight it shall be the duty of the employer, on the first day of the first week of each fortnightly period, to clearly indicate such fortnightly period in the time and wages book.

(c) Any time worked on any day or days to make up the hours of duty in any week shall be worked in a continuous shift except in the case of omnibus drivers and/or fare collectors and/or taxi-car drivers, who may be worked in broken shifts to suit the exigencies of the employer's business, but in such case no shift shall consist of more than three (3) periods of working time with two (2) intervals in one of which the meal interval may be included.

(d) No worker shall be permitted to be on continuous duty for a greater period than six (6) hours without a meal break of at least one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour, and such meal break shall not be included in computing the hours worked each day.

(e) No rostered shift shall consist of more than three (3) periods of working time.

(f) A worker failing to take up his rostered or appointed shift, unless such is due to illness or other unavoidable cause (the onus of proof of "unavoidable cause" shall rest upon the worker) shall pay the employer for any extra payment incurred thereby through another worker being called upon to work the shift.

(g) Specials:—Where a worker is required to work off his regular route he shall be deemed to have worked the whole of the time which elapses between the time he leaves the starting place until he returns to that place if such time is less than eight (8) hours in any one (1) day. If such time is eight (8) hours or more in any one (1) day he shall be deemed to have worked (8) hours at least on such day. Subject to the provisos hereto, all time in any one (1) day, occupied in waiting, shall stand alone and be paid for at half the time rate applicable for that day: Provided that, any waiting time which is used to make up the eight (8) hours before-mentioned shall not be deemed waiting time for the purpose of this clause: Provided also, that a worker who comes within the scope of clause 11 of this award shall not be entitled to payment for waiting time under this clause.

(h) Whenever a worker commences a period of work on any day whether for the purpose of making up the ordinary weekly hours or for overtime he shall be deemed to have worked not less than one (1) hour for each such period.

(i) Each worker shall be rostered one (1) day off duty in each week.

7.—Spread of Shifts.

(a) The spread of hours for omnibus drivers and/or taxi-car drivers and/or fare collectors from the beginning to the end of the day's work shall not exceed twelve (12) hours, excepting on Saturdays and holidays when the spread of hours shall not exceed fourteen (14) hours.

(b) No worker shall be required to work outside the daily spread of hours mentioned in subclause (a) hereof except by agreement between the employer concerned and the union and on payment of overtime rates as prescribed, unless for the purposes of relief in the case of sickness or absence of another worker, specials which take a worker off his regular route, or an accident which prevents the proper working of the roster. In the event of disagreement, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) No worker shall be booked off for a lesser period than a half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour.

(d) No worker shall be called on for duty until he has had eight (8) hours off duty between the shifts, excepting in case of sickness of a worker, default of a worker, or in case of an accident which prevents the proper working of the roster; or when necessary in order to facilitate a change of shifts, in which case not less than seven (7) hours shall be permitted, and in such last-mentioned case no worker shall be subject to same more than once in any calendar week, namely, Sunday to Saturday inclusive.

8.—Overtime.

(a) Omnibus drivers and/or fare collectors and/or taxi car drivers shall be paid overtime at the rate of time and a quarter for the first four (4) hours and thereafter at the rate of time and a half for all time of duty—

- (i) in excess of the ordinary hours of duty per week;
- (ii) in excess of the daily hours of duty as prescribed in clause 6 hereof; or
- (iii) outside the daily rostered hours of duty; or
- (iv) on the worker's rostered day off.

(b) All workers other than those mentioned in subclause (a) hereof shall be paid overtime at the rate of time and a quarter for the first four (4) hours and time and a half thereafter for all time of duty in excess of eight (8) hours in any one (1) day or the ordinary hours of duty in any week.

(c) All overtime shall stand alone and be paid for in addition to the weekly or casual wage as the case may be.

(d) For all time of duty outside the spread of hours as prescribed by clause 7, payment shall be at the rate of time and a half.

(e) Overtime shall not be paid twice for the same hours of work.

9.—Sunday Work.

Except in the case of casual workers all time of duty on Sundays shall be paid for at quarter time extra; such quarter time extra shall stand alone and be paid for in addition to the weekly wage and shall not be taken into account in the calculation of overtime in any way whatsoever: Provided that this clause shall not apply to workers who finish by 1.30 o'clock a.m. on Sunday. The time so worked shall be deemed to be part of the Saturday shift.

10.—Holidays.

(a) Two (2) consecutive weeks' holiday on full pay shall be allowed to all workers at the expiration of every twelve (12) months of service to be given to and taken by the worker within three (3) months of becoming due:

Provided that where the engagement of any worker is terminated after one (1) calendar month's continuous service, or after any period of continuous service from the date on which the previous annual holidays became due, he shall receive a monetary payment in lieu of holidays in proportion to the length of his service. This proviso shall not apply, however, in any case where the worker is dismissed for wilful misconduct or neglect of duty.

(b) Except in the case of casual workers all time of duty on holidays shall be paid for at half time extra, such half time extra shall stand alone and be paid for in addition to the weekly wage and shall not be taken into account in the calculation of overtime in any way whatsoever: Provided that this subclause shall not apply to workers who finish by 1.30 a.m. on a holiday; the time so worked shall be deemed to be part of the previous shift.

(c) Holiday pay shall not accrue during a worker's absence from his employment through any cause whatsoever, except where such absence is on account of annual leave to which he is entitled under this award.

(d) Any worker required to report for duty on any holiday shall be deemed to have worked four (4) hours at least on such day, except where such reporting for duty is owing to another worker failing to report for duty at the appointed time.

11.—Away-from-home Allowance.

Workers engaged on work from which they are unable to return to their homes at night shall be paid such personal expenses as they may reasonably incur: Provided that such expenses shall not be less than seven shillings and sixpence (7s. 6d.) per day.

12.—Payment for Highest Function.

A worker who is called upon to perform two (2) or more classes of work for more than two (2) hours on any day shall, for the purpose of the wages to be paid to him, be deemed to have worked the day at the class for which the highest rate of wage is prescribed.

13.—Time and Wages Book.

Each employer shall provide a time and wages book to be kept at a place where it is easily accessible to the employer and the worker. This book shall show the name of each worker, the nature of the work performed, the times he starts and finishes work each day, the number of hours worked by and the wages and overtime paid to each worker, and the worker's signature therefor. The employer and the worker shall be jointly responsible for the proper posting of the book daily. Such book shall be open to inspection during working hours between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday to Friday inclusive, and between 9 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturdays, by the secretary of the union or any other person authorised in writing by him: Provided that an employer may, at his option, in lieu of a time book, provide a mechanical clock for the purpose of recording the starting and finishing times of workers in which case a record of the number of hours worked each day by each worker, and the wages and overtime paid to such worker, shall be entered on a card or check (used in connection with such clock) which shall be signed by the worker on receipt of wages each week. The employer and worker shall be jointly responsible for the correct keeping daily of such card or check, which shall be open to inspection in the same manner as the time and wages book before-mentioned.

14.—Termination of Employment.

One (1) week's notice at any time on either side shall be required before the engagement of any but a casual hand shall be determined: Provided that an employer may at any time dismiss a worker for refusal or neglect to obey orders, misconduct, carelessness in the performance of his duties, or, if after receiving one (1) week's notice, he does not carry out his duties in the same manner as he did prior to such notice.

Notice given every week to determine the employment without any intention to determine the employment at the end of the week, but only with a view of dismissing men at any time, shall not be deemed notice for the purpose of this award.

15.—Contract of Employment.

(a) Weekly hands ready and willing to work for the whole week and not dismissed for any reason set out in clause 14 of this award shall be paid a full week's wages.

(b) Employers shall, when engaging workers, state definitely whether such worker is engaged as a weekly or casual hand. Failing such notice the worker shall be deemed to be engaged as a weekly worker.

(c) The employer shall be under no obligation to pay for any day not worked upon which the worker is required to present himself for duty, except such absence from work is due to illness and comes within the provisions of clause 24 or such absence is on account of holiday to which the worker is entitled under the provisions of this award, or such absence is on account of some other unavoidable cause, the onus of proof of which shall rest upon the worker.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause a worker who is engaged to take the place temporarily of another worker who is absent on account of sickness or accident may be dismissed by the giving of one (1) day's notice.

16.—Pay Day.

All wages shall be paid weekly; but in the case of the eighty-eight (88) hour fortnight it shall be permissible for the employer to pay all overtime fortnightly. No employer shall hold more than three (3) days' wages in hand.

17.—Temporary Change of Garage, etc.

(a) Where an employer transfers a worker after he comes to work from one (1) garage, depot or place situated more than two (2) miles distant from the garage, depot or place at which he usually works, fares to and from such altered garage, depot or place shall be allowed by the employer.

(b) If a worker is transferred temporarily to work at a garage, depot or place which requires him to travel one (1) mile or more from his home beyond the distance he usually travels, the fares to and from and excess time shall be paid for by the employer. Any dispute arising under this clause shall be referred to a Board of Reference for determination.

(c) A relief worker shall have some one depot named as his regular depot and when he is required to work elsewhere he shall be treated as being temporarily transferred and subject to the provisions of subclause (b) hereof.

18.—Uniforms.

Employers requiring workers to wear uniforms or wearing apparel of any specified description shall provide same free of cost to workers; such uniform or wearing apparel shall remain the property of the employer, and shall be returned to the employer, on demand, in good order and condition subject to fair wear and tear.

19.—Posting Roster.

(a) The employer shall post a roster showing the ordinary hours to be worked during each week by weekly omnibus drivers, taxi-car drivers and fare collectors, other than relief workers, which roster shall be exhibited in each establishment in such a place as it may be conveniently and readily seen by each worker concerned. The hours to be recorded in such roster shall not exceed the spread of hours prescribed in clause 7.

Such roster shall be posted by the employer not less than two (2) days before the start of the working week, and may only be altered on account of sickness or absence of a worker, or on account of any contingency that the employer could not reasonably foresee.

(b) Rostered shifts shall change weekly as far as practicable. In any proceeding under this clause the onus shall rest upon the employer to establish that the change was not practicable.

(c) The secretary of the union or any person authorised in writing by him shall be permitted to inspect the roster at any time between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

(d) No worker shall be rostered for duty on more than six (6) days in any week.

20.—Board of Reference.

(a) The Court appoints for the purposes of the award a Board or Boards of Reference. Each Board shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties. There are assigned to each such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the award, the functions of:—

- (i) Adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the award or any of them;
- (ii) Classifying and fixing wages, rates and conditions for any occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in the award;
- (iii) Deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

(b) An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, which for this purpose are embodied in this award.

21.—Change.

Where an employer requires a worker to give change to clients, such change shall be supplied by the employer.

22.—Shortages.

If any worker is charged with any shortage in the cash collected by him, he shall have the right, when so charged to check the running sheets, revenue journal, or other record issued to him. A worker shall be notified of any shortage which it is intended to charge against him as soon as possible after same has been discovered. Failing such notice within a reasonable time the worker shall not be held liable for the shortage.

23.—Minimum Hours Per Day.

Subject to the provisions in this behalf contained in clause 10 (holidays) any worker required to report for duty in any day shall be deemed to have worked two (2) hours at least on such day except where such reporting for duty is owing to another worker failing to report for duty at the appointed time.

24.—Absence Through Sickness.

A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) day for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to six (6) days in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

25.—Junior Worker's Certificate.

(a) Junior workers shall furnish the employer with a certificate showing the following particulars:—

(i) Name in full.

(ii) Age and date of birth.

(b) The certificate shall be signed by the worker.

(c) No worker shall have any claim upon the employer for additional wages on the ground of age in the event of his age being wrongly stated on this certificate: Provided that this subclause shall operate only for the first three (3) months from the date of the worker's first engagement, thereby enabling the employer, if he so desires, to obtain proof of the junior worker's age.

26.—Term.

This award shall come into force on the 28th day of August, 1938, and shall continue in operation for a period of three (3) years from the date hereof.

27.—Liberty to Apply.

At any time after the expiration of three (3) months from the 28th day of August, 1938, any party hereto may apply to the Court to review and amend the following clauses hereof, namely, clauses 6, 7, 8, 9, 19 and 23. Any such application shall set out fully the grounds thereof and be served upon the other named parties hereto at least seven (7) days prior to the date fixed for the hearing thereof.
