LAND OPEN FOR SELECTION.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that the areas scheduled hereunder are available for selection under Part V. of the Land Act, 1933-1946, and the regulations appertaining thereto, subject to the provisions of the said Act, and also to the provisions of the Land Alienation Restriction Act, 1944.

Applications must be lodged not later than the date specified, but may be lodged before such date, if so desired.

All applications lodged on or before such date will be treated as having been received on the closing day, and if there are more applicants than one for any block, the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board. Should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, the applicants for the blocks will be duly notified of the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Board, and there shall be an interval of at least three days between the closing date and the sitting of the Board.

The selector of a Homestead Farm from any location must take the balance thereof, if any, under Conditional Purchase.

All marketable timber, including sandalwood and mallet, is reserved to the Crown, subject to the provisions of clause 18 of the regulations.

The term "Member of the Forces," where appearing in any notice published hereunder, shall be deemed to have the meaning as is specified in section 2 of the Land Alienation Restriction Act, 1944, that is to say, "Member of the Forces" means a person who is or has been, a member of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of His Majesty the King during any period in which His Majesty is or has been engaged in war.

This Award shall apply throughout the South-West Land Division of the State (except the area within a radius of fifteen (15) miles from the G.P.O., Perth) to workers employed in the farming industry, except those who are bound by Award of the Commonwealth Court of Conciliation and Arbitration, numbered 52 and 63 of 1938, and West Australian State Award, numbered 33 of 1941. Provided that this Award shall not apply to the land and premises occupied by—

(a) any native institutions declared by proclamation under section 2 of the Native Administration Act, 1905-1941;

(b) any of the following institutions, namely:—Parkerville Children's Homes, Incorporated; Tom Allan Memorial Home for Boys, Werribee; St. Joseph's Farm and Trades School, Mooliabeenie; Christian Bros. Agricultural School, Tardun.

"Farming" shall mean the cultivation and harvesting of crops for grain, chaff or silage (other than crops produced on dairy farms, market gardens, nurseries, orchards and vineyards), the cultivating and harvesting of flax, the raising of sheep, cattle, and horses, and the transfer of such products to railhead.

2—Holidays and Annual Leave.

(a) The following days, or the days observed in lieu shall, subject to necessary attention to stock, be allowed as holidays without deduction of pay, namely:—New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day. Provided that some other day may be substituted for each or any of the foregoing days on a day to be agreed between the employer and the worker.

(b) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(c) If any award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one (1) day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(d) If after one (1) month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(e) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(f) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(g) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

3—Term.

The term of this Award shall be for one (1) year from the date hereof.

4—Contract of Service.

The contract of service shall be by the week, and shall be terminable by one week's notice on either side. This clause does not affect the right to dismiss for misconduct or inefficiency, and in such case wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal. Provided that the employment of casual workers may be terminated by giving one day's notice on either side.

5—Lanterns.

Kerosene lanterns or other lighting apparatus shall be provided by the employer when such are necessary for the use of the worker in carrying out his task.

6—Full Day Each Week.

Subject to necessary attention to stock, all workers shall be allowed one full day off each week.

7—Accommodation.

(a) Where a worker is provided with board and lodging, the employer shall be allowed to make a deduction at the rate of twenty-five shillings (25s.) per week of seven (7) days from the worker's wages. Provided that in the case of junior workers, where the wage of the junior does not exceed Two pounds (£2) per week, the amount deductible for board and lodging in accordance with this clause shall not exceed One pound (£1).

(b) For the purpose of this clause "Board and Lodging" shall mean a wholesome and adequate supply of food together with reasonable accommodation for sleeping.

(c) Should any dispute arise under this clause the matter shall be decided by the Board of Reference.

8—Board of Reference.

(a) The Court appoints for the purpose of the Award a Board of Reference consisting of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties.

There are assigned to the Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to this Award, the functions of:—

(i) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of this Award, or any of them;

(ii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

(b) An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1941, which for this purpose are embodied in and form part of this Award.

9—Definition.

Where the word "union" appears in this Award, it shall mean "The Australian Workers' Union, Westralian Branch, Industrial Union of Workers."

10—Casual Workers.

"Casual worker" shall mean a worker employed for less than one week.

The minimum rate of wage to be paid to casual hands, shall be five per cent. (5%) more than the appropriate rate of wage prescribed in clause 11 hereof.

The return fare incurred by a casual worker (other than one who is dismissed for misconduct or inefficiency) from the place of engagement to the place of employment shall be paid by the employer. Any adjustments of wages and payment of fares necessary to comply with this clause, shall be made on termination of the casual worker's term of employment.

11—Wages.

(a) Basic Wage:

	Per Week.
S.W. Land Division, excluding 15-mile radius from the G.P.O., Perth ..	5 1 6

(b) Adult Workers:

18 to 19 years of age	65
19 to 20 years of age	80
20 to 21 years of age	Basic Wage

12—Old, Infirm and Slow Workers.

Notwithstanding anything elsewhere provided or prescribed in this Award any old, infirm or slow worker may be paid a lower rate than that prescribed by this Award to be fixed by agreement in writing between the worker and his employer, and to be signed by each of them not later than one week after the commencement of the employment of the worker at such agreed rate. Provided that the employer shall within fourteen (14) days of the signing of any such agreement forward a copy thereof to the State Secretary of the Union at Perth. And provided also that the employer or the worker or the union may apply to the Board of Reference at any time for a review of the said rate fixed by any such agreement, and on any such review the Board of Reference may vary the said rate.

13—Special Provision Regarding Native Workers.

Native workers who are subject to the provisions of the Native Administration Act, 1905-1941, shall be employed at the rates and conditions of this Award, but the employment of less efficient native workers at lesser rates and conditions may be arranged, provided the lesser rates and conditions of employment are agreed to by the employer and the local Protector of Natives and the native concerned, subject to the right of the Commissioner of Native Affairs to disallow or vary any rate and/or conditions of employment for a native worker of less efficient ability, either on the request of the union or in exercise of his powers under the Native Administration Act, 1905-1941, and subject to the further right of the Commissioner to effect engagements direct with employers at a lesser rate, and stipulate conditions of employment in furtherance of the welfare interests of the native. The union shall have access to the Commissioner's employment records and permits for workers in the farming industry, and the Commissioner shall furnish any information acquired under section 34 of the Native Administration Act, 1905-1941, as may be required by the union. Any rate fixed in accordance with this clause shall remain in full force and effect until disallowed or varied or until the date of the expiration of the permit, whichever should first occur.

I certify pursuant to section 65 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1941, that the foregoing is a copy of the agreement arrived at between the parties mentioned above.

Dated at Perth this 20th day of December, 1946.

IN THE COURT OF ARBITRATION OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

No. 13D of 1946.

Between Amalgamated Engineering Union of Workers, Kalgoorlie Branch, Applicant, and Yilgarn Gold Mining Company Limited, and others, Respondents.

HAVING heard Mr. R. B. Gibson on behalf of the applicant and Mr. F. Walsh on behalf of the respondents, the Court, in pursuance of the powers contained in section 92 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1941, doth hereby order that Award No. 5 of 1934, as amended, made between the abovenamed parties, be and the same is hereby further amended in the manner following:—

6—Overtime.

Subclause (c)—Delete this subclause and insert in lieu thereof:—

(c) Work done on Sunday, Christmas Day, Easter Monday, Labour Day, or the one additional day nominated by the employer, shall be paid for at double time rate.

With respect to workers under this Award working more than one shift, any worker whose ordinary rotation shift falls on Sunday or on any of the above-mentioned holidays shall be paid at time and a third rate for Sunday work, but at the ordinary time rate for work on the other days mentioned.

Any shift worker required to work more than six (6) shifts consecutively shall be paid for the seventh shift at double time rate.

Shift workers required to work weekly rotation shifts shall have their hours of duty so arranged as to permit of one Sunday in every four (4) off duty.

7—Holidays.

Subclause (a)—Delete “twelve (12) days” and insert in lieu thereof “three (3) weeks.”

Subclause (c)—Delete this subclause and insert in lieu thereof:—

(c) Subject to clause 6 (c), the following shall be paid holidays:—Christmas Day, Easter Monday, Labour Day, and one additional day in each year to be nominated by the employer. If Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, the following Monday shall be kept.

Add a new subclause as follows:—

(e) The quantum of annual leave to be allowed to a worker shall, for service prior to 1st September, 1946, be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Award applicable before that date, and for service subsequent to 1st September, 1946, in accordance with the provisions of this amendment.

Dated at Perth this 24th day of December, 1946.

No. 13J of 1946.

Between Boilermakers Society of Australia Union of Workers, Kalgoorlie Branch, No. 11, Applicant, and The Kalgoorlie Foundry Limited; George Currow; Horsefield and Bracklemann; A. Rogers; The Goldfields Firewood Supply Limited, Respondents.

HAVING heard Mr. R. Gibson on behalf of the applicant and Mr. F. S. Cross on behalf of the respondents and by consent the Court in pursuance of the powers contained in section 92 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1941, doth hereby order that Award, No. 6 of 1939, made between the abovenamed parties be and the same is hereby amended in the manner following:—

6.—Overtime.

Delete subclause (c) of this clause and substitute in lieu thereof the following:—

(c) Work done on Sundays or on the holidays prescribed in clause 7(a) hereof shall be paid for at the rate of double time. With respect to workers under this Award working more than one shift, any worker whose ordinary rotation shift falls on a Sunday or on any of the prescribed holidays, may be employed at ordinary time. Any shift worker required to work more than six (6) shifts consecutively shall be paid for the seventh shift at double time.

7.—Holidays.

Delete this clause and substitute in lieu thereof the following:—

7.—Holidays.

(a) The following days, or the days observed in lieu, shall, subject to clause 6(c) hereof, be allowed as holidays without deduction of pay, namely:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, State Foundation Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day: Provided that an employer may allow Kalgoorlie Cup Day and Boulder Cup Day as holidays without deduction of pay in lieu of Australia Day and State Foundation Day in which event Australia Day and State Foundation Day shall not be holidays under this subclause: Provided further that in any district or any undertaking where any of the foregoing days is not generally observed as a holiday, an employer may notify his workers that some other day will be observed in lieu of such day in which case the substituted day shall be deemed to be the holiday accordingly.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(d) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

8—Holidays.

(a) The following days, or the days observed in lieu shall, subject to subclause (c) hereof, be allowed as holidays without deduction of pay, namely:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, State Foundation Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award, the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done, ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(c) All work done on any of the holidays specified in subclause (a) hereof (except Christmas Day, Good Friday or Labour Day) shall be paid for at the rate of double time. All work done on Christmas Day, Good Friday or Labour Day shall be paid for at the rate of treble time.

(d) All work done on Sundays (except by shiftmen and watchmen) shall be paid for at the rate of double time. All work done on Sundays by shiftmen shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half. All work done on Sundays by watchmen shall be paid for at the rate of ordinary time.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(f) In addition to the leave prescribed in subclause (e) hereof, seven-day shift workers, that is shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed one week's leave. Where a worker with twelve (12) months' continuous service is engaged for part of the qualifying twelve-monthly period as a seven-day shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of two (2) consecutive weeks' annual leave prescribed in subclause (c) hereof increased by one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week for each month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

(g) If any award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(h) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth (1/6th) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service, or in the case of a worker referred to in subclause (f) hereof, such payment shall be one-quarter of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage.

(i) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave, as prescribed by this Award, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(j) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (h) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(k) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(l) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

(m) The quantum of annual leave to be allowed to a worker shall, for service prior to 1st September, 1946, be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Award applicable before that date, and for service subsequent to 1st September, 1946, in accordance with the provisions of this amendment.

3.—Holidays.

(a) Subject to Clause 2 and Clause 3A, the following days or the days observed in lieu thereof shall be observed as holidays:—New Year's Day, Australia Day (26th January), Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day: Provided that a worker shall only be entitled to payment for such holidays at the rate of six and three fifths ($6\frac{3}{5}$) hours' pay or six (6) hours' pay, depending on whether the establishment is working a five (5) or a five and a half ($5\frac{1}{2}$) day week, for each month of continuous service and with a maximum payment for any holiday of one (1) day's pay: Provided further that where the employment of a worker is terminated he shall be paid holiday pay at the rate set out above less the amount paid to him for holidays which have already been taken.

(b) Except in so far as the worker is entitled by length of service the said days shall be observed as holidays without pay.

(c) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(d) Service as from the 1st day of September, 1946 shall be taken into consideration for the purpose of this clause.

Insert a new clause after clause 3 as follows:—

3A.—Annual Leave.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(b) Subject to subclause (f) of this clause such leave shall be granted at Christmas and notice in writing shall be given to the union by representatives of the employers not later than three (3) months before Christmas, showing the date on which the factories shall close down for the annual leave.

(c) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid: Provided that at the option of the employer any of the Award holidays so falling within the period of annual leave shall be given in one of the following ways:—

(i) Added to the Easter holidays, in which case, the employer may, at his option, add one further day in lieu of Australia Day (26th January). Where it is the intention of the employer to adopt this method, he shall, by notice posted in the factory, at the time of closing down at Christmas, notify his employees of such intention.

(ii) By agreement between the employer and the worker, but not otherwise, another day shall be given in lieu of each of such Award holidays.

(d) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(e) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

(f) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled (subject to subclause (d) of this clause) to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer and if such holidays are not equal to the holidays given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on holidays on full pay.

(g) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(h) Service as from the 1st day of September, 1946, shall be taken into consideration for the purpose of this clause.

(c) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(d) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(e) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (c) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(f) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(g) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

(h) The quantum of annual leave to be allowed to a worker shall, for service prior to 1st September, 1946, be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the award applicable before that date, and for service subsequent to 1st September, 1946, in accordance with the provisions of this amendment.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

Insert a new clause after clause 3 as follows:—

3A.—Annual Leave.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(b) Subject to subclause (f) of this clause such leave shall be granted at Christmas and notice in writing shall be given to the union by representatives of the employers not later than three (3) months before Christmas, showing the date on which the factories shall close down for the annual leave: Provided that a skeleton staff limited to one worker in each department may be employed during the Christmas close down on the following conditions:—

(i) At least two (2) weeks' notice shall be given to any such worker that he is required to work during the close down.

(ii) Such workers shall be given their annual leave within three (3) months of the termination of the period of the close down.

(c) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid: Provided that at the option of the employer any of the Award holidays so falling within the period of annual leave shall be given in one of the following ways:—

(i) Added to the Easter holidays, in which case, the employer may, at his option, add one further day in lieu of Australia Day (26th January). Where it is the intention of the employer to adopt this method he shall, by notice posted in the factory at the time of closing down at Christmas, notify his employees of such intention.

(ii) By agreement between the employer and the worker, but not otherwise, another day shall be given in lieu of each of such Award holidays.

(d) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(e) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

(f) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled (subject to subclause (d) of this clause) to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such holidays are not equal to the holidays given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on holidays on full pay.

(g) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(h) Service as from the 1st day of September, 1946, shall be taken into consideration for the purpose of this clause.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(d) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(e) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(f) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(g) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (e) of this clause to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(h) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(i) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

(j) The quantum of annual leave to be allowed to a worker shall, for service prior to 1st September, 1946, be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Award applicable before that date, and for service subsequent to 1st September, 1946, in accordance with the provisions of this amendment.

Dated at Perth this 10th day of December, 1946.

By the Court,
