(ii) Seven day shift workers, i.e., shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed in addition to clause (a) (i) hereof, seven consecutive days' leave including non-working days.

Where an employee with twelve months' continuous service is engaged for part of the twelve monthly period as a seven day shift worker he shall be entitled to have the period of two consecutive weeks' annual leave prescribed in subclause (a) (i) hereof increased by half a day for each month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

approved period a worker is absent from duty through sickness with or without pay unless the absence exceeds three (3) calendar months, in which case deduction may be made for such excess only.

(ii) Approved periods of absence from work caused through accident sustained in the course of employment shall not be considered breaks in continuity of service, but the first six months only of any such period shall count as service for the purpose of computing annual leave.

(d) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer.

(e) Any worker who may resign or be dismissed from the service for any cause, other than for pecculation or theft, shall be entitled to receive payment for any annual leave which may have been due up to the time of leaving the service; Provided always that if the worker has been dismissed for pecculation or theft no claim for annual leave shall be recognised. (d) Payment for holidays shall be in accordance with the usual hours of work.

(e) When a worker is off duty owing to leave without pay or sickness, including accidents on or off duty, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay, any holiday falling during such absence shall not be treated as a paid holiday.
