Crown Law Department,

THE following amendments of the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1909, are published for general information.

R. C. GREEN,
Under Secretary for Law.

SUPREME COURT ACT, 1935-1950.

Rules of the Supreme Court, 1909.

We, the Honourable Sir John Patrick Dwyer, K.C.M.G., Chief Justice of Western Australia, the Honourable Albert Asher Wolff, the Honourable James Leonard Walker, the Honourable Lawrence Walter Jackson and the Honourable John Evenden Virtue, Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court of Western Australia acting in pursuance of the powers contained in the Supreme Court Act, 1935-1950, and of every other power enabling us in this behalf, do hereby amend the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1909, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Subject as hereinafter provided ORDER LXV and APPENDIX N of the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1909, and amendments are hereby rescinded and the following new Order and Appendix, to take effect on the first day of January, 1954, are substituted.

The new Order and Appendix shall apply to all business commenced in the Court on or after that date, and the old Order and Appendix shall continue to apply to all business commenced in the Court before that date.

ORDER LXV.

General Rules as to Costs.

1. (1) Subject to the express provisions of any statute and of these Rules the costs of and incidental to all proceedings including the administration of estates and trusts shall be in the discretion of the Court or Judge but, without limiting the general discretion conferred on the Court by the Act, the Court will generally order that the successful party to any action or matter recover his costs: Provided that—

- (a) if the Court is of opinion that the conduct of a party either before or after the commencement of the litigation has resulted in costs being unnecessary or unreasonably incurred it may deprive that party of costs wholly or in part, and may further order him to pay the costs of an unsuccessful party either wholly or in part;
- (b) where a party though generally successful in an action has, by the introduction of some issue or issues on which he has failed, increased the costs the Court may order such party to pay the costs of such issue or issues.

Provided that where a plaintiff obtains a judgment or order against a defendant who has been joined in order that all parties interested in the lis shall be bound by the judgment or order, no order for costs shall be made against such defendant if he is not in default, or if he does not contest the plaintiff's claim, and has not made any claim or asserted any right in the lis, but in such case the Court may grant that defendant such sum for costs as will compensate him for expenses necessarily incurred by him and may in doing so exercise the powers hereinafter conferred on it to order costs out of any property or fund with or without a right of recourse against any other party to the action or matter.

(2) In the absence of any special order—

- (a) where the statement of claim contains more than one cause of action and the plaintiff succeeds on one or more causes of action and the defendant succeeds on another or others, costs shall be allowed to the plaintiff on the cause or causes of action on which he succeeds and to the defendant on that or those on which he succeeds, in the same manner as if separate actions had been brought;
- (b) where the plaintiff succeeds in his action and the defendant succeeds on a counterclaim, costs shall be awarded as if each party respectively had succeeded in an independent action: Provided that the Court may, in any case where it considers that the counterclaim was more in the nature of a defence than a cross-action give directions ensuring that there shall be an equitable adjustment as between the parties of the costs of the litigation, and in the absence of any such directions the Taxing Officer may on taxation apportion any of the items so as equitably to adjust the rights of the parties;
- (c) where several defendants defend an action separately and it appears that the defendants or any of them might have joined in their defence, the Court may allow only one set of costs to those defendants as to whom it appears a joint defence might have been conducted and separate costs to any other or others who in the opinion of the Court were properly separately represented;
- (d) if there are several defendants and the plaintiff has a verdict against them, each of them shall be liable to the plaintiff for the entire costs although they defend separately: Provided that the Court may from time to time make an order or orders as between several defendants apportioning the liability as between themselves and the recovery of contribution;
- (e) a plaintiff suing in a representative character shall personally be liable to pay costs to the defendant in case of a non-suit or of a judgment for the defendant.

Costs out of Funds and Property.

2. Where property is the subject of any action or matter, or where any question arising therein will affect any right or claim to property, the Court may make an order that the costs of any party may be recovered out of the property with or without recourse against any other party: Provided that no such order shall be made unless the Court is satisfied that the party seeking the order had a genuine interest to protect, or that it was reasonable in the circumstances that he should appear.

3. Where the Court orders payment of costs out of any property it shall direct out of what portion or portions the costs shall be paid.

4. The costs of inquiries to ascertain the person entitled to any share or interest in property shall be paid from such share or interest unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

5. Where some of the persons entitled to share in property are ascertained and there is, or is likely to be, difficulty in ascertaining the remaining persons entitled, the Court may authorise immediate payment of the shares of the persons ascertained without reserving any part of their shares to answer the costs subsequently to be incurred in ascertaining the remaining persons entitled.

Orders against Solicitors.

6. Where in any action or matter a solicitor has by misconduct or neglect caused his client or some other party to be mulcted in any costs unnecessarily, the Court may order the solicitor personally to pay such costs or to reimburse them to his client or the other party where they have already been paid, and may if it thinks fit refer the matter to the Taxing Officer for inquiry and report.

Solicitor Acting as Guardian ad Litem.

7. Where a solicitor acts as guardian ad litem of an infant or person of unsound mind he shall not be entitled to an order for reimbursement of costs incurred out of any property of the infant or person of unsound mind unless the Court has sanctioned his acting in that capacity at the time of his assuming guardianship and is satisfied that the costs were properly incurred.

Set-off.

8. A set-off for damages or costs between parties may be allowed notwithstanding the solicitor's lien for costs in the particular action in which the set-off is sought.

Costs of Law Officers.

9. In all actions or matters in which a Law Officer or other solicitor employed by the Crown or any instrumentality of the Crown shall act in his official capacity the party for whom he acts shall be entitled to recover costs in the same manner and to the same extent as if the Law Officer or other solicitor were a private practitioner engaged by such party.

Security.

10. The Court may order security for costs to be given by a plaintiff, but no order shall be made merely on account of the poverty of the plaintiff or the likely inability of the plaintiff to pay any costs which may be awarded against him.

11. Without limiting the generality of the preceding rule the Court may order security for costs to be furnished where the plaintiff—

- (a) is ordinarily resident out of the jurisdiction, notwithstanding that he may be temporarily within the jurisdiction;
- (b) is about to depart from the jurisdiction;
- (c) enjoys within the jurisdiction some privilege which renders him immune, wholly or partially, from the normal processes of execution;
- (d) is an undischarged bankrupt or a person who has suspended, or given notice of suspension of, his debts;
- (e) is a company in liquidation;
- (f) is a relator suing for the enforcement or declaration of some public right or to have some public trust carried out or some charitable scheme settled;
- (g) is in default in respect of any costs ordered to be paid by him in any proceedings previously brought by him against the same defendant or another defendant for substantially the same cause of action or in relation to substantially the same subject matter;
- (h) is a person who has in the past vexatiously brought litigation against the same defendant or against any other defendant;
- (i) is suing the Sheriff in respect of anything done by the Sheriff or his officers in the execution of any judgment of the Court.

12. The granting of security shall be in the discretion of the Court, and in determining whether an order should be made the Court shall take into consideration—

- (a) the prima facie merits of the claim;
- (b) what property within the jurisdiction may be available to satisfy any order for costs against the plaintiff.
- (c) whether the normal processes of the Court would be available within the jurisdiction for enforcement of any order for costs made against the plaintiff.

13. The term "plaintiff" shall include a defendant counterclaiming in respect of a claim not arising out of the claim made against him, and shall also include a claimant in prize proceedings in Admiralty.

14. In fixing security the Court shall direct the form and manner in which the security is to be given and may from time to time vary the amount and form of the security.

15. Where security is ordered the action or other proceedings shall be stayed until the security is furnished, unless the Court otherwise orders.

16. Where money has been paid into court as security for costs and the action has been finally disposed of, the amount of the security shall be paid out to the party for whose security it was furnished to the extent pro tanto that costs are due from the securer to such party, and the Master shall pay out the security accordingly unless the Court has otherwise ordered, and the balance (if any) shall be refunded to the securer without the necessity for any special order.

Scale of Costs and Application.

17. In all actions and matters solicitors shall be entitled to charge the fees set out in Appendix N.

18. (1) Where the Court or a Judge is of opinion that, by reason of the unusual complexity or importance of the case, any of the allowances in Appendix N are inadequate the Court or Judge may order that any such allowances be increased or may direct the Taxing Officer to tax the costs on a special scale, and in giving any such direction the Court or Judge may fix a limit within which the Taxing Officer may allow such costs.

(2) The Court or Judge may award a lump sum by way of costs or may direct that a party entitled to costs shall recover only a proportion of the costs under the scale.

(3) Where on an appeal, or on an appeal and cross-appeal, it is desirable that costs be apportioned as between any of the parties, the Court may itself make the apportionment or may refer the matter to the Taxing Officer for his determination, with such directions as it considers necessary.

(4) Where proceedings are removed from an inferior court or tribunal, or where mandamus is sought against an inferior court or tribunal, the Court may in awarding costs in the proceedings before it order the payment of such sum as it thinks fit in respect of any costs incurred in the proceedings below.

Taxation of Costs.

19. Notice of taxing costs shall not be necessary in any case where the defendant has not filed a defence or has not given notice of his intention to be heard in the action or matter to which the costs relate.

20. Every bill of costs which shall be left for taxation shall be indorsed with the name and address of the solicitor by whom it is so left, and also the name and address of the solicitor (if any) for whom he is agent, including any solicitor who is entitled or intended to participate in the costs to be so taxed.

21. Where notice is required, two days' notice of taxing costs, together with the bill of costs and any affidavit of increase which may be necessary, shall be given to the other party by the party whose costs are to be taxed.

22. Where any solicitor fails to leave his bill with the necessary papers and vouchers within the time or extended time fixed by the Taxing Officer, or in any way delays or impedes the taxation, he shall, unless the Taxing Officer otherwise directs, forfeit the fees to which he would be entitled for drawing his bill of costs and attending on taxation.

23. The appointment made by the Registrar shall be peremptory and he shall proceed thereon ex parte on proof that due notice has been given to the opposite party, unless sufficient cause appears for postponement.

24. In every bill of costs the professional charges shall be entered in a separate column from the disbursements and every column shall be added before the bill is left for taxation.

25. (1) The Taxing Officer shall be the judge of all questions of fact.

(2) The Taxing Officer shall for the purpose of any taxation proceedings before him have power to administer an oath to, and compel evidence from, any solicitor or person who in his opinion can furnish information likely to assist him in the performance of his duties.

26. Where a Judge directs that any matter shall be adjourned into court the same fees shall, unless the Judge otherwise orders, be payable and the same costs shall be allowed in respect of proceedings subsequent to the adjournment as would have been payable if the matter had been begun in court.

27. (1) The costs of compliance with a notice or order to answer interrogatories, give discovery, or produce documents for inspection shall be reserved for the consideration of the Judge at trial, or, where there is no trial, for the consideration of a Judge, who shall make an order for judgment or dismissing the action or matter before or without trial.

(2) In considering whether any order should be made and against which party the order should be made the Judge shall decide—

(a) whether either or both of the parties have by their conduct in connection with the request for, or the answers to, interrogatories or the giving of discovery or inspection unnecessarily increased the costs;

(b) whether the results achieved have justified wholly or in part the additional costs involved;

and may award the whole or part of the additional costs as he thinks justified, or give such special directions as he thinks necessary to the Taxing Officer if the costs are left to the Taxing Officer for taxation.

28. (1) Where taxation of costs is not ordered, or any special costs are by these Rules or by any order reserved for the consideration of the Court at trial, the Court may fix the amount of costs payable in any action or matter, or the amount of such special costs, and in every judgment or order of the Court where the question of costs is not specifically dealt with there shall be deemed to be reserved to any party interested liberty to apply within 30 days.

(2) Where under these Rules a party is required to obtain some special certificate for costs, there shall be deemed to be reserved to such party liberty to apply within 30 days.

29. Where taxation of costs is ordered, and by the terms of the order, or by the effect of the order, the costs are to be apportioned as between the parties or a party is entitled to receive the costs applicable to any part of the action or matter, then in case of any doubt or difficulty arising on taxation there shall be deemed to be reserved in every such order an authority to the Taxing Officer or any party to refer the question to a Judge.

30. Where any party entitled to tax his costs neglects or refuses to do so and thereby delays the distribution of any funds or prejudices the rights of any other party, the Taxing Officer may certify the fact and proceed to tax the bills of costs of any other parties bringing in their bills for taxation; and may, on such certification, allow the party in default such nominal fee as he thinks fit and certify the fact, and thereupon the person or persons in control of the fund shall be entitled to disregard the costs of the party in default except to the extent of the nominal fee so certified, and the party in default shall have no right to recover any sum in excess of the nominal fee so certified.

31. Where in any action or matter any bill of costs is directed to be taxed for the purpose of being paid or raised out of any fund or property, the Taxing Officer may, previously to completing the taxation, require the solicitor to deliver or send to his clients, or any of them, free of charge, a copy of such bill or any part thereof, accompanied by any statement such officer may direct and by a letter informing such client that the bill of costs has been referred to the Taxing Officer for taxation and will be proceeded with at the time the officer shall have appointed for this purpose, and such officer may suspend the taxation for such time as he may consider reasonable.

Review of Taxation.

32. The Court may, where it appears that the Taxing Officer has made an error in principle, refer the matter back with such directions as the Court thinks fit, or may deal with the matter itself.

33. A party who contends that the Taxing Officer has made an error in principle may within 7 days of the signing of the allocatur request the Taxing Officer to furnish his reasons for the fixation of the costs and may bring such reasons before a Judge on motion to review the decision of the Taxing Officer.

34. The application to review shall be supported by an affidavit stating the facts on which the application is made and also showing that objection was made before the Taxing Officer to the allowance or disallowance of the charges in question.

Effect of Allocatur.

35. The Taxing Officer shall have authority to grant an interim allocatur.

36. The costs allowed by the Taxing Officer on any interim or final allocatur shall be deemed to be a judgment of the Court and shall be recoverable accordingly.

37. A party who has requested the Taxing Officer to furnish reasons for the allowance or disallowance of any item on taxation with the object of appealing may request the Taxing Officer to grant a stay of proceedings, either wholly or limited to such item, and in the event of the Taxing Officer refusing such stay may apply to a Judge.

NOTES.

(a) Subject to the provisions of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1893, permitting a solicitor to make a written agreement as to costs with his client, the fees allowed under the foregoing scale shall apply both as between party and party and solicitor and client, but where costs have been incurred which in the opinion of the Taxing Officer are not properly recoverable against the party liable under the judgment or order to pay costs, but have nevertheless been properly incurred, or where costs have been incurred at the special request of the client, such costs shall be recoverable from the client, and the Taxing Officer is hereby authorised to fix such sum as he thinks reasonable to cover such additional costs.

(b) The total costs of an action exclusive of disbursements shall not exceed £1,500 unless the Court certifies for the whole of the costs in accordance with the details of the scale: Provided that this shall not limit the power of the Court to fix the costs at any amount.

(c) If any action is brought in the Supreme Court which could have been brought in a local court without the special consent of the defendant, the plaintiff shall recover no greater sum by way of costs than he could have recovered had the action been brought in the local court, unless the Judge certifies that by reason of some important principle of law being involved or of the complexity of the issues or of the facts the action was properly brought in the Supreme Court.

Where these limiting provisions apply no solicitor shall be entitled to charge his client any sum by way of costs in excess of that properly payable on a party and party basis in the local court, unless the client has agreed in writing before the proceedings are commenced to pay on a higher scale, or the Judge has certified that the action was properly brought in the Supreme Court.

(d) In any matter not otherwise specially provided for the Judge or the Taxing Officer may allow costs by way of analogy according to the item in the scale which is most nearly applicable thereto; or if, in the opinion of the Judge or the Taxing Officer, there is no such item he shall fix the costs at such sum as in his opinion is adequate in the circumstances.

(e) In any matter coming within the provisions of the scale the Court or Judge may direct the Taxing Officer to tax and fix the costs within the limitations of the scale.

(f) In addition to the items of costs allowable under the foregoing scale, all disbursements for fees of court, fees of officers, witness expenses actually paid according to the scale of allowances fixed in that regard, agency charges if specially allowed by the Court or by the Taxing Officer, and other necessary payments and expenses incurred in the conduct of the litigation shall be allowable.

(g) (i) Where the claim is for a liquidated sum costs are to be calculated on the amount recovered by the plaintiff if he succeeds and on the amount claimed if the defendant succeeds.

(ii) Where relief other than a liquidated sum is claimed, either alone or in addition to a liquidated sum, the Court in giving judgment shall fix the value of the subject matter for the purpose of determining which of the three scales shall be applicable.

(iii) If judgment is entered before trial without application to a Judge the Master shall determine the value of the subject matter for the purpose of this rule, or may fix a lump sum for costs, and in case of difficulty may refer the matter to a Judge.

(iv) The costs of the solicitor for the unsuccessful party as against his client shall be on the same basis as the costs of the successful party: Provided that the client or the solicitor may, at any time within six calendar months from the date of judgment, apply to a Judge for an order that such costs be fixed on some other basis.

(h) Where an action is discontinued or dismissed before trial the Judge or the Taxing Officer, in lieu of the prescribed fee, may allow such amount by way of costs as he considers to be merited in the circumstances.
