Schedule.

THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT, 1912-1934.

Regulations.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Workers' Compensation Act, 1912-1934 Regulations

2. Every medical certificate to the effect that a worker is free from pulmonary tuberculosis, pneumoconiosis, and miners' phthisis, as required by subsection (11) of section 7 of the Act shall be in Form A in the Appendix to these regulations.

3. (1) Every notice from an employer under subsection (1) of section 8 of the Act that a worker is suffering from a disease mentioned in the Third Schedule to the Act shall be in Form B in the Appendix to these regulations.

(2) A copy of every such notice shall be sent by the employer to the Registrar, and, in cases where the disease mentioned in the notice is one which is marked in the Third Schedule to the Act with an asterisk, an additional copy of such notice shall be sent by the employer to the Registrar for submission by the latter to the Commissioner of Public Health.

4. Every notice by a medical practitioner to the Commissioner of Public Health, as required by subsection (2) of section 8 of the Act, that a worker is suffering from a disease mentioned in the Third Schedule to the Act which the medical practitioner has reason to believe was contracted by reason of the nature of the worker's employment, shall be in Form C in the Appendix to these regulations.

5. Every notice of an accident to a worker to be submitted by the employer to the Registrar, as required by subsection (3) of section 8 of the Act, shall be in Form D in the Appendix to these regulations.

6. (1) Every employer desirous of obtaining exemption from the operation of subsection (1) of section 10 of the Act, in accordance with the proviso to the said subsection (1), shall make application to the Registrar in Form E in the Appendix to these regulations, and furnish all the particulars therein required.

(2) Where an employer proposes to deposit cash with the Treasury, the amount to be deposited shall be such sum, being not less than £5,000, as the Registrar shall determine and the Minister approve.

(3) Where an employer proposes to deposit securities with the Treasury, such securities and the value thereof shall be subject to the approval of the Minister and the recommendation of the Registrar. Such securities may consist of a bond or guarantee of an insurance company, or of a bank given and executed in Form F in the Appendix to these regulations, of such amount, being not less than the sum of £5,000, as the Registrar shall determine and the Minister approve, and having a currency of at least one year and renewable at the option of the employer.

(4) Where an employer deposits cash, the Treasurer may invest the same in any investment in which trustees are by law permitted to invest trust moneys, and in such case the security obtained and the income derived from the investment shall be the property of the employer:

Provided that the Treasurer shall hold and keep in safe custody the said security during such time as the employer continues to be exempt as aforesaid, but the Treasurer shall pay to the employer the income derived from the said investment from time to time as it is received by the Treasurer.

(5) Where an employer deposits cash and the Treasurer does not invest the same, such deposit shall bear interest at such rate, not exceeding four pounds per centum per annum, as the Treasurer shall from time to time determine. Such interest shall be payable by the Treasurer to the employer half-yearly until the deposit is returned to the employer.

(6) Every application for exemption shall—

(a) be submitted for the approval of the Minister before being submitted for the consideration of the Governor in Council. The Minister shall decide whether the applicant shall be permitted to deposit cash instead of securities, subject to the recommendation of the Registrar as to the amount of the cash to be deposited, or as to the nature and value of the securities to be deposited;

(b) when the Minister has made the decisions referred to in subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, and is otherwise satisfied that the applicant is an employer who can properly be exempted from the operation of subsection (1) of section 10 of the Act, the decisions aforesaid of the Minister shall be communicated by the Registrar to the applicant, who may then deposit with the Treasury cash or securities, in accordance with the decisions of the Minister aforesaid.

(7) When the applicant has made the deposit with the Treasury, as required by the Minister, the Minister shall, as soon as reasonably may be thereafter, submit the application, with such recommendations as may be necessary, to the Governor in Council for the issue of the Order in Council exempting the applicant from the operation of subsection (1) of section 10 of the Act, in accordance with his application. Every such Order in Council shall specify the period for which the exemption is granted and shall not have any force or effect beyond that period.

(8) Insofar as any employer who is now exempted as aforesaid shall have deposited cash with the Treasury in accordance with any regulations heretofore existing and relating thereto, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in such previous regulations, the interest payable in respect of such cash deposit as from and including the date of the commencement of this regulation shall be at such rate, not exceeding four pounds per centum per annum, as the Treasurer shall from time to time determine.

7. Every employer who has obtained exemption from the operation of subsection (1) of section 10 of the Act shall, not later than the 1st day of September in each year, submit such particulars of the accidents sustained by workers and the compensation paid during the twelve months ending on the next preceding 30th day of June, as the Registrar may require.

Examination of Worker by Medical Practitioner.

8. (1) Where a worker has given notice of an accident or is in receipt of weekly payments under the Act, he shall not be required to submit himself against his will for examination by a medical practitioner provided by the employer, except at reasonable hours.

(2) A worker in receipt of weekly payments under the Act shall not be required, after a period of one month has elapsed from the date on which the first weekly payment of compensation was made, to submit himself against his will for examination by a medical practitioner provided by the employer more frequently than once in every two weeks whilst he continues to receive such weekly payments.

Reference to a Board of Medical Practitioners under Subsection (9) of Section 7.

9. (1) A worker who has procured such a certificate as is mentioned in subsection (8) of section 7 of the Act shall forthwith furnish the employer with a copy thereof, together with the name and address of the medical practitioner whom the worker nominates, under subsection (9) of section 7 aforesaid, to be a member of the Board referred to in the said subsection (9), in the event of the employer disputing the said certificate and desiring to refer such dispute to such Board.

(2) If the employer disputes such certificate aforesaid, he may, within seven days after receiving from the worker a copy thereof, give notice to the worker and to the clerk of the Local Court in which proceedings to recover workers' compensation can properly be taken, that he disputes the said certificate and desires the matter to be referred to a Board under and in accordance with subsection (9) of section 7 of the Act.

Provided that the Clerk of the Court may, on good cause being shown, extend in any case by not more than ten days the period within which the said notice by the employer may be given; and such extension may be granted, although the said period of seven days shall have already expired.

(3) A notice by an employer under paragraph (2) of this regulation shall be in writing in Form G in the Appendix to these regulations; and the copy of such notice sent by the employer to the Clerk of the Local Court shall be accompanied by the following documents:—

- (a) A copy of the certificate aforesaid received by the employer from the worker;
- (b) A copy of the statement received by the employer from the worker, containing the name and address of the medical practitioner nominated by the worker as a member of the Board to which the employer desires the dispute to be referred; and
- (c) A statement of the name and address of the medical practitioner whom the employer nominates as a member of the said Board.

10. (1) Upon receipt of a notice, with the accompanying documents from an employer under regulation 9 hereof, the clerk of the court shall forthwith send notice to the Registrar that such reference to a Board of Medical Practitioners under subsection (9) of section 7 of the Act is desired, together with copies of the notice and accompanying documents received by him from the employer.

(2) The Registrar shall, upon receiving notice from the clerk as aforesaid, obtain the appointment by the Governor in Council of the third medical practitioner to be a member and the Chairman of the Board, and inform such medical practitioner and the medical practitioners nominated respectively by the worker and the employer of their appointment and nomination respectively as members of the Board, and thereafter shall arrange the place and time of meeting of the Board and advise the parties thereof.

(3) The parties shall attend before the Board at the time and place appointed, and shall adduce such evidence as they may respectively desire the Board to hear, and the Board may of its own motion call any evidence and require any examination to be made and information to be procured which it may consider necessary.

(4) The Board shall embody its decision in a report, which shall be signed by the members of the Board in accordance with Form J in the Appendix to these regulations, as the case may require, and which shall be forwarded to the Registrar, who shall communicate the contents thereof to the parties.

11. A copy of the report received from a Board under Regulation 10 hereof certified by the Registrar shall be admissible as evidence in any proceedings between the parties brought under the Act to which such report is relevant, and the decision of the Board as contained in such report shall, according to the nature and the tenor thereof, be final and conclusive, and be binding upon the court.

References to Medical Referees.

12. References by employers and workers to medical referees as provided for in clause 14 of the First Schedule to the Act shall be made under and dealt with in accordance with Rules of Court made under the Act for such purpose.
