HAVING heard Mr. F. E. Chamberlain on behalf of the applicant and Mr. L. B. Crosbie on behalf of the respondent and by consent the Court in pursuance of the powers contained in section 92 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1941, doth hereby order that Award, No. 9 of 1926, as amended, be further amended in the manner following:—

Add a new clause to the Award as follows:—

45.—Special Provisions Applicable to Employees of State Electricity Commission.

(1) The following clauses of this Award shall not apply to employees of the State Electricity Commission:—

2. Definitions (Definition of "Casual Worker" only).

31. Holidays.

32. Annual Leave.

(2) The following special provisions shall apply to employees of the State Electricity Commission:—

(a) Definitions:

"Casual Worker" means a worker employed for less than one week continuously, but does not include a worker who, when work is available, leaves his employment before the expiration of one week.

"Temporary Worker" means a worker temporarily employed for a full week or more continuously but not appointed to a position on the regular staff.

"Permanent Worker" means a worker who has been appointed to a position on the regular staff.

(b) Annual Leave:

(i) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to temporary and permanent workers by the Commission after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with the Commission, provided that a night watchman shall be entitled to three (3) consecutive weeks' leave annually.

(ii) If any award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(iii) (a) Subject to paragraph (ii) when computing the annual leave due under this clause no deduction shall be made from such leave in respect of the period that a worker is on annual leave and/or holidays. Provided that no deductions shall be made for any approved period a worker is absent from duty through sickness with or without pay unless the absence exceeds three (3) calendar months, in which case deduction may be made for such excess only.

(b) Approved periods of absence from work caused through accident sustained in the course of employment shall not be considered breaks in continuity of service, but the first six (6) months only of any such period shall count as service for the purpose of computing annual leave.

(iv) In the event of a worker being employed by the employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer.

(v) Any worker who may resign or be dismissed from the service for any cause, other than for peculation or theft, shall be entitled to receive payment for any annual leave which may have been due up to the time of leaving the service. Misconduct herein referred to shall not affect accumulated annual leave or payment therefor.

(vi) When work is closed down for the purpose of allowing annual leave to be taken, workers with less than a full year's service shall only be entitled to payment during such period for the number of days' leave due to them. Provided that nothing herein contained shall deprive the Commission of its right to retain such workers at work during the close-down period as may be essential.

(vii) "Ordinary wages" for the purpose of paragraph (i) hereof shall mean the rate of wage the worker has received for the greatest proportion of the calendar month prior to his taking the leave.

(viii) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

(ix) Annual leave rights under this clause shall commence to accrue in the case of permanent workers as from 1st July, 1946. In the case of temporary workers such rights shall commence to accrue as from the date of this order.

(ii) Subject to paragraph (vi) hereof whenever any holiday falls on an employee's ordinary working day and the employee is not required to work on such day he shall be paid for the ordinary hours he would have worked on such day if it had not been a holiday. If he is required to work on a holiday he shall be paid for the time worked as if it was an ordinary working day and shall, in addition, be allowed a day's leave with pay to be added to the annual leave or to be taken at some subsequent date if the worker so agrees.

(iii) In the case of workers working a five-day week, no payment or a day in lieu shall be granted for any public holiday falling on a Saturday.

(iv) Payment for holidays shall be in accordance with the usual hours of work.

(v) When a worker is off duty owing to leave without pay or sickness, including accidents on or off duty, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay, any holiday falling during such absence shall not be treated as a paid holiday. Where the worker is on duty or available on the working day immediately preceding a holiday, or resumes duty, or is available on the working day immediately following a holiday, as prescribed in this clause, the worker shall be entitled to a paid holiday on all such holidays.

(vi) A casual worker shall not be entitled to payment for any holiday referred to in this clause and which he does not work. A casual worker called upon for duty and required to work on a public holiday prescribed in this clause shall be paid at the rate of time and a half with a minimum of seven (7) hours' work.

(vii) Liberty is reserved to the union to apply for amendment of paragraph (vi) hereof at any time after the expiration of one month from the date of this order.

Dated at Perth this 2nd day of April, 1947.

Where the employer is himself a journeyman regularly and usually working at the trade, he shall be counted as a journeyman for the purpose of computing the number of apprentices allowed. Where a business is in operation for less than twelve months, the method of ascertaining the number shall be as agreed by the parties to the Award, or, if no agreement arrived at, as determined by the Board.

(36) With a view to determining whether the number of apprentices being trained is sufficient to meet the future requirements of the industry in the matter of skilled artisans, the Registrar may require any employer to furnish him with any specified information relating to the said industry, or relating to the workers engaged therein.

(37) These regulations shall come into force from the date hereunder.

period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(c) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(d) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Agreement shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.
