88. When, during the currency of the year in respect of which a water rate has been levied, a meter is attached to a pipe on any land supplied with water, the consumer shall pay for the quantity of water taken, as registered by the meter, from the time when the meter was attached, at the prescribed price per 1,000 gallons, so far as the water supplied is in excess of the quantity to which the consumer is entitled in respect of the proportionate part of the rate paid by him, apportioned to the period from the date when the meter was attached to the end of the then current year in respect of which the rate was paid.

Payment for Excess Water.

89. Every consumer taking water in excess of the quantity to which he is entitled in respect of the rate or other charge in lieu of the rate shall pay for the excess in accordance with prices set forth in the Schedule I hereto.

The service shall not be restored until such fee has been paid.

Private Fire Services.

For each such service the owner or occupier shall pay in advance the actual cost of installation and a minimum annual fee and meter rent as determined by the Minister in each case, and such owner or occupier shall also bear the cost of maintaining the boundary service and of having it disconnected when it is no longer required. The owner or occupier for the time being shall in addition to his own risk and expense, and subject to the provisions of these By-laws, keep the internal fire service in good order and repair, so that the same shall at all times be in accordance with the By-laws. 30. In submitting a motion or amendment the chairman shall put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative.

31. If the amendment has been carried, the question as amended shall itself become the question before the Board, whereupon any further amendments upon such questions may be moved.

amendment was moved, and so on until there are no further amendments, and the question is then decided by the final vote in the affirmative or in the negative: Provided that no more than one question and one proposed amendment thereof shall be before the Board at any one time.

33. No discussion shall be permitted upon any motion for the adjournment of the Board. If, upon the question being put on any such motion the same is negatived, the subject then under consideration or the next on the business paper shall be discussed, and it shall not be competent for any member to again move for adjournment until half an hour has elapsed from the time of moving the one that has been negatived.

No member shall, without the consent of the Board, speak more than once upon any one question, or for a period of more than ten minutes at any one time, unless when misrepresented or misunderstood, in which case he may be permitted to explain without adding any further observations than may be necessary for the purpose of explanation.

40. Upon a vote being taken all members present within the Board Room, unless disqualified from voting, shall, upon the question being put, record their respective votes in the affirmative or negative, as each shall deem desirable, but if a member neglects or refuses to vote, his vote shall be counted for the negative.

41. (a) All questions shall, if not otherwise decided by law, be determined thus:—Upon a question being put, those in favour shall say "Aye" and those against "No", and the chairman shall declare whether the "Ayes" or "Noes" have determined the question; or, if the chairman prefers, he may call for a show of hands for and against the question. The decision of the chairman shall be final and conclusive unless such decision be immediately challenged and two members rise and demand a division.

(b) Where there is only one dissentient, he may request that his name be recorded in the minutes as opposed to the motion, and it shall be so recorded.

42. Upon a division being called for, the question shall be put in the affirmative first and then in the negative, and the chairman and all members present shall vote by show of hands, and the names and the votes of the chairman and members present shall be recorded in the minutes by the secretary. Any member of the Board present when a division is called for who does not in the manner above indicated vote on such motion, not being disqualified by law from voting shall have his vote counted in the negative.
