(a) The said shares confer on the holder thereof a right to a fixed cumulative preferential dividend at the rate of seven pounds (£7) per centum per annum on the capital for the time being paid up thereon and in a winding-up to payment off of such capital and all arrears of such fixed dividend accrued up to the commencement of the winding-up (whether earned or declared or not) in priority to the ordinary shares in the capital of the Company for the time being but such preference shares shall not entitle the holder in any further or other participation in the profits or assets of the Company.

(b) The Company may, at any time after the expiration of one (1) year after the date of allotment of any of the preference shares on one month's notice to the holders thereof apply any profits or moneys of the Company which may be lawfully applied for that purpose in the redemption of all or any of such preference shares at par together with all arrears of the fixed dividend thereon (whether earned or declared or not) up to the date of redemption: Provided that the Company shall so redeem all the preference shares not later than the 1st day of October, 1963.

(c) If the Company should at any time determine to redeem a part only of the preference shares for the time being outstanding the shares to be redeemed shall be determined by and at the discretion of the directors and they shall be at liberty in their absolute discretion to redeem all or any of the preference shares held by any one shareholder in preference to those held by any other holder or holders of the preference shares as the directors shall think fit.

(d) No further shares ranking in priority to or pari passu with the preference shares shall at any time be created without the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the preference shares which may be issued and outstanding or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of such shares in accordance with the provisions of Act 9 of the Companies Act, unless such further shares be created and issued for the purpose of redeeming out of the proceeds of the issue thereof the preference shares or such of them as shall for the time being be issued and outstanding.

(e) The preference shares shall not confer on the holders thereof the right to notice of or to attend or vote either in person or by proxy at any general meeting of the Company other than a general meeting at which a resolution for the voluntary liquidation of the Company is proposed. On a resolution for the voluntary liquidation of the Company every holder of the preference shares shall have one vote for every share held by him.

4. The rights attached to the preference shares or to each class of preference shares forming part of the original or increased capital of the Company are as set out in paragraph 3 above.

Dated the 4th day of September, 1953.
