COMPANIES ACT, 1943-1946.

Crown Law Department,
Perth, 4th September, 1947.

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1943-1946, and for the purpose of bringing the said Act into operation at the commencement thereof as provided for by section 11 of the Interpretation Act, 1918-1938, has been pleased to make under and for the purposes of the said Companies Act, 1943-1946, the regulations set forth in the schedule hereto.

H. B. HAYLES,
Under Secretary for Law.

SCHEDULE.

COMPANIES ACT, 1943-1946.

The Companies Regulations, 1947.

1. These Regulations may be cited as "The Companies Regulations, 1947."
2. In these Regulations and in the forms in Schedule I. to these Regulations—
  - (a) "the Act" means the Companies Act, 1943-1946;
  - (b) "Registrar" means the Registrar of Companies and includes a Deputy Registrar of Companies;
  - (c) "document" includes notice, summary, statutory declaration, statement, return, copy, consent, list, abstract and particulars;
  - (d) "the Court" means the Supreme Court of Western Australia, or a judge thereof.

PART I.

General.

PREPARATION OF DOCUMENTS.

3. All documents prepared for filing with the Registrar shall—
  - (a) be accompanied when filed by the appropriate fee;
  - (b) subject to any specific requirement of the Act, be legibly and clearly written, typewritten or printed;
  - (c) be prepared on paper of medium weight and good quality with a 2in. margin at the least on the left-hand side and in a clean and unmutilated condition, and (with the exception of the memorandum and articles of association of a company) on paper of foolscap folio size or a multiple of that size;

- (d) be, in the case of a memorandum and articles of association, in book form printed or typewritten with a semi-stiff cover and of a size not less than 8½in. deep by 5½in. wide and not more than foolscap folio size;
  - (e) where the document comprises two or more sheets be secured together in a sufficient manner;
  - (f) be folded lengthwise and endorsed on the outside with the name of the company to which they relate with a short statement of the nature of their contents and the name and address of the solicitor or person by or on whose behalf they are filed.
4. In the case of documents filed with the Registrar which are wholly or partly typewritten—
- (a) a black record ribbon shall be used;
  - (b) the lines of typewriting must not overlap;
  - (c) a carbon-copy shall not be accepted.
5. Except by special leave of the Registrar granted upon such conditions as he may think fit, no document which does not comply with Regulations 3 and 4 above shall be received by the Registrar.

6. The Registrar may in his discretion, require fresh copies of any document which is improperly filled in or which shows traces of erasures or which contains any alterations such as would in the opinion of the Registrar, affect the validity of such document or form, and the fresh copies shall be prepared and signed in the manner prescribed by the Act or by these regulations in respect of the original document. Every alteration made in any document or form shall be initialled by the person who signed the document or form in which the alteration has been made and by the witness, if any.

Execution of Memorandum, etc.

7. (1) The full name, address, and occupation of each subscriber and of each witness to the Memorandum and Articles shall be legibly written or typewritten in the Memorandum and Articles.
- (2) If the shares of a company are of different classes it shall be stated for which class of shares the signatories subscribe.

Orders of Court.

8. All orders of the Court required to be filed with the Registrar shall be Supreme Court office copies.

Declaration by Registrar and his Officers.

9. The Declaration to be made under section 394 (2) of the Act shall be in accordance with Form 89 in Schedule I. hereto.

PART II.

Liquidations.

10. The statement to be lodged with the Registrar by a Liquidator pursuant to section 289 of the Act shall be prepared and lodged within a period of one month before the expiration of every period of twelve months from the date of commencement of the winding up.

11. The winding up of a company shall, for the purpose of section 207 and section 289 of the Act, be deemed to be concluded—

- (a) in the case of a company wound up by order of the court at the date on which the order dissolving the company has been reported to the Registrar by the liquidator or at the date of the order of the court releasing the liquidator pursuant to section 209 of the Act;
- (b) in the case of a company wound up either voluntarily or under the supervision of the court at the date of the dissolution of the company unless at such date any funds or assets of the company remain unclaimed or undistributed in the hands or under the control of the liquidator or any person who has acted as liquidator, in which case the winding up shall not be deemed to be completed until such funds or assets have been either distributed or paid into the "Companies Liquidation Account."

12. Every application pursuant to subsection (4) of section 290 for payment of any monies standing to the credit of the "Companies Liquidation Account" in respect of any company must be accompanied by a certificate (Form 66) by the liquidator of such company that the applicant is entitled to receive the amount which is claimed in the said application. In addition to such certificate the Registrar may in any case require the applicant to furnish such other evidence as the Registrar may think fit in proof of the applicant's claim.

PART III.

Foreign Companies.

13. (a) Every memorandum of appointment filed with the Registrar under section 329 (1) (d) of the Act shall be verified by a statutory declaration.
- (b) Where the appointment is directly made by the company such declaration shall be in accordance with Form 68 and shall be made by the director, manager or secretary of the company.
- (c) Where the appointment is made by some person duly authorised by the company in that behalf the declaration shall be in accordance with Form 69.

14. A copy of the charter, statute or memorandum and articles of a foreign company or other instrument constituting or defining its constitution shall be deemed to be certified as required by section 329 of the Act if it is—

- (a) duly certified as a true copy by an official of the government to whose custody the original is committed; or
- (b) duly certified as a true copy by a Notary Public; or
- (c) duly declared to be a true copy by a director or the manager or secretary of the company.

15. A copy of the certificate of incorporation of a foreign company or a document of similar effect shall be deemed to be duly certified as required by the Act, if it purports to be certified in the manner provided in section 79 of the Evidence Act, 1906, and in the case of a document to which that section does not apply, if it purports to be certified by an official of the government of the country in which the company is incorporated holding or purporting to hold an office similar to that of a Registrar or an Assistant Registrar of Companies.

16. Unless it has been certified or issued within a period of three months immediately preceding the date on which it is tendered for filing with the Registrar, a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation or document of similar effect tendered under Part XI of the Act shall not be filed except where the Registrar in a special case may otherwise permit.

Translations.

17. In the case of a company of which the certificate of incorporation (or document of similar effect) or the charter statute or memorandum and articles of association (or other instrument constituting or defining the constitution of a company) or the balance sheet, prospectus, or other document is not written in the English language, any translation thereof to be filed with the Registrar in pursuance of the Act shall be deemed to be a certified translation if so certified—

- (a) (where such translation is made outside the State of Western Australia) by
  - (i) an official of the government of the State or country in which the company was incorporated to whom the custody of the original document is committed, or by whom the original document was issued; or
  - (ii) a notary public or a translator public duly admitted and sworn by the government of the State or country in which the company was incorporated; or
  - (iii) a British diplomatic or consular agent in the State or country in which the company was incorporated;
- (b) (when such translation is made within the State of Western Australia) by a person approved by the Registrar either generally or in a particular case, the Registrar may require such evidence as he deems proper for ascertaining the ability of any person to make the translation.

Balance Sheets.

18. The statutory declaration accompanying a balance sheet filed under the provisions of section 334 (2) of the Act shall be in accordance with Form 72.

19. Any return required to be filed with the Registrar in pursuance of section 335 of the Act concerning the matters referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of that section shall be filed within twenty-eight days after the date on which particulars of the alteration if despatched with due diligence could, in due course of post, have been received in Western Australia from the place where the company was formed or is incorporated. Notice of alteration in the situation of the registered office of a foreign company and notice of change in the name or address of the person authorised to accept service on behalf of the company shall be filed within fourteen days of the occurrence of the change and shall be in accordance with Form 71 and Form 73 respectively. Notice of alteration in the directors or the particulars contained in the list of directors of a foreign company shall be in accordance with Form 67. Notice of alteration in the charter, statutes or memorandum and articles or any such instrument of a foreign company shall be in accordance with Form 73.

Change of Name.

20. Upon a change in the name of a foreign company registered under Part XI of the Act the company shall, within twenty-eight days after the date on which particulars of the alteration if despatched with due diligence could, in due course of post, have been received in Western Australia, file with the Registrar notice of the change. Such notice shall be in accordance with Form 73. A certified copy of the certificate of incorporation showing the change of name shall be attached to the notice.

PART IV.

Authorised Sharebrokers.

21. An application for registration as an authorised sharebroker shall be in accordance with Form 82. The application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee and by a statutory declaration in accordance with Form 83 or Form 84 as the case may require.

22. (1) Any authorised sharebroker who in accordance with Division 2 of Part XIII of the Act has deposited a sum of money or equivalent security with the Treasurer and who has ceased to carry on business in Western Australia as a share-broker for a period of at least six months may, after giving notice as required by Regulation 24, apply to the Registrar for an order permitting him to withdraw the sum or security so deposited.

(2) The Registrar shall deal with such application and if—

- (a) no application for compensation out of the said deposit or security has been made under the next succeeding regulation may order that the said sum or security be repaid or retransferred to the applicant or his successor in title or nominee; or
- (b) any such application for compensation has been made may, after such application has been dealt with, order that the money or security or, if any application for compensation is successful, any balance of such money or security then held by the Treasurer be handed over to the applicant sharebroker; and in either case, such order shall be given effect to by the Treasurer.

23. (1) Any client of an authorised sharebroker who has made a deposit as aforesaid or given equivalent security having a claim or demand against such sharebroker in his capacity of sharebroker may, at any time before the expiration of six months after such sharebroker has ceased to carry on business in Western Australia as a sharebroker, apply to the Registrar for an order that he be compensated out of the said deposit or security for loss sustained by him by reason of breach of duty or of contract, or misconduct, or default on the part of the sharebroker.

(2) On the hearing of such application the Registrar may make such order as to compensation as he in his absolute discretion deems proper, or may refuse to make an order.

(3) When compensation is ordered by the Registrar to be paid to any applicant, the amount thereof shall be paid by the Treasurer out of the moneys or security deposited by the authorised sharebroker concerned, and for that purpose the Treasurer may realise any such security and deduct from the proceeds thereof the cost of realising the same.

(4) The sharebroker concerned and any person liable under any bond to pay any compensation awarded shall be entitled to be heard, if he so desires, on the hearing of any application under this regulation.

24. (1) Every authorised sharebroker on ceasing to carry on business in Western Australia as a sharebroker shall give notice thereof to the Registrar in the prescribed form (Form 86) and the Registrar shall thereupon at the expense of such sharebroker cause such notice to be advertised three times at intervals of one week in a daily morning newspaper published in Perth, and if the sharebroker carried on business in any other locality, in such other newspaper and in such manner as the Registrar directs.

(2) For the purposes of Regulations 22 (1) and 23 (1) an authorised sharebroker shall be deemed to have ceased to have carried on business on the date of the publication of the last of such advertisements.

25. The Registrar may cancel the registration of any authorised sharebroker who for any reason fails to keep up to the full value of Five hundred pounds the sum of money or equivalent security deposited by him with the Treasurer pursuant to section 373 of the Act.

26. (1) Any moneys deposited with the Treasurer pursuant to section 373 of the Act may be deposited by him in the Commonwealth Savings Bank or invested in any State or Commonwealth Government securities and any equivalent security not being Treasury bonds payable to bearer shall be accompanied by such duly executed transfer or assignment as will enable the Treasurer to realise such security should it become necessary so to do.

(2) When interest or dividends become due on any moneys deposited with the Treasurer as aforesaid or on any securities in which moneys so deposited are for the time being invested or on any equivalent security deposited with the Treasurer, the Treasurer shall pay such interest or dividends to the sharebroker making the deposit.

(3) On receipt of an order issued by the Registrar under Regulation 22 or Regulation 23 the Treasurer shall, as soon as conveniently may be, realise such securities held on investments made under this Regulation as will enable him to comply with any such order for repayment or for compensation and the Treasurer shall not be liable to the depositor for any loss on realisation of any such securities.

27. (1) Every authorised sharebroker shall within fourteen days before the expiration of every period of twelve months from the date of his registration as an authorised sharebroker and so long as such registration continues make and file with the Registrar a statutory declaration in accordance with Form 83 or Form 84 as the case may require.

(2) Every authorised sharebroker who while his registration remains in force changes his business address shall notify the Registrar forthwith in writing of such change.

28. The certificate of registration issued pursuant to section 373 of the Act to any authorised sharebroker shall be returned to the Registrar by such sharebroker forthwith after the cancellation of his registration as an authorised sharebroker.

29. (1) The register of authorised sharebrokers required to be kept by the Registrar pursuant to section 373 of the Act shall be divided into four separate parts. Such parts shall severally contain, in addition to the particulars required by the Act to be recorded, the following particulars:—

First Part: Members of Stock Exchange in Perth—

- Registration number.
- Date of application.
- Date of registration.

Date of certificate of membership.

Date of filing annual declaration (Form 83).

Date of publication in Gazette.

Date of cancellation of registration.

Reason for cancellation of registration.

Such other particulars (if any) as the Registrar deems necessary.

Second Part: Members of other Recognised Stock Exchanges—

The same particulars as are required in respect of registration under the First Part, and in addition the name of the recognised stock exchange of which the sharebroker is a member.

Third Part: Authorised representatives of members of Recognised Stock Exchanges—

The same particulars as are required under the preceding Part with the following additional particulars.

Name of principal.

Address of principal.

Date of written authority.

Fourth Part: Other authorised Sharebrokers—

Registration number.

Date of application.

Date of order under section 373 (e).

Date of certificate of the Under Treasurer section 373 (f).

Date of registration.

Date of filing annual declaration (Form 84).

Date of publication in Gazette.

Date of cancellation of registration.

Reason for cancellation of registration.

Such other particulars (if any) as the Registrar deems necessary.

(2) Such register shall, subject to the payment of the prescribed fee, be open to inspection by any person.

PART V.

Auditors and Liquidators.

30. Every application for registration as an auditor or as a liquidator shall be verified by the statutory declaration of the applicant. Such application and declaration shall be in accordance with Forms 90 and 91 respectively, and shall be accompanied by the fee prescribed for the registration applied for. The applicant shall supply to the Registrar such further information or particulars relating to the applicant or his application as the Registrar may require and the application shall not be dealt with until such requirements of the Registrar have been complied with.

31. (1) The Registrar shall cause the name, address and qualifications of every person registered as qualified to act as an auditor or liquidator to be entered in a register to be kept by the Registrar for the purpose and, in the event of any such registration being terminated, entry to that effect shall also be made in the register.

(2) Such register shall, subject to the payment of the prescribed fee, be open to inspection by any person.

32. The following bodies shall each be a "recognised authority" within the meaning of section 402 (4) of the Act:—

- (a) The Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia,
- (b) Commonwealth Institute of Accountants,
- (c) Federal Institute of Accountants,
- (d) Association of Accountants of Australia,
- (e) any other body which the Governor by regulation declares to be a recognised authority.

33. (1) Any complaint made by an inspector or by any company or by any member or creditor of a company to the Registrar pursuant to section 406 of the Act shall be supported by a statutory declaration as to the facts and the Registrar may require the complainant other than an inspector to give security to an amount not exceeding Fifty pounds for payment of the costs of the inquiry.

(2) The Registrar shall cause to be served on any registered auditor or liquidator concerned, a written notice stating that a complaint has been made and setting out concisely the subject matter of the complaint. The notice shall also specify a time and a day being not less than five days from the service of the notice when the complaint or other matter will be considered by the Registrar. The requirements of this sub-regulation mutatis mutandis shall be observed when the Registrar of his own initiative holds an inquiry under subsection (1) of section 406 of the Act.

(3) Such auditor or liquidator shall be entitled to be heard on any inquiry affecting him held by the Registrar pursuant to section 406 of the Act.

(4) It shall be the duty of all officers and agents of the company concerned to produce to the Registrar all books and documents in their custody or power.

(5) On any inquiry under section 406 of the Act, the Registrar may by summons under his hand require any officer, agent, auditor or liquidator of a company and any witness to appear before him for examination and such summons may require the production of all books and documents in the custody or power of the officer, auditor or liquidator of the company or of the witness.

- (6) The Registrar may in the exercise of his functions under section 406 of the Act exercise any powers which the magistrate of a local court could exercise for procuring the attendance of witnesses, and punishing witnesses who fail to attend when required, and administering oaths and affirmations and taking evidence on oath, and the provisions of the Local Courts Act, 1904-1930, as to all these matters, shall be construed so as to apply to any inquiry by the Registrar under such section.
- (7) If any person summoned to give evidence on any such inquiry refuses to be sworn or to answer to the satisfaction of the Registrar any question which he may put or allow to be put, the Registrar shall report such refusal in a summary way to the Court, and upon the report being made the witness in default shall be in the same position and be dealt with in the same manner as if he had refused to be sworn or made default in answering before a judge and the Court may make such order as it deems fit.
- (8) The Registrar may make such order as to the costs of the inquiry as the Registrar deems just, and any such order for costs may be enforced in the like manner in which an order for costs in a civil action in the Supreme Court may be enforced.
- (9) For the purposes of this regulation "inspector" means any person duly appointed as such by the Registrar or by the Court under the Act.

34. Any certificate of registration of a liquidator or auditor issued pursuant to section 402 of the Act shall be returned to the Registrar by the holder thereof forthwith upon the cancellation of such registration.

PART VI.
Miscellaneous.

35. Where any matter or thing is by these Regulations directed or forbidden to be done, and such act so directed to be done remains undone, or such act so forbidden to be done is done, in every such case, unless a specific penalty is provided therefor, every company or person offending against such direction or prohibition shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.
36. All offences under these Regulations made punishable by any penalty may, unless otherwise provided, be disposed of summarily by a stipendiary magistrate or a resident magistrate under the provisions of the Justices Act, 1902-1936.

Sixth Schedule to the Act.

37. To the intent that the same shall be altered as hereinafter appears Form A of the Sixth Schedule to the Act is hereby repealed and the following form is inserted in lieu thereof.
