During the hours of work all travelling time from and to the employer's place of business, or from one job to another, shall be paid for by the employer at ordinary rates. The employer shall pay all fares in connection with such travelling.

12.—Hours (and see clauses 13 to 15 inclusive).

(1) Forty-four (44) hours shall constitute a week's work for all workers covered by this Award, and shall be worked, from Monday to Friday inclusive, eight (8) hours each day and four (4) hours on Saturday.

(2) The normal hours of work shall be as follow:—

(a) In retail shops and warehouses:—Monday to Friday—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Saturday—9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

(b) In signwriting and ticket-writing establishments—Monday to Friday—8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday—8 a.m. to noon.

(3) One (1) hour shall be allowed for a meal between 12 noon and 2 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive.

13.—Overtime.

(1) Any worker who is called upon to work overtime for more than two (2) hours, without receiving notice of such overtime on the previous day, shall be provided with a suitable meal, or shall be paid the sum of two shillings (2s.) in signwriting shops, and one shilling and sixpence (1s. 6d.) in other shops, for a meal.

(2) Any worker who has left the premises at which he is employed, and is recalled to work after the usual ceasing time for less than one hour, shall receive payment for one (1) hour at overtime rates.

(3) If a worker who is required to work works during the recognised meal period, so that the commencement of the meal period is postponed for more than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour, that worker shall receive payment at double time rates until he gets his meal.

(4) Subject to the preceding subclause, if a worker who is required to work during the recognised meal period does not in consequence obtain during his shift the full continuous meal period, or loses any portion of the meal period, he shall be paid at double time rates for the period not obtained, or any portion lost.

(5) The expression "recognised meal period" means the period customarily observed as the meal period by the worker or workers concerned, except when the time of commencement of the customary period is altered by mutual consent of the employer and the worker or workers in the shop to suit the convenience of the worker or workers or the employer, in which case the altered times shall be the basis of any rights under the preceding subclauses (3) and (4).

(6) Except as provided in clause 14 (2) all overtime worked shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

14.—Holidays.

(1) In Retail Shops, Warehouses, and Ticket-writing Establishments:—(a) The following days, or the days observed in lieu thereof, shall be observed as paid holidays—New Year's Day, Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, Foundation Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

(b) A holiday of one (1) week on full pay shall be granted to each worker on completion of each year of service. A worker not completing one year of service shall be granted pay in lieu of holidays in proportion to the length of his or her service: Provided that, when a worker is entitled to holidays under this clause, he shall receive at least two (2) weeks' notice from his employer of the date when it will be convenient to the employer that such worker should take his holidays: Provided further, that this clause shall not apply in the case of any worker summarily dismissed for misconduct or dereliction of duty, or to any worker who illegally severs his contract of service.

(2) In all Establishments:—Work performed on Sundays and on any of the holidays specified in the foregoing subclause (1) (a) shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(3) In Signwriting Shops:—The days prescribed in subclause (1) (a) hereof shall be holidays, but not paid holidays.

(4) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay under clause 15 hereof, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

15.—Absence Through Sickness.

In Retail Shops, Warehouses, and Ticket-writing Establishments:—(1) A worker, other than a casual worker, shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) day for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to six (6) days in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident wherever sustained arising out of his own wilful default, or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

No worker shall be entitled to benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(2) As to computing holidays where a worker is absent through sickness, see subclause (4) of clause 14 (Holidays).

16.—Board of Reference and Demarcation.

(1) For the purpose of this Award a Board of Reference and Demarcation is hereby appointed, which shall consist of a chairman and two (2) representatives, one to be nominated by the representatives of the workers' Union and one to be nominated by the representatives of the employers' Union, and the said Board shall have assigned to it, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to this Award, the functions of—

- (a) adjusting any matter of difference which may arise from time to time, except that which may involve interpretation of any of the provisions of this Award;
- (b) dealing with any other matter which the Court may refer to the Board from time to time;
- (c) classifying and fixing wages, rates, and conditions for any occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in this Award.

(2) An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, which for this purpose are embodied in this Award.

17.—Junior Workers.

(1) Junior workers may be employed in the industry in the proportion of one junior worker to every one adult male worker, or one junior worker to every two (2) adult female workers, in receipt, in either case, of the full adult rate of pay: Provided that the quotas hereinbefore specified may be increased in any special circumstances by the Board of Reference on application of any employer or worker.
