- (d) where the Returning Officer is not satisfied in relation to any one of the matters mentioned in paragraph (c) hereof, reject the sealed ballot paper envelope which accompanies the informal counterfoil;

74. (1) The Commissioner of Police may authorise any members of the Police Force to act as evacuation officers, and shall do so if and whenever requested by the Council so to do.

(2) The duties performed by a member of the Police Force, when acting as an evacuation officer shall, insofar as the conditions of his employment as a member of the Police Force are concerned, be deemed to be a part of the duties of his said employment.

(3) As and whenever the Commissioner of Police authorises any member of the Police Force to act as an evacuation officer he shall inform the Council thereof in writing and furnish the member of the Police Force so authorised with a certificate of authority signed by the Commissioner of Police.

75. Every evacuation officer, when carrying out his duties or exercising his powers under this Part, shall, if called upon so to do by any person affected by the acts of such evacuation officer, produce evidence of his authority, either in the form of his official badge or a certificate of appointment by the Council, or a certificate of authority by the Commissioner of Police, as the case may be.

76. (1) During the period of any emergency as proclaimed by the Governor General of the Commonwealth, or as declared by the Council or the Commonwealth Military Authorities in this State, any person residing in an evacuation area may be required by any evacuation officer to submit, and, when so required, shall submit, to evacuation from the evacuation area in such manner, at such time and to such place as may be directed by the evacuation officer.

(2) Where any person refuses to submit or in any manner resists or evades evacuation in contravention of this regulation, he shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations within the meaning of section twelve of the Act.

(3) Where any person, contrary to this regulation, in any respect disobeys or refuses to comply with any requisition of an evacuation officer under this regulation, it shall be the duty of any member of the Police Force, when called upon by the evacuation officer, and notwithstanding that he may not be authorised to act as an evacuation officer, to assist the evacuation officer in compelling the person offending as aforesaid to comply with the said requisition of the evacuation officer, and the evacuation officer and the member of the Police Force aforesaid may use such force against the person offending as aforesaid to compel compliance by him with the said requisition.

77. During the period of any emergency mentioned in regulation 76 of these regulations, every evacuation officer shall, for the purposes of evacuation, have power to requisition and take and use any vehicle, supplies of food, clothing, fuel, or other things and to enter into and take possession of and use any land, buildings, or other premises, the use of which he deems to be necessary in relation to the housing, transportation, maintenance, or comfort of evacuees.

Provided that this regulation shall not authorise the requisitioning, taking, or using of any vehicle which is employed in any service which the Council declares to be an essential service.

Provided that where the vehicle is a motor vehicle, the owner or person in control thereof shall not be required by the evacuation officer to drive such vehicle, unless such owner or person is supplied either by the evacuation officer or some other authority with such motor spirit or other fuel as is necessary for the use of such vehicle.

(2) Every receipt or acknowledgment given by an evacuation officer shall, as far as possible, state the nature, number or quantity, condition and value of the article, thing, or vehicle requisitioned.

80. An evacuation officer shall not be personally liable for any loss of or damage or injury to any article, thing, or vehicle which has been lawfully requisitioned by him under the authority of these regulations.

81. The property in any article, thing, or vehicle which is requisitioned by an evacuation officer under the authority of these regulations shall remain in the owner thereof, subject to the requisitioning thereof, and where any loss of or damage or injury to any such article or thing (other than fair wear and tear) is occasioned by negligence or wrongful conversion on the part of any evacuee who has the use of such article or thing, the owner of such article or thing shall be entitled to recover from such evacuee compensation in respect of such loss, damage, or injury in an action for tort.

82. When any article or thing or vehicle which has been requisitioned by an evacuation officer is no longer required for the purpose for which it has been requisitioned, such evacuation officer shall cause the same to be returned to the owner or other person from whom it was requisitioned.

83. (1) The Council may by resolution from time to time prescribe a scale of payments to be made by way of hire or rent in respect of any article or thing or vehicle which is requisitioned by an evacuation officer.

(2) The scale of payments prescribed by the Council under paragraph (1) of this regulation may also contain directions as to the times at which, the manner in which, and the place where the payments when payable shall be made.

(3) When the Council has prescribed a scale of payments as aforesaid, and whilst such scale continues in operation, the owner of any article or thing or vehicle which is requisitioned by an evacuation officer shall, whilst such article or thing or vehicle continues to be so requisitioned, be entitled to claim for and receive or recover as for a debt from the person or body liable under regulation 84 of these regulations, payment in accordance with the said scale for the hire or rent of the article or thing or vehicle which has been requisitioned as aforesaid.

- (ii) Where the article or thing is placed in the possession of an evacuee for use by such evacuee, and he satisfies the evacuation officer who requisitioned the same that he is without the means to pay—the Council.
- (iii) Where the article or thing is placed in the possession of the owner or occupier of any house, building, or premises in which any evacuee is billeted as the custodian thereof for use in such house, building, or premises—the owner or occupier of such house, building, or premises.

85. (1) The Council may at any time, and from time to time by notification in the Government Gazette declare that any defined portions of the State comprised within the districts to which these regulations apply shall be billeting areas for the purposes of this Part.

(2) Every house, building, and other premises situate within any billeting area declared as aforesaid which in the opinion of an evacuation officer is suitable as a place for accommodating evacuees shall be liable to be requisitioned under these regulations for the billeting of evacuees.

(3) Evacuees from any evacuation area may be billeted in any billeting area in any house, building, or other premises which in accordance with paragraph (2) of this regulation may be requisitioned by an evacuation officer for such purpose.

86. (1) Whenever any house, building, or other premises is requisitioned by an evacuation officer for the billeting of evacuees therein, the following provisions shall apply:—

- (b) Except in case of emergency or other special circumstances, the owner or occupier shall not be required to receive and accommodate any number of evacuees in excess of one evacuee for every room in the house, building, or other premises other than a kitchen, bathroom, or lavatory.
Provided that, for the purposes of this subparagraph, any inclosed verandah or balcony shall be deemed to be a room;
- (c) The owner or occupier shall provide for the evacuees received and accommodated by him—
  - (i) lodging of a reasonable standard, both as regards cleanliness, quality, and convenience to the satisfaction of an inspector appointed by the Council or by an evacuation authority; and
  - (ii) reasonable access to and use of facilities for cooking and for laundry;
- (d) The owner or occupier shall not be required to provide for the accommodation of the evacuees any beds, bedding, linen, or other furniture which is necessary for his own use or for the use of members of his family.

(2) If any owner or occupier shall in any respect, whether by act or omission, make any default in relation to any duty or obligation imposed upon him by this regulation, or shall by any false statement or misrepresentation or other act attempt to evade any such duty or obligation, he shall be guilty of a contravention of these regulations within the meaning of section twelve of the Act.

87. (1) Every owner or occupier in whose house, building, or other premises any evacuee is received and accommodated in accordance with these regulations shall, in respect of the lodging and accommodation provided for such evacuee, be entitled to claim and to receive and recover from the person or body liable to pay the same, as provided in paragraph (2) hereof, payment in accordance with the following scale—namely—

- (d) In the case of an adult female evacuee who is unmarried or a widow—such female evacuee.

Provided that—

- (ii) where, in accordance with paragraph (i) of this proviso, the Council makes to an owner or occupier entitled thereto any payment on behalf of an evacuee, or the husband or father of an evacuee, the amount so paid shall be a debt owing to the Council by the person on whose behalf the payment has been made.

88. The owner or occupier of any house, building, or other premises in which any evacuee is received and accommodated under these regulations shall not be under any duty to provide such evacuee with board or food, but it shall be competent for such owner or occupier to provide such evacuee with board or food, or with any other article or thing which the evacuee may require and which the owner or occupier is not liable under these regulations to provide, under or in pursuance of any contract or arrangement entered into or made between the owner or occupier on the one hand and the evacuee or any other person acting for or in the interest of the evacuee on the other hand.

89. (1) Every evacuee who is billeted in any house, building, or premises under these regulations shall at all times, when he is in such house, building, or premises, maintain good conduct and behaviour, refrain from doing any act, matter or thing which may be a nuisance, or otherwise be objectionable to other occupants in such house, building or premises and so comport himself as to cause the least possible trouble and inconvenience to the said other occupants.

The officer or authority receiving the report shall investigate the same, and, if satisfied as to the correctness thereof, may by notice relieve the owner or occupier of his obligation any longer to accommodate the evacuee in his house, building, or premises.

(4) When in accordance with paragraph (3) hereof an owner or occupier has been relieved of his obligation to accommodate an evacuee in his house, building, or other premises, such owner or occupier shall be entitled to call upon such evacuee to leave his house, building, or premises forthwith, and if the evacuee fails so to do, may call upon any evacuation officer or member of the Police Force to evict the evacuee from his house, building, or premises.

(5) The delivery by an owner or occupier to an evacuation officer or a member of the Police Force of the notice issued to him under paragraph (3) of this regulation, and the request of the owner or occupier that the evacuee named in the notice be evicted from his house, building, or premises, shall be sufficient warrant and authority to the evacuation officer or member of the Police Force to evict such evacuee from the house, building, or premises of the said owner or occupier, and, where the evacuee refuses voluntarily to leave such house, building, or premises, it shall be the duty of the evacuation officer or member of the Police Force to evict him therefrom if necessary by force.
