Any worker who works on shift work other than the recognised day shift shall be paid for such shift at the following rates:—

- (a) Five per cent. (5%) in addition to the ordinary rate for afternoon shift.
- (b) Ten per cent. (10%) in addition to the ordinary rate for night shift.

10.—Overtime.

(b) All time worked on Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(c) When a worker without being notified the previous day is required to continue working after the usual knock-off time for more than one hour, he shall be provided with any meal required or shall be paid three shillings (3s.) in lieu thereof.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Award—

- (i) an employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement.
- (ii) no organisation party to this Award, or worker or workers covered by this Award, shall in any way, whether directly or indirectly be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause;
- (iii) this subclause shall remain in operation only until otherwise determined by the Court.

11.—Contract of Service.

(a) Except in the case of a casual worker, whose engagement shall be by the hour, the contract of hiring of every worker shall be weekly contract, terminable on either side by one (1) week's notice given on any day.

(b) Any worker not attending for duty shall lose his pay for the actual time of such non-attendance, subject to the provisions of clause 15 hereof, as to payment for absence on account of illness.

(b) All work performed on any of the foregoing days shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(c) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award, the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done, ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

14.—Annual Leave.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of 12 months' continuous service with such employer.

(b) If any award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(c) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment, or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default, or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage, may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the Union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for the employer at the proposed lesser rate.

24.—Part-Time Workers.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the employer shall be at liberty to employ part-time workers. Where any worker is employed under the provisions of this clause, wages as prescribed in clause 6, annual leave as prescribed in clause 14, and sick pay as prescribed in clause 15, shall be reduced proportionately.

25.—Breakdowns, etc.

The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day upon which the worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the Union or unions affiliated with it, or by any other association or union, or through the breakdown of the employer's machinery, or any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

26.—General Provisions.

(a) No female worker shall be permitted to lift or to carry weights in excess of thirty-five (35) lbs.

(c) The Union official exercising his right under this clause shall not interfere with or inconvenience the work and duties of the workers more than is absolutely necessary for the proper investigation of the breach or supposed breach of the Award.
