(f) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(g) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (e) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(e) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (c) hereof, a worker, who in any calendar year, has already been allowed paid sick leave on one occasion for one day only, or less, shall not be entitled to payment for any further absence of one day only or less, unless he produces to the employer a medical certificate stating that he was unable to attend for duty on account of personal ill-health.

(g) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to any worker by his employer as paid sick leave may be claimed by the worker and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by his employer in any subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year. (c) Proper facilities shall be provided by the employer for the employees to change their clothes.

(d) The employer shall provide a suitable place for employees to wash their hands.

25.—Union Official Visiting Factory.

An employer shall permit the secretary of the Union to enter the workroom during working hours to interview the father or clerk of the chapel, or individual members or to collect subscriptions, but shall not interview members severally in such a manner as to delay the working of the office.

(b) On the completion of his first three months' employment a probationer's work shall be reviewed by the Board of Examiners to ascertain if the probationer is likely to become a competent artist within the probationary period of four years.

(c) It will be competent for the Board of Examiners to assess any probationary artist at full proficiency marks at any period less than the four years' probationary term.

(d) The examiners shall be persons skilled in the industry and appointed by the Court. In the event of a disagreement between the examiners, the matter in dispute shall be referred to a third person agreed to by them or nominated by the Court or the President, at the request of any of the examiners, and the decision of such person shall be final and conclusive.

Such worker shall be credited with the period of his employment and shall be paid according to assessment made by the Board of Examiners in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this clause, but until such assessment is made he shall be paid the rate that he was receiving on the day prior to the coming into operation of this Award, or the basic wage, whichever is the higher.
