(c) The officer in charge or foreman shall decide whether any allowance is payable under this clause. (d) Workers called upon to work overtime in water or in wet places shall receive an extra one shilling (1/-) for each eight (8) hours or portion thereof of overtime worked, and such allowance shall be treated as a portion of the wage for the calculation of overtime. For all other purposes the extra payment shall be deemed an allowance. (e) Men employed in water which is too shallow for divers to effectively work in, and when conditions are such that high sea boots will not protect them from sea water, shall be paid an extra allowance of one shilling (1/-) per day in addition to any other allowance due under this clause.

13.—Higher Duties.

Any worker carrying out work classified at a higher minimum than his ordinary work for two (2) hours in any shift shall be paid at the minimum rate for such work for the whole of that shift: Provided that such minimum is not lower than such worker's regular rate of pay. If he be employed for less than two (2) hours at work classified at a higher minimum than his ordinary rate, he shall be paid his ordinary rate for the whole shift.

14.—Away from Home Allowance.

When a worker is called on to proceed on duty away from the place where he is then or is usually employed to any place where he cannot return to his own abode at night, the employer shall pay all fares and an allowance of six shillings (6/-) for each 24 (24) hours or reasonable expenses or provide board and lodging.

15.—Transport.

Any worker called on to work on the side of the river opposite to the usual place of work shall be ferried across or his fare refunded by the employer.

16.—Meal Hours.

(a) Subject to the following provisos all work performed during the meal hours shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half. Time and a half to be continuous until the men are knocked off for meals: Provided that the extra payment shall not apply beyond the breakfast hour to workers called upon to start at 6.30 a.m. or later, or beyond the dinner hour to workers called upon to start at noon or later. (b) "Breakfast"; the hour preceding the ordinary starting time. (c) "Dinner"; between the hours of 12 noon and 1 p.m. (d) "Tea Hour"; between 5 p.m. and 6.30 p.m. (e) When a worker is required for overtime without having been notified on the previous day, he shall be supplied with a meal, or be paid one shilling and sixpence (1/6) for a meal: Provided no such meal or payment is due unless the worker works more than one hour after the usual knock-off time: Provided that a worker who is allowed not less than one hour and a half in which to get a meal before resuming work shall not be entitled to meal money or a meal under this clause.

17.—Casual Workers.
