Notice given every week to determine the employment without any intention to determine the employment at the end of the week, but only with a view to dismissing men at any time, shall not be deemed notice for the purpose of this Award unless given during any strike which affects the employer's business.

17.—Handling Heavy Articles.

Where a worker is called upon to handle, without proper mechanical appliances, any one article in such a manner as to require him to exert a lift of over two hundredweight (2 cwt.) an extra worker shall be provided.

18.—Time and Wages Book.

Each employer shall provide a time and wages book to be kept in a place where it is easily accessible to both the employer and the worker. Such book shall show the name of the worker, the time he starts and finishes work each day, the number of hours worked by and the wages and overtime paid to each worker and his signature for same. The employer and the worker shall be severally responsible for the proper posting of such book daily, except in the case of milk carters, when the book may be posted weekly. Such book shall be open on one day in each week, during working hours, to inspection by the secretary of the Union or any other person authorised in writing by him: Provided that an employer may at his option in lieu of a time book, provide a mechanical clock for the purpose of recording the starting and finishing times of workers, in which case a record of the number of hours worked each day by each worker, and the wages and overtime paid to such worker, shall be entered on a card or check (used in connection with such clock), which shall be signed by the worker on receipt of wages each week. The employer and the worker shall be severally responsible for the correct keeping daily of such card or check, which shall be open to inspection in the same manner as the time and wages book beforementioned.

Workers engaged on work from which they are unable to return to their homes at night shall be paid such personal expenses as they reasonably incur, but they shall be paid at the rate of fifteen shillings (15s.) per night at least. A worker prevented from returning with his turn-out to the depot or yard from which he started shall be paid any travelling expenses he has to incur and for the time he reasonably takes to get to his home beyond the time he would have taken to get to his home from the depot or yard: Provided that the above minimum payment shall not apply to a worker carting or driving from stations or similar places and who is supplied free of cost with food and/or accommodation.

20.—Payment of Wages.

All wages shall be paid on either Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday of each week, but the day, once fixed, shall not be altered more than once in three (3) months, or without two (2) weeks' notice to the workers. Such pays shall be available within ten (10) minutes of the time the worker ceases duty, where it is practicable to pay the worker on pay day at the yard or depot. If not made available within the time through any fault or delay of the employer, or because the worker ceases work at a place which causes more than ten (10) minutes' delay, overtime shall be paid for any excess of the ten (10) minutes referred to. No employer shall hold more than two (2) days' wages in hand.

21.—Mixed Functions.

A worker who is called upon to perform two (2) or more grades of work for more than two (2) hours on any day, shall be paid for the day at the grade for which the highest rate of wage is prescribed. Where the work for which the highest rate is prescribed does not exceed two (2) hours on any day, the worker shall be paid the highest rate for the actual time so worked.

22.—Temporary Change of Stable, etc.

Where an employer transfers a worker, after he comes to work, from one stable, garage, yard or place situated more than two (2) miles distant from the stable, garage, yard or place at which he usually works, fares to and from such altered stable, garage, yard or place shall be allowed by the employer. If he is transferred temporarily to work at a stable, garage, yard or place which requires him to travel one mile or more from his home beyond the distance he usually travels, the fares to and from and excess time shall be paid for by the employer.

23.—Proportion of Juniors.

(a) Juniors may be employed in the proportion of one junior to every five (5) adult drivers employed.

(b) Provided that, where less than five (5) adult drivers are employed, one junior driver may be employed.

(c) Provided also, that where no adult driver is employed, one junior driver may be employed.

(d) Provided further, that junior driver assistants may be employed in the proportion of one junior to every three (3) or fraction of the first three (3) adult drivers.

(e) When ascertaining the number of junior drivers and junior driver assistants to be allowed at the one time, the same adult drivers shall not be used twice in the calculations.

24.—Annual Leave.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer: Provided that the period of leave shall, in the case of milk and/or cream carters, ice and/or ice-cream carters and ice loaders be three and two-thirds ($3\frac{2}{3}$ rd.) weeks or where such workers work a five (5) day week, three and three-fifths ($3\frac{3}{5}$ th) weeks: Provided also that the period of leave shall, in the case of milk and/or cream carters, if required, generally speaking, to work continuously seven (7) days in the week, be three and four-sevenths ($3\frac{4}{7}$ th) weeks. Such leave shall be given to and taken by the worker within six (6) months of becoming due, unless the Union or the Board of Reference approves of an extension of this period.

(b) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid: Provided that this subclause shall not apply to milk carters, cream carters, ice carters, ice loaders, and ice-cream carters.

(c) If after one (1) month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service: Provided that, in the case of ice and/or ice-cream carters and ice loaders, such payment shall be eleven thirty-sixths ($\frac{11}{36}$ th) of a week's pay at the ordinary rate of wage: Provided also that, in the case of milk and/or cream carters such payment shall be twenty-five eighty-fourths ($\frac{25}{84}$ th) of a week's pay at the ordinary rate of wage.

(d) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(e) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under the Award the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(f) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (c) of this section, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(g) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(h) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

25.—Board and Lodging.

(a) Except in the case of parent and son, or retail milk carters, no worker shall board or lodge with his employer or on his premises. Where a worker boards and/or lodges with his employer in accordance with this clause, the employer shall be permitted to deduct from the wages of such worker for board, two pounds six shillings and threepence (£2 6s. 3d.) per week and for lodging thirteen shillings and ten-pence (13s. 10d.) per week; Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to stablemen.

(b) Provided that the amounts specified in subclause (a) hereof shall alter according to the variations in the basic wage as declared from time to time.

26.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$ th) of a week's pay for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to one (1) week in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (c) hereof, a worker who has already been allowed paid sick leave on one occasion shall not be entitled to payment for any further absence in the same year, unless he produces to the employer a medical certificate stating that he was unable to attend for duty on account of personal ill-health.

(e) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to any worker by his employer as paid sick leave may be claimed by the worker and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by his employer in any subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year. Provided that sick leave which accumulates pursuant to this subclause shall be available to the worker for a period of two (2) years but no longer from the end of the year in which it accrues.

(f) The quantum of sick leave which may accumulate to the 31st day of December, 1952, under subclause (e) of this Clause, shall not exceed five-sixths (5/6th) of a week's pay.

27.—General.

(a) Stablemen shall be entitled to receive one clear day's rest in seven (7). If they work on seven (7) days in any week they shall receive Sunday rates for all time worked on Sunday of such week.

(b) Stablemen required to live at the stable shall be provided with suitable housing accommodation for a stableman, free of cost, but if proper housing accommodation is provided for a stableman and his wife and family, and they elect to live there, the employer shall be entitled to charge a rent not exceeding half of the rent a similar house in that locality would readily let at not exceeding one pound (£1) a week.

(c) (i) During the first working week that an adult worker is employed by the employer as a driver, the employer shall be permitted to reduce the prescribed wage to the basic wage whilst the worker is learning the round.

(ii) During the first working week that a junior worker is employed by the employer as a driver, the employer shall be permitted to reduce the prescribed wage by fifty per cent. (50%) whilst the worker is learning the round.

(d) No junior under nineteen (19) years of age shall be allowed to drive or be in charge of more than one horse in the cities of Perth or Fremantle.

(e) Employers shall, when engaging workers, state definitely whether such worker is engaged as a weekly or casual hand. Failing such notice, the worker shall be deemed to be engaged as a weekly employee.

(f) Casual hands shall be notified at the end of the day if their services are not required next day. Failing such notice, a full day's wages shall be paid.

(g) Employers shall notify their workers, other than casual workers, on the working day preceding a holiday if their services are required next day. Failing such notice, the worker shall be entitled to take the holiday and to receive a full week's wages.

(h) Workers shall be provided free by the employer with all shovels, ropes, gear, and other tools necessary for the loading and unloading of goods or material on to or from any vehicle. Workers shall be responsible for such gear and tools and where any such article is lost, destroyed, or damaged through the negligence of the worker, he shall pay the cost of such article to the employer; for this purpose the cost may be deducted from any wages due to the worker.

(i) Each worker, with the exception of milk, cream, ice or ice-cream carters and loaders, shall be entitled to holidays as defined, and all carters and drivers shall be entitled to a half-holiday from the hour of 1 p.m. on some working day in the week, except where a five (5) day week is worked: Provided that, where milk and/or cream carters do not, generally speaking, work continuously seven (7) days in the week, they shall be entitled to holidays as defined.

(f) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(g) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(h) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (f) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(i) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(c) Travelling time outside ordinary working hours shall be paid for at ordinary rates up to a maximum of twelve (12) hours in any twenty-four hour period, from the time of starting on the journey. Provided that, when the travelling is by boat, not more than eight (8) hours shall be paid for in such period.

Junior workers, upon being engaged shall, if required, furnish the employer with a certificate containing the following particulars:—

(i) Name in full.

(ii) Date of birth.

In the event of the age of the worker being wrongly stated on the certificate a breach of this award shall not be deemed to have been committed by the employer and the worker shall have no claim upon the employer for additional pay.

22.—Record.

The employer shall keep or cause to be kept a time and wages record in which shall be entered the following particulars:—

(a) The name of each worker.

(b) The occupation of each worker.

(c) The hours worked by each worker each day, and each week.

(d) The wages (and overtime, if any) paid each week.

The said record shall be open for inspection by the secretary or an accredited representative of the Union at the office of the employer during working hours upon reasonable notice being given of the desire to inspect same.

23.—Change House.

As soon as practicable the employer shall provide all necessary sanitary accommodation, change rooms for workers, bathroom and shelter sheds or other suitable accommodation, and a sufficient supply of boiling water for workers at meal times.

24.—Kerosene and Waste.

A sufficient supply of kerosene and waste shall be provided by the employer for the use of workers.

25.—First Aid.

An adequate first aid kit shall be provided in each factory by the employer.

26.—Protection for Hands.

Suitable hand protectors shall be supplied when required to workers employed stacking in the yard or loading motor trucks and for mixers. The workers shall be required to exercise care in the use and custody of these articles and to deliver them at the end of the shift at such place and in such manner as may be required by the employer.

27.—Board of Reference.

The Court may appoint for the purpose of this Award a Board or Boards of Reference. Each Board shall consist of a chairman and two other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties, as prescribed by the regulations. There are assigned to each Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the Award, the functions of—

(i) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Award or any of them;

(ii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board, in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1950, which for this purpose are embodied in this Award.

28.—No Reduction.

This Award shall not in itself operate to reduce the wages of any worker below the rate actually received by him at the date hereof.

29.—Part-time Workers.

Liberty is reserved to either party to apply at any time for the inclusion of a clause to cover the employment of part-time workers.

I certify pursuant to section 65 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1950, that the foregoing is a copy of the agreement arrived at between the parties mentioned above.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award, the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done, ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(c) All work performed on Sunday or on the holidays prescribed in subclause (a) hereof shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(d) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve months' continuous service with such employer.

(e) If any Award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(f) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(g) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave, as prescribed by this Award, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

The said book shall be open to the inspection of the secretary of the Union during working hours: Provided, further, that in the event of an industrial dispute existing or anticipated concerning any of the provisions of this Award, the secretary or an accredited representative of the Union shall be permitted on the business premises of the employer during working hours: Provided that such officer shall not wilfully hamper or hinder the workers during their working time, and he may interview any worker or converse with him during any lunch hour or non-working time.

Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.
