(b) The illness or injury which so entitles the employee to the benefits provided for in this clause shall be suffered while on duty and shall be:—

1. such as wholly to incapacitate him from performing his duty;
2. so far as can be ascertained, an illness or injury contracted or sustained whilst on duty in the service of the employer.

Provided that, if the illness or injury is due to his own wilful act or to his misbehaviour, the employee shall not be entitled to the benefits provided in this clause.

(b) Where any such incapacity arises through the wilful act or misconduct of the employee, or where a medical certificate is not furnished as required, or where the employee has already had sick leave with pay for a period of or periods aggregating two weeks during the preceding 12 months, the employee shall not be entitled to any pay for the period he is absent from duty.

(c) Upon the period of absence in any instance exceeding two weeks, or in the case of paragraph (b) hereof, immediately an employee absents himself, the contract of service shall be deemed to have been terminated without requiring further notice by the employers, who shall thereby be relieved of any further obligation to the employee: Provided that any such period of incapacity may, at the discretion of the employers, be regarded as leave without pay.

12.—Uniforms.

The employers shall provide for the use of each employee, free of cost, one cap and one serge suit, on the completion of each eight months' continuous service, and one oilskin coat and sou'-wester hat each year. One suit of dungarees shall also be supplied to employees on the completion of the following periods of service, viz., Deckhands—each eight months; firemen—each six months.

Uniforms shall belong to the employers, to be worn on service, and shall be kept clean and tidy. Should the service of any employee terminate within one month of the date of issue of uniforms or any portion of same, all the issue last made shall be returned to the employers before the employee is paid any moneys which may be due to him.

13.—Casual Employees.
