INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT No. 10 of 1940.

(Registered 17/6/1940.)

THIS Agreement, made in pursuance of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, this Twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty, between Swan Portland Cement, Limited (hereinafter called "the employer"), whose registered office is situate at Portland House, Rivervale, in the State of Western Australia, of the one part, and the Metropolitan and South-Western Federated Engine-drivers and Firemen's Union of Workers of W.A., Perth (hereinafter called "the union"), whose registered office is situate at Trades Hall, Perth, of the other part, witnesseth that, for the considerations hereinafter appearing, the parties hereto mutually covenant and agree the one with the other as follows:—

1.—Area.

This Agreement shall have effect over the area comprised within a radius of fifteen (15) miles from the General Post Office, Perth.

2.—Scope.

This Agreement shall apply to all workers covered in the Schedule of rates and engaged by the abovenamed Company.

3.—Term.

This Agreement shall take effect from the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty, and shall continue in force for a period of three years.

4.—Hours of Work.

(a) Employees working three (3) shifts shall work eight (8) hours per day for the first five (5) days of the week, including crib time, and four (4) hours on Saturday: Provided that the foregoing hours may be altered at any time by agreement in writing between the parties.

(b) Day shift workers shall work eight hours per day, exclusive of crib time, on the first five days of the week and four hours on Saturday.

(c) In all cases, in reckoning the time of duty, any time necessarily occupied in raising steam, in banking fires, and attending to boilers or engines, during meal hours shall be included.

(d) Drivers shall fire the boilers and maintain steam on both the shore and floating cranes.

5.—Crib Time.

Crib time for shift workers shall be taken in relays, at such time as not to cause a stoppage of work, and no deduction shall be made therefor from the employees' wages.

6.—Overtime and Holiday Rates.

(a) Overtime shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(b) Time and a half shall mean one half day's wages in addition to the prescribed minimum rate, or pro rata, if there is more or less than a day.

(c) All work done on Sundays by day workers shall be paid for at the rate of double time, and by shift workers at the rate of time and a half. All work performed on Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday or Labour Day, being the holidays specially mentioned in clause 7 hereof, shall be paid for at double time.

(d) Work done in the meal hour, or any portion thereof, shall be paid for at the rate of double time, but this shall not apply to cases involving completion of work commenced before the lunch hour and not occupying more than fifteen (15) minutes from the commencement of the lunch hour, in which case the lunch hour shall be extended by fifteen minutes beyond the ordinary time. This subclause shall not apply to shift workers who are provided for under clause 5.

(e) Double time shall mean one (1) day's wages in addition to the prescribed minimum rate, or pro rata, if there is more or less than a day.

(f) Nothing in this Agreement shall entitle the worker working any overtime, either on week days or Sundays or holidays, to more than twice the ordinary rate of pay.

7.—Holidays.

(a) Twelve (12) paid holidays per annum shall be granted each worker after twelve (12) months' continuous service: Provided always, that New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day, or the days observed as such, shall be taken as they come as portion of the holidays. The balance of the six (6) days shall be granted as annual leave at the convenience of the employer, but shall not be allowed to accumulate.

(b) In the event of a worker being employed for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period, and if such holidays are not equal to the holidays given to the other workers, he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on holidays on full pay.

(c) Except when employed subject to the conditions of clause 6 (c) (Overtime), no worker shall be required to present himself for duty on any of the specially named holidays in subclause (a) hereof. On any other public holiday the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty, but, if kept open or work done, ordinary rates shall apply.

(d) Where a worker is dismissed for wilful misconduct, he will not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

8.—Men Recalled.

When a worker is recalled to work after leaving the job, he shall be paid at least two (2) hours at overtime rates.

9.—Payment of Wages.

Wages shall be paid weekly unless otherwise mutually agreed.

10.—Mixed Functions.

Workers called upon to temporarily work at a higher grade shall be paid the prescribed rates for such higher grade for the actual time so employed.

11.—Notice to Cease Work.

In the event of a breakdown of machinery, or an industrial dispute, the Company shall only be called upon to give employees one day's notice to cease work. In other instances the ordinary week's notice shall apply.

12.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance, on the ground of personal ill-health for one half (½) day for each completed month of service. Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to six (6) days in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(b) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay under the preceding provision, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

13.—Schedule of Rates.

Basic wage £4 2s. 2d. per week.
