Sick leave not availed of may accumulate to the extent of a maximum of 18 days to be drawn upon at such time as absence on account of sickness warrants, but the said 18 days shall be the maximum which can be claimed in any one year irrespective of the number of years worked without a sick claim: Provided that if the employment is determined no payment shall be made for sick leave not taken. The discrimination referred to is unjust discrimination in favour of persons not members of the union, not discrimination between members of the union.

(b) Employment of such members shall be made at the pick-up yard of the union and between the hours of 7.45 a.m. and 9 a.m., provided that in cases of urgency outside of the pick-up time and by arrangement with the union, engagement may be made to meet the need of such urgency.

17.—Annual Holidays.

(a) All bread carters shall be given eight (8) days' (1.1/3 week's pay) leave of absence on full pay after the expiration of each twelve (12) months' service. Such leave shall be given to and taken by the employee within two (2) months of becoming due. Where the engagement of any bread carter is terminated after one month's continuance service or after any period of continuous service from the date on which the previous annual holidays became due, he shall be paid in lieu of holidays in proportion to the length of his service.

(b) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct shall lose all rights under this clause.

(c) Holiday pay shall not accrue during a worker's absence from his employment for any cause whatsoever except such absence from work is on account of holidays, annual holidays, or sickness coming within the provisions of clause 20, to which he is entitled under this Award.

18.—Meal Times.

Not more than one (1) hour shall be deducted for meal times in any one (1) day.

19.—Time and Wages Book.

Each employer shall provide a time and wages book, to be kept in a place where it is easily accessible to both the employer and the worker. Such book shall show the name of the worker, the time he starts and finishes work each day, the number of hours worked by and the wages and overtime paid to each worker, and his signature for the same. The employer and the worker shall be severally responsible for the proper posting of such book daily. Such book shall be open on one day in each week, during working hours, to inspection by the secretary of the union or any other representative of the Union.

20.—Absence through Sickness.

A worker other than a casual hand shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance, on the ground of personal ill-health, for one half day for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to six (6) days in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

21.—Junior Workers.

The proportion of junior workers to be employed by any employer shall be as mutually agreed in writing between the employer and the union. Failing such agreement, any worker under twenty-one (21) years of age shall be paid the rate prescribed in clause 4 for bread carters.

22.—Junior Worker's Certificate.

Junior workers shall furnish the employer with a certificate showing the following particulars:—

- (1) Name in full;
- (2) Age and date of birth.

(a) The certificate shall be signed by the worker.

(b) No worker shall have any claim upon the employer for additional wages, in the event of his age being wrongly stated on this certificate: Provided that this subclause shall operate only for the first three (3) months from the date of the worker's first engagement, thereby enabling the employer, if he so desires, to obtain proof of the junior worker's age.

23.—Learning a Round.

Where the engagement of a bread carter has been terminated and another worker is engaged in his stead the employer shall be permitted to reduce for six (6) consecutive working days the prescribed wage by fifty per cent. (50%) whilst such worker is learning the round.
