AT a meeting of the Executive Council held in the Executive Council Chamber at Perth on the 19th day of February, 1954, the following Order in Council was authorised to be issued:—

Government Employees (Promotions Appeal Board) Act, 1945-1953.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by subsection (1) of section five of the Government Employees (Promotions Appeal Board) Act, 1945-1953, it is enacted that if a vacancy in or a new office created in a department is filled by the promotion (whether with or without transfer) of an employee of that or another department who has been recommended for such vacancy or new office by the recommending authority concerned any employee who applied for appointment to or employment in such vacancy or new office and has not been recommended therefor and who considers himself more entitled to the promotion than the employee who has been promoted may in such manner and within such time as is prescribed appeal against such promotion of such other employee to the Promotions Appeal Board established under this Act; and whereas by paragraph (b) of the proviso to that subsection it is provided that where the terms and conditions of employment appertaining to such vacancy or new office are or will be regulated by the provisions of an award or industrial agreement in force under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, only those employee applicants who, when they make application for appointment to or employment in such vacancy or new office, are members of an industrial union which is a party to such award or industrial agreement shall have the right of appeal under this section unless the Governor declares upon special grounds that this paragraph does not apply in respect of the vacancy or new office; and whereas employees who are employed on the wages staff of the Government tramways and Government ferries mentioned in the Western Australian Government Tramways and Ferries Act, 1948-1953 referred to in this Order as the Government tramways and ferries, and who apply for promotion to a vacancy in a salaried office, or to a new salaried office created in the Government tramways and ferries, have no right of appeal against the promotion, of an employee employed in the Government tramways and ferries, whether promoted from the wages staff or salaried staff of the Government tramways and ferries, to the vacancy in, or new, office; and whereas employees employed on the wages staff of the Department mentioned in the Government Railways Act, 1904-1953, have such a right of appeal in respect of a vacancy in a salaried office, or a new salaried office created in that Department; and whereas it is deemed expedient that a declaration should be made under paragraph (b) of that proviso on the special grounds that employees employed on the wages staff of the Government tramways and ferries should have in respect of promotion to a salaried office, or a new salaried office created, in the Government tramways and ferries, similar rights of appeal to those which employees employed on the wages staff of the Department mentioned in the Government Railways Act, 1904-1953, have in respect of promotion to a salaried office, or a new salaried office created, in that Department: Now therefore His Excellency the Governor acting with the advice and consent of the Executive Council and in exercise of the power conferred by paragraph (b) of the proviso to subsection (1) of section five of the Government Employees (Promotions Appeal Board) Act, 1945-1953 hereby declares on the special grounds already mentioned that an employee employed on the wages staff of the Government tramways and ferries who applies for appointment to a vacancy in a salaried office, or to a new salaried office created in the Government tramways and ferries and who considers himself more entitled to promotion to the office than the employee who is promoted whether from the salaried staff or the wages staff of the Government tramways and ferries, to the office may in such manner and within such time as is prescribed appeal against the promotion of such other employee to the Promotions Appeal Board established under the Government Employees (Promotions Appeal Board) Act, 1945-1953, notwithstanding that at the time of making the application the applicant is not a member of an industrial union which is a party to an award or industrial agreement in force under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, the provisions of which award or agreement regu-

8.—Part-time Workers.

Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Award workers may be employed on a part time basis and the following conditions shall apply.

- (a) Part-time workers shall be paid on an hourly basis, the hourly rate being calculated in proportion to the hours worked in the particular establishment in which they are employed at the rate of wages prescribed in Clause 6 hereof.
- (b) Payment of annual leave, public holidays and sick pay shall be strictly related proportionately in accordance with the number of hours worked to the conditions prescribed for full-time workers.

9.—Weekly Day Off.

All workers shall be allowed one full day off each week. All work done on this day shall be paid for at the ordinary rate and an additional day on full pay shall be added to the amount of annual leave to which the worker is entitled under Clause 13 hereof for each day so worked, or the day may be observed on any other day by agreement between the employer and the worker: Provided that if only part of the day is worked by the worker, time off shall be granted equivalent only to the time actually worked on the day.

10.—Piecework.

(a) An employer may make a contract with any worker or group of workers for payment by results by piece-work.

(b) The rate of payment shall be fixed on the basis that it shall be sufficient to yield to a worker of average capacity for a full week's work of the ordinary hours in an establishment, at least ten per cent. (10%) above the minimum time rate of pay as prescribed herein for such week's work.

(c) A worker working under any system of payment by result shall receive at least time rate of pay as prescribed herein.

11. Breakdowns.

The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day upon which a worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the union or unions affiliated with it, or by any other association or union, or through the breakdown of the employer's machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

12.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to one (1) week in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(c) Any worker absenting himself from work on the whole or any portion of the working day preceding or on the whole or any portion of the working day succeeding a holiday provided for herein shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday.

(d) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(e) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(f) If any award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one (1) day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(g) If after one (1) month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth (1/6th) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(h) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(i) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (g) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(j) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(k) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

14.—Wages Record.

(a) Each employer shall keep a wages book showing the name of each worker and the wages and allowances paid each week. Any system of automatic recording by means of machines shall be deemed to comply with this provision to the extent of the information recorded.

(b) The wages record shall be open for inspection by a duly accredited official of the Union, during the usual office hours, at the employer's office or other convenient place, and he shall be allowed to take extracts therefrom. The employer's works shall be deemed to be a convenient place for the purpose of this paragraph, and if for any reason the record be not available at the works when the official calls to inspect it, it shall be made available for inspection within twelve (12) hours either at the employer's office or at the works.

15.—Payment of Wages.

Wages shall be paid weekly.

16.—Under-rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the Union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

17.—Board of Reference.

(a) The Court hereby appoints for the purpose of this Award a Board of Reference.

(b) The Board shall consist of a chairman to be appointed by the Court and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties.

(c) The Board is hereby assigned the following functions in the event of a disagreement between the parties bound by this Award:—

(i) Adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of this Award or any of them.

(ii) Deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

(d) The provisions of regulation 92 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, shall be deemed to apply to any Board of Reference appointed hereunder.

18.—Lodging.

Where lodging or quarters are supplied to a worker the employer shall be entitled to deduct from the wages of the worker an amount agreed upon between the employer and worker concerned to cover such lodging or quarters.

19.—Representative Interviewing Workers.

In the case of a disagreement existing or anticipated concerning any of the provisions of this Award, an accredited representative of the union shall be permitted to interview the workers during the recognised meal hour, on the business premises of the employer, but this permission shall not be exercised, without the consent of the employer, more than once in any one (1) week.

20.—No Reduction.

This Award shall not in itself operate to reduce the wages of any worker below the amount actually received by him at the date hereof.

I certify pursuant to Section 65 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, that the foregoing is a copy of the agreement arrived at between the parties mentioned above.
