CIVIL DEFENCE (EMERGENCY POWERS) ACT, 1940.

Premier's Office,
Perth, 15th October, 1941.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting in exercise of the powers conferred by section 7 of the Civil Defence (Emergency Powers) Act, 1940, has been pleased to make, under and for the purposes of the said Act, the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereunder.

L. E. SHAPCOTT,
Director Civil Defence.

Schedule.

CIVIL DEFENCE (EMERGENCY POWERS) ACT, 1940.

Regulations.

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Civil Defence Regulations, 1941.
- (2) These regulations shall operate and have effect in and in relation to those portions of the State comprised in the following areas, namely:—
 - (a) The Metropolitan Area;
 - (b) Albany Municipal District;
 - (c) Bunbury Municipal District;
 - (d) Busselton Municipal District;
 - (e) Geraldton Municipal District;
 - (f) Northam Municipal District;
 - (g) Collie Municipal District;
 - (h) Collie Road District;
 - (i) Northam Road District;
 - (j) Sussex Road District;
 - (k) Eastern Goldfields Area.
- (3) In these regulations the expression "Metropolitan Area" means the Metropolitan Area as defined under and for the purposes of the Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage, and Drainage Act, 1909, and the expression "Eastern Goldfields Area" means those portions of the State comprised in the Boulder Municipal Council, Kalgoorlie Municipal Council, and Kalgoorlie Road District.
2. These regulations are divided into PARTS as follows:—

PART I: r.r. 3 to 19—Transaction and Conduct of Business by the Council.
 PART II: r.r. 20 to 38—Civil Defence Forces.
 PART III: r.r. 39 to 41—Duties of Occupiers of Dwellings and Flats.
 PART IV: r.r. 42 to 47—Lighting Restrictions.
 PART V: r.r. 48 to 62—Internal Sectors.

PART I.—TRANSACTION AND CONDUCT OF BUSINESS BY THE COUNCIL.

Meetings and Proceedings.

3. (a) For the purposes of this Part—

"Ordinary meeting" means a meeting of the Council for the transaction of the ordinary business of the Council;

"Special meeting" means a meeting of the Council to consider special business, the nature of which is stated in the notice to members of such special meeting.
- (b) Ordinary meetings shall be held at such intervals and at such times as the Council may by resolution from time to time fix and determine.
- (c) A special meeting shall be held—
 - (i) Whenever the chairman directs; or
 - (ii) whenever any three members of the Council, by a requisition in writing addressed to the chairman, request—that a special meeting shall be held.
4. Notice of every ordinary and of every special meeting shall be given or sent, either by post or otherwise, to every member of the Council by the secretary and, where any meeting is adjourned for any period exceeding six days, notice of such adjourned meeting shall be given or sent in the manner aforesaid.
5. (a) At all meetings of the Council the chairman shall preside if present.
- (b) In the absence of the chairman or, if he retire from the meeting, one of the members present, to be chosen by the members present, shall preside at such meeting.
6. All meetings of the Council shall be held, either at the office of the Minister or at such other place as the chairman may from time to time appoint.
7. (a) When at any ordinary meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time fixed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned for seven days.
- (b) If at any such adjourned meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour after the time fixed for the commencement of such meeting, the members then present shall constitute a quorum for such meeting.
- (c) When at any special meeting called by the chairman on his own initiative a quorum be not present within half an hour after the time fixed for the commencement of such special meeting, the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this regulation shall, with such adaptations as may be necessary, apply in relation to such special meeting.
- (d) When at any special meeting called on the requisition of three members a quorum be not present within half an hour after the time fixed for the commencement of such special meeting, such special meeting shall lapse.
- (e) Notwithstanding that at any ordinary or special meeting a quorum is not present, the names of those members who are present at such meeting shall be recorded in the minute book.

Order of Business at Meetings.

8. No business shall be transacted at any special meeting other than that for which such special meeting has been called: Provided that, where any matter, not being business for which the meeting has been called, which in the opinion of the chairman is urgent, can conveniently be dealt with at any special meeting, and a majority of the members present at this meeting consent thereto, such matter may be dealt with at such special meeting.

9. (a) The order of business at ordinary meetings shall be as follows:—

- (i) Confirmation of minutes of previous meetings;
- (ii) Consideration of business arising out of minutes;
- (iii) Reading of correspondence, inwards and outwards, and taking such action as may be deemed expedient in regard thereto;
- (iv) Reports of subcommittees and the consideration thereof;
- (v) Motions;
- (vi) Notices of motion;
- (vii) General business.

(b) In the event of any member having urgent business to place before the meeting, he may move the suspension of paragraph (a) of this regulation, and, if such motion be agreed to by a majority of the members present, such business shall take precedence over all other business for that meeting.

10. (a) Any member who wishes to have rescinded any resolution carried at any previous meeting shall give to the secretary in writing at least seven days' notice of his intention to move at a meeting of the Council that the said resolution be rescinded.

(b) Particulars of such notice of motion shall be furnished to members in the notice of the meeting at which the motion for rescission of the resolution will be moved.

11. A member, when speaking at a meeting, shall not digress from the subject of the debate.

Motions and Amendments.

12. A motion once moved shall not be withdrawn, except with the consent of the majority of the members present at the meeting.

13. Any number of amendments may be proposed on a motion before the meeting: Provided that, when more than one amendment is moved, the question shall first be put on the last amendment, then on the next in succession and so on until all the amendments are voted on, and lastly, on the original motion, in the reverse order in which they were moved.

14. Unless seconded, neither a motion nor an amendment shall be discussed by any member other than the mover or be put to the meeting by the chairman.

15. When an amendment is carried the motion as amended thereby shall become the substantive motion, upon which further amendments may be moved before it is finally dealt with.

16. When submitting a motion or an amendment to the meeting the chairman shall put the question first for the affirmative and then for the negative.

17. Any question before the meeting may be decided on the voices, unless the chairman calls for a show of hands, or two members ask for a ballot.

18. (a) All questions before the meeting shall be decided by the votes of a majority of the members present at the meeting, and, when so decided, shall be deemed to be the decision of the whole Council.

(b) In the case of an equality of votes the motion shall be lost.

Appointment of Subcommittees.

19. (a) The Council may at any time by resolution appoint any one or more members of the Council as a subcommittee, and such other subcommittees as may be deemed advisable, to inquire into any matter, and to report and make recommendations regarding the same to the Council. Every such subcommittee shall consist of one or more members of the Council, together with such other persons as may be appointed by the Council.

(b) No such subcommittee shall, without the express authority of the Council, incur any financial liability or in any way commit the Council to any obligation, responsibility, or liability whatsoever; and if any subcommittee, without such express authority as aforesaid, does incur any financial liability or does any act, matter or thing which commits or may be deemed to commit the Council to any obligation, responsibility, or liability aforesaid, the Council shall not in any way be bound or affected by the acts of the subcommittee, unless and until the Council, if it thinks fit so to do, shall affirm or ratify the said acts of such subcommittee.

PART II.—CIVIL DEFENCE FORCES.

20. For the purposes of the Act, and subject to the approval of the Council, the Civil Defence Forces shall include the following, namely:—

- (1) (a) Director of Civil Defence;
- (b) Chief Warden;
- (c) Deputy Chief Warden;
- (d) Divisional Wardens;
- (e) Deputy Divisional Wardens;
- (f) Head Wardens;
- (g) Deputy Head Wardens;
- (h) Senior Wardens;
- (i) Wardens;
- (j) Instructors; and
- (k) Such other persons as may be included in the Register of civil defence personnel.

(2) Director of Communications.

Qualifications of Divisional Wardens, Deputy Divisional Wardens, Head Wardens, and Deputy Head Wardens.

21. No person shall be appointed as a Divisional Warden, Deputy Divisional Warden, or as a Head Warden or a Deputy Head Warden unless and until he has undertaken a course of air raid precautions training equivalent to that required for an instructor's certificate, or satisfies the Chief Warden that he is qualified for appointment as a Divisional Warden, Deputy Divisional Warden, or as a Head Warden or a Deputy Head Warden, as the case may be.

Appointments.

22. (1) The Director of Civil Defence, the Chief Warden, the Deputy Chief Warden, the Divisional Wardens, Deputy Divisional Wardens, Head Wardens, Deputy Head Wardens, and the Director of Communications shall be appointed by the Council.

Provided that—

- (a) Divisional Wardens and Deputy Divisional Wardens shall be appointed on the recommendation of the Chief Warden;
- (b) Head Wardens and Deputy Head Wardens shall be appointed on the recommendation of the local authorities hereinafter prescribed, and shall be approved by the Chief Warden.

(2) Senior Wardens, Wardens, and such other civil defence personnel as may be deemed necessary by the Chief Warden shall be appointed by the Head Warden of the district, and such appointments shall be subject to the approval of the Chief Warden.

Provided that any local authority hereinafter prescribed may recommend to the Head Warden of the district any person for appointment to any office aforesaid mentioned in this paragraph within its district, and, subject to the Head Warden being satisfied concerning the qualifications of the person so recommended, the Head Warden may appoint such person accordingly.

(3) Instructors shall be appointed by the Chief Warden subject to the conditions set out in regulation 32 hereof.

Prescribed Local Authorities.

23. The local authorities referred to in regulation 22 hereof are the following:—

- (a) All the local authorities within or partly within the Metropolitan Area;
- (b) Albany Municipal Council;
- (c) Boulder Municipal Council;
- (d) Bunbury Municipal Council;
- (e) Busselton Municipal Council;
- (f) Geraldton Municipal Council;
- (g) Kalgoorlie Municipal Council;
- (h) Kalgoorlie Road Board;
- (i) Northam Municipal Council;
- (j) Collie Municipal Council;
- (k) Collie Road Board;
- (l) Northam Road Board;
- (m) Sussex Road Board.

Powers and Duties of Civil Defence Officers.

24. (1) The powers and duties of the Director of Civil Defence shall be such as the Council may from time to time determine and prescribe by resolution, and shall include the direction, supervision, and necessary implementation of all measures approved by the Council for the protection of the civil population of the State under the authority of the Act, or as prescribed by the regulations under the Act.

(2) The powers and duties of the Chief Warden shall include the following:—

- (a) to organise a volunteer force of air raid wardens in districts designated by the Council;
- (b) to enrol and appoint and dismiss volunteer civil defence personnel in accordance with the regulations;
- (c) to prescribe a syllabus of training;
- (d) to control and direct the training of civil defence personnel;
- (e) to order the mobilisation of all or any section of the Civil Defence Forces;
- (f) to order the manning of posts by the Civil Defence Forces should an emergency arise;
- (g) to requisition any things which in his opinion are necessary for the purposes of civil defence in case of any proclaimed emergency; and
- (h) to enter premises to combat incendiary bombs and take any other measures consistent with the performance of civil defence duties.

(3) The powers and duties of the Deputy Chief Warden, which shall be exercised or carried out under the direction of the Chief Warden or by the Deputy Chief Warden on his own initiative when the directions of the Chief Warden cannot conveniently or expeditiously be obtained, shall be the same as those set out as the powers and duties of the Chief Warden in paragraph (2) of this regulation.

(4) The powers and duties of the Divisional Wardens and, in the case of the absence or inability of the Divisional Wardens to carry out their duties, of the Deputy Divisional Wardens, which shall be exercised and carried out in the divisions under their control and, subject to the directions of the Chief Warden or the Deputy Chief Warden, as the case may require, shall include the following:—

- (a) to co-ordinate the work of the Civil Defence Forces within his Division;
- (b) to supervise the organisation of Air Raid Wardens and other personnel included in regulation 24, section (5), subsection (A), within his Division and to report thereon to the Chief Warden;
- (c) to communicate or transmit the instructions of the Chief Warden to those officers and members of the Civil Defence Forces who are concerned in or affected by such instructions;

- (d) to enrol and appoint ordinary civil defence personnel to such divisional services as the Chief Warden may determine;
 - (e) to direct the work and activities of instructors;
 - (f) to requisition any things which in their opinion, are necessary for the purposes of civil defence in case of any proclaimed emergency; and
 - (g) to enter premises to combat incendiary bombs and take any other measures consistent with the performance of civil defence duties.
- (5) The powers and duties of Head Wardens and, in the case of the absence or inability of the Head Wardens to carry out their duties, of the Deputy Head Wardens, which shall be exercised and carried out within the districts to which they are assigned, shall be as follows:—
- (a) to assume responsibility for organisation of emergency services in their districts as directed by the Council or the Chief Warden, including wardens, first aid parties, light rescue parties, cars for sitting cases; messengers to assist wardens, fire parties;
 - (b) to enrol and appoint and dismiss volunteer personnel;
 - (c) to direct training in accordance with the prescribed syllabus;
 - (d) to prepare and maintain a household register;
 - (e) to ask for and obtain information for the household register, provided that the information obtained shall be used only for civil defence purposes;
 - (f) to ask for and obtain the observance by persons of any lighting restrictions which are enforceable by law, and, in the event of any person refusing to observe such lighting restrictions, to ask for and take particulars of his name and place of abode;
 - (g) to order members of the public to take shelter in case of emergency;
 - (h) to evacuate members of the public from dangerous areas in case of emergency;
 - (i) in the absence of the police and traffic inspectors to direct traffic during any period of emergency;
 - (j) to do all or any of the things mentioned in the foregoing subparagraphs hereof, not only during periods of emergency, but also during the conduct of any training exercises which have been authorised or approved by the Chief Warden;
 - (k) to direct the work of the civil defence personnel under their control;
 - (l) to keep a register of persons to whom official badges and authority cards are issued;
 - (m) to assume responsibility for the safe custody of all records and returns thereof to the Council;
 - (n) to enter premises to combat incendiary bombs and take any other measures consistent with the performance of civil defence duties; and
 - (o) in addition, the Head Wardens of Kalgoorlie, Boulder, Geraldton, Northam, Albany, Collie, Bumbury, and Busselton Municipalities, and Collie, Kalgoorlie, and Sussex Road Board Districts shall be responsible for the organisation in the said centres in such manner as the Council may direct of the following:—
 - (i) warning systems;
 - (ii) communications and reporting;
 - (iii) medical services;
 - (iv) decontamination services;
 - (v) auxiliary fire services;
 - (vi) evacuation; and
 - (vii) controlled lighting.
- (6) The powers and duties of senior wardens and wardens shall include the following:—
- (a) to undergo training as required in accordance with these regulations;
 - (b) to man posts as directed by the Chief Warden, through the Head Warden, of the district in which they are serving;
 - (c) to ask for and obtain information for the household register: Provided that the information received shall be used only for civil defence purposes;
 - (d) to ask for and obtain the observance by persons of any lighting restrictions which are enforceable by law, and, in the event of any person refusing to observe such lighting restrictions, to ask for and take particulars of his name and place of abode;
 - (e) to order members of the public to take shelter in case of emergency;
 - (f) to evacuate members of the public from dangerous areas in case of emergency;
 - (g) in the absence of the police and traffic inspectors to direct traffic during any period of emergency;
 - (h) to do all or any of the things mentioned in the foregoing subparagraphs hereof, not only during periods of emergency, but also during the conduct of any training exercises, which have been authorised or approved by the Chief Warden; and
 - (i) to enter premises to combat incendiary bombs and take any other measures consistent with the performance of civil defence duties.
- (7) The powers or duties of instructors shall be as follows:—
- (a) to undergo a course of training as prescribed by the Chief Warden;
 - (b) as the persons alone authorised so to do, to give instruction in air raid precautions services, as distinct from first aid and fire fighting;
 - (c) to give the instruction mentioned in subparagraph (b) hereof only as directed by the Chief Warden.
- (8) Other civil defence personnel shall, in addition to any other duties prescribed by these regulations, carry out such services as may fall to them as members of the Civil Defence Forces in accordance with the Act and these regulations.

(9) The powers and duties of the Director of Communications shall, subject to the Council, be as follows:—

- (a) to appoint volunteer personnel as and when he deems necessary;
- (b) to organise all civil defence communications, including control and report centres;
- (c) to organise auxiliary lines of communication;
- (d) to plan the furnishing and staffing of control and report centres;
- (e) to prepare maps, charts, and diagrams;
- (f) to select and train personnel;
- (g) to prepare report forms, records, etc.;
- (h) to establish liaison with State Government and essential services, defence, police, and other departments concerned;
- (i) to supervise the training of a messenger service;
- (j) to assume complete responsibility for the smooth working of all phases of communications; and
- (k) to lay down the principles of organisation of communications in the metropolitan area and country districts; to put any plan of organisation, based on such principles, into effect in the metropolitan area, and to select and appoint deputies in country centres to put such plan into effect in such country districts.

Liability for Administration Expenses.

25. (1) The cost of any administration expenses incurred by the Director of Civil Defence, the Chief Warden, the Deputy Chief Warden, and the Director of Communications shall be borne and paid by the Council.

(2) The cost of any administration expenses incurred by the Divisional Wardens and Deputy Divisional Wardens shall be borne and paid by the Council and the local authorities in whose districts such expenses have been incurred, in such proportions as the Council and such authorities may mutually agree upon, or, failing such mutual agreement, in such proportions as the Governor may from time to time determine.

(3) The cost of any administration expenses incurred by the Head Wardens or Deputy Head Wardens shall be borne and paid by the local authority in whose district such expenses were incurred.

(4) The cost of any administration expenses incurred by Senior Wardens and Wardens shall be borne and paid by the local authority in whose district such expenses were incurred.

Designation of Divisions and Districts.

26. (1) The Council may from time to time define and designate divisions and districts in relation to those portions of the State to which these regulations apply for the purposes of the Act and these regulations.

(2) Divisional Wardens and Deputy Divisional Wardens may be assigned to any divisions defined and designated as aforesaid.

(3) Head Wardens, Deputy Head Wardens, Senior Wardens, and Wardens may be assigned to any districts defined and designated as aforesaid.

A.R.P. District Committees.

27. (a) Subject to the approval of the Council, there shall be established for every district, as directed by the Chief Warden, an A.R.P. District Committee, which shall consist of the Head Warden, a representative nominated by the local authority, and one other person approved by the Council.

(b) The functions of the A.R.P. District Committee shall include:—

1. doing those things prescribed to be done by the District Committee as required in regulation 30;
2. examining any proposed expenditure on administration, and approving of the same in cases where such expenditure will be payable by the local authority under regulation 25.

Oath of Allegiance.

(Form No. 1.)

28. (1) Every member of the Civil Defence Forces to whom these regulations apply shall, upon appointment or enrolment, as the case may be, take before the chairman of the Council or such other person or persons, as he may require, the oath of allegiance to His Majesty, in the Form No. 1 in the Appendix to these regulations.

(Form No. 2.)

(2) As and when the oath of allegiance is taken as required by this regulation, the Chairman or other person who takes the same shall certify thereto in the Form No. 2 in the Appendix to these regulations and forward such certificate to the Council.

Medical Examination.

29. (1) Every person offering himself for appointment or enrolment as a member of the Civil Defence Forces shall submit himself to such medical examination as may be recommended by the hospital and casualty subcommittee of the Council and be approved by the Council.

(2) Every member of the Civil Defence Forces shall, if so required by the Council, from time to time after his appointment or enrolment submit himself to the said medical examination.

(Form No. 3.)

(3) Whenever any person or member aforesaid submits himself to the said medical examination as provided for in this regulation, the medical practitioner who conducts such medical examination shall report the result thereof in writing, signed by him, in the form of Certificate No. 3 in the Appendix to these regulations,

Enrolment and Appointment of Civil Defence Personnel.

30. In relation to the enrolment and appointment of the civil defence personnel, the following provisions shall apply, namely:—

- (a) Any person seeking to be enrolled as a member of the civil defence personnel shall submit himself as a recruit to the Head Warden of the district in which he desires to be enrolled.

(Form No. 4.)

- (b) The Head Warden shall prepare a register card in the Form No. 4 in the Appendix to these regulations in triplicate, and the applicant for enrolment shall sign each copy of such card.
- (c) The Head Warden shall retain one of such register cards and forward the others to the Civil Defence Council.
- (d) Upon receipt of the register cards from the Head Warden, the Civil Defence Council shall cause inquiries to be made through the A.R.P. District Committee, or such other channels as the Council may from time to time determine, concerning the character and repute of the applicant and otherwise in order to ascertain whether or not the applicant is a fit and proper person to be enrolled.
- (e) After the inquiries aforesaid have been made the Civil Defence Council shall, by writing, inform the Head Warden whether or not the applicant shall be enrolled.
- (f) If the Civil Defence Council has informed the Head Warden that the applicant is to be enrolled, he shall enrol the applicant as a member of the civil defence personnel and shall admit him as a recruit to a class of instruction in the class of service for which he has been enrolled.
- (g) Where the recruit has obtained enrolment for the purpose of obtaining appointment as a Warden, he shall be admitted to a class of instruction for wardens.
- (h) When a recruit has completed the course of instruction to which he has been admitted as aforesaid, he may be required to take and pass an examination as may from time to time be prescribed by the Council before receiving any appointment.
- (i) The result of every such examination shall be forwarded to the Civil Defence Council.

(Form No. 5.)

- (j) If the recruit is successful in such examination, the Civil Defence Council shall issue to the recruit a certificate in the Form No. 5 in the Appendix to these regulations and shall approve of the appointment and attestation of the recruit in that office or branch in the Civil Defence Forces for which he is qualified by passing the said examination and shall notify the Head Warden accordingly.
- (k) The examination provided for in the foregoing paragraphs hereof may be dispensed with in any case where the Chief Warden is satisfied that the recruit is a fit and proper person to be appointed without examination, and notifies the Council accordingly: Provided that the Chief Warden may, if he thinks fit, delegate to the Head Warden the power of deciding whether or not the examination may be dispensed with.
- (l) Upon receipt of any notification aforesaid the Head Warden shall prepare an attestation form and declaration, to be signed and made by the recruit.

(Forms No. 6 and 7.)

- (m) The attestation form shall be in the Form No. 6 and the declaration shall be in the Form No. 7 in the Appendix to these regulations.

(Form No. 8.)

- (n) When the recruit has signed the attestation form and declaration, the Head Warden shall forward the same to the Civil Defence Council, and issue to the recruit who has signed the same a card of acceptance in the Form No. 8 in the Appendix to these regulations.
- (o) On receipt of the attestation form and declaration the Civil Defence Council shall authorise the Head Warden to issue to the recruit who has signed the same, the prescribed Certificate of Authority and also issue to him the prescribed badge of authority.

(Form No. 9.)

- (p) The certificate provided for in paragraph (o) hereof shall be in the Form No. 9 in the Appendix to these regulations, and the badge of authority shall be of such material and design as the Council may from time to time determine and notify in the Government Gazette.

Instructors.

31. (1) Instructors may be classified as:—

- (a) Instructors; and
(b) Special Staff Instructors.

(2) Persons appointed as instructors shall be authorised to give instruction in air raid precautions locally in the district to which they are assigned.

(3) Persons appointed as Special Staff Instructors shall be authorised to give instruction in air raid precautions throughout those areas of the State to which these regulations apply.

(Form No. 10.)

32. Any person seeking appointment as an instructor or as a Special Staff Instructor shall make application in writing to the Chief Warden in the Form No. 10 in the Appendix to these regulations, and thereafter the following provisions shall apply:—

- (a) If the applicant is not already a member of the Civil Defence Forces the Chief Warden shall forward the application to the Head Warden of the district in which the applicant resides, and the applicant shall be deemed to be an applicant for enrolment within the meaning of regulation 30 hereof.

- (b) If the applicant is already a member of the Civil Defence Forces, the Chief Warden shall obtain from the Head Warden of the district in which the applicant is a member of the Civil Defence Forces as aforesaid, a report as to his qualifications and suitability for appointment as Instructor or Special Staff Instructor, as the case may be.
- (c) Upon receipt of the report from the Head Warden concerning an applicant mentioned in paragraph (b) hereof, the Chief Warden may grant or refuse the application as he thinks fit.

(Forms No. 11 and 12.)

33. Whenever a person is appointed as an Instructor or as a Special Staff Instructor, the Chief Warden shall issue to him a certificate in the Form No. 11 or the Form No. 12 in the Appendix to these regulations, as the case may require.

Cards and Badges of Authority.

34. (1) Every member of the Civil Defence Forces shall, when exercising his powers or carrying out his duties, wear in a conspicuous place his badge of authority, and carry his certificate of authority ready for immediate production.

(2) Every member, if requested so to do, when exercising his powers or carrying out his duties, shall produce his certificate of authority to the person making the request.

(3) Every certificate of authority issued to a member of the Civil Defence Forces shall bear the signature of the recipient and be signed by the Head Warden in whose district such member is authorised to exercise his powers or carry out his duties as aforesaid.

35. The Head Warden of every district shall keep a true and correct record of all badges of authority and certificates of authority issued to members of the Civil Defence Forces in his district.

36. The wearing of the badge of authority and the production of the certificate of authority, as provided for in regulation 34 hereof, shall be prima facie evidence that the person wearing the badge and producing the card aforesaid is a member of the Civil Defence Forces, and is duly authorised to exercise the powers and carry out the duties of the office stated in the said certificate of authority.

37. All badges of authority and certificates of authority issued to members of the Civil Defence Forces shall be and remain the property of the Council, and shall be returned to the Council if and when demanded by the Council, or, when the person to whom the same were issued, for any reason ceases to be a member of the Civil Defence Forces.

38. (1) No person, not being a member of the Civil Defence Forces, shall wear or have in his possession any badge of authority or certificate of authority issued under these regulations.

(2) If any person, not being a member of the Civil Defence Forces, wears or has in his possession any badge of authority or certificate of authority issued under these regulations, he shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations within the meaning of section 12 of the Act.

(3) Where any person, not being a member of the Civil Defence Forces, is found wearing or in possession of a badge of authority or a certificate of authority issued under these regulations, such badge and certificate or such badge or such certificate, as the case may be, may be taken from the person in whose possession they are found and be returned to the Council.

PART III.—DUTIES OF OCCUPIERS OF DWELLINGS AND FLATS.

39. (1) The occupier of every dwelling or flat of any kind soever, when requested so to do by a Warden or other duly authorised officer in the Civil Defence Forces, shall furnish to such Warden or other officer, to the best of his knowledge and ability, all such information as the Council may require in relation to such occupier and to such dwelling or flat.

(2) Such information may be asked for in the form of a written questionnaire tendered to the occupier from whom it is sought to obtain the information.

(3) If a written questionnaire be tendered to any such occupier, he shall fill in the answers and otherwise complete and sign the questionnaire and return the same to the Warden or other officer who tendered such written questionnaire to such occupier.

40. (1) All information obtained from an occupier of a dwelling or flat under the authority of regulation 39 hereof shall be treated as being strictly confidential and be used for civil defence purposes only.

(2) If the Warden or other officer who obtains any information from an occupier of a dwelling or flat communicates or reveals any of such information to any person otherwise than properly in the course of his official duties as a member of the Civil Defence Forces, he shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations within the meaning of section 12 of the Act.

41. If any occupier of any dwelling or flat without reasonable excuse:—

- (a) refuses, when lawfully requested so to do, to give any information which in accordance with regulation 39 he is required to give; or
- (b) gives any such information which is in any respect untrue or incorrect he shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations, within the meaning of section 12 of the Act.

PART IV.—LIGHTING RESTRICTIONS.

42. (1) The Council may at any time, and from time to time, order a trial black-out to be carried out in such districts or district, or in such part of a district as may be specified in such order, and that such black-out shall continue during such period as shall be stated in the order.

(2) Every order made by the Council for a trial black-out shall be published at least twenty-four hours before such black-out is to commence in such one or more daily newspapers, and in such other manner as the Council may in each case or from time to time determine.

(3) Every such order shall have effect during the period during which the trial black-out is to be carried out and continued in such districts or district or part of a district specified in the order.

43. During the conduct of a trial black-out the following provisions shall apply and be observed and complied with in the districts or district or part of a district in which the black-out is being conducted, that is to say:—

- (a) all public lighting which is not under remote control in a manner approved by the Council, shall be and remain switched off or otherwise discontinued;
- (b) all electric lamps and other illuminants used for exterior lighting, and all illuminated signs, shall be and remain extinguished, and for the purposes of this paragraph the expression "electric lamps and other illuminants" includes neon and other advertising signs, flood-lighting, white way lighting, shop verandah lighting, lighting of alley-ways and cart docks, entrances, watchmen's lights, verandah and porch lights in private dwellings, and all forms of lighting in areas used for night sports;
- (c) all interior lighting shall be extinguished and remain so extinguished unless all windows, fanlights, skylights and other light openings are screened by opaque coverings in such a manner that no light can be seen from outside and remain so screened;
- (d) the occupier of any premises in or upon or in relation to which there is any exterior or interior lighting shall be responsible for the due compliance with the provisions of this regulation with regard to the same;

Provided that, where the means of extinguishing any such lighting are not available to such occupier, the person having the care or control of such lighting shall be responsible for the compliance aforesaid;

- (e) the driver or person for the time being in charge of any vehicle of any kind or description (including a bicycle) which is in or upon any road, street, or way, shall—
 - (i) forthwith extinguish and keep so extinguished all lights (other than a tail light) which is on or upon such vehicle; and
 - (ii) cause such vehicle to remain stationary upon the left hand side of such road, street, or way;

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to any of the vehicles, enumerated hereunder, if they are fitted with a contrivance, approved for the purposes of this paragraph by the Council, for the purpose of dimming lights on such vehicles, that is to say—

- (a) vehicles approved by the Council for use in air raid precautions;
- (b) vehicles approved by the Council for use for ambulance services;
- (c) vehicles of every description, including railway engines, rolling stock, trams, trolley buses, buses, trailers of the following bodies—
 - (i) Western Australian Government Railways;
 - (ii) Western Australian Fire Brigades Board;
 - (iii) Police Department;
 - (iv) Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage, and Drainage Department;
 - (v) Postmaster General's Department;
 - (vi) Western Australian Government Tramways, Ferries, and Electricity Supply Departments;
 - (vii) City of Perth Electricity and Gas Department;
 - (viii) Fremantle Municipal Tramways and Electric Lighting Board;
 - (ix) vehicles of other Government Departments and local governing authorities which are from time to time exempted by the Council from the operation of this paragraph of this regulation; and
 - (x) such other vehicles as may from time to time be specified by the Council by notice published in the Government Gazette.
- (f) no supplier of electricity or gas, and no local governing body or other public statutory corporation shall incur any liability of any kind whatsoever, either civil or criminal, or be deemed to have broken or failed to carry out any contract or agreement by reason only of anything done pursuant to these regulations or to any order, request, direction, or instruction made or given under these regulations.

44. During the conduct of any trial black-out—

- (a) every supplier of electricity, gas, or other lighting shall, on receipt of notice from the Council requiring him or it so to do, have power to disconnect or otherwise discontinue the supply of electricity, gas, or other lighting to any premises the occupier of which fails in any respect to comply with his obligations under regulation 43 hereof.

(b) any member of the Police Force and any Air Raid Warden may:—

- (i) at any time, and if necessary by force, enter any premises from, on, or in which any light is emitted contrary to regulation 43 hereof;
- (ii) extinguish or obscure any fire, lamp, sign, or other device from which light is being emitted in contravention of regulation 43 aforesaid;
- (iii) extinguish or obscure any light which is emitted from any building in contravention of regulation 43 aforesaid.

45. Any person who, without the authority of the Council, produces or causes to be produced from any siren or other device, or makes or causes to be made, any sound in any way resembling any air raid warning which may be sounded in relation to or in connection with any trial black-out conducted by or under the authority of the Council shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations within the meaning of section 12 of the Act.

46. Any person who in any respect contravenes or fails in any respect to comply with any obligation imposed upon him by the regulations contained in this Part of these regulations shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations within the meaning of section twelve of the Act.

47. When air raids by any hostile force are impending, or are by the Council believed to be impending, the Council may by order to be published or brought under the notice of the public in such manner as the Council may deem sufficient, direct that black-outs shall be conducted between sunset and sunrise on every day until such order is revoked, and when such order is made, and until it is revoked, all the regulations in this Part relating to trial black-outs and the conduct thereof shall apply and have effect in relation to such black-outs.

PART V.—INTERNAL SECTORS.

48. For the purposes of the regulations contained in this Part:—

“Internal sector” includes every establishment or organisation, whether owned or conducted by an individual, firm, or corporation, other than a Government department or Government instrumentality, in which there is an average attendance daily of more than fifty persons, including officers, employees, servants, customers, tenants, lodgers and other persons.

“Owner” means the owner or the managing or controlling authority of an internal sector.

49. (1) The owner of every internal sector carried on in those districts or portions of the State to which these regulations apply shall cause such internal sector to be registered with the Council.

(2) An internal sector existing at the time when this Part of these regulations comes into operation shall be registered within twenty-eight days after the coming into operation of this Part.

(3) An internal sector which is established after this Part of these regulations comes into operation shall be registered within twenty-eight days after the date upon which such internal sector is established.

(4) Registration of an internal sector shall be effected by the owner thereof lodging with the Council a notice in writing in the Form No. 13 in the Appendix to these regulations, and by the Council entering in a register book, to be kept for the purpose, a memorandum of the particulars contained in such notice.

(5) Upon an internal sector being registered in accordance with this regulation, the Council shall cause to be issued a certificate of registration, in the Form No. 14 in the Appendix to these regulations, to the owner of such internal sector.

(6) Any owner of an internal sector who fails or neglects to comply with the requirements of this regulation shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations within the meaning of section twelve of the Act.

50. It shall be the duty of the owner of every internal sector, if requested by the Council so to do, to make provision in relation to such internal sector in respect of the following matters in connection with air raid precautions, that is to say—

- (a) planning the organisation of air raid precautions;
- (b) appointment of the necessary personnel;
- (c) training of such personnel;
- (d) the acquisition and maintenance of necessary materials and equipment;
- and
- (e) the actual institution of precautionary measures.

Provided that:

- (i) the Council may exempt the owner of an internal sector, for such time as it thinks fit, from his obligation under this regulation to make provision for any one or more of the matters aforesaid; and
- (ii) every provision made by an owner in accordance with this regulation shall be subject to the approval of the Council and shall be made and maintained in a manner satisfactory to the Council.

51. (1) The air raid precautions personnel of an internal sector shall include—

- (a) an officer who shall be responsible for the organisation of air raid precautions in connection with such internal sector and who shall be called the Internal Sector Control Officer;
- (b) internal sector wardens;
- (c) first aid parties;
- (d) fire parties;
- (e) fire watchers;
- (f) messengers; and
- (g) any other parties or persons as the Council may from time to time deem necessary, and direct the appointment or creation thereof.

(2) the Internal Sector Control Officer of every internal sector shall be appointed by the owner of the internal sector, subject to such appointment being confirmed by the Chief Warden.

(3) The number of persons to constitute a first aid party, or a fire party, and the number of first aid parties and of fire parties to be established in an internal sector, and the number of fire watchers and messengers to be appointed for an internal sector, shall be in accordance with a scale or scheme to be determined from time to time by the Chief Warden and to be approved by the Council.

52. The duties of the Internal Sector Control Officer of an internal sector shall include the making of necessary arrangements within the internal sector in connection with the following matters, namely:—

- (a) restriction of lighting;
- (b) internal air raid warnings;
- (c) internal shelter;
- (d) safety of essential records and machinery;
- (e) fire precautions; and
- (f) protection against the effect of incendiary bombs and of the blast and splinters of high explosive bombs.

53. It shall be the duty of the Internal Sector Control Officer, and of every member of the personnel of every internal sector, to attend and undertake such courses of instruction as may be organised or arranged by or under the authority of the Council for the purpose of training them in their respective duties.

54. Whenever a national emergency is proclaimed, and whilst it continues, the owner of every internal sector which is declared by the Council to be affected by such national emergency, shall cause the fire watchers and messengers appointed for such internal sector to be on duty therein during every night, between the hours of sunset and sunrise, and also during the day, on Saturdays and Sundays, in such numbers or on such shifts as shall conform with a scale to be recommended from time to time by the Chief Officer of Fire Brigades in Western Australia.

55. It shall be the duty of the owner of every internal sector—

- (a) to construct and maintain therein such shelters, of such number, size, and character as the Council may require and direct to be constructed;
- (b) to institute and maintain such schemes of camouflage for concealing the buildings and premises of the internal sector from observation from the air as may be considered necessary and be required by the Council or the Commonwealth Defence Authorities.

56. Subject to any financial assistance which may be provided by the Council or the Governments of the Commonwealth, or of the State, the cost and expense of establishing and maintaining air raid precautions, of providing equipment, of constructing shelters, of instituting and maintaining a scheme of camouflage, and of carrying out any other obligation of the owner under these regulations, shall be borne and paid by the owner of the internal sector in which the various matters aforesaid are carried out.

57. The arrangements for the restriction of lighting in an internal sector shall include the necessary survey and taking measurements of material required to obscure windows, skylights, shop fronts, and doorways.

58. The arrangements for internal warnings shall include—

- (a) the planning of an internal warning system by means of lights, buzzers, bells, or other methods; and
- (b) the assignment to particular persons of the responsibility for giving internal warning on hearing a public warning.

59. The arrangements for the provision of internal shelters shall include—

- (a) a survey of the places in or about the premises of the internal sector where the employees, servants, customers, tenants, or boarders and other persons in such premises can be sheltered; and
- (b) measures—
 - (i) for the avoidance of the concentration of more than fifty persons in any one place;
 - (ii) for the protection against flying glass from shop fronts, windows, and internal glass partitions;
 - (iii) for the supervision of internal traffic by internal sector wardens; and
- (c) the arrangement of orders for action stations to be given to persons within the premises of the internal sector, and the specification of the routes to be followed to such action stations by such persons in order to avoid undue congestion.

60. The arrangements for the safety of essential records and machinery shall include—

- (a) measures for the protection of essential records and machinery against fire and explosion; and
- (b) the provision of safes, strongrooms, and other places of safe deposit for records, and of sandbags, sand boxes, and other protective screens for machinery.

61. The arrangements for fire precautions shall include—

- (a) the regular overhaul of fire equipment at frequent intervals; and
- (b) the avoidance of the accumulation of inflammable material.

62. (1) If any owner of an internal sector shall fail or neglect in any respect duly to carry out any obligation imposed upon him by any of the regulations contained in this Part—

- (a) he shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations within the meaning of section twelve of the Act; and

(b) the Council may cause to be done or performed any act, matter or thing in relation to which such owner is in default as aforesaid.

(2) The Council when exercising its power under subparagraph (b) of paragraph (1) of this regulation may employ or engage such servants, contractors and agents as it may deem necessary for the purpose of exercising its said powers, and such servants, contractors and agents may enter the premises of the internal sector (if necessary by force) in order to do or perform the Act, matter or thing which they have been employed or engaged by the Council to do on such premises.

(3) Any cost or expense incurred by the Council in the exercise of its power under subparagraph (b) of paragraph (1) of this regulation in any internal sector shall be a debt owing to the Council by the owner of such internal sector, and as such shall be recoverable from such owner at the suit of the chairman of the Council in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Under Secretary for Lands.

LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder are available for selection under Part V. of the Land Act, 1933-1939, and the regulations appertaining thereto, subject to the provisions of the said Act.

Applications must be lodged at the Land Agency Office as specified hereunder not later than the date specified, but may be lodged before such date if so desired.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block, the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board. Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person he may apply to the Head Office or to the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station will entitle him to a Return Ticket, at Concession Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

All marketable timber, including sandalwood and mallet, is reserved to the Crown, subject to the provisions of clause 18 of the regulations.

Carnarvon Municipal Council.

Department of Public Works,
Perth, 15th October, 1941.
P.W. 536/34.
IT is hereby notified, for general information, that His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has approved of the purchase of an additional lighting plant as an undertaking for which money may be borrowed under Part XXIV. of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1906-1939, by the Carnarvon Municipal Council.

(Sgd.) W. S. ANDREW,
Under Secretary for Public Works.

MUNICIPALITY OF CARNARVON.

Notice of Intention to Borrow £1,350.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Council of the Municipality of Carnarvon proposes to borrow the sum of £1,350 (one thousand three hundred and fifty pounds), to be expended on works and undertakings within the Municipality of Carnarvon, the said works and undertakings being the purchase and erection of electric light plant.

The plans and specifications of such works, and estimate of the cost thereof and a statement showing the proposed expenditure of the money to be borrowed, including the cost of supervision and initial expenditure in connection with the raising of the loan, have been prepared and are open for inspection at the Offices of the Municipality of Carnarvon for one month from publication hereof, between the hours of 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on week days and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

The amount of £1,350 is proposed to be raised by the sale of debentures, repayable with interest by 30 equal half-yearly instalments over a period of 15 years from the date of the issue thereof, in lieu of the formation of a sinking fund.

The debentures shall bear interest at the rate of $4\frac{1}{4}$ per centum per annum, payable half-yearly.

The amount of the said debentures and interest thereon is to be paid at the Offices of the City of Perth, Murray street, Perth.

Dated the 4th day of October, 1941.

THE METROPOLITAN MILK ACT, 1932-1939.

Department of Agriculture,
Perth, 15th October, 1941.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve of the annexed new regulation made under the Metropolitan Milk Act, 1932-1939, by the Minister for Agriculture.

(Signed) G. K. BARON HAY,
Acting Under Secretary for Agriculture.

The following new regulation is added after regulation 105 as published in the Government Gazette on the 9th day of June, 1939:—

106. (1) The Board may at any time, and from time to time, if satisfied that the requirements of milk vendors or of consumers in the metropolitan area so warrant, invite by advertisement in a daily newspaper circulating in any dairy area applications from licensed dairymen in that dairy area for permission to sell to milk vendors and/or to consumers in the metropolitan area milk of his own production in excess of his maximum daily quantity.

(2) Such advertisement shall fix a date, being not less than fourteen days from the date of the first advertisement within which such applications shall be lodged with the Board. Such applications shall be in such form and contain such information as the Board may require and in particular shall state:—

(a) the minimum daily quantity of milk of his own production in excess of his maximum daily quantity the applicant will have available for sale to milk vendors and/or consumers in the metropolitan area during any period or periods specified in such advertisement.

(b) the daily quantity of milk which the applicant desires permission to sell to milk vendors and/or to consumers in the metropolitan area in excess of his maximum daily quantity.

(3) After consideration of the applications received in respect of any advertisement the Board may in its discretion grant to any applicant permission in writing to sell daily to milk vendors and/or to consumers in the metropolitan area such quantity of milk of his own production in excess of his maximum daily quantity as the Board may think fit.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of regulation 99 a dairyman to whom such written permission as aforesaid shall have been given may, until the same shall be revoked as hereinafter mentioned, supply or sell on any day to milk vendors and/or to consumers in the metropolitan area any quantity of milk of his own production not exceeding the aggregate of his maximum daily quantity and the quantity specified in such written permission.

(5) The Board may at any time by notice in writing forwarded by registered post to any dairyman revoke the permission given to such dairyman under this regulation to supply or sell milk in excess of his maximum daily quantity.

IN THE COURT OF ARBITRATION OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

No. 20 of 1941.

Between Federated Clerks' Union of Australia Industrial Union of Workers, W.A. Branch, Applicant, and Henry Wills & Co., Ltd., and others, Respondents.

WHEREAS an industrial dispute existed between the abovenamed parties: And whereas the said dispute was referred into Court for the purpose of hearing and determination: And whereas the parties subsequently met and conferred and have arrived at agreement on all matters in difference: And whereas the parties have this day appeared before the Court by their respective representatives and requested the Court to declare the said agreement an Award: Now, therefore, the Court, pursuant to section 63 of the Act and all other powers therein enabling it, hereby declares the memorandum hereunder written to have the same effect as and be deemed an Award of the Court:—

Memorandum of Agreement.

(Note:—Wherever the word "Award" occurs herein it shall be taken to mean and include "Agreement.")

1.—Area.

This Award shall be limited in its effect to the area comprised within a radius of seven (7) miles from the Post Office, Albany.

2.—Scope.

This Award shall apply to all workers employed as clerks (including telephone attendants and messengers, where such workers do clerical work) in wholesale establishments carrying on the industries mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto.

3.—Definition.

"Wholesale establishment" shall mean any ware house or place where goods are exclusively or principally sold for resale and/or where goods are sold for consumption and/or use in another business.

4.—Hours.

Forty-four (44) hours shall constitute a week's work.

5.—Overtime.

(a) All time worked in excess of eight (8) hours each day or after 6 o'clock p.m., from Mondays to Fridays inclusive, shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three (3) hours and double time thereafter.

(b) All time worked on Sundays or on the holidays prescribed in clause 8 hereof, or after 1 p.m. on Saturdays, shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause, a clerk in receipt of a salary at the rate of three hundred and twelve pounds (£312) per annum or over shall not be entitled to payment for overtime.

(d) In the event of the half-holiday being altered to some day other than a Saturday, the provisions of this clause shall be construed so as to conform with such alteration.

6.—Meal Money.

When a worker, without being notified on the previous day, is required to continue working after the usual knock-off time for more than one hour, he shall be provided with any meal required, or shall be paid one shilling and sixpence (1s. 6d.) in lieu thereof.

7.—Wages.

(a) Basic wage—Males, £4 10s. 10d.; females, £2 9s. 1d. per week.

(b) Junior Workers:

	Males, % of Male Basic Wage per Week.	Females, % of Female Basic Wage per Week.
First six months' experience	16.5	30.5
Second six months' experience	22.5	42.0
Second year's experience	31.5	55.5
Third year's experience	45.0	67.0
Fourth year's experience	61.0	90.5
Fifth year's experience	76.5	Margin 5s. 9d.
Sixth year's experience	91.5	Margin 11s. 0d.
Thereafter until 21 years of age	Margin 2s. 9d.	Margin 16s. 3d.

(c) Adults:

	Males Margin per Week. £ s. d.	Females Margin per Week. s. d.
At 21 years of age	0 7 10	16 3
At 22 years of age	0 14 1	16 3
At 23 years of age and over	0 19 4	16 3

(d) Senior male clerks (classified as such by agreement or, in default of agreement, by the Board of Reference)

1 10 0

(e) Female ledger-keepers (classified as such by agreement or, in default of agreement, by the Board of Reference) shall receive the prescribed male rate: Provided that female ledger-posting machine operators, namely, females who operate ledger-posting machines, posting into ledger accounts and taking out the balances of such ledger, shall not necessarily be classed as ledger-keepers.

(f) Casual clerks may be employed at an hourly rate for a lesser period than two (2) weeks, and shall be paid, while so employed, twenty-five (25) per cent. in addition to the rates prescribed above, with a minimum engagement of four (4) hours.

8.—Holidays.

The following days, or the days observed in lieu, shall be observed as holidays and paid for, namely:—New Year's Day, Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and Albany Cup Day (after 12 o'clock).

Provided that, if a worker is required to work on any of these days because the factory is working, such work may be paid for at ordinary rates, and some other day, to be agreed upon between the employer and the worker, shall be granted in lieu thereof.

9.—Annual Leave.

(a) Workers other than casual workers shall be entitled to two (2) weeks' annual leave on full pay.

(b) A worker not completing a year of service shall be granted pay in lieu of holidays in the proportion that his length of service bears to the full year's employment.

(c) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay in accordance with the provisions of clause 13 hereof, or when on annual leave in accordance with sub-clause (a) of this clause, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

(d) A worker who is summarily dismissed for misconduct or dereliction of duty, or who illegally severs his contract of service, shall lose all rights under this clause.

10.—Engagement.

The employment of any worker shall be terminable by one (1) week's notice on either side: Provided that an employer may at any time dismiss a worker for refusal or neglect to obey orders, or for misconduct, or if, after receiving one week's notice, such worker does not carry out his duties in the same manner as he did prior to such notice.

11.—Reference.

A reference shall, if required, be given to any worker of not less than three (3) months' service, containing all necessary information in regard to length of service and duties performed.

12.—Record.

Readily intelligible records shall be kept by each employer, in which shall be entered the name of each worker to whom this Award applies, the age of the worker, the length of experience, the nature of the work performed, the hours worked each day and the amount of wages received each week. The employer and the worker shall be severally responsible for the proper posting of the records each week. The said records shall be open to the inspection of an accredited representative of the union, during usual office hours, not more than once in each week: Provided that the employer, when required by the representative of the union, shall extend the period of inspection beyond the one day so as to enable the union representative to complete his inspection.

13.—Payment for Sickness.

A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance, on the ground of personal ill-health, for one-half (½) day for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to six (6) days (i.e., one (1) week's pay) in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default, or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

14.—Higher Duties.

A worker relieving a senior clerk and performing the major portion of his duties for a period of not less than two (2) weeks continuously shall be paid the higher minimum rate appropriate to the position whilst so employed.

15.—Proportion of Juniors.

The proportion of juniors that may be employed in the industry to which this Award relates shall be:—

(a) Male juniors—

(i) Where no male worker in receipt of the minimum adult wage is employed, one (1) junior male may be employed;

- (ii) Where the number of male workers in receipt of the minimum adult wage does not exceed five (5), an equal number of junior male workers may be employed;
- (iii) Where the number of male workers in receipt of the minimum adult wage exceeds five (5), an increased number of junior males may be employed in the proportion of one (1) to two (2) in respect of the number over five (5).
- (b) Female juniors—
- (i) Where no male worker in receipt of the minimum adult wage is employed, one junior female may be employed;
- (ii) Where no female worker in receipt of the minimum adult wage is employed, junior females, in the proportion of one to each male in receipt of the minimum adult wage, may be employed;
- (iii) Where the number of female workers in receipt of the minimum adult wage does not exceed twelve (12), the proportion of junior females that may be employed shall not exceed two (2) to one (1);
- (iv) Where the number of female workers in receipt of the minimum adult wage exceeds twelve (12), the proportion of junior females that may be employed in respect of the excess shall not exceed three (3) to each two (2) females in receipt of the minimum adult wage.

In computing the number of junior workers to be allowed under this clause, all clerical workers in the establishment shall be taken into consideration.

16.—Junior Worker's Certificate.

Junior workers, upon being engaged, shall, if required, furnish the employer with a certificate containing the following particulars:—

- (i) Name in full;
- (ii) Age and date of birth;
- (iii) Name of each previous employer;
- (iv) Length of service with each previous employer;
- (v) Class of work performed for each previous employer.

Such of the above particulars as are within the knowledge of an employer shall be indorsed on the certificate and signed by the employer upon request by the worker.

No worker shall have any claim upon an employer for additional pay, in the event of his age or length of service with previous employers being wilfully misstated in the certificate, and he alone shall be guilty of a breach of this Award.

Any such certificate shall be open for inspection by the union representative during his inspection of the Time and Wages Record.

17.—Under-rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for or be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

18.—Board of Reference.

The Court hereby appoints, for the purpose of this Award, a Board or Boards of Reference. Each Board shall consist of a chairman and two other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties, as prescribed by the regulations. There are assigned to each such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the Award, the functions of:—

- (i) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Award or any of them;
- (ii) classifying and fixing wages, rates, and conditions for any occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in the Award;
- (iii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board, in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, which for this purpose are embodied in this Award.

19.—No Reduction.

Nothing in this Award shall in itself operate to reduce the wage of any worker below the rate actually received by him at the date hereof.

20.—Term.

The term of this Award shall be for a period of three (3) years from midnight, 19th September, 1941.

I certify, pursuant to section 63 of the "Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, that the foregoing is a copy of the Agreement arrived at between the parties mentioned above.

Dated at Perth this 23rd day of September, 1941.

IN THE COURT OF ARBITRATION OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

No. 20a of 1941.

Between Federated Clerks' Union of Australia Industrial Union of Workers, W.A. Branch, Applicant, and E. Barnett & Co., Ltd., and others, Respondents.

WHEREAS an industrial dispute existed between the abovenamed parties: And whereas the said dispute was referred into Court for the purpose of hearing and determination: And whereas the parties subsequently met and conferred and have arrived at agreement on all matters in difference: And whereas the parties have this day appeared before the Court by their respective representatives and requested the Court to declare the said Agreement an Award: Now, therefore, the Court, pursuant to section 63 of the Act and all other powers therein enabling it hereby declares the memorandum hereunder written to have the same effect as and be deemed an Award of the Court:—

Memorandum of Agreement.

(Note:—Wherever the word "Award" occurs herein it shall be taken to mean and include "Agreement.")

1.—Area.

This Award shall be limited in its effect to the area comprised within a radius of seven (7) miles from the Post Office, Albany.

2.—Scope.

This Award shall apply to all workers employed as clerks (including telephone attendants and messengers where such workers do clerical work) in retail establishments carrying on the industries mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto.

3.—Definition.

“Retail establishment” shall mean any establishment where retail mercantile business is exclusively or principally carried on.

4.—Hours.

Forty-six (46) hours for male workers and forty-four (44) hours for female workers shall constitute a week's work.

5.—Overtime.

(a) All time worked in excess of eight (8) hours thirty (30) minutes each day in the case of males and eight (8) hours each day in the case of females, or after 6 o'clock p.m. in either case, from Mondays to Fridays, inclusive, shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three (3) hours and double time thereafter.

(b) All time worked on Sundays or on the holidays prescribed in clause 8 hereof, or after 1 p.m. on Saturdays, shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause, a clerk in receipt of a salary at the rate of three hundred and twelve pounds (£312) per annum or over shall not be entitled to payment for overtime.

(d) In the event of the half-holiday being altered to some day other than a Saturday, the provisions of this clause shall be construed so as to conform with such alteration.

(e) On the day mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto to be observed as Christmas Eve for the purpose of a late shopping night the ordinary hours of work prescribed in clause 4 may be extended by agreement between the parties, and such extended hours shall not be regarded as overtime.

6.—Meal Money.

When a worker, without being notified on the previous day, is required to continue working after the usual knock-off time for more than one hour, he shall be provided with any meal required, or shall be paid one shilling and sixpence (1s. 6d.) in lieu thereof.

7.—Wages.

(a) Basic wage—Males, £4 10s. 10d.; females, £2 9s. 1d. per week.

	Males. % of Male Basic Wage per Week.	Females. % of Female Basic Wage per Week.
(b) Junior workers:
Between 14 and 15 years of age	18.5	—
Between 15 and 16 years of age	22.5	34.0
Between 16 and 17 years of age	29.5	41.0
Between 17 and 18 years of age	37.0	54.5
Between 18 and 19 years of age	50.0	65.5
Between 19 and 20 years of age	61.5	83.0
Between 20 and 21 years of age	80.0	Margin 4s. 11d.
	Margin per Week.	Margin per Week.
(c) Adults:
At 21 years of age ..	7s. 10d.	16s. 3d.
At 22 years of age ..	14s. 1d.	16s. 3d.
At 23 years of age and over	19s. 4d.	16s. 3d.

(d) Female ledger-keepers (classified as such by agreement or, in default of agreement, by the Board of Reference) shall receive the prescribed male rate: Provided that female ledger-posting machine operators, namely, females who operate ledger-posting machines, posting into ledger accounts and taking out the balances of such ledger, shall not necessarily be classed as ledger-keepers.

(e) Casual clerks may be employed at an hourly rate for a lesser period than two (2) weeks, and shall be paid, while so employed, twenty-five (25) per cent. in addition to the rates prescribed above, with a minimum engagement of four (4) hours.

8.—Holidays.

The following days, or the days observed in lieu, shall be observed as holidays and paid for, namely:—New Year's Day, Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

9.—Annual Leave.

(a) Workers, other than casual workers, shall be entitled to one week's annual leave on full pay.

(b) A worker not completing a year of service shall be granted pay in lieu of holidays in the proportion that his length of service bears to the full year's employment.

(c) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay in accordance with the provisions of clause 12 hereof, or when on annual leave in accordance with subclause (a) of this clause, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

(d) A worker who is summarily dismissed for misconduct or dereliction of duty, or who illegally severs his contract of service, shall lose all rights under this clause.

10.—Engagement.

The employment of any worker shall be terminable by one (1) week's notice on either side: Provided that an employer may at any time dismiss a worker for refusal or neglect to obey orders, or for misconduct, or if after receiving one week's notice, such worker does not carry out his duties in the same manner as he did prior to such notice.

11.—Reference.

A Reference shall, if required, be given to any worker of not less than three (3) months' service, containing all necessary information in regard to length of service and duties performed.

12.—Record.

Readily intelligible records shall be kept by each employer, in which shall be entered the name of each worker to whom this Award applies, the age of the worker, the length of experience, the nature of the work performed, the hours worked each day and the amount of wages received each week. The employer and the worker shall be severally responsible for the proper posting of the records each week. The said records shall be open to the inspection of an accredited representative of the union, during usual office hours, not more than once in each week: Provided that the employee when required by the representative of the union, shall extend the period of inspection beyond the one day: as to enable the union representative to complete his inspection.

13.—Payment for Sickness.

A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance, on the ground of personal ill-health, for one-half (½) day for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to six (6) days (i.e., one (1) week pay) in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wage from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default, or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

14.—Proportion of Juniors.

The proportion of juniors that may be employed in the industry to which this Award relates shall be:—

(a) Male juniors—

- (i) Where no male worker in receipt of the minimum adult wage is employed, one (1) junior male may be employed;
- (ii) Where the number of male workers in receipt of the minimum adult wage does not exceed five (5), an equal number of junior male workers may be employed;
- (iii) Where the number of male workers in receipt of the minimum adult wage exceeds five (5) an increased number of junior males may be employed in the proportion of one (1) to two (2) in respect of the number over five (5).

(b) Female juniors—

- (i) Where no male worker in receipt of the minimum adult wage is employed, one junior female may be employed;
- (ii) Where no female worker in receipt of the minimum adult wage is employed, junior females, in the proportion of one to each male in receipt of the minimum adult wage, may be employed;
- (iii) Where the number of female workers in receipt of the minimum adult wage does not exceed twelve (12), the proportion of junior females that may be employed shall not exceed two (2) to one (1);
- (iv) Where the number of female workers in receipt of the minimum adult wage exceeds twelve (12), the proportion of junior females that may be employed in respect of the excess shall not exceed three (3) to each two (2) females in receipt of the minimum adult wage.

In computing the number of junior workers to be allowed under this clause, all clerical workers in the establishment shall be taken into consideration.

15.—Junior Worker's Certificate.

Junior workers, upon being engaged, shall, if required, furnish the employer with a certificate containing the following particulars:—

- (i) Name in full;
- (ii) Age and date of birth;
- (iii) Name of each previous employer;
- (iv) Length of service with each previous employer;
- (v) Class of work performed for each previous employer.

Such of the above particulars as are within the knowledge of an employer shall be indorsed on the certificate and signed by the employer upon request by the worker.

No worker shall have any claim upon an employer for additional pay, in the event of his age or length of service with previous employers being wilfully misstated in the certificate, and he alone shall be guilty of a breach of this Award.

Any such certificate shall be open for inspection by the union representative during his inspection of the time and wages record.

16.—Under-rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for or be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

17.—Board of Reference.

The Court hereby appoints, for the purpose of this Award, a Board or Boards of Reference. Each Board shall consist of a chairman and two other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties, as prescribed by the regulations. There are assigned to each such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the Award, the functions of:—

- (i) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Award or any of them;
- (ii) classifying and fixing wages, rates, and conditions for any occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in the Award;
- (iii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board, in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, which for this purpose are embodied in this Award.

18.—No Reduction.

Nothing in this Award shall in itself operate to reduce the wage of any worker below the rate actually received by him at the date hereof.

19.—Term.

The term of this Award shall be for a period of three (3) years from midnight, 19th September, 1941.

I certify, pursuant to section 63 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1935, that the foregoing is a copy of the agreement arrived at between the parties mentioned above.

Dated at Perth this 23rd day of September, 1941.
