not faithfully observe and keep his part of his agreement, then it shall be lawful for the employer, with the consent of the Court, to discharge the apprentice from his service.

19. The Court may in its discretion for any cause which it may deem sufficient on the application of any party to an apprenticeship agreement vary or cancel the agreement, either unconditionally or subject to such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable.

23. The term of apprenticeship may be extended by the Court on the failure of an apprentice to pass two successive periodical examinations, either by ordering a continuation of any particular year of the apprenticeship, in which case the next year of service shall not commence until after the expiration of the extended period, or by adding the period of extension to the last year of service. It shall be the duty of the examiners to make any recommendation they see fit to the Court for the purpose of such extension. Any extension of the term of apprenticeship shall be subject to all the conditions and stipulations in the original agreement, except as to rates of wages, which shall be such amount as the Court may determine. (See also regulations 34 and 35.)

(b) The fees for the classes attended by the apprentice shall be paid for by the employer.

(c) The period during which apprentices are to attend such technical school or classes, if any, shall be four hours per week.

(b) fails to be diligent or behaves in an indecorous manner while in such school or class; or

(c) destroys or fails to take care of any material or equipment in such school or class, shall be deemed to commit a breach of the Award and shall be liable for each such breach to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

26. Where in any case it is shown to the satisfaction of the Court that any apprentice, by reason of his engagement on country work or other good cause, cannot conveniently attend a technical school or other prescribed classes, such of these regulations as relate to attendance at a technical school or other prescribed classes, and to examinations, shall not apply to such apprentice, but he shall be subject to such conditions as the Court may direct.

27. If the examiners or the industrial Union or employer concerned make representations to the Court that the facilities provided by the technical school or other place of vocational training for the teaching of apprentices, are inadequate, the Court make such investigations and such report to the Minister controlling such technical school, or such other place, as it deems necessary.

28. When an apprentice attends a technical school, vocational classes, or other class or classes of instruction during his ordinary working hours, where such is prescribed, the time so occupied shall be regarded as part of the term of his apprenticeship, and the employer shall not be entitled to make any deduction from the wages of the apprentice for such time.

Examinations.

29. (a) Every apprentice shall be bound to submit himself to examination at the places and times appointed by the Registrar after consultation with the examiners.

(b) Every apprentice shall, prior to submitting himself to examination, if required by the examiners, produce to the examiners a certificate that he has made at least 70 per centum of attendances at the technical school or other place of instruction, unless he is exempted from such attendance for good cause.

(c) The Registrar shall notify the examiners of the names and addresses of the apprentices required to submit themselves to examination and the attendances made by them at the technical school, should such information be in his possession.

(d) The employer shall place at the disposal of the examiners such material and machinery on his premises as may be required by them, and shall in all ways facilitate the conduct of the examination.

30. (a) The examiners shall be persons skilled in the industry and appointed by the Court. In the event of a disagreement between the examiners, the matter in dispute shall be referred to a third person agreed to by them or nominated by the Court or the President, at the request of any of the examiners, and the decision of such person shall be final and conclusive.

(b) It shall be the duty of the examiners to examine the work, require the production of a certificate of attendance, inquire into the diligence of each apprentice, and as to the opportunities provided by the employer for each apprentice to learn, and to submit a report to the Court in writing as to the result of the examination within one month from the date of holding the examination, but this period may be extended by the Court.

(c) Such examination shall, where possible, include theory and practice as applied to the trade, industry, craft, occupation, or calling to which the apprentice is indentured.

31. The Registrar shall, after each examination, issue a certificate to each apprentice indicating the results and the term of apprenticeship served. A duplicate of such certificate shall be forwarded by the Registrar to the employer and the secretary of the Union, each of whom shall keep the same in safe custody and produce for inspection by the Industrial Inspector whenever demanded by the latter to do so.

32. Whenever it is possible so to do, the examiners, before entering upon the examination, shall draw up a syllabus showing what, in their opinion, is the stage of proficiency which an apprentice should attain at each of the examinations prescribed. The syllabus shall be subject to review by the Court at any time, and shall be kept as a record by the Registrar and a copy handed to the examiners before each examination. The said syllabus may be subject to alteration from time to time by the examiners, who shall forthwith notify the Registrar thereof.

33. In lieu of, or in addition to, examiners above referred to the Court may appoint, wholly or partly, examiners to be recommended by the Superintendent of Technical Education for the whole or any portion of the subjects of instruction.

34. On the failure of an apprentice to pass any of the examinations, the employer may, if the examiners so recommend, withhold the increase in wages accruing to the apprentice in accordance with the scale set forth in the Award for such period as may be recommended by the examiners, but not exceeding twelve months. (See also regulation 23.)

35. Upon the failure of an apprentice to pass two consecutive examinations, it shall be the duty of the examiners to report same to the Court, with a recommendation as to the extension of the apprenticeship period, the cancellation of the apprenticeship agreement, or such other remedial measures (i.e., increased time for technical instruction) as they may deem advisable. The Court, after notice to all parties concerned, may cancel the agreement or make such other order in the circumstances as it may deem necessary. (See also regulation 23.)

36. Upon completion of the period of training prescribed or any authorised extension thereof, each apprentice shall, if he has passed the final examination to the satisfaction of the examiners, be provided with a certificate to that effect by the Registrar. This certificate shall also be signed by the examiners.

Lost Time.

37. The employer shall pay the apprentice for all time lost through sickness or the holidays prescribed by this Award: Provided—

(a) payment for such sickness shall not exceed a total of two weeks in each year;

(b) where the time lost through sickness exceeds four consecutive working days, the employer may demand from the apprentice the production of a medical certificate and a further certificate or certificates may be required if any time is lost through sickness within seven days from the date of resumption of duty, the cost if any of such certificate or certificates not exceeding 5s. to be borne by the employer.

38. The employer shall pay the apprentice, in respect of time lost through compulsory military or naval training (but not exceeding two weeks in any year of service), the amount by which the wages prescribed by the industrial award for the trade, calling, craft, occupation or industry exceeds the amount received by the apprentice from the Department of Defence: Provided, however, that this clause shall not apply to military or naval training imposed through failure to attend compulsory parades.

All time lost by reason of compulsory military or naval training other than the additional training mentioned in the above proviso shall count as part of the apprenticeship.

39. When an apprentice is absent from work for any cause other than sickness or in pursuance of the provisions of these regulations, the employer shall be entitled to deduct from the wages of the apprentice an amount proportionate to the time so lost.

40. When an apprentice cannot be usefully employed because of a strike, the employer shall be relieved of his obligations under the apprenticeship agreement during the period of the strike.

Part-time Employment.

41. Where in any case an employer is temporarily unable to provide work to employ an apprentice for his full time, application may be made by the employer to the Court for permission—

- (b) to suspend the contract for such period and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

If the Court grants the application, holidays will be reduced pro rata.

Miscellaneous.

42. (1) The Registrar shall prepare and keep a roll of apprentices containing—

- (a) a record of all apprentices and probationers placed with employers;
- (b) a record of all employers with whom apprentices are placed;

(b) Where the employer is himself a journeyman regularly and usually working at the trade he shall be counted as a journeyman for the purpose of computing the number of apprentices allowed. In the case of a partnership each partner shall be deemed a journeyman for the purpose of this sub-clause.

(c) Where a business is in operation for less than 12 months the method of ascertaining the number shall be as agreed by the Union and the employer, or if no agreement is arrived at, as determined by the Court.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (1) hereof the Court may in any particular case—

- (a) In special circumstances permit the taking or employment of an apprentice by an employer notwithstanding that the quota fixed by the Award may be exceeded.
- (b) Refuse the registration of an agreement of apprenticeship or the taking of an apprentice in any case when in the opinion of the Court the circumstances are such that the apprentice is not likely to receive the instruction and training necessary to qualify him as a tradesman.

44. Every industrial inspector appointed in pursuance of the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1941, shall have the power to enter any premises, make such inspection of the premises, plant, machinery, or work upon which any apprentice is employed or could be employed, interview any apprentice or employee, examine any books or documents of the business relating to the wages and conditions of apprentices, interrogate the employer in regard to any of the abovementioned matters.

45. With a view to determining whether the number of apprentices being trained is sufficient to meet the future requirements of the industry in the matter of skilled artisans, the Registrar may require any employer to furnish him with any specified information relating to the said industry, or relating to the workers engaged therein.

46. In every application under clauses 15, 18, 19, 20, and 41 hereof, the Union of workers registered may intervene and make such representations at the hearing as it may deem necessary. Similarly, in the case of an application under clause 22, the employer may intervene and, in an application under clause 23, both the employer and the Union may intervene. Where such intervention is made, a representative or agent shall be appointed in the manner laid down by section 65 of the Act.
