(a) All employees who from time to time shall complete 25 years of continuous service with an employer shall be given Long Service Leave. Such Long Service Leave shall be taken at the conclusion of 25 years' continuous service and shall comprise 13 weeks' leave of absence for recreational purposes.

(b) Should an employee who has completed fifteen years of continuous service be retired compulsorily on medical grounds on the advice of a medical officer appointed by the employer or by reason of being over the employer's retiring age or die before completing 25 years' continuous service, there shall be paid by the employer to such employee or to his dependants as the case may require a sum of money bearing the same relation to 13 weeks' pay at his rate as his service with the employer bears to 25 years. "Dependant" shall mean the widow and/or children under the age of 16 years, or any child in fact dependent, of any employee and, in the case of a single employee shall mean such dependant (if any) as such single employee may in writing notify to the Company during his lifetime, accompanied by proper proof of actual dependency.

(c) Continuous service shall include any interval spent on service with Her Majesty's Armed Forces during the duration of any war on which Her Majesty may be engaged, and shall also include any interval spent during the duration of any war on which Her Majesty may be engaged with any National Service into which an employee is compulsorily drafted for defence purposes.

(d) Unless otherwise agreed in individual cases, Long Service Leave shall be taken at such period as shall be mutually agreed upon within two years of it becoming due. In default of agreement it shall be taken at such time within such period of two years as the employer shall determine.

(e) Except in the cases of an employee who, at the time he becomes eligible for Long Service Leave, is of an age exceeding sixty, all Long Service Leave, shall be taken by way of actual holiday and not by way of payment in lieu thereof on retirement. An employee who at the time he becomes eligible for Long Service Leave is beyond 60 years of age shall have the option of taking actual holiday under this scheme or of receiving payment in lieu thereof on retirement. Such option shall be exercised by a notice in writing addressed to the employer at the time of becoming eligible for Long Service Leave.

(f) Employees on Long Service Leave shall, while on such leave, continue to be paid at the actual rate (exclusive of overtime or other allowance) enjoyed by them at the commencement of such leave. Except in special circumstances payment shall be at the same times as during normal employment but may be made by cheque by mutual arrangement.

(g) It shall be a condition of every employee's taking Long Service Leave that he (or she)—

- (i) shall not under any circumstances be engaged in any gainful employment while on such leave;
- (ii) shall return to the active service of the employer forthwith at the expiration of the leave; and
- (iii) shall not draw any sick or accident pay simultaneously with Long Service Leave pay.

A breach of condition (i) above will result in immediate discharge from the employer's service accompanied by forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance or other similar payments or benefits. A breach of condition (ii) above (except as on the grounds of illness necessitating retirement or additional leave on the advice of a medical officer appointed by the employer) will result in forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance or other similar benefits or payments.

(h) In order to avoid manning difficulties, the Long Service Leave of employees who become entitled to the same in the first year of operation of the scheme shall be taken during such periods during the first two years of the scheme as shall be mutually agreed upon and in default of agreement at such times as the employer may decide.

(i) For the purpose of computation and allotment of Long Service Leave all Long Service Leave shall be deemed to become due on the 1st October next following the completion of the periods of 15 and 25 years' continuous service.

(j) The employer shall have the right in cases of emergency to recall any employee from Long Service Leave, in which case the unexpired leave shall be made up on some mutually convenient date.

(k) In order to avoid confusion and embarrassment employees whilst on Long Service Leave shall not, without the prior permission of the officer in charge of the particular establishment visit any of the premises of the employer except for the purpose of collecting pay or transacting genuine business with the employer's officers. Social visits shall not be indulged in. "Establishment" means any brewery, cooperage, or workshop, but does not include hotels or annual picnics or sports or usual weekly competitive sporting activities.

(l) The benefits of Long Service Leave shall be in addition to all benefits at present or hereafter to be enjoyed by employees.

(m) In the event of any Governmental or similar Long Service Leave Scheme being introduced for industry as a whole, the parties concerned shall meet to consider alterations necessary in order to adjust the scheme to such new conditions.

(n) Notwithstanding anything in this clause contained no employee nor his legal personal representative shall be entitled to any of the benefits by this clause conferred in any of the following circumstances—

- (i) When, in the opinion of the directors of an employer an employee has committed fraud upon the employer or any defalcation in relation to the employer or breach of trust or similar act prejudicially affecting or likely to so affect business or interests of the employer and is dismissed.
- (ii) If the employee shall become a bankrupt or insolvent debtor within the meaning of any Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia or of the State of Western Australia or shall assign, alienate or charge his benefits hereunder or any part thereof or attempt to do so or if through his own act or default or by operation or process of law the same shall become vested in or payable to some other person, firm or company.

12.—Engagement.

(a) The engagement between the employer and employee, except casual hands, shall be weekly, and may be terminated by a week's notice from either party, except in the case of the employee absenting himself without leave, not obeying lawful commands, or being guilty of other misconduct or of the works of the employer being stopped through fire or tempest when such agreement may be terminated immediately.

13.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) An employee who is unable through sickness or accident to attend his duties, shall notify the employer not later than 10 a.m. on the day he first absents himself from duty.

(b) An employee shall be entitled to sick pay in respect of any period of absence on account of sickness after the 1st day of January, 1948, on the basis of one half-day's pay for each completed month served with the employer between the said 1st day of January, 1948, and the date of the commencement of such absence provided that in calculating the amount due to an employee in respect of any particular period of absence through sickness there shall be deducted therefrom any sum or sums previously paid to him hereunder.

(c) The term "sickness" shall not include any case where the employee is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(d) No employee shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof of his sickness satisfactory to the employer. This proof shall be in the form of a medical certificate if the absence is for three days or more. The employer shall have the right at any time to have the employee examined by a doctor on behalf of the employer.

(e) Except as aforesaid, an employee shall not be entitled to payment for time lost through sickness or accident.

14.—Area.

This Agreement shall apply to all employees engaged in the brewing industry as engine-drivers, firemen and greasers, in the area comprised within a radius of fifteen (15) miles from the General Post Office, Perth.
