PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1949.

Prices Control Order No. 292.

Timber, Mouldings, Joinery and Cartage.

WHEREAS it is provided, inter alia, by subregulations (3) and (7) of regulation 17 of the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, that the powers conferred respectively by paragraph (a) of subregulation (1) and paragraph (a) of subregulation (5) of regulation 17 of those regulations, to fix and declare by order published in the Gazette, the maximum price at which any declared goods may be sold or the maximum rate at which any declared service may be supplied or carried on, shall for all purposes be deemed to be validly exercised by an order so published which fixes any such price or any such rate by reference to a list of prices or rates approved by the Commissioner, and issued by a body or association of persons which is recognised by the Commissioner, in the case of sales by a trader in goods, or in the case of a supplier of a service, to be representative of the traders in the goods or the suppliers of the service, in relation to the sale or the supply of which the price or rate is so fixed; and whereas Constantin Paul Mathea, Prices Control Commissioner, has recognised the Timber Merchants' Association of W.A., Perth, as representative traders in timber, mouldings and joinery and suppliers of the service of cartage of timber and mouldings; and whereas I, George Robert Marshall Garratt, delegate of the Prices Control Commissioner, have approved of the following list of prices of timber, mouldings and joinery, and rates for the cartage of timber and mouldings issued by the Timber Merchants' Association of W.A., Perth, that is to say, the list referred to as "Price List No. 51, as from 21st August, 1950": Now, therefore I, the said George Robert Marshall Garratt, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the aforesaid regulations, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 292.

Revocation.

2. Prices Control Order No. 221 is hereby revoked.

Definition.

3. In this Order, "Perth Metropolitan Area" means all that area comprised within a radius of 20 miles from the General Post Office at Perth.

Maximum Prices for Timber, Mouldings and Joinery.

4. I fix and declare the maximum prices at which timber, mouldings and joinery specified in the above-mentioned price list, No. 51, may be sold by retail in the Perth Metropolitan Area, to be the prices specified in that price list or computed in accordance therewith.

Discounts.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this Order, where any seller by retail of timber and joinery did, upon the 17th day of September, 1948, or if not on that date the nearest date prior thereto, allow any difference in price—

- (a) to any person or to persons included in any class of persons;
- (b) in respect of sales of certain quantities of timber or joinery; or
- (c) in respect of sales of timber or joinery under certain conditions of sale, or upon certain terms of payment, the maximum price fixed by or under this Order in respect of those goods shall, in the case of sales to any such person or persons, or of such quantities, or under such conditions, or upon such terms of payment, be reduced by the allowance of that difference.

Maximum Rates for Cartage of Timber and Mouldings.

6. I fix and declare the maximum rates at which the service of the cartage of timber and mouldings may be supplied by any retail seller of such timber or mouldings, to be the cartage rates specified by that price list or computed in accordance therewith.

Variation of Maximum Prices or Rates by Notice.

7. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which timber, mouldings or joinery, or the maximum rate at which the service of the cartage of timber or mouldings specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may respectively be sold or supplied by any person to whom such notice is given, to be such price or rate as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated this 22nd day of September, 1950.

GEORGE ROBERT MARSHALL GARRATT,
Delegate of the Prices Control Commissioner.

PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1949.

Prices Control Order No. 293.

Virgin Pig Lead.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, George Robert Marshall Garratt, Delegate of the Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 293.

Revocation.

2. Prices Control Order No. 76 is hereby revoked.

Definition.

3. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“prevailing margin” means, in relation to virgin pig lead, the margin for any particular quality, quantity, or shape, or in respect to any particular term or condition of sale, that existed between the price of £22 per ton and the particular vendor’s selling price on 31st December, 1948, of virgin pig lead of that particular quality, quantity, or shape, or sold under that particular term or condition of sale.

Maximum Prices.

4. I fix and declare the maximum price at which virgin pig lead may be sold by any person to be £65 per ton, plus the prevailing margin where that person’s selling price on 31st December, 1948, was greater than £22 per ton, or minus the prevailing margin where that person’s selling price on the aforesaid date was less than £22 per ton, as the case may be.

Variation of Maximum Price by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which virgin pig lead specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated this 22nd day of September, 1950.

G. R. M. GARRATT,
Delegate of the Prices Control Commissioner.

PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1949.

Prices Control Order No. 294.

Virgin Zinc.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, George Robert Marshall Garratt, Delegate of the Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 294.

Revocation.

2. Commonwealth Prices Regulation Orders Nos. 62 and 96, published in the Commonwealth Gazette on 20th December, 1939, and 8th February, 1940, respectively, are hereby revoked.

Definition.

3. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“prevailing margin” means in relation to virgin zinc, the margin for any particular quality, quantity or shape, or in respect to any particular term or condition of sale, that existed between the price of £22 per ton and the particular vendor’s selling price on 31st December, 1948, of virgin zinc of that particular quality, quantity, or shape, or sold under that particular term or condition of sale.

Maximum Prices.

4. I fix and declare the maximum price at which virgin zinc may be sold by any person to be £65 per ton, plus the prevailing margin where that person’s selling price on 31st December, 1948, was greater than £22 per ton, or minus the prevailing margin where that person’s selling price on the aforesaid date was less than £22 per ton, as the case may be.

Variation of Maximum Price by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which virgin zinc specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated this 22nd day of September, 1950.

G. R. M. GARRATT,
Delegate of the Prices Control Commissioner.
