A committee of three (3) to be appointed to assist the Management in the arrangement of a suitable roster.

All employees shall be granted, once in each year, fourteen consecutive days' holiday, which shall include twelve (12) working days, for which the employee shall be paid two weeks' wages. If the employment is determined before the holiday is due, the employee shall be entitled to one day's pay in lieu of holidays for every complete month of his service or portion of a month.

In the case of a continuous process where workers are relieved on week days, each shift so relieved shall be counted as having been worked, for the purpose of computing annual holidays.

A pieceworker shall be entitled to be paid, when on holiday, the minimum rate for his grade.

Workers shall not be entitled to receive their holiday pay until the last pay preceding the date on which the holiday is to be taken.

9.—Payment of Wages.

(a) The payment for shift work, overtime, Sundays, and holidays shall be computed on the hourly basis obtained by dividing the weekly wage by the weekly hours.

(b) Any worker leaving or being discharged shall be paid the full amount of wages due to him within one hour of ceasing work, or within one hour of the opening of the Company's office, if such office was closed at the time of his ceasing.

Payment of wages shall be fortnightly on Fridays.

10.—Change Room.

A suitable change room, supplied with heating appliance, wash basins, hot and cold showers, shall be provided for the employees.

11.—Union Official.

A duly accredited official of the union shall be allowed to collect union fees at the office on pay days, and he shall be allowed to inspect the time sheets and pay sheets relating to any worker affected by this Agreement, and make extracts therefrom.

12.—Breakdowns, etc.

For the purpose of setting out plainly the exact method of procedure under this clause, it shall be mutually understood that, where it becomes necessary for the Company to deduct payment when any member of the organisation cannot be usually employed, it is hereby mutually agreed that:—

- (a) No deduction will be made where the breakdown or stoppage of work for any cause of the Company cannot reasonably be held responsible for, only affects one employee member for not more than two consecutive days; or,
- (b) alternatively, affects only two employees for not more than one day; thus making a total of six shifts in either alternative as a maximum to be paid by the Company.
- (c) Should the breakdown or stoppage affect the Company to a greater extent than as above specified in (a) and (b), then the Company agrees to stand down the employee members of the organisation in reasonable rotation, so as to give as far as possible equal work for all employees, always excepting the leading firemen, whose services the Company reserves the right to retain at its discretion.

13.—Relieving.

Relieving hands, when not engaged at relieving, shall be found suitable work to make up full time.

14.—Mixed Functions.

Any worker who is employed for more than two hours on a higher classification shall be paid the rates of such classification for the whole of the shift, and if employed on a lower classification he shall be paid his ordinary rates.

15.—Maintenance of Existing Conditions.

Save, so far as they may be altered or varied by this Agreement, all now existing conditions and customs shall be maintained during the period of this Agreement.

16.—Payment for Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance, on the ground of personal ill-health, for one half day for each completed month of service; provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to six (6) days in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled to service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay under the preceding provision, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

(c) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any lost time through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default, or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(d) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause, unless he produces a doctor's certificate to his employer as satisfactory proof of sickness.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have executed these presents the day and year first before-mentioned.
