PRICES CONTROL ACT, 1948-1952.

Prices Control Order No. 905.

Ice.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Control Regulations, 1949, I, Constantin Paul Mathea, Prices Control Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Control Order No. 905.

2. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“prevailing price” means, in relation to the sale by any person of any ice, the price at which that person sold such goods on the 13th day of November, 1953, upon substantially the same terms and conditions, or if no such sale was made by that person on that date upon substantially the same terms and conditions, then the last preceding date upon which such sale was made by that person upon substantially the same terms and conditions;

“cost” means, in relation to the sale of any ice by any person, the sum of money or other valuable consideration paid or furnished or agreed to be paid or furnished for or in respect of those goods by that person.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any Order issued prior to this Order, I fix and declare the maximum price at which any ice may be sold by any person to be the prevailing price.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any Order issued prior to this Order, I fix and declare the maximum price at which any person who did not on or before the 13th day of November, 1953, sell any ice to be the cost of such ice to that person: Provided that upon application by any person the maximum price at which ice may be sold by that person shall be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Variation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which any ice specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given, to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1953.

C. P. MATHEA,
Prices Control Commissioner.
