If any junior weekly hand is called upon to do any work other than the following, namely:—elementary sorting, cleaning up and sweeping up, opening up and emptying bales or bags, sewing up packs after pressing, moving skips, and emptying same or any light work ordered by the storeman or man in charge, he shall be paid the minimum adult rate.

8.—Proportion of Junior Workers.

Employers shall be entitled to employ one (1) junior worker, and thereafter additional junior workers may be employed in the proportion of one (1) junior worker to every four (4) or fraction of four (4) adult workers.

9.—Engagement.

All labour required shall be engaged between 7.30 a.m. and 8 a.m., but in the event of sufficient men not being available between these times, the employer shall have the right to engage other labour which may report later in the day: Provided that workers shall be entitled to payment only as from the time at which they are told to report for work.

10.—Area.

This Agreement shall be limited in its effect to the area comprised within a radius of twenty-five (25) miles from the Post Office, Fremantle.

11.—Term.

The currency of this Agreement shall be for three (3) years from the date hereof: Provided that at any time after the expiration of twelve (12) months from that date, the Court may alter or amend same on the application of any party or person affected by its provisions.

12.—Holidays.

The following days, or the days observed in lieu, shall be observed as holidays and, so far as weekly workers are concerned, paid for, namely:—New Year's Day, Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

13.—Annual Leave.

Each weekly worker, after completion of each year's continuous employment as a weekly hand, shall be entitled to one (1) week's annual leave on full pay.

Provided that a weekly hand not completing a full year's service shall be granted pay in lieu of leave, after the first month, in proportion as his length of service is to the full year's employment.

14.—Higher Duties.

A worker who is required to do work for which a higher rate is prescribed in this Agreement than that which he usually performs, shall be entitled to payment at the higher rate whilst so employed.

15.—Time and Wages Book.

The employer shall keep or cause to be kept and entered up a book containing:—

- (a) the name of each worker to whom this Agreement applies;
- (b) the class of work performed by him;
- (c) the hours worked each day by him;
- (d) the wages (and overtime, if any) paid to him;
- (e) the ages of junior workers.

Such book shall be open to inspection by a representative of the union between the working hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

16.—Under-rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

17.—Pay Day.

Wages shall be paid on any one of the first five (5) days of the week: Provided that, when overtime is worked on pay day, workers shall be paid in time to enable them to leave their work by 5 p.m.

18.—Board of Reference.

The Court may appoint, for the purpose of this Agreement, a Board of Reference.

The Board shall consist of a chairman and two (2) representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties. There shall be assigned to the Board in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to this Agreement, the functions of:—

- (a) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of this Agreement or any of them;
- (b) classifying and fixing wages, rates, and conditions for any occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in the Agreement;
- (c) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

19.—Gong.

The employer shall provide a gong and all work shall start and finish with the gong.

20.—Travelling Time.

When a worker is required during his ordinary working hours to work outside his usual place of employment, or is transferred from one job to another, the employer shall provide the necessary means of transport or pay the worker any reasonable expenses incurred.

21.—Basic Wage Variations.

The hourly rates set out in clause 6 (1) (b) are subject to adjustment, in accordance with any variation of the basic wage which may be ordered by the Court from time to time.
