This subclause does not apply where a member is paid the full monthly rate set out in clause (1), whether the member is employed or on duty every day in each month or not, or where the master permanently discharges a seaman without any intention of re-engaging him within one month.

Adjustment of Wages.

(1) b. The rates of pay set out in clause (1) of this Agreement are minimum rates for the term of the Agreement. Should the Court of Arbitration of Western Australia fix the basic wage of the State above or below £4 2s. 2d. per week, the rates of pay shall be increased or decreased by the sum equivalent to the amount of the basic wage as fixed from time to time is in excess or below £4 2s. 2d. per week.

Payment of Wages.

Provided that, in cases where employees are engaged in vessels trading overseas (beyond Commonwealth ports), the wages shall be payable on the 1st day of each month, if the vessel be then in port, or, if not then in port, not later than 24 hours after the vessel's arrival in port.

(g) A seaman shall, outside his hours of labour and without payment for overtime, attend when required any medical inspection, boat drill, or fire drill, and do any work that is required of him for the safety of the ship.

Provided that, if any seaman while off duty in his home port is called upon to attend boat drill or fire drill whilst any vessel is moored at any wharf, pier, or landing place, he shall be paid overtime for the time taken in getting to and attending such boat drill or fire drill.

(h) The hours of labour for day men at sea shall be eight hours—between 6 a.m. and 4 p.m., or between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m., at the master's option, and for crew's attendants at sea shall be eight hours—between 6.30 a.m. and 8 p.m.

Working Off Articles.

(4) When a member of the Union is required to work by a ship off articles and/or work on board before signing articles and/or required temporarily as a substitute whilst the vessel is in port to do work ordinarily performed by members of the crew, he shall be paid:—

(6) Where a ship is placed in commission for any definite period less than two weeks, the employees shall receive for the time they are employed in such circumstances, including their return to the home port, 25 per cent. in addition to the rates fixed by clause (1). Provided that, when the members are being returned to their homes as passengers on days which are holidays, subclauses (c), (d), (f) and (g) of clause (8) and clause (10), which are being agreed to because, where necessary, members are at work continuously, shall not apply.

Nightwatchman in Port.

(7) (a) The hours of any seaman when on articles acting as nightwatchman in port shall be from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m.

Provided that, if a seaman is required to come on board in the home port to do the work in question on Sunday, he shall be paid an extra half day's pay.

(a) 1. Subject to the provisions of subclause (c) of clause (3), so far as this clause is concerned, on Sundays and holidays a vessel shall be deemed to be in port up to the time of actual departure, notwithstanding watches have been set under the authority of this Agreement prior to departure.

(b) On Sundays and on the holidays at sea named in subclause (j) the seamen (except for overtime payment) shall be free from labour, except such as may be necessary for the navigation and safety of the ship.

This subclause shall not apply to crew's attendants, whose hours of labour at sea (on the grounds that their work is necessary) shall, on Sundays and on the holidays referred to in subclause (j) of clause (8), be eight hours between the hours of 6.30 a.m. and 8 p.m.

(c) Should a vessel be at sea on King's Birthday or Foundation Day, the day observed at the next port of call shall be taken as intended. Should a vessel be in port on King's Birthday or Foundation Day, but the day is not observed on that day, the day observed at the next port of call shall be taken as intended. If the day observed as a holiday at the next port of call will be past before the vessel arrives, the 14th December and the 26th January respectively will be the holidays to be observed.

(d) 1. If a ship arrives at or departs from a port later than 8 a.m. on any of the holidays named in subclause (h) of this clause, such seamen shall be entitled to a day off ashore at the home port within one month thereafter, or to an extra day's pay.

2. If a ship is wholly at sea on any of the holidays named in subclause (j) of this clause, such seamen shall be entitled to a day off ashore at the home port within one month thereafter, or to an extra day's sea pay.

(e) When an extra day's sea pay is payable under this clause no payment shall be made under clause (8) f.

(f) When a ship departs from any of the main ports on a Sunday or holiday, each seaman shall be entitled to an extra day's sea pay. Provided that, if a ship departs from more than one "main port" on one Sunday only, one extra day's pay shall be payable. Should the ship be timed to sail prior to a Sunday or holiday and the actual sailing be delayed into the Sunday or holiday, owing to any action of the crew, then this clause shall not operate.

(g) When a seaman is employed on an excursion on a Sunday or a holiday, each member of the crew shall be entitled to an extra day's sea pay for the extra duty, in addition to any payment he is entitled to for a holiday or Sunday on which he is not employed on an excursion.

(b) Leave of absence to accrue pro rata for each completed month of continuous service; fractions of days due shall, if under one half, be allowed as one half-day; if over one half, to be allowed as a full day.

(c) If a port holiday as per clause (8)h occurs during the period of annual leave, such holiday shall not count as a day of annual leave.

(d) Annual leave accrued shall be considered due for past service and shall not be reduced on discharge or dismissal of any seaman for any cause.

(e) The time of absence shall begin and end at the home port of the seaman.

(f) The leave of absence may be postponed in whole or in part and the unused leave accumulated, but so that it be not postponed without the consent of the seaman beyond the second year, unless the vessel be absent from Australia for the second year as well as the first.

(g) If a seaman's services have ended under one set of articles, but continue without any material break, or if a seaman is discharged just prior to a public holiday or holidays, or before the Christmas and New Year or Easter holidays, and re-engaged within one week after such holidays, the service shall be deemed to be continuous within the meaning of this clause.

(h) During absence on annual leave, a seaman shall be paid a sustenance allowance at the same rate as is deducted for keep in the Schedule for rates of pay, subject to any adjustment under clause (1)b.

(i) Forty-eight hours notice of intention to give the holidays to the employees shall be given to the employees whenever practicable. If it is impracticable in the opinion of the master to give the 48 hours' notice, as much notice as can reasonably be given must be given to the employees.

Weekly Time Off.

(10) (a) Each seaman shall be entitled to be absent from his ship, in his home port, for four consecutive hours for each week he has been employed, unless the seaman shall ask and the master agree to the four hours being allowed off at any other port. This time to be given either for the first half of the working day of from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., or for the latter half, and, if not given, shall be paid for on the basis of half a day's pay at overtime rates for every four hours not allowed off, or may be allowed to accumulate, and then be given in whole days or part days at the home port.

(b) The employer has the right to offer payment as provided above in lieu of granting leave.

(c) When a vessel is in the "Home port" on a Saturday afternoon and is not to be loaded or discharged or to depart during that afternoon, employees shall cease work at noon on that day.

(d) Provided that, if the employee prevents the accumulated leave being given by determining the employment, the employer need only pay the half days not allowed at sea pay rates.

(e) If any days off due not given at the termination of articles by effluxion of time, these days not given shall be paid for at overtime rates.

(b) Each shift shall be treated as occupying at least one hour (including the 15 minutes prior to the time ordered, if the first shift for the night), and any clearing of decks shall be reckoned as additional overtime work.

Provided that, if a ship is completely shifted more than once in the same hour, including the 15 minutes prior to the time ordered, the work shall be paid for as one shift only.

(c) These clauses do not apply to a donkeyman as far as he performs the functions of a donkeyman in aiding the shift.

(d) Where a ship is shifted between 5 p.m. and 6 p.m. it shall be deemed a shift under this clause: provided that the meal hour between 5 p.m. and 6 p.m. shall not be used for shifting ship unless the Master cannot reasonably avoid shifting ship during that hour.

(e) Should a ship be shifted while men are working overtime between 6 p.m. and 7 a.m., it shall not be deemed a shift.

(f) Where a seaman is ordered to shift a ship at a stated time, and is in attendance at such time, and his services are not required, he shall be paid a minimum of one hour's overtime.

Working Cargo.

(13) (a) Seamen engaged in handling cargo and/or coal in port or at sea between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. shall be entitled to such additional payment as will represent the difference between a day's sea pay plus the victualling allowance, which for the purpose of this clause is fixed at one-sixth of the weekly basic wage, and the minimum rate of pay to wharf labourers employed in the port in which the work is done, or the nearest Australian port when this work is done at sea.

(d) When seamen are engaged in handling cargo between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7 a.m., and on Sundays and holidays defined in clause (8) of the Agreement at any port or anchorage or at sea, where the seamen are called upon by the master to work cargo on board the vessel, such seamen shall be paid a flat overtime rate without any deduction from wages, as follows:—Mondays to Saturdays between 5 p.m. and 7 a.m.—4s. 6d. per hour; Sundays and holidays—as per clause (8)h and i., from midnight to midnight—5s. 3d. per hour.

The master shall decide the hours of commencement of work at any port or anchorage, and shall regulate at his discretion the number of gangs to be employed and the disposition of the men, in accordance with the amount of work to be done.

(e) In cases of an employee having completed twenty-four consecutive hours time on duty, the provisions of clause (3) 1 shall apply.

(f) When a meal hour between 5 p.m. and 7 a.m. on ordinary days or any meal hours on Sunday or holidays is curtailed for the purpose of working cargo for the vessel, the flat rate of overtime applicable plus 3s. shall be paid, and half these rates, if the meal hour is curtailed for less than thirty minutes.

(g) When the seaman is engaged, with the permission of the master, by the local stevedore at any port to assist in working cargo, either on the vessel or on the wharf, or is engaged by the wharf authority at any port to assist on the wharf, such seaman shall be entitled to receive from such employer the full rates of wages applicable to the port for shore workers without any deduction from his monthly wage, and any time so worked and paid for shall not be considered as hours of duty on the vessel.

(f) Where a meal is given immediately after leaving a port, the deck hands deemed on duty and the men are deprived of their ordinary meal hour, they shall be allowed one hour for the meal, and it shall count as part of the hours of labour for the day, or payment shall be made at overtime rates.

(g) A seaman shall not, except for quarantine or medical inspection, and save as in hereafter mentioned, be under any obligation to curtail any meal time in port, even on the terms of payment of overtime. If he does so he shall be paid overtime at double overtime rates for such time.

Provided that, where it is necessary in the opinion of the master or officer in charge of a vessel for the purpose of shifting ship, or to enable a vessel to start on a voyage during a meal hour, a seaman may be called upon to curtail his meal hour or a portion of it for an hour, or part of an hour, on payment of double overtime rates for the time his meal is curtailed, subject to the following condition; if the time curtailed exceeds half an hour, payment shall be made as for one hour, at double overtime rates, but where the time is half an hour or less, payment shall be made for as for half an hour at double overtime rates.

(e) The duty of the attendant shall be to wash and clean the living quarters, lavatories, bathrooms, and mess-rooms each day, attend the food supply and draw stores.

(f) Where a vessel is provided with a dynamo of sufficient power, the living quarters and other quarters of the seamen shall be fitted with electric light for their use at sea. In all other cases a proper up-to-date light shall be provided.

Sickness and Accident.

(20). If a seaman belonging to a ship, for which articles are signed in Australia, is landed and left at any port by reason of illness, or accident in the services of the ship, incapacitating him from following his duty, he shall be entitled:—

(a) If landed at his home port—to receive wages at the rate fixed by this Agreement up to the expiration of one week after the date of his recovery, as certified by his medical attendant or by a medical inspector of seamen, if the employer at his own expense requires an examination.

Provided that, in cases where his engagement expires within one month from the date he was left on shore, the time for which he shall be so entitled to be paid shall not exceed a period of one month, and in other cases it shall not exceed a period of three months from the date he was left on shore.

(b) If landed and left at a port other than his home port, to receive wages until his recovery, certified as provided in the preceding subclause (a) and until arrival at his home port, at the rate payable to him when he was landed, and after his recovery (certified as aforesaid) to a free passage to his home port.

Provided that, if after recovery the seaman rejoins his ship or takes other employment, or is offered and refuses employment on some other vessel proceeding to his home port at a similar rate of pay to that received by him immediately prior to his being left ashore, and with right of discharge from that vessel on arrival at his home port, his right to continue to receive wages under this subclause shall then cease.

(c) If the medical inspector of seamen at an outport certifies that the seaman shall be landed at that port for treatment, and the master requires the seaman to return to his home port prior to recovery, either before or after being so landed, such seaman shall, after arrival at his home port, be treated in respect of wages, medical expenses, maintenance, etc., as if he had not been returned to his home port.

(d) The illness, hurt, or injury which shall entitle a seaman to the benefits provided for in this clause shall:—

(1) be such as to wholly incapacitate him from performance of his duty;

(2) be, or appear to be of such a nature that it is considered by the master advisable in the interests of the seaman to leave him ashore;

(3) so far as can be ascertained, be an illness contracted on board any ship of the employer, or in the service of any such ship or of the employer, or a hurt or injury sustained in the service of any such ship or of the employer, in either case under the existing or any preceding articles of agreement not separated from the next succeeding articles by an interval of more than a week (except so far as it includes time off or leave granted under this Award) nor by any time of employment for any other employer.

Provided that, if the illness is due to his own wilful act or default, or to his misbehaviour, or to a venereal disease, the employee shall not be entitled to the benefits provided for in this clause.

(e) The expense of providing the necessary medicines, surgical, and medical advice, and attendance to a seaman belonging to a ship while suffering from the effects of sickness contracted, or injury received in the service of the ship or of the owner, or from any illness, not being venereal disease, or an illness due to his own wilful act or default, or to his own misbehaviour, and of the seaman's conveyance to the home port after recovery, shall be paid by the employer without any deduction from wages on that account, until he is cured or dies, or is brought or taken back to the port where he is entitled to be discharged or such other port as is mutually agreed upon with the approval of the proper authority.

This subclause is subject to the proviso to subclause (b) of this clause.

(f) While being returned to the port above referred to under the provisions of this clause, the seaman, if he is not being maintained by or at the expense of the employer, shall be entitled to the sustenance allowance recognised by this Agreement.

(g) If an employee in the service of the owner shall suffer any injury by accident out of or in the course of his employment, but by reason of the happening of the injury out of the jurisdiction of Western Australia, the employee would otherwise be disentitled under the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1912-34, to compensation under that Act, he shall nevertheless be considered as having all rights to compensation under that Act as if the accident had happened within the jurisdiction of Western Australia: provided however:—

(1) That such right shall not be accumulative on any other rights afforded by the Commonwealth Seamen's Compensation Act, 1911, The Navigation Act (Commonwealth), 1912-26, The Merchant Shipping Acts (Imperial), or under any statute or at common law or the provisions of this Agreement, but shall be in the alternative; and

(2) The making of a claim to compensation or benefits under any of the provisions of the last-mentioned Acts, or at common law or with this Agreement shall disentitle the employee to compensation under the provisions of the Workers Compensation Act 1912-34 (State).

Ships Stranded.

(21) In the event of a vessel being stranded (not in a tidal river, gulf or harbour) and any member employed assisting to refloat the vessel, shall be paid his ordinary wages, and in addition to his wages he shall be paid a special payment of 3s. 6d. per hour between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. and 7s. per hour between the hours of 5 p.m. and 8 a.m. The additional payment shall not be made for the time occupied in performing ordinary duties or in doing work necessary to save human life.

Shipwrecked Seamen.

(22) (a) Where the services of a seaman terminate before the period contemplated in his agreement by reason of the wreck or loss of the ship, he shall be entitled to conveyance by or at the cost of the owner to the port of his engagement, or, at the master's option, to the port of discharge mentioned in the Agreement, or to such other port as is mutually agreed upon, with the approval of the proper authority, between the master and the seaman.

(b) Wages shall be paid up to and including the date of seaman's arrival at his home port.

(c) Where a seaman is not being maintained by or at the expense of the employer during his return to his home port, the employer shall pay the seaman the sustenance allowance recognised in this Agreement.

Provided that the total period for which the seaman shall be entitled to receive wages in pursuance of paragraph (b) of this clause, shall not in any case exceed three months from the time of the termination of his service by reason of the wreck or loss of ship.

Provided also, that if the seaman refuses or fails to accept the first reasonable means of conveyance, either as a distressed seaman or otherwise provided or offered by the master or owner, or by a proper authority, he shall not be entitled to receive wages under this clause for any period after such refusal or failure.

(d) In the event of a seaman losing his clothes or effects through the wreck or stranding of the vessel, the employer shall reimburse the seaman for the loss of such clothes and/or effects, but the amount of such reimbursement shall not exceed the sum of twenty pounds (£20) to any one man.

Sailing Board.

(23) (a) On the day of departure there shall be fixed in a conspicuous place at the gangway of the ship a notice board stating the time appointed for the departure of the vessel, and the time shown on the board shall be altered from time to time in the event of the vessel's departure being postponed.

(b) Where a seaman who is entitled to be on shore until the vessel departs, and has been onshore, and who returns on board at the time appointed on the notice board for the departure of the vessel, and the ship sails later than the appointed time, such seaman shall be paid overtime from the time first appointed to the time of departure of the ship or until his watch commences, unless the departure of the vessel is delayed by any act of any of the crew, or by rain, or by any unexpected cause for which the service or agent or master of the ship cannot reasonably be held responsible.

Stop Work Meetings.

(24) (a) The master shall allow all members of the crew of the vessel then in the port of Fremantle to be absent from their vessel between the hours of 8 a.m. and noon for the purpose of attending a stop work meeting of the Union on the last Tuesday of each month, without any deduction from wages on that account.

On the days of the said stop work meetings the breakfast hour for the seamen shall be from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m., and the dinner hour shall be from 12 noon to 1 p.m.

Any seaman who under the foregoing conditions attends such stop work meeting and is not back on board his ship by noon, his meal hour under clause (17) f shall be curtailed, without compensation, by the amount of time he is back on his ship after noon and he shall be ready to and shall turn to work at 1 p.m. (e.g., a seaman not on board until 12.30 p.m. shall forfeit half an hour of his meal time).

(b) No other stop work meeting to be held within working hours.

(c) This clause does not apply to crews of vessels which are due to sail at or before noon on the day of the meeting.

(d) In all cases a competent man to be kept on board in the engine room to attend generators supplying power for cargo or other necessary purposes.

(e) In the case of vessels scheduled to sail after noon on the day of such meeting, if a cargo vessel, at least one member of the engine room staff shall be kept on board, and if a passenger vessel, a full engine room and deck watch to remain on board.

(f) Time occupied by seamen attending stop work meetings prescribed in clause 24 (a) shall be deemed to be hours of duty for that day.

Engagements.

(25) (a) Where a seaman is engaged and the ship's officer holds his certificate of discharge, or where the seaman by order of the officer takes his effects on board by the appointed time and is afterwards not engaged, the seaman shall be paid (1), if the seaman is notified before 6 p.m. that his services will not be required, the sum of 15s.; (2), if the seaman is not so notified until after 6 p.m. the sum of 22s. 6d. The seaman shall also be paid a sum as will cover his necessary expenses in taking his effects to and from the vessel.

(b) Where a seaman is engaged at any port to proceed to another port to join a ship, his wages shall commence from and include the day of his engagement at the former port, and his travelling and sustenance expenses, if any, shall be paid by the employer.

(c) 1. The officers of the vessels of the State Shipping Service shall, when vacancies occur, attend the recognised pick up place between the hours of 9 a.m. and 11 a.m., and between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. from Monday to Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Saturday, and select the men required to fill such vacancies.

2. On occasions when men are urgently required outside the ordinary pick-up hours, and the secretary of the Union cannot be communicated with for any reason, the "pick-up" place shall be at the vessel's side or elsewhere.

3. The Union, its officers and members, shall not attempt to enforce any roster system for engagements of seamen, and shall not interfere with the free selection and engagement of crews or individual members of crews, but will assist in every way the officers of vessels or officials of the State Shipping Service in obtaining without delay a sufficient number of suitable men for selection for engagement.

(d) In the event of a ship changing articles, any seaman who re-engages shall have the right to retain his original home port as the home port in the new articles.

(e) When seamen sign off and on, on the same day, those men who have already put in eight hours work on that day shall be allowed two hours' overtime, if they are signed off and on during the hours of the day after their eight hours have been completed, as a set off for the time required for the purpose of signing off and on.

Discharge.

(26) (a) The master may discharge any seaman at his home port, if he gives him not less than twenty-four hours' notice of a day other than Saturday, and if the notice be not less than twenty-four hours before the ship leaves the home port. Any seaman may end his engagement at his home port, if he gives the master such notice as aforesaid.

(b) The master may give notice at sea to any seaman of his intention to discharge him on arrival at his home port: providing such notice be given on any day but Saturday, twenty-four hours prior to the intended termination of the engagement.

(c) Any seaman may obtain his discharge by giving the master twenty-four hours' notice (on any day but Saturday) prior to the arrival of the ship at the home port, of his intention to leave the ship at his home port.

(d) Should any seaman be dismissed or discharged for any reason other than his own misconduct as per clause 27, or for sickness or accident under clause 20, at any port other than his home port, he shall be provided by the master with a free passage to his home port, and shall be paid wages up to the time he would in due course arrive thereat, and shall, if not provided with keep, be paid in addition a sustenance allowance at the rate of 9s. per day whilst awaiting and during such transportation.

Provided that, if the return of the seaman to his home port is delayed by his own act or default, he shall not be entitled to wages or sustenance allowance during the period of the delay, so far as it was caused by the seaman.

In the event of any seaman or seamen being absent from the ship in an outport at the time prescribed for departure on the notice board, the master shall leave the wages, overtime, and effects of such seaman or seamen with the superintendent of the Local Mercantile Marine Office; the remainder of the crew shall then be asked to take the ship to sea, and, failing to do so, and if the ship is prevented from sailing as the result of such refusal, none of the seamen shall be entitled to the provisions of clause 26, subclause (d) of this Agreement.

(e) If the articles expire through effluxion of time at any port other than the home port, the seaman shall be entitled to his discharge, together with any wages then due, and to a free passage back to his home port, unless he is offered employment on Agreement conditions for the balance of the outward journey (if any) and back to his home port. The wages of the seaman shall run on and be paid up to and including the day of arrival of the seaman at his home port. While travelling to his home port on a free passage, he shall be allowed to victualing allowance by the Agreement, unless food and a berth is included in the passage money paid.

(f) When any seaman is being paid off during the currency of his articles of agreement, he shall be paid all his wages and overtime due, and be given his certificate of discharge, so far as the employer can do so, on the day of his discharge, if he is discharged before noon, if it is not on a Sunday or a holiday, or next day before noon if discharged after noon.

Dismissal.

(27) If any seaman becomes intoxicated or disorderly the master, or, in his absence, the officer or engineer on watch, may dismiss him instantly if in port, or if at sea, log him and dismiss him on arrival at the first port.

Uniforms.

(28) The deck hands shall, if required to do so, wear the uniform of the employer on passenger vessels, but the employer shall, after the present uniforms are unfit for use, supply the uniform and the necessary trimmings and badges.

No Discrimination.

(29) The master shall not discriminate without just cause against any members of the Union who bear good conduct records and who agree to and continue to work on the terms of this Agreement and as there are vacancies for, and the master will consider any representations made to him by the secretary of the Union.

The discrimination referred to is unjust discrimination in favour of persons not members of the Union, not discrimination between members of the Union.

Buckets.

(30) The employers will, where necessary, provide a sufficient number of buckets for the use of the seamen free of cost to the seamen.
