Morning tea may be taken by employees during this interval but the period of seven (7) minutes shall not be exceeded under any circumstances. Upon proof of breach by any employee of any provision hereinbefore expressed or implied the Court may grant the employer concerned exemption from liability to allow the rest period aforesaid.

Provided always that if the worker has been dismissed for pecculation or theft no claim for annual leave shall be recognised. Misconduct herein referred to shall not affect accumulated annual leave or payment therefor.

(iii) Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred.

(b) This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1912-1952.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer or his representative of sickness but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) consecutive working days or more.

(b) Any worker not attending for duty shall lose his pay for the actual time of such non-attendance, subject to the provisions of clause 15 hereof, as to payment for absence on account of illness.

(c) This clause does not affect the right to dismiss for misconduct, in which case wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.

12.—Mixed Functions.

A worker who is required to do work which is entitled to a higher rate under this Award than that which he or she usually performs, shall be entitled to the higher rate whilst so employed.

13.—Holidays.

(a) The following days, or the days observed in lieu, shall be allowed as holidays without deduction of pay, namely, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, State Foundation Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

(b) All work performed on any of the foregoing days shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(c) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award, the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done, ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

14.—Annual Leave.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of 12 months' continuous service with such employer.

(b) If any award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(c) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(d) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay, or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(e) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (c) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers, he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default, or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(d) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay under the preceding provision, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

16.—Junior Worker's Certificate.

Junior workers, upon being engaged shall, if required, furnish the employer with a certificate containing the following particulars:—(1) Name in full; (2) age and date of birth; (3) name of each previous employer and length of service with such employer; (4) class of work performed for each previous employer.

No worker shall have any claim upon an employer for additional pay, in the event of the age or length of service of the worker being wrongly stated on the certificate. If any junior worker shall wilfully mis-state his age in the above certificate, he alone shall be guilty of a breach of this Award.

17.—Posting of Award.

The employer shall, upon request of the Union, post a copy of this Award in a conspicuous place in the factory, where it is easily accessible to the workers.

18.—Time and Wages Record.

The employer shall keep, or cause to be kept, a record containing the following particulars:—

- (a) The name of each worker.
- (b) The class of work performed.
- (c) The hours worked each day.
- (d) The wage and overtime (if any) paid.
- (e) The age of each junior worker.

Such record shall be open to the inspection of an accredited representative of the Union.

Any system of automatic recording by machines shall be deemed to comply with this provision to the extent of the information recorded.

19.—No Reduction.

Nothing herein contained shall entitle an employer to reduce the wage of any worker who at the date of this Award was being paid a higher rate of wage than the minimum prescribed for his or her class of work.

20.—Meal Interval.

No female worker or junior male worker shall be employed for a longer period than five (5) hours without a break for a meal. The time allowed for each meal required shall not be more than one hour.

21.—Payment of Wages.

Wages shall be paid at least once weekly.

(3)—67268

22.—Board of Reference.

For the purpose of this Award, a Board of Reference is hereby appointed, which shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties. The said Board shall have assigned to it in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the dispute, the functions of—

- (a) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise from time to time, except such as involve interpretation of the provisions of this Award, or any of them;
- (b) dealing with any other matter which the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, which for this purpose are embodied in this Award.

23.—Under rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage, may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the Union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for the employer at the proposed lesser rate.

24.—Part-time Workers.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the employer shall be at liberty to employ part-time workers. Where any worker is employed under the provisions of this clause, wages as prescribed in clause 6, annual leave as prescribed in clause 14, and sick pay as prescribed in clause 15, shall be reduced proportionately.

25.—Breakdowns, Etc.

The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day upon which the worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the Union or unions affiliated with it, or by any other association or union, or through the breakdown of the employer's machinery, or any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

26.—General Provisions.

(a) No female worker shall be permitted to lift or to carry weights in excess of thirty-five (35) lbs.

(b) Where and when practicable, suitable seating accommodation shall be provided for female workers unless it is physically impossible to carry out the work required in a sitting posture.

(c) A suitable change and mess room shall be provided.

27.—Inspection by Union.

(a) The secretary of the Union, or any official thereunto authorised in writing by the Union shall, on production of such authority to the employer or his manager, be allowed once in each week to inspect any part of the employer's works where it is suspected that a breach of this Award has occurred, or is occurring, but such inspection shall be carried out in the company of the employer or someone on his behalf.

(b) The employer shall provide the necessary facilities for the investigation of the breach, or the supposed breach, of the Award, including access to the time books, sheets or cards referred to in clause 18 hereof.

(c) The Union official exercising his right under this clause shall not interfere with or inconvenience the work and duties of the workers more than is absolutely necessary for the proper investigation of the breach or supposed breach of the Award.
